

Chapter 297

Nina Hua thought, "I guess I'll be back after sitting on the moon."

Jenny was stunned, "So soon?"

"Well."

Nina Hua seemed to have something on her mind, but she didn't intend to tell Jenny Jing, smiled, and said, "I'll look for you for a get-together when I come back then, ah."

Jenny nodded, "Okay, then I'll pick you up then."

"Well."

They hung up the phone.

A month later, Nina Hua really did come back from F country.

On that day, it was Jenny who picked her up.

She had her children with her and was armed and very low-key because she was afraid of being photographed.

After Jenny received her, he got into the car before he had time to look her over carefully.

The good news was that Nina Hua looked extremely well, and apart from a slight plumpness due to the birth, there was no other change.

Jenny was only relieved by this.

She stepped forward and hugged Nina Hua.

"You're finally back, and you don't even know how much I've missed you."

Nina Hua laughed, "Tsk, if Lu Shao hears this, he's designated to be jealous."

Jenny wasn't forced to laugh by her either and coquettishly said, "Don't care about him."

When Nina Hua returned, he didn't go back to Visterdem, but stayed directly in Kyoto.

The residence was one that Jenny Jing had found for her in advance, a detached cottage not far from the Maple Bridge Villa.

The house, which was originally in Biden Lu's name, was later transferred to Jenny Jing by Biden Lu, who transferred all the dozens of properties in his name to Jenny Jing, so it was now all owned by Jenny Jing.

After settling in with Nina Hua's mother and son, Jenny Jing told her to rest for two days and give her a reception banquet afterwards.

Nina Hua knew that she was worried that she would feel strange and uncomfortable on this side, which was why she did it.

So there was no refusal of her kindness, and she agreed presently.

Two days later, Jenny Jing came out to form a bureau and called all of Tailor Feng and the others over to go out to dinner and sing in the evening.

The others were already there.

Ann was off today, so Jenny had brought her along.

As soon as I got off the bus, I met Nina Hua at the door.

Nina Hua was obviously waiting for them specially at the door, An An knew her, and after seeing her, she enthusiastically came forward and gave a hug, smiling sweetly, "Auntie Yao Yao."

Nina Hua was simply so happy that he couldn't close his mouth with laughter.

Hugging her and checking her out, "Ann is such a good girl, she's grown pretty again. Here, let Auntie see if it gets any taller."

I said, taking a step back to look at it and smiled, "Or when it's a real growth."

Biden Lu led Jenny Jing over, Nina Hua looked at the two of them and smiled, "Long time no see Mr. Lu, it looks like you've been quite nourishing for a while, radiant, how's that, good feelings for the little two?"

Jenny smiled somewhat embarrassed and stared at her.

Without waiting for a reply from Biden Lu, he said, "It's good, how it drops."

Nina Hua smiled, "What can you do, naturally, congratulations to you, for finding true love."

Jenny also blinked, "Speaking as if you didn't, I'm telling you, your true love is here tonight too, yo."

Nina Hua was startled, but before he could react, the sound of the car's engine behind him rang out.

Then I saw Kepler's car coming this way.

She froze slightly, her face turning suddenly white.

In fact, Jenny had just learned that Kepler would be coming over as well.

Coincidentally, she and Kepler had known each other for a long time, and she had paid a little more attention before because Nina Hua liked this person.

Not to mention, several of them went to the same school in high school.

But I didn't expect that Kepler is actually Mrs. Jin's grandson.

Back then, Jin Qingshan divorced his ex-wife, and only after the divorce did she find out she was pregnant.

This child was then taken away by her and raised until she grew up, and then her wife fell ill and told Kepler the truth about her own origins before she died.

Now that Old Mrs. Jin has gotten Kepler back, the Jin family respects his wishes and doesn't change his last name, only hoping that he will try to accept his family.

After all, the Jin family had tried to find him back then, but Ji Ran had intentionally concealed it, allowing the Jin family to find him no matter how hard they tried, and they couldn't be blamed for this.

