

Chapter 231 I See Daddy Kiss Mommy

Benjamin was laughing in anger.

He walked back to his position opposite her, picked up the cold coffee and slowly finished it.

After he finished, he put down the cup and laughed sarcastically.

"So, I should frequently visit your place to see the kid?

"Occasionally, when the weather is bad, should I stay over there?"

"Madelyn... You can control yourself. I'm afraid I can't control myself. If the news gets out that the CEO of Everest Group has kept in contact with his ex-wife all the time, it will affect my reputation and marriage!"

...

He was talking nonsense, and Madelyn was furious.

Damn it!

She didn't want to talk to him anymore. It was pointless anyway!

At this moment, the clock downstairs struck seven.

It was seven o'clock in the morning!

Benjamin checked the time and said to Madelyn. "You need to take a bath and change your clothes, then we'll take Everest to school together!"

His expression was somewhat tender. "She'll definitely be very happy!"

When it came to the child, Madelyn was mostly compliant.

She insisted on taking a bath in the guest room, but didn't think it was necessary to change her clothes. However, after taking the bath, she changed her mind.

Her period started.

There were faint traces of blood on her beige dress.

Madelyn stayed in the bathroom for a while, and Benjamin came to knock on the door. "Are you done, Madelyn? Everest will wake up in a while. She'll definitely be angry if she doesn't see you..."

It might even trigger her autism!

Madelyn was quite anxious.

She put on her original clothes and cracked the door open. Considering that they had been husband and wife before, it wasn't that hard to ask. "Do you have any sanitary pads here? And women's clothes?"

Benjamin's gaze was profound.

He looked at her up and down. Then he slowly said, "Why would I have such things here? I haven't had a woman in my life for these past years, let alone women's clothes."

Madelyn bit her lip. "I don't need your loyalty! How am I supposed to go out now?"

She was slightly lost in thought, and Everest kissed her.

It was soft and warm.

Madelyn really didn't want to leave her, she kissed her again and again, then picked up the little one.

"Let's go downstairs for breakfast."

She carried Everest downstairs.

Benjamin saw and frowned slightly, "Why don't you let her walk by herself?"

Everest, hugging Madelyn's neck and whispered, "Daddy is jealous of me!"

Benjamin chuckled, "When your mom and I were affectionate, you didn't even know where you were!"

"On the bed!" Everest grinned, "I saw everything last night! Dad kissed mom... Mom said no, but dad insisted mom had feelings!"

...

Madelyn wished she could find a hole in the ground to hide.

The servants in the house, those dusting vases and cleaning the floors, suddenly disappeared.

Benjamin coughed lightly, "Everest!"

Everest sat properly.

She was usually disciplined by Benjamin, so she was quite obedient. She didn't dare to stick to Madelyn and ask her mother to feed her during breakfast, but her eyes looked pitiful.

Madelyn felt sorry for her.

She couldn't help but say to Benjamin, "She's only four years old, there's no need for her to be so independent."

Benjamin said quite seriously: "She already eats by herself, washes her little clothes and socks, takes her own baths, there's no need to let her regress just because you're back."

Everest was digging into her rice, looking unhappy.

Madelyn didn't insist.

She stroked the little one's head, comforting her without words!

Everest was anxious, "Use your charm! For example, last night's situation, whatever mom says, dad will agree. If you kiss him again, he would even agree to get the moon for you!"

Madelyn didn't know her daughter's little thoughts.

After she finished breakfast, she went to find the laundry bag with the maid. But Benjamin calmly said, "I've washed your clothes for you, they've been dried and put here for the next wash."

Madelyn was surprised, her face burning.

Those were her period-stained clothes, and Benjamin washed them?

Everest, who was digging into her rice, suddenly jumped up!

Dad was so double standard!

"Mom is an adult, but dad is still willing to wash her clothes!"

Benjamin glared at her and continued reading the newspaper. "When you grow up, find a man to wash your clothes! If you can't find one, wash them yourself!"

Chapter 232 Not in a Relationship for Three Years

Everest was quite dejected.

But with mom and dad taking her to kindergarten together, she was happy again.

Benjamin drove himself.

In the back seat, Madelyn gently buckled Everest's seat belt. She couldn't help but touch her little head, her eyes simply did not want to move away.

Everest was especially proud.

She said she was such a lovely baby that everyone loved.

On the way, she stretched out her tender little finger and told Madelyn about her friends in kindergarten.

The friend she talked about most was Edward!

Madelyn listened very seriously. This was her first time becoming a mother, and after the experience of losing and regaining her child, her whole heart was occupied by Everest. Unavoidably, she neglected her ex-husband!

With his wife and daughter in the car, Benjamin focused on driving.

Only at red lights would he look at Madelyn in the rearview mirror.

She had her hair tied up today, a loose bun on her head, her side profile gentle and beautiful when she lowered her eyes. The sight of her slender, delicate neck was particularly appealing.

Benjamin watched her attentively.

When Madelyn raised her eyes inadvertently, she met his gaze in the rearview mirror. It was clearly the gaze of a man looking at a woman.

Her face felt somewhat hot and she was a bit annoyed.

Benjamin smiled lightly, with a slight hint of ambiguity.

As the green light came on, he gently stepped on the gas. Half an hour later, the car stopped in front of a private high-end kindergarten.

Benjamin got out of the car and went around to open the back door.

He looked at Madelyn with a particularly tender gaze.

Madelyn ignored his presence and unbuckled Everest's safety belt, then took her out of the car.

Everest was especially spirited today.

