

Chapter 2393– 2394 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 2393

Ever since Mark stepped into the third level of Yundao Heaven Jue by absorbing the elemental power from the spirit jade, his cultivation has been stagnant at the early stage of the third level. If he wants to break another level, enter the fourth level. , By no means an overnight thing.

“Forget it, I don’t want to.”

“A thousand miles begins with a single step.”

“Let’s take a step and take a look.”

Mark shook his head, and didn’t think about such annoying things anymore.

Instead, he continued to look at the Cloud Dao Tianshu, delving into that defensive formation.

As for the Truman’s sect master, he might be unreasonably worried.

After all, in the clan disputes of the Chu family, it is not very likely that an outsider, the Lord of the Chu Clan, will get involved.

But when Mark continued to study the Yundao Tianjue Formation, the land of Jiangbei thousands of miles away was extremely lively.

Just because the three-year special forces competition is held here.

In the hot summer, the five defense zones all send teams to participate!

In the land of Noirfork, Wuyang, together with the leaders of Noirfork Defense Zone, personally gave a banquet to see off.

“Raise soldiers for a thousand days, use them for a while.”

“Orell Lin, whether our Noirfork can create brilliance and create history this time depends on you.”

Outside the defense zone, Yangliu Yiyi, the breeze is pleasant.

Wu Yang, who has never drunk, is toasting Orell Lin and the Flying Eagle team to practice today.

Yes, this time the Noirfork defense zone, led by Orell Lin, led the Flying Eagles, entered Jiangbei to compete.

This competition is the most gold-rich event in the domestic military.

It's not only about Noirfork's honor and disgrace, but also about the future of Wu Yang and others. This is why even Wu Yang treated him so solemnly.

“Haha~”

“Commander, don't worry!”

“After months of special training, everyone in the war eagle now is a howling wolf!”

“As far as they are concerned, the enemy is just prey to be slaughtered.”

“Just stay in the defense zone and wait for the news of our championship!”

Orell Lin was full of confidence, and his hearty laughter echoed in the world.

“well!”

“What I want is this confidence.”

“If you want to win the championship, you must first have the heart to win.”

“This time, I only have one requirement for you, that is, to be the strongest in the army!”

“By the way, if you encounter Yenching's team during this game, you don't need to keep your hands. You can beat me to death within the limits allowed by the rules.”

“I must let Lu Tianhe know that it is definitely not a wise move to offend my Noirfork defense zone.”

“Well, that's all, let's set off now!”

Following Wu Yang's order, Orell Lin, together with the war eagles, immediately bid farewell.

Boom~

Amid the deafening roar, a number of off-road vehicles tore through the sky, rolled over the earth, and galloped toward the Jiangbei land thousands of miles away.

On this day, not only the Noirfork region, but also the five major defense zones in the hot summer, including the northwest, southwest, and frontiers, all went to war.

That team, like an arrow from the string, gathers in Jiangbei, just like all rivers meet the sea!

Finally, as the teams from the major defense zones arrived, the day of the game finally arrived.

The atmosphere of Jiangbei Land reached a peak at this time.

“Haha~”

“Commander Lin, long time no see.”

“Unexpectedly, you led the team to participate in Noirfork this time.”

“It seems that Noirfork, you are determined to win this championship.”

At this time, under the competition arena, personnel from all sides have already gathered.

Among them, there are naturally many acquaintances. After meeting, they immediately greeted and smiled.

“Haha, instructor Han Ping, it’s really been a long time since I saw you.”

“You have a bone, are you still tough?”

Orell Lin also walked over and greeted a strong old man in front of him.

This person is the chief instructor of the Jiangbei Defense Zone, Han Ping.

“Thank you Commander Lin for your concern. With my bones, it’s okay to work for another twenty years.”

Chapter 2394

....

After a short greeting, the instructors from the major defense areas also went to the work area to fill in the relevant competition documents.

“Yep?”

“Where is Yenching’s team?”

“Did they not come?”

Han Ping looked around. People from the southwest, northwest, and frontier defense zones were all there, but people from Gritsberg were the only ones who were not seen.

Seeing that the submission of the work car for the entry list is about to end, but the person from Gritsberg has not been seen for a long time, Han Ping is naturally confused.

Orell Lin suddenly smiled when he heard the words: “Instructor Han, don’t wait anymore.”

“Yenjing this year, I’m afraid I won’t participate in the competition.”

“Oh? What do you say?” Han Pingping suddenly looked at Orell Lin and asked in confusion.

“What else can I say, no one in Gritsberg. In the past few years, in that tournament, not all of them were at the bottom of Gritsberg’s side. This time, they were afraid of being ashamed to be at the bottom again. It’s ridiculous? It’s just that I finally rejected it!”

“You also know that in the Gritsberg defense zone, there are dandies. They may be very good at playing with women and girls, but this kind of fist competition is impossible.”

Orell Lin shook his head and said, with contempt and disdain in his words.

“what?”

“Yenjing wants to build a team with you?”

“Haha, they can think of this kind of idea!”

“However, Commander Lin, I heard that your Noirfork defense zone’s participating team is the Qinglong team, now why is this a flying eagle again?”

At this time, Zhu Rong, the instructor of the Northwest Defense Zone, asked puzzledly.

When Orell Lin heard this, he shook his head and sighed: “Don’t mention it. Lu Tianhe from Gritsberg before, recommended a chief instructor named Mark to our commander.”

“Our military commander listened to Lu Tianhe’s nonsense and appointed Mark as the instructor of the three services to create Qinglong.”

“But who would have thought that this Mark is just an incompetent waste!”

“As the saying goes, there will be a raging soldier and a raging nest.”

“This Mark is a trash, what else is the Azure Dragon team he brought out?”

“They are also some chickens and shingles!”

“It was all driven out by the military commander and I.”

“Only then can Flying Eagle be used to represent me Noirfork to play.”

Orell Lin shook his head and said, and when the others heard it, they were filled with indignation.

“The person named Mark in your mouth is really bold.”

“Dare to deceive the command of the three armies?”

“It’s not an exaggeration to ask me to say that this class of people should be a thousand cuts!”

“Hey, who said no? But our military commander, the woman’s benevolence, actually let him go.” Orell Lin was dissatisfied.

While everyone was discussing, the registration time has come.

“It seems that Yenching will not come to participate in the war.”

“It’s really a bunch of soft guys. They don’t even have the courage to play, so how can they talk about victory?”

“It’s really shameful that they are still at the feet of the emperor!”

“Forget it, don’t have to wait, let’s just start the draw.”

Han Ping looked at the time, scolded a few angrily, and then ordered a lottery to fight.

“Hold on!”

“Who said that our Gritsberg defense zone is timid and fearful to fight? Ashamed?”

However, just as the major instructors were preparing to go on stage to draw lots to choose their opponents, a vigorous shout suddenly sounded.

Everyone present was shocked.

Afterwards, everyone turned around and followed the prestige.

I saw that under the sky in front, Lu Tianhe led the Qinglong people and stepped forward with their heads high!

Wherever the sharp edge reaches, the gods and ghosts evade.
