

Super Rich Dad Chapter 249-250

Chapter 249 - I'm going in

Gao Shun looked for the sound, and his whole body was about to sweat out in white hair.

Because he found that the person arguing was no other than Jiang Hao.

What made Gao Shun feel the most frightened was that the people arguing with Jiang Hao were clearly a group of his own underling security guards.

'How can I live with this!' Gao Shun's teeth were chattering, as if he felt that a great disaster was coming, and he hurriedly dashed towards the entrance.

At this time, at the ticket gate at the entrance of the stadium, Jiang Hao and Xue Yuning unexpectedly encountered the security guard again, and it was the three of them who were having an argument.

'I said, don't be unreasonable here, hurry up and get out of my way, or I'll treat you badly!' The security guard pointed a murderous finger at Jiang Hao and hurled abuses.

Jiang Hao looked calm at this moment, because he already had a bottom in his heart and knew that this security guard would not be able to bounce around for long.

Jiang Hao was just a little upset that he was not allowed to enter without a ticket, but now that he had produced a ticket, the security guard still wouldn't let him in, not even to check the ticket.

'I'm not in the mood to argue with you!' Jiang Hao said indifferently, 'I just want to enter the venue to see the concert, please check my ticket and get out of the way!'

The security guard couldn't help but snicker at his words, 'Checking tickets? Why should I give you a ticket? How can you get in with just this?'

The guard pointed at the ticket in Jiang Hao's hand and laughed out loud.

'And the reason?' Jiang Hao calmly questioned, 'Just now I didn't have a ticket and you wouldn't let me in, I can understand that, but now I have a ticket in my hand, why are you still not letting me in?'

Jiang Hao subconsciously glanced back in Gao Shun's direction and developed that this guy was already running wildly this way.

Jiang Hao smiled and said, 'I advise you to explain things clearly to me today, otherwise you might have to suffer a little!'

Jiang Hao's words were not taken into account at all by this security guard, and he even snorted with extreme disdain, 'Intimidating me? Who do you think you are? You're not allowed to enter even if you have a ticket, I'm just asking, do you have eyes? Open your eyes and take a good look at what kind of tickets they are, and then look at yours!'

The security guard thought that Jiang Hao was here to cause trouble again, so his attitude was extremely harsh.

Jiang Hao looked at the ticket in his hand and naturally knew that it was different from others'.

The security guard didn't seem to know why the tickets were different, perhaps it was because the security guard didn't know about the tickets.

It was just that as soon as the security guard spoke, the group of people around who were holding the tickets and preparing to enter, also looked at the gold-edged ticket in Jiang Hao's hand, and some of them actually laughed out loud directly.

'Pfft what kind of bullsh*t ticket is this, haha the cost of construction doesn't even make it look like a bit, is this taking the people checking the tickets as fools?'

'Haha, laughing my ass off, if I were this security guard, I'd be in a hurry too, you brought something like this over, who let you in, it's really funny'

'What's wrong with this guy? If you don't want to go in, go and hide, you're delaying others from entering the venue, I'm really annoyed with this kind of people'

There was a chorus of vitriol around Jiang Hao, and some even shouted for him to get lost.

Seeing that everyone was in an uproar, the security guard also smiled triumphantly as he ripped the ticket out of Jiang Hao's hand and tore it in half with one hand.

'Heh, you heard that, right? Hear what everyone is saying? Get lost very close, you're really in the way here!' The security guard pushed Jiang Hao away with a disdainful push and cursed as he tried to push him out.

But just then, a voice came through.

'What's going on, there's making a mess!' At this moment, that security chief appeared again and walked over quickly with an impatient face, 'I'm telling you, I see that General Manager Gao has just come out, I don't know where he went, if you let General Manager Gao see such a scene, no one will have a good time!'

The security guard smiled and hurriedly pulled the captain over, pointing at Jiang Hao and Xue Yuning and said, 'Captain, look, it's the two of them again, it's not my fault, they're like ghosts.'

The security guard immediately took all the blame off himself and put it all on Jiang Hao's head.

But from the beginning to the end, Jiang Hao's attitude was very good, not even a word of argument, but only kept asking the other party to scan the two-dimensional code of the ticket in his hand.

And as long as the other party gently flashed this ticket, it would be clear whether this was real or fake.

But the other party not only refused his request, but even spoke out against him.

Only these things were drowned out in the security guard's side of the story.

When the security chief saw Jiang Hao, his face instantly clouded over, not unhappy, but very unhappy.

'What the hell is wrong with you you, didn't I tell you to hurry up and leave? Do you have to ask me to do something to kick you out? A big man, do you still want to lose face or not?' The security chief pointed at Jiang Hao and counted him out.