She held her mother's hand, then walked to her class queue. Looking at this little one, Madelyn waved her hand to her!

Madelyn was somewhat irritated, "Benjamin, that's not what I meant!"

...

"Then what do you mean?"

"Do you mean that we are both free to date, love, and sleep with other people?"

...

Madelyn didn't want to deal with him anymore!

She turned her face away, not saying anything more.

After these three years, Benjamin's temper had improved a lot. If it had been before and she had gone on a blind date, he would definitely have been overcome by jealousy and caused some trouble, but things were different now.

They were divorced.

Actually, what Madelyn said was right. They really shouldn't be interfering with each other.

But Benjamin still loved her!

Benjamin's tone softened a bit, "Alright! I'll cooperate!"

Madelyn was quite surprised.

She had actually already told her uncle that there was no possibility between her and Oscar, but Benjamin's words were really unreasonable. Did personal life mean going on blind dates, dating, and sleeping with others?

He backed down first, and Madelyn didn't want to make their relationship too tense either. After all, they still had to co-parent their child together.

She said softly, "In a few days, I want to take Everest to stay at my place for a while!"

Benjamin snubbed out his cigarette, smiling lightly, "Of course you can! You're her mother, you can take her to stay for as long as you want. But due to her special condition, it's best not to leave Gredax!"

Madelyn made a sound in agreement.

Benjamin drove the car into the hospital. When the car stopped in the parking lot, he called out to Madelyn.

"Give me your phone!"

Madelyn was a bit puzzled, but still handed over her phone. Benjamin lit another cigarette, held it in his lips, and then, using his phone as a reference, he recorded more than a dozen phone numbers into Madelyn's phone.

The phone number of a doctor from the lab and the phone number of a doctor from the emergency department.

The phone number of a psychiatrist and the phone number of a blood bank manager.

Then the phone numbers of kindergarten teachers and principals.

After inputting all the numbers, he handed the phone back to her. Madelyn stared, slightly lost in thought.

Benjamin said very gently, "Madelyn, for these past three years, I haven't had a personal life! Even the time I have to think of you is limited. Often when I think of you in the middle of the night, one phone call and I have to get dressed and rush to the lab, because Everest is there..."

Chapter 233 Just Introduce Him This Way: This Is My Ex-husband

Madelyn was stunned.

Benjamin spoke in a husky whisper: "I'm not saying this to win your sympathy, but to tell you that if you come back to be Everest's mother... you may be like me and have no private life!"

"So, do you still want to be Everest's mother now?"

...

These words made Madelyn inconsolable deep down.

How could she not want to be Everest's mother?

She stared at Benjamin, her chest heaving violently. She didn't know what to say at this moment.

Benjamin reached over and gently touched her face!

He knew she was feeling uneasy but he still had to tell her this, because it would be really exhausting to raise little Everest, and he was actually afraid that she would blame him.

At that time, if he didn't go to Monatz, maybe she was still sleeping upstairs.

Maybe Everest wouldn't be so weak when she was born!

Madelyn kept quiet for a long time, and she didn't push Benjamin away. At such times, as parents, they both needed some warmth from each other.

After a long time, Benjamin withdrew his hand and said softly, "Go upstairs! I have a meeting later and I will come back another day. You will pick up Everest in the afternoon, and I'll pick her back home later in the evening!"

Madelyn made a 'hm' voice.

Then she almost ran away, and even she herself didn't know what she was escaping from!

Was it Benjamin's tenderness, or the painful past...

Madelyn was obviously absent-minded!

When peeling fruit, She almost cut her finger.

Camila leaned on the hospital bed and smiled at her: "Put it down! If you continue like this, you will definitely cut your hands!"

Madelyn lowered her hand and called softly: "Mom!"

Camila called her over, holding her hand gently said: "I knew nothing about Everest until this year! Ben brought her to Vadiff and this little one shocked everyone. Your grandma cried for a long time, and Ben knelt on his knees all that night!"

Madelyn was satisfied with it. If she took her child with her, maybe Oscar would never run into her again!

Little Everest had an innocent expression on her face.

She took out a candy from her pink backpack and placed it in Oscar's hand and said softly, "Brother, you are really good-looking! I was supposed to give this candy to Edward, but now I'm giving it to you!"

Oscar was quite moved.

He touched little Everest's brown curly hair.

Everest was very obedient and quiet while Oscar touched her curly hair and said in a sweet voice, "Mom loves this candy too! Dad always tears off its wrapper and feeds it to Mom, and he treats Mom so well. He also washed Mom's clothes this morning!"

Oscar was speechless.

Madelyn also didn't know what to say.

Little Everest spoke softly, "Mom, Dad has come to pick us back home!"

Madelyn was stunned and looked out.

Sure enough, Benjamin's black Maybach car had stopped outside, and he was standing beside the car, staring at their side with a meaningful gaze, not looking good.

Madelyn guessed that was due to Oscar.

Oscar also noticed Benjamin.

Through a glass stood a particularly noble man with an excellent appearance. He was the kind of man that a woman would never forget for a lifetime if she once had a relationship with him.

Madelyn smiled apologetically at him and said, "Excuse me! We have to go."

Oscar realized he had no hope, but he didn't know why he had obsession and went out with her.

So the two men met face-to-face.

Madelyn was quite helpless.

She forced a smile and introduced them to each other, "This is Oscar, the son of my uncle's colleague."

At the moment of the fierce competition between the men, Benjamin paid no attention to his demeanor.

He was angry deep down and snorted, "Isn't he just a blind date?... Then you can also introduce me!"

