

My One In A Million Wife Chapter 274

Ashlyn knew that an autistic person functioned differently from others.

They often locked themselves up in their own world and would be reluctant to expose themselves to the outside world.

For some unknown reason, she felt a sense of attachment to Charlotte. It was as though there was an unbreakable bond between them.

It was the same feeling she had when she saw Mrs. Field.

There was this strange feeling of familiarity and closeness...

Ashlyn had an aloof personality and rarely felt close to others.

However, she met two exceptions — Fae and Charlotte.

She felt a strong sense of sympathy toward Charlotte.

At five in the afternoon, Ashlyn left the concert hall and took a cab toward the airport.

She wanted to get out of Lake City before Lucas could get to her.

fly with Lucas. Now that Spirogyra isn't going to taxi, leader stepped up and greeted her. He was tall, well-built, and obviously a

at them emotionlessly someone to tail me the moment I left the concert hall. Damn it! How could had not noticed it because she was in scoffed, "Does he really think you guys are the air gracefully

prepared and you take all of us at once?" Their leader smirked. All of his men pounced toward Ashlyn airport was a crowded

broke out, the

decided to stay behind and watch while a few timid people ran away

not help but steal

was sent into a state

to

“Oh my gosh!”

so strong! She took five men

two of them

She looks so