Since Kepler was the grandson of Old Mrs. Jin, and Old Mrs. Jin and Old Mrs. Sham were lady friends, Kepler was naturally qualified enough to stand in the position of the younger generation in the capital circle.

Moreover, he and Tailor Feng originally knew each other before and were still good friends, so it wasn't like they were strangers when they played.

However, when Nina Hua saw the man in front of him, his entire body was confused, like a cave of ice.

Jenny Jing noticed that something was wrong with her and asked with concern, "Yao Yao, are you okay?"

Nina Hua reacted and shook his head.

Damn it, she should have seen him coming!

When the Jin family returns to the country, he will naturally follow!

Jenny Jing saw that she was a little pale and asked, "Are you not feeling well? Why don't I walk you back first?"

"No need."

At any rate, Jenny formed this bureau today to welcome her over, and also had the intention of introducing these friends to her.

She, the rightful owner, couldn't leave early anyway, or it would be too rude.

Nina Hua restrained his mind, which was why he said, "I'm fine, let's go in."

"Well."

Jenny pulled her along with him and went inside, so it was good that Kepler only looked at Nina Hua and didn't do much else.

As the group entered the box, Jenny Jing introduced everyone one by one, and today not only Tailor Feng, but also Evelin was called over.

Jenny knew that Nina Hua had fallen out with his father and didn't want to return to Visterdem, so I was afraid that he would have to stay in Kyoto for a long time.

She herself didn't have many friends over here, and as a best friend, while Jenny wanted to spend a lot of time with her, sometimes she didn't always have that much time.

Although Nina Hua had given birth, she must not be back so soon, and in the meantime, she needed to have friends and someone to talk to once in a while.

After Jenny Jing introduced them one by one, Nina Hua also greeted them all with a friendly smile.

Because there were more people, Jenny liked to have a good time and thought it was no fun to cook other dishes, so he simply made hot pot, and we all gathered around to eat hot pot together.

Coincidentally, not long after eating, Jenny was about to go out to use the restroom when she encountered Guan Yue Wan.

Guan Yuewan wore a light-colored dress today, looking fresh and elegant, with a few hints of pure school spirit compared to her previous mature and steady appearance.

Jenny was a little surprised, never expecting to meet her here.

She had no animosity towards Guan Yue Wan, so she casually asked, "You're also eating here?"

Guan Yuewan smiled apologetically, "Originally, the person I had an appointment with temporarily didn't come and was about to leave."

Jenny Jing was stunned and sized her up, keenly aware of the hint of loneliness under her eyes, and subconsciously blurted out, "Then do you want to come along? We're pretty crowded here, pretty lively."

As soon as the words were out of my mouth, I almost bit off my own tongue in remorse.

Chapter 298

Although she didn't know Guan Yuewan well, she didn't have any history with her, and she had even less antipathy towards Guan Yuewan herself.

But he is at least Guan Xue Fei's distant cousin, Guan Xue Fei has been coveting Biden Lu all day long, but now she invites him to dinner, isn't this not uncomfortable for her?

The good thing is, Guan Yue Wan looks like a well-informed person, I don't think she will agree, right?

Unexpectedly, Guan Yue Wan's eyes lit up and he agreed without even thinking about it.

"Well, I'm sorry to interrupt, then."

Jenny: "....."

With an embarrassed face, she led Guan Yue Wan into the compartment.

Everyone was stunned and a little surprised to see her.

But the good thing was that Tailor Feng and Xie Snap were all people savvy, plus they themselves had no problem with Guan Xuefei.

Although Guan Yuewan's surname was also Guan, in terms of blood relations, she and Guan Xuefei were indeed cousins separated by several generations.

But in reality, Guan Yuewan's father had been so sidetracked that he could no longer be sidetracked, and although he was also in Kyoto, his hands were only doing a little business, which was no match for the true Guan family.

In this case, Guan Yuewan didn't actually get involved in the family's interests like Guan Xuefei did.

