

PUNISHED BY HIS LOVE

I' m Sorry My Love Novel Alternative

Chapter 2334

This voice stunned everyone present.

Suzi and Alyce were no exception.

The mother and daughter looked back at the door at the same time.

The man who came in looked similar to Darius, but he looked seven or eight years older than Darius.

“Brother?” Shu Ming shouted in shock and joy, “Didn’t your flight be delayed? I thought you would arrive in the afternoon, why did you get home so soon, you didn’t call me when you left the airport, so I can pick you up .”

The first time Big Brother came back to Nancheng was five years ago.

Five years have passed in a flash, and time has really passed in vain. When I saw my eldest brother, it was actually when my grandfather was dying.

Darius couldn’t help feeling emotional.

He didn’t see the anger on the elder brother’s face at all, and came to the elder brother excitedly: “Brother, you are so timely, grandpa, grandpa is dying. Fortunately, you can still see him when he is dying.

It’s really nice . Come on, big brother!” The family often couldn’t see each other for several years.

What kind of family is this called?

Although Darius had three older brothers, from when he was very young, he remembered that all three older brothers were sent abroad by his grandfather and father.

Back then, my parents wanted to send Darius abroad together, but in those two or three years, Darius was in poor health, and he was even more uncomfortable when he went abroad, and he was not used to eating foreign food.

When there was no other way, his parents kept him at home.

As a result, my parents were not able to immigrate.

This is the current situation of the Shu family. If you don't count Alyce, and if you don't count Darius's sister-in-law and children, the original Shu family should consist of seven members of three generations, young and old.

It stands to reason that the population of three generations and seven people is really not much for a top-level noble family.

But this small population is still scattered at home and abroad.

Darius's parents and grandfather have always lived in Nancheng, and occasionally go to Kyoto for a short stay.

As for Darius's three older brothers, they have been studying abroad since they were 10 years old, from elementary school to university. Later, they started businesses abroad, and then married and had children.

Of course, the Shu family is also a very traditional family.

Parents and grandfather do not agree with the three brothers about marrying foreign wives.

The three brothers were not too fond of foreign daughters-in-law, so Darius's three brothers were all Chinese.

They all speak fluent Chinese.

However, even so, the three brothers and their families seldom come back to China. During the festivals, it is usually Darius's parents and Mr. Shu, who occasionally go abroad to reunite with them.

The three brothers have developed very well abroad.

The eldest has his own consortium company, and the second and third have their own achievements in their respective fields.

In fact, it is difficult for a family like them to achieve success.

The education the four children have received since childhood, the things they have received, and their horizons are much broader than their peers.

This idea has been established in my family since I was a child.

A child from such a family, unless he is too stupid to support the wall with mud.

However, the children of the Shu family, the elder brother, are all extremely talented.

The eldest's foreign industries are also spread all over the southern hemisphere, enough for their Shu family to last a few lifetimes without doing anything.

Even without these foreign industries of the boss, the Shu family still has huge industrial support.

That is the foundation established by Darius and his father in China, and it is enough for the Shu family to lie down and enjoy their lives for a few lifetimes.

This is also the reason why Mr. Shu has no worries and puts all his property in Alyce.

Because the old man has backed.

His only son, even if he didn't live with the foreign children, and lived with A Zhenzi left in China, they were still the leading noble family.

Therefore, the old man's property is all left to his daughter.

It can also be considered to make up for her daughter, who was once wounded by her.

However, no one thought that the old man had discussed it with his son and daughter-in-law, and he had discussed it with his grandchildren's daughter-in-law.

But only at this juncture, when the eldest grandson came back from abroad, he did not agree to give all his property to his aunt?

Chapter 2335

The

eldest grandson Shu Mingxia did not pay attention to the fourth brother greeting him, he did not even see the excitement on the fourth brother's face and joy.

Shu Mingxia only strode up to Mr. Shu, didn't even look at Suzi and Alyce, just said to Mr. Shu who was on the bed, "Grandpa, fortunately, I came in time, so you won't be deceived.

How could you be like this? How about making such a decision rashly?

You forgot you have been deceived twice!

Grandpa, you are too soft-hearted!" Old Man

Shu: "..."

He opened his mouth to get acquainted, and was very powerless.

At this time, Shu Mingxia looked at Alyce and Suzi: "Ladies, please go out for a while, this is my family business, and it is inconvenient for outsiders to participate."

In fact, Shu Mingxia had met Alyce and Suzi.

It was five years ago.

When Shu Mingxia came back from abroad, the old man was very happy, and he specially asked Darius to beg Alyce and the Suzi family to go to a large restaurant to have dinner with the Shu family.

At that time, neither Suzi nor Alyce wanted to go.

However, due to Darius's face.

Darius loved his little aunt very much, and the little aunt almost regarded him as a son.

The little aunt does not kiss the old man Shu, nor the Shu family.

However, only with Shu Ming Zhen.

Suzi did the same.

Therefore, they agreed to have dinner with the Shu family.

During that dinner, Suzi and Alyce didn't say a few words, and the three brothers of the Shu family didn't say a few words.

The one who talked the most was Darius.

After a while, I asked Suzi and Alyce: "Auntie, SuziSuzi, what do you want to eat? I'll give you some vegetables? Oh, by the way, SuziSuzi, when you are not busy with work, you can take your little aunt to the big brother's place to play together. Er.

Big brother has a private island abroad.

The island is full of sunshine.

You can go when you have time." When he heard this, Shu Mingxia was expressionless, as if he hadn't heard it.

The mother and daughter Alyce and Suzi also smiled slightly and said nothing.

That dinner was actually quite embarrassing.

Therefore, in the following days, when Darius invited Alyce and Suzi to have some activities with the Shu family, Suzi had already taken his mother back to his hometown in the mountains.

The excuse given to Darius at that time was: "Brother Azhen, it's the 20th anniversary of my father's death, and we haven't been back in the past few years. These days my mother has been dreaming about my father, and we're going back to our hometown. Repair it, repair my father's grave." In fact, the hometown has been demolished a long time ago.

And his father's ashes, Suzi has also moved to Nancheng.

It is really unnecessary for the mother and daughter not to return to their hometown twice.

They are just excuses.

When he returned to Nancheng after going out for half a month, all three of Darius's older brothers had also returned abroad.

Everything is at peace again.

That time, it was the only time Alyce, Suzi's mother and daughter, and the other three sons of the Shu family met. Since then, they haven't seen each other again.

Perhaps, in the hearts of the three Shu Mingxia brothers, they would not recognize Alyce as an aunt at all, right?

Otherwise, instead of calling Alyce 'Auntie', he would simply say, "Two ladies?"

Alyce and Suzi were not too surprised when they heard such addresses.

Especially Alyce, she smiled slightly, and said very cultivated: "Okay, our mother and daughter should not be involved in the affairs of your Shu family."

As soon as she said it, she took Suzi and went out.

“What are you talking about? Our Shu family, isn’t your surname Shu? You have no conscience!” Shu Mingxia suddenly got angry with Alyce.