Madelyn was so mad at Benjamin!

How childish he was!

But she smiled slightly and said to Oscar, "This is my ex-husband."

Benjamin didn't look angry but even nodded, "Yes! We are a divorced couple."

He put little Everest on the car, turned back and said very gently, "I'll take her back first. You'll come and pick her up tomorrow morning!... By the way, I washed the clothes you got dirty last night and put them in the guest bedroom."

Chapter 234 On Valentine's Day, He Brought Her A Gift

Benjamin spoke ambiguously on purpose.

Madelyn found it ridiculous and infuriating.

He took a fond look at her, nodded reservedly towards Oscar, and got in the car.

Little Everest sat by the window and said word by word silently: You are dead!

Her dad was so vindictive!

Standing in the night, Madelyn watched the expensive car drive away slowly. She shook her head lightly: getting along with Benjamin was more tiring than taking care of children!

Oscar took the hint.

He looked down at the candy in his palm, realizing that he had no chance, not only because of Benjamin but also because of that child.

Such a small child was too smart!

She should address him brother, and in this way, she made his and Madelyn's seniority different!

Madelyn came back to her senses and smiled apologetically at him.

Oscar also smiled. He looked at the direction the car left, and after deliberating for a long time, he asked softly, "You...you still love him, don't you?"

Benjamin took little Everest back.

Back at the villa, the little guy went to take a bath, and Benjamin just sat quietly on the sofa, immersed in thought.

Although he knew that Madelyn and Oscar were impossible to have a relationship, he was still so jealous!

He couldn't help it and took his phone to send Madelyn a message [Ms. Green, I didn't know you like younger men now. Young and inexperienced men...can they satisfy you?]

On the other side, Madelyn stared at the message for a long time and finally made it sure that it was from Benjamin.

In the past three years, he must have endured his desire to the point of abnormality!

Madelyn didn't want to spoil him, so she directly replied [Thank you for your concern, I will try!]

After reading it, Benjamin threw the phone away.

They were mad at each other

After taking a shower, little Everest came out in her one-piece pajamas.

She rolled into Benjamin's arms.

Benjamin restrained his emotions and wiped the little guy's hair. The little guy was about to fall asleep out of comfort, but she still didn't forget to comfort her father: "Mom won't like that Uncle Gavin!"

Benjamin was overjoyed but pretended not to care. "Why?"

Everest yawned: "Mom is so good-looking, it's normal that someone would like her! Just like me... there are so many children who like me in the kindergarten, I can't even count them!"

Madelyn kissed the little guy and said gently, "Your father should have his own private life."

"Oh." was all little Everest said.

She nestled down on the sofa, feeling a bit disheartened. She not only wanted her mother, but also wanted to live with her parents like other children did.

Madelyn noticed that the little guy was unhappy.

She touched the little guy's little head and said, "Everest, there are some things you won't understand until you grow up."

Little Everest responded.

She knew that her mother loved her very much, and she also knew that if she played coquettish and cried again, her mother might be with her father. But Little Everest also liked her.

She couldn't do that...

The little guy hadn't been in high spirits all night.

At ten o'clock in the evening, Benjamin returned to Gredax early and went directly to Madelyn's place. Madelyn's apartment occupied 180 square meters and was beautifully decorated.

When Benjamin arrived, Little Everest had already fallen asleep.

Benjamin lightly lowered his suitcase, took off his coat, and naturally asked Madelyn, "She already fell asleep?"

Madelyn made a "hm" voice.

Benjamin walked into the bedroom and placed the teddy bear he had brought back from Gartown on the little guy's pillow. She could see it when she woke up next day. When he was doing this, indescribable tenderness appeared on his expression.

Madelyn was quietly watching at the door.

Benjamin sat by the bed for a long time, and when he got up, he saw her gaze and chuckled softly, "Are you jealous?"

Without waiting for Madelyn to speak, he took out a box from his pants pocket and said, "Here you are!"

Madelyn opened it and found that it was not a very precious item inside, but a pair of chic pearl earrings.

Such a small gift commonly appeared in occasions like when husband was back from a business trip, he specially brought it to his wife.

Madelyn hesitated a bit.

Benjamin lowered his voice and said, "They look pretty on you!"

Madelyn picked it up and walked to the kitchen, "Let me make you a cup of coffee!"

Benjamin guessed that she had something to talk about.

Madelyn made him a cup of coffee and as he was drinking, she spoke softly, "She seems a bit unhappy because of our separation."

Benjamin remained silent.

He knew much more about little Everest's condition than Madelyn.

After a long silence, Benjamin finally opened his mouth and said with a hint of gentleness: "It's okay, I'll coax her later!"

Madelyn agreed.

Benjamin put down his Coffee cup and said softly, "Madelyn, we haven't talked so calmly for a long time!"

Chapter 235 It Turned Out That Benjamin Could Also Be Vulnerable!

Madelyn was stunned.

Then she smiled faintly and said, "Of course, it's different when we have a child! We can't argue so much like before."

When she spoke, her expression was gentle and peaceful.

Benjamin was fond of the way she spoke, and now Madelyn was alone with him in the middle of the night, with their child sleeping next door.

He couldn't help but be tempted.

He looked at her with a pure male's gaze at a female.

Madelyn noticed his gaze.

She calmly brought the topic back and said, "You and Everest should talk these days! It's getting late..."

Her intention was to ask him to come back tomorrow morning to pick up the child.

Benjamin raised his wrist and checked the time.

