Chapter 2994

Genius remembers this site address in one second:

Pop~

But who would have thought that before Lin Wenjing finished speaking, Xu Meifeng walked over and slapped Lin Wenjing's face.

“Asshole thing, my Xu family meeting, do you want to interrupt?”

“Speak nicely, you are Xu Lei's assistant secretary.”

“Speaking harder, you are just a dog raised by our Xu family!”

“Who gave you the courage to offend Miss Ben in public?”

Xu Meifeng's eyes were full of vigor, and his anger echoed throughout the room.

These words, although the scolding was Lin Wenjing. However, everyone present could see that what Xu Meifeng was targeting was the backer behind Lin Wenjing, the current head of the Xu family, Xu Lei!

“You~”

Lin Wenjing was not the one who had to obey, and she had to resist when she suffered such insults.

However, Xu Lei stopped him.

“Wen Jing, you go out first.”

Xu Lei was expressionless and said lightly.

“Mr. Xu, I can't go, I have to stay and help you.”

“Today's meeting is clearly aimed at you.”

“It's a Hongmen Banquet!”

“If I go, who else can help you?”

Lin Wenjing’s eyes were full of anxiety, and her heart was full of worries.

Xu Lei in front of her is still calm, but the former Noifork goddess, compared with the past, the eyebrows and eyes are obviously a little less happy and a little more haggard.

No one knows how much pressure she has put on her body in supporting Mark’s career in the past few years, and how many difficulties and difficulties she has faced alone.

“All of you here are my close relatives, they won’t eat me.”

Xu Lei smiled softly, comforting Lin Wenjing.

“Mr Xu, you really don’t need me to accompany you?” Lin Wenjing was still worried. ”

Xu Lei nodded and said: “It’s okay.”

Even Xu Lei had said so, Lin Wenjing had no choice but to leave the conference hall in front of her helplessly.

Before leaving, Lin Wenjing asked Xu Lei again, saying that she was waiting outside and contacted her immediately if something happened.

“Second sister, look at this good dog you raised.”

“I think in this family, apart from you, Lin Wenjing doesn’t see anyone in his eyes anymore.”

After Lin Wenjing left, Xu Meifeng did not forget to run Xu Lei sarcastically.

Xu Lei ignored her.

This is not the first time she has understood the acrimoniousness of her cousin, she is used to it.

As long as she doesn’t touch her bottom line, Xu Lei generally doesn’t know her.

“Let’s say, what is your purpose in convening so many families to hold this so-called family meeting?”

“You don’t have to go around in circles, just say it.”

“I still have things to deal with, I don’t have so much time to waste with you.”

Xu Lei said coldly.

“Tsk tut~”

“Second sister, it’s only been a year since I’ve seen each other. With your tone, you have become more and more of a patron.”

“Yes, who are you now?”

“The head of the Xu family is still the chairman of the Gritsberg United Chamber of Commerce.”

“Not only the Xu family is in charge of the financial power, but the Xue family and the Lin family, one of the three upstarts, are obedient to your second sister.”

“You are now in great power. Our uncles and sisters are elders, so we don’t even have the right to take up your time.”

Xu Meifeng said coldly, and her tone was full of sarcasm and provocation.

Sure enough, with Xu Meifeng’s stirring up the flames, many elders in the room were already angry.

Father Xu Xu Wenqing slapped the table angrily, and said coldly: “Huh, if President Xu is busy and looks down on our Xu family, if we feel that our old things are not worthy of your time, then just go.”

“Our Xu family has accumulated over a hundred years and cannot tolerate your god and Buddha!”

In the room, Xu Wenqing’s anger echoed.

This time, Xu Lei’s expression was also a bit ugly.

“Second grandfather, I think you have misunderstood.”

“No matter what achievements I have outside Xu Lei, the Xu family is still my home. You and your uncles are also Xiao Lei’s elders.”

“In recent years, Xu Lei asked myself if I had never neglected my uncles and elders. Why do you say that to me today?”

Xu Lei felt a little wronged.

In recent years, for her family, she has been conscientious and diligent.

Under her leadership, the Xu family is now at its peak.

Last year, regardless of the collateral or direct line of the family, the year-end dividends received doubled compared to the previous year.

Xu Lei didn't think that these uncles would be thinking about her, she just begged them not to trouble herself.

But Xu Lei never expected that, just because of Xu Meifeng's provocation, Xu Wenqing, the oldest old man in the Xu family, would say that about herself?

Even if Xu Lei's heart is strong, facing such accusations from family members, she will feel heartache.

“Hmph, it seems that you still know that you are a junior.”

“If that's the case, let me stay here and wait for the clan elder to make a decision on your appointment.”

Xu Wenqing said sharply.

“Decision on my appointment?”

Xu Wenqing's words made Xu Lei a little confused, and her brows wrinkled slightly.

But Xu Wenqing obviously had no intention to explain to Xu Lei. After saying this, he took out a piece of paper from the table and handed it to Xu Meifeng who was on the side: “Meifeng, your father is not here. This family decides. You can announce it.”

“Okay, Grandpa Second.”

Xu Meifeng said happily, and smiled and took the document from Mr. Xu. Then, he looked at Xu Lei with a gloating look.

That look is like a victor looking down on his defeated opponent.

However, Xu Meifeng just glanced at Xu Lei and didn't say anything.

After that, she strode up to the heights of the hall, facing the crowd, and her loud voice immediately sounded: “The sinner Xu Lei, in collusion with a gangster of the foreign surname, used despicable means to force her uncle to abdicate, exclude clan relatives, exclude dissidents, and suppress the clan. My dear, a large number of people with foreign surnames are arranged in the family business, so that my Xu family will have a century-old foundation and hundreds of billions of assets will fall behind people with foreign surnames.”

“The various behaviors of the sinner Xu Lei can be described as rebellious and contrary to the ancestors’ etiquette.”

“After discussion by the family committee today, it has been unanimously decided to remove Xu Lei from all positions in Xu’s family and relieve her of all powers.”

“Furthermore, the genealogy is removed, and Xu’s family will be expelled after today. All assets under his name will be returned to the family.”

“As for the head of the Xu family, Xu Fengliang will continue to hold it.”

“Before the new head of the family returns to the family, all family affairs will be in charge of Xu Fengliang’s daughter Xu Meifeng. After her father returns, he will transfer powers.”

In the room, Xu Meifeng’s voice echoed.

As for the other Xu family elders, they were expressionless, listening to Xu Meifeng’s reading quietly. In a pair of eyes, there was indifference, indifference to Xu Lei.

Obviously, before this meeting, everyone present had already passed their breath.

It can be said that only Xu Lei was kept in the dark in this so-called family meeting.

When hearing this decision, Xu Lei was stunned.

In the pretty face, there are accidents, tremors, disappointment and loneliness.

In fact, Xu Lei knew from the time she saw Xu Meifeng that today’s family meeting might be unkind.

However, Xu Lei originally thought that even if these family elders could not understand her anymore, they would at most accuse her of her mistakes and negligence, but Xu Lei never expected that they were going to oust her directly, and to drive her out of the Xu family. , Delisting of genealogy.

After a brief panic, Xu Lei suddenly smiled.
