

Chapter 300

Evelin didn't dare to speak again, and even retreated back to guard the crystal, however she was almost killed several times, she finally couldn't hold back and said to Tailor Feng who was playing with meat, "Why are you such a vegetable? You're meat to stand in my way, okay?"

Tailor Feng, who looked like a vegetable playing anything today, sullenly said, "Got it."

But the words died as soon as he was alone, surrounded by a group of people.

As soon as he died, Evelin, who was right behind him, also died.

Seeing the crystals being pushed, Evelin swished up and roared, "Can I kill my teammates? I want to kill my teammates."

Jenny Jing couldn't help but laugh, "Not in the game, but I allow you to do that in real life."

Tailor Feng's face was a bit ugly, he slammed his phone down and stood up, "No more games."

After saying that, he turned and walked out.

As soon as he left, everyone in the room looked at each other and wondered what was going on.

Jenny Jing looked at Biden Lu, then coughed and said to everyone in a roundabout way, "Uh, that, it's just a game, everyone doesn't take it seriously ha."

Saying that, he squeezed his eyes towards Evelin, gesturing for her to check on Tailor Feng.

However, Evelin only pretended to be blind and ignored her at all.

Jenny was a little anxious.

Ji Yunshu saw the situation and smiled awkwardly, "Nothing nothing nothing, he probably went out for a smoke and came back, come on, let's continue playing."

Evelin didn't refuse his invitation and opened another game with them to play.

Jenny Jing saw the situation and pushed Biden Lu's arm, whispering, "Go see him, it's supposed to be a party, don't make a mess."

In the meantime, Biden Lu eventually nodded his head.

On the balcony, Tailor Feng was standing there, smoking.

The winter night in the north is particularly cold, plus it's close to the New Year, one can stand on the balcony, one can almost feel some frost and snow caught in the wind, he squinted his eyes, looking into the depths of the endless night sky, the cigarette in his hand lingered out one smoke ring after another, lingering and dispersing.

Biden Lu wiggled his eyebrows and walked over, pushing his shoulder, "What's going on? It's just a game, and you're really angry."

Tailor Feng frowned and didn't say anything.

Biden Lu was a little incredulous and laughed, "Don't tell me you're a grown man, being spoken to by a woman, and you're more serious."

His words caused Tailor Feng's frown to deepen, and eventually, he had to explain, "Not because of that."

"And because of what?"

Tailor Feng paused and turned his head to look at him, a look that was profoundly complex.

Biden Lu was the first time he had ever seen such an expression on his face.

He calmly locked eyes with him, and there was a moment of silence between them before he moved away a little annoyed and said quietly, "I'm just a little distracted."

Biden Lu was stunned and couldn't stop laughing.

"What's bothering you? Bother Miss Evelin?"

"No." Tailor Feng even denied it, thought about it and shook his head, "I don't know, it might be a little funny to say, I just feel like she treats me differently than she did when I was a kid, alas, I don't know, it's just annoying anyway."

Biden Lu nodded his head in understanding, "Hmm, so you're sulking now?"

"Neither, alas! Second brother, I'll be honest with you, I feel... I might like her a little bit, eh, would you call that liking?"

Tailor Feng turned around and looked at Biden Lu in confusion, a pair of nice eyebrows furrowed together.

"She's always squeezing me, making fun of me, never giving me any good looks, but I'm still biased enough to eat her shit, do you think I'm a b*tch?"

Lu Jing deeply smiled.

Nodding in agreement, "Well, it's pretty b*tchy."

"Ergo!"

Biden Lu smiled and shook his head, patting his shoulder, "I can't say anything about this matter, you think for yourself, no matter how much the others say, it's only their feelings, the most important thing about feelings is to experience it yourself, there's no hurry, think slowly, when you think clearly you'll know what you really want."

Tailor Feng listened and nodded as if he understood.

Biden Lu raised his eyebrows, "So can we go in now?"

Tailor Feng nodded and pointed to the cigarette in his hand, "I'll finish this one and go in."

Only then did Biden Lu leave.

When he entered the house, he saw Jenny sitting there squeezing his eyebrows at him, he walked over and smiled, "Eye discomfort?"

Jenny stalled and glared at him.

Turning his head, he saw that no one was paying attention, before pulling him aside and asking, "How's it going? Is Tailor Feng angry?"

Biden Lu looked at her with a raised eyebrow, "In your eyes, the measure of our men is that small?"

Jenny snorted and left his mouth, "That's not necessarily true, what prime minister can hold a boat in his belly is all a lie."

Biden Lu narrowed his eyes, "You say that... as if you are very dissatisfied with me."

He leaned in close to her, a dangerous air flowing between them, and Jenny Jing's heart tightened, taking a step back and waving his hand.