Everyone was fine with her, plus she was kind and pretty, and she had a hint of loveliness to her, so she quickly got along with a group of people.

Ji Yunshu was the last one to arrive, because something had happened in the hospital at the last minute and went off to work, his profession was special, so no one cared much about it.

Seeing him enter, Jenny even asked the maid to add dishes, Ji Yunshu was wearing a camel-colored coat and a scarf, looking particularly gentle and intellectual.

Guan Yuewan was eating meat, but the hotpot here was to her liking, so she gobbled it up.

But as soon as he shoved a piece of meat into his mouth, he saw him walk in, and his eyes widened, his face turned red, and he choked down a mouthful of meat into his throat, swallowing it and spitting it out, and couldn't help coughing loudly.

Ji Yun Shu apparently saw Guan Yue Wan as well and was slightly stunned, subconsciously speaking out, "Yue Wan, why are you here as well?"

Guan Yue Wan drank the water and had a hard time swallowing the piece of meat, thinking about how ugly her image had to be just now that he had seen it.

Then, before even standing up, he smiled awkwardly and said hello.

"Hello brother."

Everyone was stunned and a little confused.

"What older brother? You guys know each other, huh?"

Ji Yunshu smiled and explained, "Oh, it's nothing, didn't I run my own medical research lab? She came in to apply for the job a while ago and is now my assistant."

That's when it dawned on everyone.

Guan Yuewan was a medical student, everyone knew that, but didn't expect to be so fortunate.

With this relationship with Ji Yunshu, everyone felt more intimate when they looked at Guan Yue Wanton again.

A waiter came over to pull out the stool for Ji Yunshu, the atmosphere was back to normal, and everyone was joking and laughing while eating, except for Guan Yue Wan, whose face was red from start to finish, burying her head and just eating, not even daring to lift her head.

After eating, Tailor Feng yelled about playing games.

He's a game nerd, and everyone agrees that there's nothing wrong with him anyway.

A group of people then sat around the couch and hacked away at their phones.

Kepler doesn't play this game, so he doesn't come, but Nina Hua does.

So it was Nina Hua, Jenny Jing, Evelin, Tailor Feng, and Ji Yunshu, who formed a battle team.

Biden Lu sat beside Jenny Jing to be her military advisor, Jenny Jing was worried that everyone was playing too late and would delay the child's rest, so he let Vicky send An An back first.

Jenny's chosen profession was Upper Warrior, and Evelin played Assassin.

As soon as the game started, Evelin said, "Tailor Feng, you squat in the bushes later and we'll ambush them. They're bound to come and take Papa Smurf, don't let them take my Papa Smurf away from me."

Tailor Feng was naturally full of promise.

However, he had only just gotten to the grass there, and when he saw no one, he wandered off, and out of nowhere, an assassin leaped out and caught him in the act.

Taylor Feng couldn't dodge and was killed a few times, and the screams of a mage were heard from inside.

He froze, reacted, and screamed, "fuk!That son of a btch ambushed me!Am I turning over a new leaf in the gutter?"

Evelin looked at him and rolled her eyes.

Bullshit!Aren't you planning to ambush him, too?And even she saw a guy there, but he didn't even see him and walked over, so wasn't that a clear sign of giving away his head?

She shook her head helplessly and said, "You're obscenely developing, don't wave."

Taylor Feng was a bit dissatisfied, and after resurrecting, he explained as he walked out, "Let me tell you guys, don't underestimate my abilities, I'm great at playing games!"

However, as soon as the words died down, the sound of screams of heroes killed in action could be heard from inside.

The mage that Taylor Feng played was killed again.

He paused to stare at the phone screen, incredulous, yet the next second...

"Doblekill!"

Playing duped, Jenny came over unaware of the time and rushed up to take a double kill with lightning speed.

Taylor Feng was startled, then slapped his thigh, "fu*k!Little Sister-in-Law 666, so powerful!"

Jenny Jing hooked her lips and smiled faintly, "It's nothing."

