Chapter 2704 – 2705

Chapter 2704

Unless someone who is proficient in English and willing to speak a lot of time to listen to it, can do it.

At this moment, except for Cui Yingying's father, Cui Dong, everyone else felt in their hearts, what if Galia made a fake degree?

As long as she really has this ability, it doesn't matter.

In fact, academic qualifications are not the most important talents that an enterprise is looking for, and academic qualifications can only be regarded as a stepping stone.

In fact, what enterprises really need is ability, work experience, and strong adaptability to things. If a person has these qualities, then who cares about education?

Several senior executives of the Fu Group looked at Galia with admiration.

One of the leaders wanted to say something, but when he was about to speak, he saw that Galia, who was looking at Lin Dazhou, had already spoken.

Galia looked at Lin Dazhou with a serious face: "Mr. Lin, you didn't expect that I could speak English, I didn't expect that I could not only speak English, but I can speak English with an extremely strong hometown accent so well.

For example, a foreigner can not only speak Chinese well, but even Hokkien, Cantonese, and Sichuan dialect can be understood and spoken well.

Think again, how could someone like Galia do this ? A little?"

Lindazhou: "You..."

He really didn't expect it.

So, really nothing to say.

Before he could speak, Galia spoke again: "Mr. Lin, I don't understand until now, what are you doing in the Fu Group? Are you here to expose me?

Or came to Fu Group to negotiate business?

If it is the latter, then I have to tell you that what you are doing in our company is out of bounds!

You are so ugly!

and shame! "

Linda State: "..."

"And more! "Galia looked at Lin Dazhou uncompromisingly: "Since you are here, since you have said this for the sake of it, then I will tell you about it!" When I applied for a job at your company, it was true that I made up a fake degree.

But I have already admitted it to you!

I have also paid a heavy price for my fake degree!

I worked in your company for three years that year. Putting aside my fake education, I only talked about work. You should know better than anyone whether I have the ability to work or not?

You are a businessman.

And is a very shrewd businessman.

How could such a shrewd businessman keep a liar in his company who has no ability to work at all, and who will only push the company back, and a person who fakes his academic qualifications for three years?

Mr. Lin, it's three years!

Not three months!

I think there are so many people sitting today, most of them are management, these people should be very clear, right?

If a person is useless at all, how can the top management of the company keep her for three years?

The world is right or wrong, everyone is not blind, right?

But Mr. Lin, during the three years I have worked in your company, the thought you have always instilled in me is that the company pity me, and when it is transforming me, it is the illusion that the company is willing to keep me in the business at a loss, so that I can learn more knowledge .

You instilled such thoughts in me and domesticated me for three whole years!

Three years!

Do you still feel that it is not enough?

It's been six or seven years, but you can still find me in my current company to continue. I'm on the pillar of shame?

Well, Mr. Lin, let me tell you, I'm afraid I'll disappoint you.

In this company, I have neither falsified academic qualifications nor deceived the company.

Everything I have, my past, the personnel department and my leadership, know.

Mr. Lin, I ask you, are you satisfied now? "

Lin Dazhou: "You...you didn't cheat?" "

Chapter 2705

Galia looked at Lin Dazhou calmly: "Mr. Lin, you are such an adult, the boss of a company, You came to this company, you should have a long brain, right?

Why didn't you ask beforehand whether I was deceived or not?"

This is directly equivalent to slapping Lin Dazhou in the face. .

However, Galia did not intend to show any mercy to Lin Dazhou.

She never wanted to go back in time and investigate what was right and wrong in the past.

Moreover, she never felt that others were wrong in the past. She believed that her own fault was the biggest. Even if she wanted to investigate the past, she would reflect on her own mistakes, correct all mistakes, and move on.

But in any case, Galia never thought that after so many years, she had forgotten those painful experiences, and Lin Dazhou could come to her and expose her.

Is the human heart so sinister?

Since Lin Dazhou is so reluctant to give up and kill them all, what else does Galia care about?

She doesn't want to take revenge with anyone.

But she also didn't want to be pinched to death as an ant.

Since someone is knocking on the door, you will meet them head-on and hit them hard!

Anyway, she is very confident now!

Lin Dazhou's face was annoyed, more purple than a pig's liver.

He never thought that Galia would do this with him.

"You, you're more skilled now, how dare you talk back to me? Before, when you were in my company, you were stubborn. You shrank and wagged your tail like a dog. Isn't that the time?

Now ? Wings are hard?

Even me, you dare to talk back?"

"President Lin!" Galia raised her voice immediately: "Are you the emperor? Or is your family sitting in a dynasty horse? Or are you my parents? Can it be your turn to talk to me like this?"

We are not secretive. Since you are straight to the point today, you are here to kill me, so I must make it clear to you.

First of all, before I, Galia, came to this company, I told the personnel department that I graduated from junior high school, and I couldn't even get a junior high school diploma. My first job in this company was doing chores

This errand job has been done for more than half a year. During this period, I worked very seriously and hard. I worked in this company during the day, and I delivered a takeaway at night.

I know you, you and Liao Jie, next They will tell the leaders of the Fu Group that I owe a lot of money, that I will sell my company for the money, that I have done such a thing.

You will also say that I do not speak English, But I will lie to you and say that I can speak English.

After I lied to you, I will be able to take out the company's core information and sell the information to others while looking for an English translation?

Right?

But I am very Let me tell you clearly!

I have been working two jobs since the first day I joined the Fu Group. During the day, I worked as an errand at Fu's, and after 8 o'clock in the evening, I would deliver food until 12 o'clock. This is the case every day.

During the day Time, after my errands are over, I will learn English.

Sometimes when I go to the toilet, I recite words.

Not only now, but before I worked in the Fu Group, I have been insisting on charging for so many years.

Even though I owe hundreds of thousands of dollars, I still haven't forgotten to study.

When I arrived at the Fu Group company, I summed up my past mistakes and told the personnel department of the Fu Group truthfully about my past without concealing anything.

Every day I work at Fu Corporation, they are watching.

I got this job in the fashion department through my hard work.

When my director promoted me at that time, I told him repeatedly, I don't have a diploma, I only graduated from junior high school