He laughed and said, "No no, you're overthinking it. Since it's okay, I'll go check on them ha."

Then she hurriedly slipped away, and Biden Lu shook his head and lost his smile as he watched her run away.

When Jenny Jing returned to the dining room, he saw that Nina Hua and Evelin were still playing games.

It was as if it didn't affect them at all regarding Tailor Feng leaving midway.

Nina Hua was like this, she could understand, after all, this girl was quite sensitive at times, but most of the time, she was actually a heartless person, but Evelin...

She walked over quietly, observing the side of her face, and saw that her head was down, her eyes, though fixed on the screen, were always mis-operating, and her heart had long since flown to nowhere.

Even Nina Hua, had to constantly voice out a warning to her, "Evelin, watch out for assassins in the back."

"Evelin, follow me, don't fall behind!"

"Hey, what are you thinking about? Quick, hit the dragon!"

"....."

Evelin was slightly distracted, oh, she was busy following him up, yet that movement, that look, how it looked had a feeling of busy hands and absent-mindedness.

Jenny didn't make a sound, pursed her lips and smiled, she already had an idea of what to expect, so she didn't disturb them and headed out.

She was a little surprised when she reached the door and didn't see Ji Yunshu or Guan Yuewan.

Just in time to meet Xie Snap coming from outside, he asked, "Where are Guan Yuewan and Dr. Ji?"

Snap Xie was also a bit confused and thought about it before saying, "I didn't see Ji Yunshu, but Miss Guan just seemed to have followed an attendant to the flower room in the back, saying that they were the newly cultivated flowers here."

Jenny nodded, "Okay, I got it."

The restaurant is an upscale, private restaurant under the name of Biden Lu, which normally only caters to a very small number of self-made family members and is not for profit.

So rather than a restaurant, it's just another Maple Bridge house in disguise.

Chapter 301

Usually in charge of management here is a former butler of the Lu family, surnamed Qin.

Butler Qin used to work with Biden Lu's father, after Biden Lu's father passed away, he didn't stay in the Lu family anymore, he originally wanted to retire back to his hometown, but was retained by Biden Lu, then he came over here and was in charge of the management and operation of this private restaurant.

Butler Qin was now very old, sixty years old, but his hair was almost completely white, and his entire person had a kindly glow.

In the flower room, there was silence all around.

Guan Yuewan stood aside and watched as Butler Qin carefully carried out a flower pot, placed it on the table, uncovered the black gauze on top, and a pot of dainty blue roses in full bloom immediately unfurled.

She didn't scream, "Wow, it's beautiful, is that a blue demon?"

Butler Qin smilingly said, "No no, this is a variety that I have cultivated myself, that blue demon ah you said, are dyed by people with pigment, not the same as mine."

"Yeah?But this doesn't look any different than the Blue Goblin."

Butler Qin glared at her and sneered, "Nonsense!These two are not the same, okay?Look at this colour of mine, this petal, this pattern, it's more than that some blue demon."

When Guan Yue Wan really took another closer look, she still didn't really feel any difference.

She couldn't help but smile awkwardly and touched her nose, not wanting to ruffle Butler Qin's feathers, she could only admit against her will, "Uh, well, it's a bit different."

Only after receiving her approval did Butler Qin's face smile.

Suddenly I thought of something, my eyes lit up and I smiled again, "Come, come over here and help me take a picture of me and this flower pot, I'm going to post it on my ruff."

Guan Yue Wan couldn't help but giggle, "Your old man is still playing with Weibo?"

Housekeeper Qin glared at him, "What?It's just for you young people to play, not me, the old man."

I said, and got a little proud, and got a little proud, "I'm telling you, I'm a ruffled V, a famous plant breeding expert, and I've got almost a million followers."

Guan Yue Wan was surprised, "You're that good?"

Housekeeper Qin raised his eyebrows proudly, "How is it?No worse than you youngsters!"

Guan Yue Wan pursed her lips and smiled, "Well, it's much better than us."

Butler Qin smiled, "Then you can come and play more often in the future, and when those pots of flowers I have inside are raised, I'll give you a pot then."

"Well, thank you in advance, then."

Butler Qin waved his hand, smiling so much that his eyes were almost squinting, "No need to thank you, no need to thank you, you little girl, I like it very much, in the future when you are free, come and play often, and also keep me company with this old man."

Guan Yue Wan smiled and did not reply.

She knew very well that although she had become friends with Jenny and the others today, her surname was Guan after all.

Nowadays, the relationship between the four big families in Kyoto was delicate, and today they were friends, maybe they would become enemies one day.

The Lu family and the Guan family originally had a marriage, but this marriage was not formed, and Biden Lu capriciously married a woman of ordinary status, so the other three families that wanted to marry the Lu family in the future had no hope.