Jiang Hao remained calm and didn't retaliate, just pointed at the two tickets that had been torn to pieces by the security guards and said, 'I have the tickets, I want to enter the venue!'

Chapter 250 - This is stolen

Jiang Hao looked at the security chief and continued calmly, 'Didn't you ask me for the tickets before? I'm bringing them over now, but I just asked him to sweep the tickets, why were they rejected?'

Jiang Hao pointed at the torn ticket in the security guard's hand and said, 'And it was torn by him, may I ask if this is the kind of work attitude you have?'

Jiang Hao's attitude really made the head of security angry, because Jiang Hao didn't jump to his feet and argue with them, otherwise he would have sent someone to blow Jiang Hao out right now.

Instead, with this attitude of Jiang Hao, if he sent people to blow him out, he would definitely be left without public support himself.

After hearing Jiang Hao's words, the security guard hurriedly showed the ticket torn in half to the security captain and snickered, 'Captain, look for yourself, what the hell kind of bullsh*t ticket is this? This son of a bitch is just f*cking here to smash the venue, see if I don't beat him out'

After saying that, the security guard was about to make a move, but he was stopped by the head of security.

To be honest, he didn't recognise the ticket either, as it was actually a temporary one printed to actually go through the motions, as it was originally agreed by both parties that Jiang Hao was invited in by Gao Shun.

The security chief also laughed when he saw the ticket: 'Just this? You're playing me?'

Jiang Hao's face was expressionless: 'I'm not playing you, and I'm telling you, this ticket is real, you can scan it if you don't believe me!'

Jiang Hao had been insisting that the other party scan the ticket, when the truth would come out, then see what they people had to say.

The security chief couldn't help but sigh, in his opinion, this Jiang Hao was a madman, because but for any normal person, you just create a price, at least get an identical ticket.

But your ticket is incestuous, are you testing the ticket inspector to see if he is retarded?

Seemingly also in order to let Jiang Hao die, and also in order to not give others unnecessary remarks when he asked his men to coax Jiang Hao away later, the security chief smiled and said, 'Fine, didn't you ask me to check the tickets? I'll sweep it today, if this ticket sweeps successfully, I'll let you in, but if it doesn't, then don't blame me for not being polite!'

The security captain sneered, reached out and asked for the sweeper from the ticket inspector and swept it over the ticket with a smile.

At this moment, although the ticket was torn into two halves by that security guard, the barcode on it was still intact. The security captain swept at the barcode and then casually shoved the scanner to the ticket inspector.

'Do you have anything to say this time?' Before the result of the barcode scanner could be produced, that security captain sneered and questioned Jiang Hao.

In his opinion, the dispute was already over, the code machine screen must have gone red, indicating that the item was a fake, and there was not even a hint of suspense about the matter.

But to his surprise, the code machine suddenly let out a beep and the screen appeared full of green, and it passed.

When Jiang Hao saw the result, he laughed: 'Are you sure?'

The security chief naturally heard the sound, and then hurriedly looked at the code machine, and was immediately taken aback.

'How is this this possible?' The security captain was dumbfounded and full of confusion.

'Team leader, is the code sweeper broken?' The security guard was even more disbelieving, pointing at the code sweeper and saying.

'It can't be, if it's broken, it's not working, since it scanned, it can only mean,' the ticket inspector said hurriedly, 'that the tickets are real!'

At the ticket inspector's words, the whole crowd was astonished!

'Real? This is a real ticket? But how come it's not the same as our tickets?'

'What the hell is going on here? This ticket however I noticed that this ticket of his is quite good looking, is it some kind of special ticket?'

The crowd was uproarious and noisy, everyone was talking about this ticket.

The more they argued, the more puzzled they became.

At this moment, it was the security guard and the head of security who were most astonished.

The two of them looked at each other, apparently completely at a loss as to what to do.

‘Captain,’ the security guard asked, frowning and red-faced.

The captain was also scratching his head, not knowing what to do anymore.

‘Now that you’ve finished verifying that this ticket is genuine, may I please go in?’ Jiang Hao smiled and questioned.

There was indeed no reason not to let people in now.

After all, the tickets had already been checked, although they were also confused.

‘This where did you get this ticket?’ The security chief pondered for a moment and said to Jiang Hao, ‘This ticket of yours is not right at all, where on earth did you get it from?’

Jiang Hao sneered and said back, ‘Do you believe me when I say that these tickets are stolen? Oh aren’t you guys allowed to enter even if you have stolen tickets?’

The security captain’s face turned extremely ugly when he heard that, he knew very well that Jiang Hao’s words were clearly mocking himself.

After all, just now Jiang Hao had said that Feng Pingping’s tickets were stolen, but she still got in ah.