Nina Hua couldn't resist and laughed, "You open the trumpet, you lose even if you don't fly."

By this time, the shooter she was playing and the auxiliary she was playing with Ji Yunshu had already pushed off the lower road and ran to the middle to support her.

As he cleared the soldiers, he explained to Tailor Feng, "I'm telling you, she's the only twenty star king in our group of good friends, Super God."

As soon as I finished speaking, I heard Ji Yunshu's voice, "Be careful."

I saw a figure suddenly emerge from inside the bushes, Ji Yunshu decisively sacrificed his life to protect Nina Hua, when everyone reacted, Ji Yunshu was already dead.

Nina Hua was slightly stunned and embarrassed.

"That, Dr. Gee, I'm sorry, I didn't see it, I was just chatting away."

Ji Yunshu said indifferently, "It's okay."

The game ended quickly, and Jenny, as the king's trumpet, naturally took flight with ease.

After playing, she turned to ask Biden Lu, "Do you want a hand?It's fun."

Biden Lu shook his head, "I'll just watch you play."

But Tailor Feng quit, "Oh my, how boring you guys are sitting there, come on, come together, or we'll get a room.How about three on four or three on three?"

Jenny came to his senses, "Fine, whoever is afraid, just come."

Tailor Feng smiled, "Then I'll go and ask if Old Ji is coming!"

I said, and ran outside.

At this time, Kepler was standing on the balcony talking on the phone.

When he went over, Kepler just happened to hang up the phone and was surprised to see him out.

Chapter 299

He tilted his head and asked, "Something wrong?"

Taylor Feng smiled and walked over, "What are you calling about? And come out here specifically?"

Kepler did not answer, looking into his eyes, as deep as the sea, watching him without speaking.

Taylor Feng wasn't afraid of heaven or earth, so how could he be afraid of the threat of his eyes?

He leaned over and smiled cheaply, "I accidentally overheard a sentence or two just now, it seemed to be about a woman or something, tsk, brother, don't think I didn't see it, you and that Miss Hua knew each other before, right? What? An old flame?"

Kepler's eyes on him were a little colder.

Taylor Feng shook his head and tsked twice.

"Okay, it's okay if you don't tell me, but as a brother, I'll give you a heads up, that Miss Hua seems to have just given birth not long ago, it looks like she should be a dominant person, be careful, beware of being cheated by women."

Kepler suddenly tugged at the corner of his mouth.

The depths of the eyes seemed to float with shallow mockery.

"I know."

"What?"

"I said, I know."

Tailor Feng stared at him like he had seen a ghost.

"You know still like her?"

Kepler suddenly frowned.

"Who says I like her?"

Tailor Feng snickered.

"Heh! Don't think I didn't see that someone's eyes were on her at dinner just now and didn't move away much, do you think we bystanders are all blind?"

Kepler: "....."

He was silent, not speaking.

Just as Tailor Feng was about to try to persuade some more, he suddenly spoke, "Well, I did look at her, but not because I liked her."

Tailor Feng was stunned, "And why is that?"

"Because I'm the baby's father."

Tailor Feng: "....."

Kepler's brief sentence was no less than a thunderclap of shock to Tailor Feng.

It took him half a moment to respond, as if he understood something.

Looking up, incredulous, at the man standing across from him, he saw that Kepler looked indifferent, as if he hadn't just said those words.

But what was even more frightening was that there was a faint threat in the way he looked at Tailor Feng.

Taylor Feng was busy shutting up, looking like I don't know anything, I didn't hear anything either, don't intimidate me.

He paused before saying, "That... Jenny and the others said they were coming to a room to fight against each other, and asked if you were coming?"

Kepler doesn't play games, so naturally he didn't know what he was talking about and asked, "What kind of battle?"

"Oh, it's just a very popular game right now, so we'll save you a spot if you want to come."

Kepler thought about it, but this time he didn't refuse.

"Okay, I'll do it."

So that's when they went inside together.

