

PUNISHED BY HIS LOVE

I'm Sorry My Love Novel Alternative

Chapter 2578

Christopher looked at Galia distressed: "The colleague surnamed Hu is unwilling to apologize to you, right? Galia bit her lip and smiled with tears: "

If she just doesn't apologize to me, I don't care. Not only did she not apologize to me, she also said to me in front of the whole office, 'the whole company'. Everyone knows that you love to quarrel with others. You have quarreled with everyone in the company. You have a problem with yourself.

Why should I apologize like you?"

"Mass!" Christopher cursed. "What's the difference between this and hitting you in the face in public?" "It doesn't matter if you hit me in the face in public, I'm a shameless person anyway, mainly she then told Mr. Lin in front of the whole company. 'Lin Lao, don't worry about this, it's none of your business, I'll find Galia, Galia, if such a large batch of goods is broken for the customer, the customer needs to pay all the compensation, you will pay for it Well, it's 240,000 in total."

Christopher: "She, she actually asked you to pay compensation?"

Galia: "Yes, she asked me to pay compensation, do you think it's funny?"

"What about you, are you willing to pay compensation? " Christopher asked nervously.

Galia shook her head: "No matter how useless, inferior, or weak I am, I can't afford to lose money. I really can't afford it. Besides, even if I lose money, isn't it the personnel department and the boss? Come and talk to me about losing money?"

Also, I am an employee of this company, and I get the company's salary. As an employee, everyone makes mistakes. Is it possible that when the employee creates profits for the company, the boss feels at ease. Here we go

. If you are going to lose money, take risks, and the boss will let the employees bear the burden?

If this is the case, who would dare to find a job in this world?

Even if I lose money, isn't the boss coming to talk to me?

A colleague of the same level as me asks me to lose money, when am I really a fool? Christopher interjected: "

So you finally broke out and offered to resign?" Galia said with a bitter smile, "

I didn't know what was wrong that day. I was like going crazy. I threw the information in my hand on the table, and all my colleagues in the office were stunned.

They stared at me blankly.

Many colleagues were dissatisfied on the spot, 'Are you crazy, have you gone crazy again? '

I couldn't take care of that much at all then.

I burst into tears and yelled at Xiao Hu frantically.

Xiao Hu was frightened and hid in the boss's office and did not come out.

I just slapped hard outside the door 'You have to apologize to me! In front of the whole company, apologize to me! I did nothing wrong I did nothing wrong! I have the process flow sheet, the notice, and the signature of Mr. Lin. I have a lot of the same.

It's not my fault, why do you say it's my fault!

Why should I pay compensation!

What qualifications do you have!

You apologize to me, if you don't apologize to me today, don't think about it!

But, even so, Xiao Hu didn't apologize to me. She was crying in the boss's office like an overly frightened child, very pitiful.

In those two days, the boss was out on a business trip and was not in the company. Everyone in the company was indifferent. Seeing me was like seeing a change.

None of them sympathized with me.

They murmured 'Galia, you're going to cause death by being so aggressive. '

'You are deceiving people too much! '

'Galia, do you think you will be lawless without the boss! '

'Xiao Hu will be scared to death by you sooner or later! '

'Don't be afraid, Xiao Hu, if she forces you like this again, we'll call the police! We need to call the police to deal with it! '

Xiao Hu cried more and more like a child who couldn't find a home. At that time, let alone other people, even myself thought I was a heinous change, and I thought my face was hideous and terrifying. .

There were no knives in the office at the time.

If I had a knife, I might have killed someone with a knife.

Chapter 2579

Brother Christopher, don't believe it, at that time I was really like one, like one that has not been washed by human civilization for thousands of years like a savage. Speaking of this, Galia's tears flowed silently.

Christopher only felt distressed when she listened to Galia's objective evaluation of her madness and change.

"You are a good girl. In this world, everyone can introspect and understand ." When they are wrong, girls who don't praise themselves subjectively, but peel themselves apart objectively, are all good girls.

Galia, you are a brave girl. Christopher comforted Galia with a desolate and firm tone.

Galia cried silently: "Brother Christopher, do you know? I...I just need a friend, just one.

I need someone who understands me completely, understands me.