He looked at Madelyn and realized that she didn't really mean to keep him overnight though he really wanted to. So he whispered, "I'm quite tired. There's an important meeting tomorrow morning! I'll sleep in the guest room and I won't disturb you!"

Madelyn agreed.

She took him to the guest room, but she didn't go in herself.

Benjamin threw his coat at the end of the bed and when he turned around, he noticed that she hadn't come in. He smiled and said, "What's wrong, you're afraid of me?"

Madelyn avoided answering him, "I'll get you some toiletries!"

Benjamin didn't speak, just looked at her.

When Madelyn left, he sat at the end of the bed, gently loosened his tie...

He was upset and felt in his western-style coat, but instead of feeling the cigarettes, he found a hard small box. It was the gift he bought for her from Gartown.

Madelyn didn't take it.

Benjamin held the small box with a meaningful gaze.

When Madelyn came in again, Benjamin was sitting at the end of the bed, smoking.

With one hand supporting himself on the bed and another holding a cigarette, his delicate angular face was looking up, which made him look very manly... Seeing Madelyn come in, his black eyes squinted.

"Do you have a Razor?"

Madelyn whispered, "I don't have this!"

He slowly exhaled a mouthful of smoke and reached out, "Give them to me!"

Without any doubt, Madelyn handed him the toiletries, but Benjamin did not take them. Instead, he grabbed her slender wrist and gently pulled it, causing Madelyn to fall directly onto the bed.

Then, his fiery body pressed on her...

Madelyn wiped away her tears, but more tears fell...

She felt very guilty. She didn't know how many times had Everest been isolated in her own world. The only one who could accompany her was Benjamin, but Madelyn knew nothing about it while healing herself in Oriapool.

Madelyn gently closed her eyes.

Benjamin didn't disturb her, he knew she needed to digest...

He waited for a long long time...

When she calmed down, he gently grasped her hand and said, "Madelyn, it's not your fault!"

In the afternoon, Madelyn received a call from Benjamin.

His tone was very peaceful: "Madelyn, come to the villa!"

Madelyn was pouring coffee at that time. When she heard the words, her hand trembled. The hot coffee accidentally poured onto the back of her hand, and her hand immediately turned red. She couldn't even care about it and immediately took a taxi to Benjamin's villa.

The atmosphere in the villa was very oppressive.

The servants walked cautiously because after little Evie came back from kindergarten, she refused to speak again. She hid in the cabinet for a long time and the gentleman came back from the company to accompany her for a long time.

Madelyn came over and the servant whispered, "Sir and little Evie are upstairs!"

Madelyn quickly walked upstairs.

When she pushed open the door of the children's room, she saw a little Everest hiding in the pink wardrobe, holding the little bear silently.

Benjamin was dressed in formal attire, slightly arched and also sitting in the small cabinet. He had a fairy tale book in his hand and was reading it softly to little Everest.

Even when Madelyn came in, he only gave her a glance before continuing to read the fairy tale that he had read thousands of times.

This scene had a great impact on Madelyn!

At this moment, she realized how much Benjamin had paid in the past few years!

No matter how much emotional entanglement or grudges she had with him in the past, she was the mother of little Everest and she couldn't leave at her like this without doing anything!

If she could... she must be too selfish!

Madelyn walked slowly over and took off her shoes. She whispered, "The wardrobe is too small for you, let me accompany her!"

Benjamin's dark eyes focused on her. After a moment, he handed her the fairy tale book in his hand and crawled out of the cabinet.

Madelyn sat next to little Everest.

She couldn't help but kiss the little guy and then started reading her fairy tales.

But as she spoke, her voice trembled!

Benjamin walked outside, stood in the hallway and lit a cigarette. He took a few strong puffs... In fact, he could have avoided calling Madelyn today, but probably because he had experienced her gentleness, he didn't want to be alone anymore.

It was not until Madelyn appeared just now that he realized how much he needed her.

Not only because of love, but also because this person was actually the sustenance of all his emotions over the years.

Everest was a rib pulled out of Madelyn's body.

As much as he loved Everest, so much as he loved Madelyn...

Chapter 236 Madelyn, I Want To Please You!

At nine o'clock in the evening, little Everest was finally willing to come out.

She had two bowls of rice.

Madelyn was particularly willing to spoil her today. She personally took a bath for her, dried her hair, and read her bedtime stories. Knowing that Madelyn was staying overnight, little Everest fell asleep happily.

Madelyn dimmed the bedside lamp and walked out lightly.

She wanted to talk to Benjamin and took some time to find him in the study. He sat quietly in the dark space without smoking.

"Benjamin! "Madelyn called his name.

He seemed startled, then stood up and walked towards her, closing the door with one hand and saying, 'Is she asleep?'

Madelyn nodded as she was about to speak to him when she was hugged by him.

Benjamin pushed her against the door panel.

He used a bit of strength, and Madelyn's back hurt a bit from being hit. However, she noticed that he was not in the right mood, so she held back and said softly, "Let's talk!"

He let out an absent-minded hum.

Subsequently, he slowly lowered his head and buried his face in her neck... After a long time, Madelyn felt a little wet and uncomfortable.

But she didn't push him away!

At this moment, she realized that he was not invincible.

Not only did she but he pay an incalculable price for his trip to Monatz.

Perhaps it was because of empathy, or perhaps they were raising a child together, at this moment, she was somewhat moved, and her hand gently placed behind his neck and gave him some gentle stroke.

Benjamin's body stiffened a little bit.

He raised his eyes and looked at her in the darkness, his black eyes were impenetrable.