Kepler quickly downloaded the game, and in order to make up the number of people, Guan Yue Wan and Biden Lu were also pulled in, and once everyone was present, they began to assign teams.

Since neither Kepler nor Guan Yue Wan had ever played before, they were separated for the sake of fairness.

The final distribution was a group of Biden Lu, Jenny Jing, Ji Yun Shu, Nina Hua, and Guan Yue Wan.

On the other side, it was Kepler, Evelin Kang, Xie Snap, and a group of Taylor Feng.

When a few people were ready, they ordered the opening.

But I didn't expect that in the first round, Taylor Feng...

Just gave away a single blood and was spiked by Nina Hua.

Nina Hua took a breath and laughed so hard that Tailor Feng's face was a bit unpleasant, but in order to save face, he could only grunt, "It's okay, I've always been a gentleman, and I'll definitely let you have your way when I meet a woman."

Jenny pursed her lips and smiled without speaking.

Tailor Feng waited for resurrection, and after resurrection, he said proudly, "Miss Hua, wait later, I will definitely take revenge."

As soon as the words were finished, however, the assassin playing with Land's Deep came out of the bushes and killed him once more.

Tailor Feng was stupefied, his face was livid, and his whole body was bad.

The laughter of Nina Hua and Guan Yue Wan and the others rang out around him, and he sat there, looking at his own body lying on the ground on the screen for a long time without saying a word.

After a moment, he suddenly frowned, shook his phone, and muttered, "Huh?What's going on?Sister-in-law, how come this place you booked is so bad?I'm disconnected here, gee, Ergo, you're not going to kill me.You can't take advantage of people like that, I'm out of contact."

Jenny couldn't stand it any longer, "You shut up!"

Tailor Feng grievously said, "Little sister-in-law, I didn't mean to give away my head, it's really a bad complexion."

The company has been in the process of developing the new product for the past few years, and has been working on the development of the new product since its inception.

Seeing that her words were broken down by her, Tailor Feng was somewhat accosted.

"I'm not sure if I'm going to be able to do that, but I'm sure I'll be able to do it."

As soon as the words were out of his mouth, there was another scream and he died again.

This time it was actually a disgraceful death by play aid Guan Yue Wan.

This time, Tailor Feng had been unable to even find an excuse and could only stare blankly at the screen.

Guan Yuewan was a little confused and still embarrassed, looking at him and saying awkwardly, "Sorry ah, I didn't mean to kill you."

Tailor Feng: "....."

You can kill me if you don't mean to. What's the point if you do?

Isn't that more of a sticky situation?

In the next second, Jenny emerged from the bushes, originally intending to cut Snap Xie, but he ran too fast and Kepler sacrificed himself to protect Snap Xie.

Jenny smiled, "Seasoned man-god, I'm sorry."

Kepler said indifferently, "It doesn't matter, we can't win anyway with a certain person there."

The words choked Tailor Feng's heart and almost spurted out a mouthful of old blood.

Yelling, "Hey, that's not fun for you guys. Feelings are directed at me alone aren't they?"

Kepler squinted at him with a cloudy glance, "Who made you so rookie? Not against you against whom?"

"Ow! You guys talk so inhumanly, it seems like you don't know what I'm capable of until I make an effort to try and show you what I'm capable of."

Biden Lu, who was playing assassin next to him, "Well, yeah. Lose and you go out there and run naked three times by yourself."

Jenny puffed out a laugh, "This can be there."

Just then, Evelin suddenly screamed, "Ah-!Protect me."

However it was too late, a scream, and the hero she was playing with was robbed and killed by Biden Lu.

Evelin sighed and shook her head.

However, several times in succession, they were either killed by Biden Lu or Jenny Jing, and even killed twice by the warriors playing with Jenny Jing.

Evelin reddened with anxiety, staring at the screen viciously, "Fine, you're forcing me to make a big move!"

Ji Yunshu smiled, "Miss Evelin, it's just a game, don't take it so seriously."

The mouth said so, but the hands didn't stop for a moment and instantly attacked them under the crystal.