I need this friend to tell me that I'm not a bad girl, that I don't love fighting people that much, I just need a friend who cares about me, approves of me, and approves of me.

One will do.

But I don't.

There are so many people in the company, at most there are many people who are silent and neutral.

But no one stood up to speak for me.

I think, in this world, if there is someone who can encourage me, comfort me, and tell me, 'Galia, it's okay, don't worry about it in the future, maybe you are in a complicated environment, and quarrels are inevitable .

Galia, you must remember in the future, you must be calm and objective when you shouldn't quarrel, but when you should quarrel, you must not give in an inch, you must let those people know that your heart is not so weak, you are Calm and above all.

If you can do this, those people will naturally not dare to look at you with shady eyes. Naturally, no one will do everything possible to find fault with you, and then anger you, causing you to quarrel with whomever you see. .

In other words, you have to use your brain.

You can't be afraid of being alone, afraid of offending people. You cannot be without principles without dignity.

The more you do this, the more you will lose everything, which ultimately leads to the situation you are in.

Galia, you have to believe that even if you lose everything in this world, you still have me. '

Brother Christopher, how I hope that someone will tell me this, support me, understand me, and feel sorry for me, even if there is only one.

I can't be a change.

I can stop being so crazy.

But I don't.

I have never been recognized since I was a child.

When I was in junior high school, my math grades were so good that I was 100% in every test, but just because I had a runny nose and dirty body when I was in school, the teacher thought I was a stupid kid. .

I really don't study hard.

However, no one knows that I am actually very smart when it comes to learning.

Therefore, the process chart I gave to Mr. Lin was carefully tested by me. As long as he follows my process, there will be no mistakes.

You know that I'm not wrong at all, I've done everything well, but I'm still not recognized, and I'm still going to be wronged. Am I really a fool?

I'm not an idiot.

I just become too much.

Since you all think I'm a changer, then I'm a changer. "

Christopher smiled lightly and asked, "What did you do to change things?" "

He knew, he was clear and certain, that Galia was not changing too much.

She has become too far away.

Those who have become too dark in their hearts are never willing to be cured, and they are never willing to show it. They can't hide it even if they hide it. How could it be like Galia who exposed herself so thoroughly?

Galia raised her eyebrows and said with a self-deprecating smile, "At that time, I threatened Xiao Hu, and I wanted to kill her!"

Chapter 2580

Christopher looked at Galia with a clear expression: "So, when they heard you threatening Xiao Hu like this, Will they fire you?"

"No." Galia shrugged: "So I think it's strange that they didn't fire me even though they were like this. This matter was deadlocked for an afternoon, and the boss came back from a business trip. The company was so troubled, the boss's brows became a mountain.

I thought he would fire me, but no.

He actually coordinated me and Xiao Hu.

Ask me, do I have to ask Xiao Hu to apologize to me?

I said yes!

I had to ask Xiao Hu to apologize to me. But Xiao Hu just didn't agree. The boss came, and Xiao Hu felt that he had a backer. She cried so badly that the boss adjusted for the whole afternoon, but she still didn't follow suit. I apologize.

From the beginning to the end, Xiao Hu did not admit that he was wrong. Remember that the website kept accusing me of being the most quarrelsome in the whole company. She simply avoided the important points and did not admit her mistakes at all.

So, I submitted in angrily . After I received the resignation letter, I was very determined to ask the boss to approve it immediately!

In fact, I just wanted to show my firm attitude.

I didn't really want to resign, I just felt that this time I took care of it, and I finally managed to complete it. I have to move back.

I want to move back in front of the whole company and win my dignity.

But I never thought..."

Having said this, Galia laughed at herself and said, "I never thought that my resignation report was handed to my boss, and my boss didn't even hesitate for a second, so he just signed it.

After signing, With a sullen face, he said to the two security guards, 'Comprehensive search, don't let her bring company things privately!'

I was stunned at the time.

I really didn't expect the boss to be so ruthless.

Now that I think about it, in fact, everything is My ignorance is because I am too ignorant.

I have already become the target of public criticism. All the staff in the company hate me to the point where it is possible that anyone has love for me?

In fact, I thought about it later, the boss can always Bear with me and didn't fire me, but waited until I resigned before he approved it. It's already a lot of face for me."