In the dim light, they couldn't see each other clearly, but this kind of atmosphere was the best. Finally, he couldn't help but lower his head and kiss her lips.

That soft touch was very green and unripe.

After touching her lips, he breathed a little more hotly.

Madelyn's body was tightly pressed against the door behind her, and she stared at him helplessly. She was actually here to talk about Little Everest.

Benjamin touched her lips again.

The lips with the smell of tobacco pressed hers, and his kiss was heavier little by little.

He always had a strong desire!

But at this moment, he couldn't bear to do that. He kissed her carefully and cherished her, deeply and shallowly testing her, making her comfortable...

His heart was about to break free from his chest.

The long lost, asexual green urge to kiss well once again befell him.

He kissed her for a long time.

Maybe half an hour, maybe two or three hours.

He just pressed her on the door panel and used various methods to please her..

kiss, do you think we need to play? We... don't you want to have me again?"

If it weren't for treating the child's illness, his words would be far from this conservative!

Madelyn had her own considerations.

They had a slight accident last night, and she admitted that kissing like that was very heartwarming.

But the attraction between them was largely due to Everest, it was because they both need comfort, and in such emotions, it was easy to develop affections.

She had made repeated mistakes and didn't want to be so hasty.

Madelyn whispered, "Benjamin, I can only give these for now! If you're not willing to..."

"I am willing to!"

He spoke softly again, "I do!"

How could he not be willing? She finally let go and was willing to have further contact with him, rather than living separately...

After the treatment.

Benjamin had an important meeting. When he got into the car, he looked in the rearview mirror and said to Madelyn, "You can come to my company with Everest together."

Madelyn hesitated for a moment.

Little Everest looked at her eagerly and said, "The muffins dad's company are particularly delicious!"

Madelyn immediately agreed.

Benjamin lightly stepped on the gas pedal and chuckled, "Everest, your power is stronger than Dad's ass!"

Little Everest leaned comfortably against Madelyn, slightly raising her small brown curly hair. "Dad, why you compare my power to your ass? Why not compare my power with yours?"

Benjamin fell into silence.

Madelyn was speechless too.

For a long time, Benjamin whispered, "So don't worry too much! She's very smart and cute!"

Benjamin was driving while talking to Madelyn about Everest's situation, just like an ordinary husband.

Madelyn hadn't quite adapted to this atmosphere yet.

Benjamin stopped the car, unbuttoned his seat belt, and whispered, "Come home with me on Saturday!"

Madelyn did not refuse again.

She had to play the role of husband and wife with Benjamin, so in various occasions, she must act as his wife... She didn't know if she made this decision hastily, but she didn't regret it.

Benjamin took them to the company.

The entire Everest Group was about to explode.

Mr. Clark had returned, it seemed that they were preparing to get back together!

Benjamin arrived at the top floor with the two. Paisley was already waiting at the elevator entrance, and the smile almost froze on her face: The CEO seemed to be on the verge of success in winning his wife's heart back! But...

Paisley welcomed them as she walked and she said with a smile: "Jasmine has arrived at the company and is waiting for you to sign the contract!"

Benjamin frowned and said, "Isn't the spokesperson signed by the vice president?"

Paisley coughed lightly and said, "Ms. Stetson is quite persistent!"

Madelyn was not stupid!

She guessed that Ms. Stetson was the female star of the last media report, the one standing with Benjamin to celebrate. Obviously she was pinning after Benjamin.

Benjamin looked at Madelyn and knew what she was thinking about!

He told Paisley, "Ask Ms. Stetson to come here and bring in some more small dessert."

Paisley left with a smile on her face.

Benjamin held little Everest in his arms and made her sit on the sofa, then smiled faintly at Madelyn and said, "I don't know her! But if you're not happy for this, I'll show you... I'll also prove my innocence!"

Chapter 237 She Was Actually Mr. Clark's Wife!

Madelyn did not trust him.

She snorted softly, "I'm not unhappy! That's your private life."

Benjamin chuckled lightly and said, "She has nothing to do with my private life, but you and Everest do!"

He looked at little Everest and asked, "Is Dad right?"

Little Everest climbed onto her father's lap and looked at Madelyn with the same gaze as looking at a 'heartless man'.

Madelyn had nothing to say.

During the break of their conversation, Paisley came in.

She carried a tray with little Everest's favorite muffins and some small dessert.

Behind her was a tall female star, Jasmine.

Jasmine was a highly confident woman.

She had won big awards for her wonderful acting skills and could be considered a self righteous figure in the industry.

That day in Gartown, she missed out on Benjamin, so she came to sign a formal contract with him today. She didn't want to miss the opportunity again.

Paisley made a gesture and said, "Ms. Stetson, please take a seat!"

Jasmine smiled slightly and when she was about to sit down, her gaze froze.

A person had already sat on the sofa.

it was a very good-looking woman, young and with a good temperament. Unlike the skinny female celebrities in the entertainment industry, she was just right. She was slim but buxom at the same time.

Jasmine's heart tightened.

'Is this Mr. Clark's lover?'

When she hesitated, the little guy on Benjamin's leg climbed down, took Paisley's hand and sat down at the small round table to eat dessert.

Little Everest ate a piece and then spoke softly, "Ms. Green, please accompany me to eat!"

The others left, Benjamin walked into the lounge.

Little Everest fell asleep.

Madelyn lay beside her, holding her head and stretching out her slender fingers to depict little Everest's small face with a focused and gentle expression.

Benjamin couldn't help but take off his shoes and lay behind Madelyn.

He put one hand around her slender waist and whispered, "I really didn't flirt with her!"