With no hope for the land family, they will naturally look elsewhere.

As far as she knew, the one in the Gu family recently was frantically pursuing Guan Xuefei.

If the Guan and Gu families really formed a marriage, the situation would be even more delicate.

And

She, even if she was just a distant cousin of the Guan family, faced with such a situation, was bound to avoid suspicion, lest she arouse the suspicions of the people over at the old mansion, and thus could not get too close to Jenny and the others.

The thought of this caused her heart to rise a little bit with loss.

But as much as she thought that, her mouth didn't say it, she just took the phone and smiled, "Come closer, I'll find you a better light angle."

I said, asking Butler Qin to stand by the table and move himself to the door.

As she stepped back, she sought the light, just finding a particularly good angle, and said, "That's it, smile, s-mile!"

But then a man's cough suddenly came from behind her, and she was so startled that she just subconsciously pressed the shutter and clicked the photo.

Then immediately turning around, she saw Ji Yunshu standing there, only half a step away from her, and if she retreated any further, she would have stepped right on his feet.

"Uh, brother, what are you doing here?"

She was embarrassed, blushing slightly, and as soon as she finished speaking, she saw again a light footprint on his leather shoes.

The face reddened instantly.

Even taking a step back, "I'm sorry sorry, brother, I didn't see you stepping on it."

Ji Yunshu smiled warmly and waved his hand, "It's okay."

Another look at the flowers on Butler Qin's hand and asked, "What are you guys doing?"

When Butler Qin saw him, he smiled and waved at him, "Doctor Ji, come over and see how my potted flowers are doing."

Ji Yunshu obviously knew how much he loved fiddling with these things, so it wasn't surprising that he walked over to take a look.

Nodding, "Well, it's nice to look at."

Receiving his praise, Butler Qin was even happier and smiled, "Doctor Ji is a man of culture, so why don't you give me a name for this flower, and I'll give you a pot when you get married."

Ji Yunshu smiled, "Yo, this is the first time I've seen Butler Qin so generous, then I can't miss it, wait for me to think about it ha."

He thought about it, brightened up, and said, "This flower of yours is particularly similar to one I've seen, so you might as well just call it that."

Housekeeper Qin stared at it and asked after it, "What flowers?"

"Blue Goblin!"

"Pfft-"

Guan Yue Wan didn't hold back and was the first to laugh first.

Butler Qin's face darkened and he glared at him, annoyed, "You are all unappreciative people, and you are not allowed to take it."

Afterwards, hugging the flower, he turned away resentfully.

Ji Yunshu even called out, "Hey, Butler Qin, didn't you tell me to fetch it? I think it's a good name."

However, Butler Qin had already ignored him and walked out with Hua Lu in his arms in a rage.

Watching the old man's back as he left, Ji Yunshu touched his nose, a little proud of his mischief.

Then, when I turned my head and caught sight of Guan Yue Wan, I realized that I had over-joked and had actually forgotten that there was a little girl here.

I saw her standing there, looking at him, with a smile in her eyebrows and a lot of tenderness and adoration in them.

He was slightly stunned and touched his face, thinking he had something dirty on it, but after touching it he found it to be quite clean, which put his mind at ease.

Not confused, he asked, "Why are you staring at me? Do I have flowers on my face?"

Chapter 302

His words brought Guan Yue Wan back to her senses, which only then alerted her to the fact that she had been staring at him, and she blushed.

Lowering his head, he fidgeted and shook his head, but it was funny to think of how lively he had just been.

Half a dozen times, before saying, "No flowers, I just thought..."

Ji Yun Shu raised his eyebrows, "Feel what?"

Guan Yue Wan pursed her lips and smiled, "It's nothing, it's just that I've always seen you as very serious in the past, and you were also praised as a textbook in the research institute, never knowing that you also had naughty moments."

Finish, look up, and look at him with wide, shining eyes.

Ji Yunshu was staring at her that way, and a strange feeling stirred up, yet this feeling was quickly snatched away by his senses, and he somewhat accosted her with a smile.

"Naughty? That's the first time anyone has ever used that word to describe me!"

He thought about it, but then couldn't stop laughing and explained, "Housekeeper Qin has grown up watching us, so he's naturally a little closer, so he has no qualms about making jokes, but I'm sorry you're laughing."

A word, and he was back to that gentle, polite look.

It also pulls the two apart, and while still gentle and humble, it always feels particularly distant.

Guan Yue Wan was a bit unpleasant.

In fact, tonight, ever since Ji Yunshu came in, she had been waiting for her chance.

Waiting for a chance for the two of you to be alone.