"He's not giving you face, the reason why he hasn't fired you, I'm thinking, it should be you. The work efficiency of the company is still not low, and it has suppressed you for a long time. If you have not resisted, you will always be careful. I guess, during your three years in the company, you should not even get a salary increase, right?"

You dare not Ask the company about the salary increase?"

Galia looked up at Christopher: "How...how do you know?"

"You are such a stupid girl." Christopher said gently.

Then he said to her: "In the future, don't be so stupid. In the future, I will teach you how not to quarrel with people."

Galia: "Really?"

Christopher: "Of course it is true, I will not save my life. The benefactor told a lie."

He smiled, and he looked at Galia: "That's it, left this company?"

Galia smiled bitterly: "Yes, the day I left the company, I was embarrassed, so I just left the company. The two security guards watching the door face to face watching me pack my things. When I left, no one in the whole company said goodbye to me, and I left the company in a daze like a mouse crossing the street.

You can't imagine what an embarrassing situation it was.

You told me that a friend of yours also faked her resume, and she was in a very embarrassing situation.

I don't know, has she ever encountered such an embarrassing situation as me?

How would she feel if she met? "

Christopher lowered his head and sighed.

I have to admit that when Galia told about her situation, Christopher was admiring Suzi from the bottom of his heart.

Chapter 2581

Christopher smiled awkwardly: "How...how can it rise to money... What about the money?"

For a moment, he had an illusion.

Is the girl in front of you a professional liar, a master liar?

What she told him so emotionally and sobbing, was actually just a story, but she was just trying to deceive him of his compassion for her, his trust in her, and his love for her.

In the end, is she trying to cheat money?

So what I'm saying now is that I don't ask you to borrow money, it's just a play-by-play method.

Thinking of this, Christopher couldn't help but smile in his heart.

Today's liars are really endless, and there are all kinds of tricks.

If the girl in front of him is really like this, isn't he Christopher a 'pig' about to be killed?

Ha ha! Remember URLs are interesting.

After only a moment of embarrassment, Christopher resumed looking at Galia calmly.

He wanted to see, what tricks this girl will use next?

Galia smiled desolately: "I resigned so unexpectedly, but I was actually kicked out of the company where I worked for three years in a very embarrassing manner.

I only had three or four hundred yuan on me at the time, which was barely enough for me. For half a month's expenses, I have to take the bus every day and submit my resume to find a new job.

My daily expenses for finding a job are tens of dollars.

And my monthly salary, but also to send my mother to see a doctor.

You may ask me, since I no longer have a job, don't send home the last month's salary, but you don't know the situation in my family, Brother Christopher.

My dad is an honest punk, and it's okay to be honest, but he's not a hard worker.

No wonder my mother and my mother's family looked down on my grandma and my father so much.

My grandma is lazy.

My dad, although not as lazy as my grandmother, he really can't do anything.

Start a small business and lose money eight times out of ten.

When I lose money, my dad thinks where can I borrow some money?

If I had nowhere to borrow, I had the cheek to go to my grandma's house, my aunt's house, and my aunt's house to borrow money.

I always thought that my grandmother and aunt should belong to him.

People often say that there is a reason for anyone to look down on you. My mother's family looked down on my father, my grandmother, and my brother for a reason.

My family is already poor, and my mother is sick. If I don't send money to my mother to see a doctor, my mother's illness will not be cured, and secondly, I really don't want to lose face with my grandmother, uncle and aunt.

The feeling of being demoted, crushed, excluded, and looked down upon by them is really uncomfortable.

I can live with the pain before.

But later, I had the knack of raising my eyebrows, and my vanity heart couldn't let go no matter what.

This is the same principle as the poor life is easy to live, and the rich life is difficult to live.

After I tasted the sweetness of being proud of my mother's family, I couldn't let go of that growing vanity.

I was kicked out of the company, but I dared not tell my family.

The money, I still send it home.

Moreover, I was unable to find a job for half a year in between.

During that half a year, I borrowed money from the few co-workers and friends I only had. I also borrowed three or five hundred, and I also borrowed more than a thousand. The total amount was not much, only three or four thousand.

But that can't maintain the salary I give my mother every month.

Later, I started withdrawing cash from my credit card.

Take a total of six thousand dollars.