Madelyn actually knew.

If he had an intention, he would have plenty of opportunities in Gartown.

However, she didn't want to inquire about his private affairs, as there was nothing else between them now except for Everest.

She remained silent.

He also understood her meaning, and he was always a bit unhappy that she didn't care!

He deliberately flirt with her, placed his big palm on her slender waist and gently slid one it. He even leaned over to gently bite behind her delicate ear, saying, "Madelyn, you really know how to make me angry!"

Madelyn reminded him, "Benjamin, don't wake Everest up!"

Benjamin rarely had such a perfect opportunity. He lifted the quilt and covered them both and his palm couldn't help but stroke her back and forth...

Little Everest secretly opened her eyes a little.

Then, the little guy rolled over and snored...

Madelyn was startled.

She grabbed Benjamin's hand and looked at him silently.

Benjamin entwined his fingers with hers. He leaned close to her forehead and whispered, "I really want to! Madelyn, I don't believe you haven't thought about me in these years. Even if you don't, you will still miss my..."

Madelyn kicked him.

Her voice was hoarse, "Aren't you going to work?"

He reluctantly rubbed against the back of her neck before getting out of bed.

After he left, Madelyn held little Everest in her arms and kissed her, closing her eyes--

Benjamin always wanted to have sex with her, as long as there was a chance, he will take advantage of it! Madelyn was not a very conservative person, but besides not letting go of past events, she was afraid of getting pregnant.

The pain of giving birth to Everest still existed deeply in her body's memory.

Chapter 238 William Got Blood Cancer!

It was six o'clock in the evening.

Benjamin returned home with his wife and daughter.

Little Everest was tired from playing, so Benjamin hugged her directly, Madelyn followed him gently.

The employees of the Everest Group in the lobby on the first floor were quite curious.

The CEO had such a gentle expression!

Arriving the parking lot, Benjamin placed the little guy in the children's seat and then stood up to block the roof, allowing Madelyn to get on the car.

When Madelyn got into the car, he touched her shoulder.

"What's the matter?" Madelyn was confused.

Benjamin stared at her, his voice incredibly gentle: "Tomorrow I have to work overtime, you and Everest come and accompany me!"

Madelyn knew his thoughts.

She pondered and said, "In the morning, I'll take Everest to visit my mother. We'll come in the afternoon!"

Benjamin remained silent.

She thought he was unhappy, but he hugged her slender waist and leaned over at the bustling door of Everest Group to imprint a kiss on her lips.

Madelyn licked her lower lip and said, "Don't kiss me casually!"

Benjamin's gaze was soulful.

For a long time, he smiled and said, "Get in the car, I'll smoke!"

He never smoked in front of Little Everest, but now his desire came up.

Madelyn did not object and got on the car first.

Benjamin lowered his head and lit a cigarette, but after only smoking halfway, he pinched it out and opened the car door to get into the car.

The black Maybach slowly drove away...

In the parking lot, there was a beautiful looking woman sitting in a white BMW. It was exactly Eleanor.

She stared gloomily at Benjamin's rear end.

Madelyn was back!

That child was still living well and her family of three looked really happy!

Eleanor's beautiful face was twisted and deformed, and the knuckles of her fingers holding the steering wheel turned white.

She hated it so much!

When the car stopped, he leaned over and whispered, "Move the things over another day so you don't have to run back and forth."

Madelyn nodded and prepared to bring some laundry changes over.

Benjamin's slender fingers gently caressed the steering wheel and said, "When will I get our certificate?"

Get a certificate?

Madelyn looked at little Everest and whispered, "Our relationship, including getting a certificate?"

Benjamin smiled and said, "If you don't want to get a certificate with me, who are you planning to get it with?"

Madelyn was not fooled.

She gently opened the car door and wanted to pick little Everest off the car.

Benjamin spoke softly, "I'll do it."

Madelyn didn't object, little Everest was not light, and it was indeed quite difficult for her to hold her.

Benjamin had just hugged her when little Everest woke up. She opened her hazy eyes but didn't have any strength on her body, so she just lay soft on Benjamin.

Madelyn pulled her little finger.

Her heart was filled with warmth, but this warmth vanished immediately when she saw the piano in the hall.

She looked at Benjamin.

Benjamin said seriously, "Isn't Everest going to learn the piano? This piano was wasted in the apartment. It's a good idea to move it over so that you can teach her at night!"

Madelyn was both shy and angry: 'Is this the point?'

Benjamin put down little Everest and patted her little head, letting her play on her own.

After the little guy left, he didn't hesitate to ask back shamelessly, "Do you remember that we made love on this before?... Everest doesn't know about it!"

Madelyn glared at him.

She felt that she couldn't please him anymore.

Madelyn had ordered a piano right now, and as for this one, it should be placed at its former place!

After finishing all this, she felt a little more comfortable in her heart.

But now little Everest climbed onto the piano stool, sat straight, and began to play.

Madelyn was at a loss of words.

Benjamin smiled lightly and leaned over to her ear, saying, "A few days ago, I took her to the apartment. She played it already! What's wrong?... You're shy?"

Madelyn knew he meant it.

She didn't continue the topic and sat next to little Everest and taught her gently.

Little Everest had very high aptitude, and she was learning from her mom.

Madelyn rubbed her small head and temporarily forgave the child's father.

At night, when she finished coaxing little Everest, she couldn't help but think of something.

Eloise!

Madelyn walked out lightly and called in the living room, "Uncle, I have something to ask you for help!"