She thought that once the two of them were alone, about what had happened that night, he, being a man, would have brought it up.

After all, when something like that happens, whoever initiated it can't just get over it.

At the very least, the two should have to agree on what exactly it means, in private.

Even if he did say that last night was just a drunken, drunken, unintentional mistake, she could accept that.

Yet now it seemed that the man hadn't mentioned that night.

The thought of it made her feel a little sad.

Maybe she really shouldn't have that night....

Ji Yunshu didn't notice the difference in her appearance and said, "I didn't greet you even when I came in just now, am I being rude?"

Guan Yue Wan took a deep breath, suppressing the desolation in her heart, and barely smiled, "It's fine, you're pretty good like that."

She wasn't lying, she liked it better when he was just mischievous like that than when he was so polite and distant now.

But when you think about it, I'm sure he doesn't just show that face to anyone, so it's a relief.

Ji Yunshu didn't notice her different emotions and only nodded and hummed.

The two men stood there, suddenly running out of things to say, and the atmosphere fell silent, somehow awkward.

The light shines down from the top of her head, and her fair face is covered with a layer of soft light, which is not quite as beautiful as the beautiful city, but it has a heart-warming pure beauty.

Ji Yunshu looked at her, just a glance, and then quickly moved away.

All kidding aside, he was a full eight years older than this girl, and it was okay to be an uncle, so he would never feel anything for her.

But what's this involuntary thumping of the heart?

He secretly took a deep breath and felt that it was not a good idea for the two of them to stand like this any longer, so he suggested, "It's weirdly cold in here ha, want to

No. We're going to the front?It's warmer over there."

He was originally just a polite invitation, yet it changed in Guan Yue Wan's ears, raising his eyes to look at him quickly, pursing his lips and nodding, "Yes."

A quick blush flew across the face as we spoke.

So scarlet was shaken by Ji Yunshu's keen catching of it.

This girl...is she shy?

He didn't say anything in particular. Why was she shy?

It really is a little girl who hasn't grown up yet.

Ji Yun Shu couldn't help but lose a smile, and the little pang in his heart just now disappeared because of that.

After all, he had a bit of a conscience, people a little girl who would blush even to speak a sentence with a man, he could not be so beastly as to make a move on her.

When I returned to the living room, I saw that both Tailor Feng and Nina Hua were no longer playing games, Tailor Feng was sitting alone on the sofa and was teasing Nuo Nuo with his phone, the two of them were hip-hopping.

Looking around, there was no sign of Jenny Jing and Nina Hua and the others.

Ji Yunshu walked over and asked, "Where are they?"

Tailor Feng looked up at him and smiled, "You guys are back? I think they've gone out, I'm not sure, but Second Sister-in-Law and Second Brother are upstairs."

Ji Yunshu nodded, "Then you can speak to them for me later, I have something else to do so I'll leave first."

After saying that, he nodded to Guan Yue Wan again, right as a greeting.

Tailor Feng waved his hand, "Okay, you go, I'll tell them later."

When Ji Yunshu saw this, he stopped saying anything and turned to walk out.

Guan Yue Wan was startled and suddenly remembered something, and even shouted as well, "Brother, wait, I'll go with you."

I said, and even chased after them.

On the other hand, Nina Hua looked at the time and realized that it was already late, so he also got up and prepared to leave.

However, as soon as he reached the door, he was stopped by the incoming Kepler.

At this time, Tailor Feng was playing with his phone on the sofa, and there was a doorway at the entrance, some distance away from there, so Tailor Feng didn't notice the two people at the door.

Nina Hua looked back to make sure that Tailor Feng didn't see this side of the road, before turning back and frowning, "What are you doing?"

Kepler said in a deep voice, "I'll send you."

Nina Hua paused, a far-fetched smile tugging at the corners of his mouth, "No, I'll drive my own car, so I won't bother you."

After saying that, he passed him and was going to walk out.

Kepler frowned and pulled her arm, his strength was so great that he squeezed Nina Hua slightly.

Her brow furrowed, she looked back at him unhappily and said quietly, "Loosen up."

Kepler's face was expressionless, and he didn't let go of it in compliance, only stubbornly saying, "I'll send you."

Nina Hua looked back at Tailor Feng, who was still sitting in the hall playing, and hesitated.

She didn't really want to tug and tangle with him in front of other people, lest they see the relationship and steeply increase the trouble.

So I could only nod perfunctorily and head out.

She didn't stop walking until she was outside, originally thinking of walking faster and driving away, the man may not be able to catch up even if he wanted to.

But unexpectedly, Kepler had already preceded her and asked the waiter to drive the car over, and as soon as she reached the door, the car stopped in front of her.

Kepler got out of the car, pulled the door open and said in a cold voice, "Get in."
