

Catch Me If You Love Me

Chapter 29

Zoey Gu's face instantly became waxy, and he gasped suddenly.

"Chase, who told you this?!" Is it Lydia Lin? impossible! She obviously promised her, for her own benefit, she definitely wouldn't do it.

A huge panic rushed into her mind instantly, Zoey Gu shook his head desperately, and kept denying it.

"Chase, Dad, don't be fooled, those are all fakes! I'm fine, really fine. If you don't believe me, wait for our reunion, you can see with your own eyes..."

No one listened to her explanation.

Only Chase Gu's painful choked voice echoed on the phone.

"Sister, you are the eldest lady of the Gu family, my favorite elder sister, and the jewel in my father's palm. How can you be humiliated and live such a life. If you knew my father and I were living together, you would sacrifice Coming, we would rather die at the beginning."

"Sister, I'm sorry, it was we who dragged you down..."

After Chase Gu finished speaking, he seemed to whisper to his side.

"Thank you for telling me and dad the truth, thank you."

beep...

The phone was cut off, and a fatal fear instantly grabbed Zoey Gu.

She tensed her body tightly, tremblingly turned out the call log, and called the strange number just now.

Shut down.

She hit Liam again, but couldn't get through.

Call again, no connection.

Fight again, still the same.

Thinking of Chase's words that seemed to be a farewell, Zoey Gu didn't dare to think about it at all. There was only one name back and forth in his mind.

Liam Lu.

Only he can save them!

Thinking of this time, he would personally pick up his daughter Alina Yin and return to the garden. Zoey Gu squeezed his phone, stumbled to his feet and rushed out...

Yuanguai Group.

After a board meeting ended, Liam Lu drove to the kindergarten to pick up his daughter Alina Yin.

It's just that along the way, Zoey Gu's desperate face will always flash in front of him from time to time, his eyelids twitching slightly, and a feeling of restlessness.

He raised his hand and touched the phone to make a call, but found that it was out of power.

The road ahead was congested, so he patted his horn in a very anxious manner, and finally turned around and drove towards the apartment.

When he got downstairs, he stopped the car, and a figure flashed past the corner of his eye, and ran to the side of the road in a panic.

He turned his head subconsciously, where was there any figure in the empty street corner?

Going upstairs and returning to the apartment, Liam Lu took out the key to open the door and looked up subconsciously.

It was another empty piece, and Zoey Gu was not there at all.

Thinking of what she said in the morning, "I'll wait for you, no matter how long you wait", Liam Lu's face sank, and he raised his hand and smashed the key in his hand.

"Zoey Gu, you are so good!"

Back outside the garden.

A taxi rushed all the way from the outside, and before the people in the security booth could react, it rushed into the courtyard like crazy.

Zoey Gu's hoarse voice came from the car window.

"Drive over! Drive to the living room!"

“Miss, this is the rich area. I forcibly broke in and stayed there. They will...”

“If something goes wrong, I am responsible! Please, I really have a life-threatening matter!”

When the people in the hall heard the movement, they saw a taxi rushing over quickly and stopped at the door with a “click”.

Bang!

The door of the car was knocked open in an instant, and Zoey Gu stumbled out of the car and rushed to the lobby.

“Liam Lu, come out, please come out, save my father and brother, Liam Lu!”

“Liam, help...”

In the next second, she slipped and she fell to the ground in embarrassment.

Alina Yin who was standing at the door seemed to be frightened by her and called her softly, “Auntie, Dad is not at home.”

“What?” Zoey Gu choked.

The nanny who was in charge of taking care of Alina Yin took care of the child and looked at Zoey Gu somewhat displeased.

“Miss Gu, Alina Yin didn’t lie to you. Miss Yun got her feet hurt and just called to say that her husband will visit her tonight and let me take Alina Yin to dinner.”

Zoey Gu trembled all over, raised his head, and saw the huge TV in the living room.

“The news I just got is that two men, an old and a young, drove up to Sushan and crashed into the sea with their car and died.”

“Mountaineers in Berven City have seen it with their own eyes. They are Gu Yunshan and his son Chase Gu, the former president of the Gu family who have been trained abroad for many years.”

boom...

There seemed to be thunder flashing in my ears, “buzzing”, and the world seemed to collapse in an instant.

Zoey Gu stared blankly, tears streaming out silently.

died.

Her father and younger brother are dead.

After she sacrificed everything and gritted her teeth for many years, they left her without hesitation and plunged into the sea.

What's the point of her persistence over the years and she is alive?

“Ah!”

“Ha ha...”

Zoey Gu lowered his eyes blankly, cried and laughed quickly. As if he had lost his soul, he staggered up from the ground and walked forward.

Passing by a car parked on the side of the road, she stopped inexplicably.

“Miss Gu?”

The babysitter, Alina Yin, and the taxi driver all looked at her with wide-eyed eyes. They didn't understand why she looked at the car in a daze and suddenly showed a sad and decisive look.

The next second, she suddenly opened the car door and sat in.

When everyone did not react, he stepped on the accelerator and rushed out...