Chapter 239 He and She, Just a Night of Passion

Late at night, Kenneth was in Vadiff, slightly tipsy and leaning against the sofa after socializing.

A servant brought him a sobering coffee.

He waved his hand to indicate that it wasn't needed, and the servant tactfully retreated.

Kenneth's voice was gentle as he asked, "What's wrong? Did that jerk bully you?"

Madelyn shook her head, saying, "No! I have something I want to ask Uncle for help with... Well, it's about Eloise! Benjamin told me she ran away two years ago and hasn't come home. I want to ask Uncle to keep an eye out for her."

Before she finished speaking, Kenneth sat up lightly.

He unbuttoned two buttons on his shirt, speaking softly into the night, "She hasn't been home for two years?"

Madelyn responded with an affirmative sound.

Kenneth fell silent, and from the other end of the phone came his heavy breathing. After a while, Kenneth spoke softly, "I happen to be on a business trip to Gredax tomorrow. Come and see little Everest!"

Madelyn asked in surprise, "What a coincidence?"

But Kenneth had already hung up the phone, otherwise... he would lose control!

The night grew thick.

Some memories he had tried hard to forget surfaced in his mind. He closed his eyes, as if he could still hear a tender voice.

"Uncle Ryan, please don't be mad at my brother."

"Uncle Ryan... Will little Everest be okay?"

"Uncle Ryan, you're drunk! Please stop drinking... Mmm... Uncle Ryan..."

...

Kenneth's face turned red from the alcohol, reminiscent of that night of loss of control.

That night, he pressed down a girl 16 years younger than him, possessing her as if he had gone mad.

She cried in his arms, calling him "Uncle Ryan!"

But it didn't awaken the beast within him.

That night, he hurt her.

The night grew even darker.

Kenneth quietly lit a cigarette.

He knew that with his position, it would be best not to get involved with that person anymore. He couldn't give her a future, and besides, he was 16 years older than her!

But she did have a relationship with him after all, and she was so heartbroken when she left.

He always wanted to know that she was safe.

Kenneth considered himself tough as iron, but those six months of being together, and the sound of "Uncle Ryan" softened his heart...

"Why not? We've slept together so many times, got married, and even have a child together!"

He was just being unreasonable!

After being sexually harassed by him several times, Madelyn sincerely suggested, "Maybe you should see a therapist! I'm afraid you're becoming disturbed!"

Benjamin took the hint.

He kissed her on the side of her face and said, "I'm going to take a shower!"

But as soon as he left the kitchen, a servant quietly informed him, "Mrs. Clark has arrived! She wants to see Madam."

Benjamin frowned.

He rolled up his shirt sleeves slightly and instructed the servant, "I'll go and check! Don't tell Madam."

The servant nodded quickly.

Benjamin lit a cigarette and walked slowly towards the mansion's entrance.

He had heard about William's illness from his father to some extent, and since his father hadn't said anything, he naturally wouldn't tell Madelyn...

As he reached the door, William hurriedly approached him, saying, "Ben!"

Benjamin exhaled a smoke ring leisurely and smiled faintly, "I would still call you Mr. Bennett! But don't come here again, and don't look for Madelyn either!"

William looked crestfallen.

He lifted his eyes slightly and said calmly, "I didn't come to ask for Madelyn's bone, I just wanted to see her!"

He held a gift in his hand.

Some were for Madelyn, and some were for little Everest.

Benjamin glanced over them lightly and smiled even more faintly, "If you don't want her bone, then why did you come to see her at this time?"

William's face stiffened, and he struggled to say, "I didn't think it through!"

Benjamin no longer had much respect for him.

On one hand, it was because of Madelyn, and on the other hand, the Clark family confirmed that it was Eleanor who pushed Eloise into the water all those years ago. The Bennett couple actually knew about it, but they had been using this favor to manipulate the Clark family for years!

Benjamin directly expelled William, saying, "Don't come here again! I don't want Madelyn to be hurt anymore!"

William wanted to plead further, but Benjamin remained unmoved and turned away.

As the iron gate closed, separating William outside, he held not only gifts but also a journal filled with beautiful memories between him and Madeline. Benjamin intended to keep it from Madelyn.

However, as soon as he returned to the kitchen, Madelyn spoke softly, "Did William come?"

Benjamin didn't expect her to know.

Madelyn smiled faintly and said, "My mother told me. She's with him in a hospital! Benjamin, you don't have to worry about me being a match for him because when I was 20 years old, I had already considered donating bone marrow to those in need. My information is already in the bone marrow registry, and we're not compatible at all!"

So Madelyn didn't have these worries.

After Madelyn finished speaking, Benjamin suddenly hugged her, surprising her. "Benjamin?" she said.

In a soft voice, barely audible, Benjamin whispered in her ear, "Madelyn, from now on, tell me about these things, okay? Tell me everything, just like an ordinary married couple. Let's share everything together!"

Madelyn pushed him away and continued cooking.

She said calmly, "Is that so? You didn't tell me about that female celebrity either!"

Before she could finish speaking, he lifted her onto the kitchen counter, gripping the back of her head firmly, and kissed her forcefully...

Chapter 240 Mom and Dad are Dating!

Madelyn endured him.

This kiss came unexpectedly, yet too rough. She hesitated, not wanting to add fuel to the fire.

Benjamin kissed her lips, then moved to her neck and whispered in her ear, his voice husky. "Madelyn, deep down you do care, don't you? You still have feelings for me, but you haven't let go... is that right?"

Madelyn supported herself with her hands on his shoulders.

This posture was truly embarrassing.

