

Chapter 232

In the early morning, tea vegetable City, under the blue sky, the city wrapped in silver is particularly beautiful. The clear sky is as deep as sapphire. Zhang Fan worked the night shift and didn't rest. The advantage of anorectal department is that there are fewer emergency departments than other departments. The doctor on duty can sleep at night.

Today, Zhang Fan drove his car and took his girlfriend and sister to the plane with a worried mood. Because there was no tour group to Thailand in chasu City, they had to go to the bird market, so they had to go to the bird market first, and then they could follow the group.

"Don't talk to strangers on the road, don't eat other people's food, and don't conflict with others. If there is any problem, first find a way to take a taxi to the embassy ~!" Zhang Fan kept on talking. He had to say that he was really worried, because he had never been out since he was born under the red flag, and he didn't know what kind of world it was outside. People are like this. They always have their own fantasy fear and worry about the unknown environment and strange environment.

"Moreover, Jing Shu must listen to your sister-in-law and can't be capricious."

"Brother, I know." Jing Shu is helpless. She and Shaohua look at each other and can see each other's helplessness from each other's eyes. Shaohua found Zhang Fan so wordy for the first time.

"Did your brother do the same before?" Shaohua and Jingshu sit in the back and talk quietly.

"No, it's this time that I think my brother is a little bored. Has he entered menopause. That sister-in-law is unlucky for you~ Ha ha! "

"What are you laughing at? We'll be at the airport soon. Let's see what we didn't bring, wallets, certificates and so on. " Finally the two flew away, and Zhang Fan's heart hung up. He hates such uncontrollable things.

The winter vacation is over, and the Chinese New Year is coming soon. Working people and students studying abroad have also come back. There are more people on the street. Wang Yanan's results of their current practicing doctors have also come down. The doctor's examination in the hospital is good, only three people have failed, and Wang Yanan has scored more than 400 points.

Although her achievements are not as good as Zhang Fan's, they are good, which makes the proud girl raise her beautiful little face. If there is only one man in the group of women, the life of this man is really difficult.

Among a group of men, if there is a girl who still looks good and has a good family background, it's great. Whether married or not, men will spoil the girl obviously or hidden. If the girl is a person again, it's comfortable.

Wang Yanan is in this situation now. With the increase of working hours and experience, his delicate character has gradually converged a lot. He has a sweet mouth. Brother Xue, brother Wang and teacher Li's bones are almost crispy. Although the operation is still robbing, the first Department of orthopedics has accepted her. And young male doctors take good care of her, which makes Wang Yanan feel like the deputy director of the first Department of orthopedics.

Zhao Zipeng estimated that it was too early to fall in love. He didn't put all his mind on the review. He passed the test reluctantly, but the score was a little low, so the young man is worried now, because this score is still very important for the division of subjects. It represents how you study in college.

The second month after the results came out, Zhao Zipeng entered the anorectal department. The young man is depressed. He has been transferred to several departments. No director is willing to take him in. Moreover, now a large number of graduate students enter the hospital, and his pressure is increasing.

"Brother, who am I following?" He had dinner with Zhang Fan several times, and Li Liang was there. He also called brother Zhang Fan with Li Liang.

"What's the matter? You look listless. Did you quarrel with your little object? " Zhang Fan looked curiously at the young man who had been in love since junior high school in the director's office.

"No, the results come out."

"Have you finished?"

"Just passed! It's troublesome this time. Although it's too late, the result is not ideal. It's estimated that it's troublesome to determine the subject. I won't be allowed to go to the color Doppler ultrasound room. I really don't want to go! "

"Come on, you follow Dr. Wang. Don't put too much pressure on DingKe. Do something for yourself. " Zhang fan can't help with this. I can only comfort him.

The oldest person in the anorectal department is Wang Yanchao, Doctor Wang. He has been married for two years and has just had children. He is under great pressure. Therefore, he supports Zhang Fan the most, because Zhang Fan receives patients and performs surgery, and he is not alone in surgery and medicine, so Dr. Wang has been obedient to Zhang Fan now, and he is also the most promising deputy director, so he is also very serious.

In modern society, the concept of love has been very tolerant. Zhang Fan doesn't know what it used to be, but now the love between men and women won't make a fuss, that is, just look at it more.

When Zhang Fan was on duty, LV Shuyan of gynecology called directly: "Zhang Fan, where are you?"

"On duty. What's the matter? "

"Oh! I thought you wouldn't be on duty when you were the director. Come to gynecology quickly. There is a patient who needs consultation! " After making a joke, LV Shuyan said business.

"Good!" Zhang Fan took Zhao Zipeng to gynecology. Because of his unsatisfactory performance, Zhao Zipeng wanted to stay in surgery. The anorectal department had the greatest hope, so he really became a resident and almost didn't go home. Soak in the Department every day.

Department of Gynecology, LV Shuyan is on duty. She is a graduate student. She has transferred to several relevant departments. After working with the director for three months, she began to be on duty alone.

When Zhang Fan arrived, LV Shuyan looked constipated, "what's the matter, isn't it a consultation? How do you look like that? " As he spoke, Zhang Fan looked down at his clothes and found nothing wrong!

"No, you go and have a look. It's estimated that we can't solve it."

"What patient!" Zhang Fan muttered and entered the examination room.

Once in, the first thing to see was a particularly handsome girl, with a thin figure, a spiritual board inch, Danfeng eyes, melon seed face, thin lips, Korean leather clothes and leather pants, a sense of heroism came to her face. The other girl was lying on the examination table, with white plush fur clothes, long frosted boots directly to her knees, gray leggings and gray woolen skirts.

Although he climbed on the examination bed, his face turned to look at Zhang Fan's, very beautiful, charming, really charming. Red lips can make a man want to commit a crime! Charming glasses radiate, so that men can't help feeling confused!

The skirt and grey Leggings have faded at the instep of the boots. If it weren't for the blue treatment towel on the ass, this scene would really make people feel gorgeous, because the girl is too flirtatious, which would really make men pity.

"Why are there so many people, and they are still men." The heroic girl spoke. When turning his head, Zhang Fan saw the earrings on his ears, silver. The brightness is estimated to be platinum!

"These two are doctors of anorectal department. We have no way to treat you, so let them come for consultation!" LV Shuyan explained to them.

"Can you just let one male doctor check? There are too many two people. I can't stand it!" The girl lying on the examination bed was talking in a sweet and boring voice!

LV Shuyan couldn't help it. She looked at Zhang Fan and Zhao Zipeng. "Then I'll go out first!" Zhao Zipeng consciously went out.