She calmed herself and spoke to him gently, "Let me down! If you keep doing this, the household staff will talk. How can I face them in the future? Besides, we're not really a couple!"

Everest was too young to understand, but the household staff couldn't be oblivious.

Benjamin teasingly bit her and said, "They're all older people, they can understand! Besides, reconciling after a divorce has its own process. We're in that process now, and it's normal for dating to involve more than just talking. Showing affection is also perfectly normal!"

Madelyn focused her gaze on him.

Benjamin's voice became hoarse and inaudible, "Why are you staring at me like that? If you truly feel sorry for me, then help me..."

Madelyn glanced downward.

She lightly brushed it off and said, "You may not be a lawyer anymore, but your way with words hasn't diminished."

Benjamin chuckled softly.

He carried her down and let her go cook, while he stayed behind for a while before leaving.

Benjamin departed.

Madelyn's mood was somewhat chaotic.

Actually, she had wanted to ask him just now why he left the legal profession.

But the words stuck in her throat. She believed that Benjamin understood her intention, but neither of them broached the topic...

Madelyn also admitted that she had feelings for him.

She was a mature woman, and not unfeeling. If she didn't have any feelings, then there would be a problem!

However, it was happening too fast!

They had dated off and on in the past, and if she easily got involved with him again, it could lead to unpleasant consequences in the future, affecting Everest...

Madelyn's emotions were slightly turbulent.

Dinner was tasteless, but when she faced little Everest, her heart was filled with tenderness.

At night, she leaned against the bedside, soothing Everest to sleep.

The little one curled up in her arms, eyes closed.

Madelyn gently read the fairy tale "Cinderella" to him.

Everest squinted his eyes open a little bit and said, "Daddy said last time that he is Mommy's prince!"

Madelyn coughed softly.

Benjamin was shameless!

Everest let out a satisfied sigh and said, "Princes and princesses always get married in the end!"

Madelyn looked at her soft little face and lovingly kissed her.

Everest snored softly.

Madelyn thought she was about to fall asleep, so she put down the fairy tale book and prepared to sleep as well. However, Everest suddenly asked, "How about Mommy and Daddy?"

Madelyn hugged him and gently said, "Mommy and Daddy are dating!"

Everest held onto her tightly.

He truly desired her, but little Everest was nearby.

He didn't dare to get carried away. His fingers slipped into her silk nightgown, teasing her to make her comfortable... This situation was really attractive. Madelyn couldn't resist biting his shoulder and said, "Benjamin, stop!"

He gently coaxed her, "Feeling shy? Be good... Don't make a sound!"

Madelyn blushed and her heart raced.

Within the curve of her neck was a drop of sweat from Benjamin...

His alluring Adam's apple rolled as he suppressed himself!

But after suppressing it for years, the woman he desired was beneath him in such a vulnerable state. If he continued to hold back, he wouldn't be a man anymore.

Benjamin leaned against Madelyn's ear, unable to bear it, and softly coaxed, "Is it okay?"

Madelyn also felt it.

She was a mature woman with needs. If it were under normal circumstances, it would be fine, but now that she was provoked by him like this... However, she still restrained herself and whispered, "No."

She was afraid, afraid of getting pregnant...

Benjamin guessed her thoughts and reached over to the bedside table, where there was a new little box.

He opened it with one hand, feeling somewhat unfamiliar...

Madelyn grabbed his hand, her voice trembling, "Benjamin!"

He gazed deeply into her eyes, exuding the unique charm of a mature man!

Madelyn could hardly hold on any longer.

Benjamin couldn't resist anymore. He was about to completely indulge himself and embark on a long-lost passion... Little Everest turned over and sat up straight, saying, "Daddy, I need to go to the bathroom!"

Benjamin's body stiffened.

He rolled over and lay beside her, all the passionate thoughts dissipating!

Madelyn was the same.

Blushing, she adjusted her nightgown and wanted to get out of bed.

Benjamin reached out and hooked her waist, his voice hoarse as he said, "She usually goes to the bathroom by herself, but she slept less last night and is a bit clingy right now!"

He explained so much, but actually he wanted to keep her.

Although there's nothing more to do afterwards, Madelyn's current demeanor is very gentle and obedient, something he hasn't seen in a long time.

He wants her lying on his bed.

Madelyn didn't leave because her current state is not suitable for going out either.

In case the servants see...

Benjamin guessed her thoughts and whispered, "Just sleep a little longer!"

After saying that, he got up and took little Everest to the bathroom in his arms.

Little Everest let go of his hand, fixed her clothes by herself, and then ran outside and snuggled into Benjamin's arms, acting spoiled for a while!

Benjamin kissed her and said, "Brush your teeth and wash your face by yourself!"

Little Everest is capable of taking care of herself. She ran back to the children's room, which had been repaired by workers at this point.

Benjamin sat on the edge of the bed.

Madelyn sat up and leaned against the headboard, gazing at him.

He did the same.

After things that just happened, they both had some inexplicable meaning in their eyes just now, somewhat ambiguous. But now they were parents of children after all, so they can no longer act as they did before, without regard to time.

Benjamin had something to say.

He looked at Madelyn and whispered, "Next week is the company's anniversary celebration. Will you accompany me?"

Madelyn was taken aback.

Of course, she knew the significance behind it. She said softly, "I'll consider it!"

Benjamin said gently, "For Everest's psychological well-being! Madelyn, please consider it!"

Madelyn stared at him.

She said sincerely, "I'm afraid when Everest gets better, your mental health will have problem!"

Benjamin chuckled softly, "Are you worried about me?"
