

Chapter 3252

soon as the words came out, everyone was stunned on the spot. However, the city lord did not move his eyes from George Han at all, just looking at him indifferently.

“He will be that god-man?”

“Damn, is this joke too big?”

“Let’s not talk about how mighty the god-man is, but one person destroys a city, just this guy in front of you, is as thin as a monkey he is plus 10 ordinary people may not fight over ah. ” “

Santo, even if you have to say he is not a spy, it is not necessary to find such a hat to him with it. ” “

God terminator, in my Waiting for the supreme existence in my heart, comparing this kid with that person is simply a shame. Even though I usually admire the power of the city lord, I must criticize the city lord at this moment. Don’t take this kind of thing. Just kidding.”

Obviously, after a brief period of peace, there was a crusade. Even if it came from the lord of the city, everyone would have cursed George Han almost completely. If George Han admits it, I am afraid that saliva can give him alive. Drown.

George Han smiled, his face was indifferent, unaffected by the people’s complaints, he stared at the city lord in the opposite direction, and smiled: “What does the city lord think?”

“I think?” The city lord smiled softly: “God and man are invincible. One person can destroy a city when he turns his hands. There must be magical powers and omnipotence, and he must be extraordinary.”

“So I say you, yes!” After the words fell, his eyes became more determined, as if he wanted to George Han Thousand see through.

George Han smiled. He understood that the city lord was playing psychological warfare with himself, but he was really rare to see that he was able to play to the present level: “It’s a pity, I’m just a commoner.”

“Yes.” He smiled again: “It’s a pity. , Your eyes have betrayed you.”

“You are the god man who slaughtered the Devil Cloud Ghost City.” When the words fell, he turned around slightly, his eyes were no longer so scarlet, just a light smile.

George Han smiled, did not speak.

He could not guess the thoughts of this city lord, whether he was telling the truth or lies, nor whether he was deliberately testing or deliberately blackmailing, but George Han understood that if he made any subtle movements at this time, he would be caught in time. .

Therefore, he just calmed down and looked at each other indifferently.

“My bah, if he is a man of God, Lao Tzu’s head will be screwed down on the spot to serve as stools for you.”

” Damn , I not only serve as stools for you, but I also serve as commodes for you.” Someone shouted angrily, and even more. Many people were attached accordingly, and a group of people despised it, and it seemed that George Han was about to break into the eighteenth floor of the area with only their eyes.

“Hehe, the city lord is too much. The gods must be gods from the sky, and I don’t look at the thin monkey in front of me and a trash. How can the two compare.”

“Indeed, it seems that what others said, There will be peace in front of this door, and there will be peace for a long time. This body will be broad and fat, even the brain will be floating. It is not fake at all. Now the Devil Cloud Ghost City has been destroyed, and the lord of our family has no enemies. Limit.”

Master Chen couldn’t stand it anymore in the face of everyone’s scolding.

If it’s commonplace, it’s okay, but in today’s scene, all people are gathered together. If this is to allow this to happen, it’s really not good. He walked to the side of the city lord in a few steps and whispered in his ears: “City lord, The current feelings, if we continue to say more, I am afraid that everyone will be dissatisfied.”

“I know that the city owner is very kind and does not want to wrong others at will, but at this time, the public opinion is already overwhelming. Innocence is a matter of tightness, but your reputation is also I have to deal with it.”

Upon hearing the words of Master Chen, the young city lord slightly retracted his gaze, and looked around his eyes, and everyone was dissatisfied. Knowing the truth in the main subject’s words, he nodded gently.

Master Chen didn’t delay anything, and nodded to Captain Tu.

Captain Tu suddenly laughed: “Just now, it’s just that the city owner deliberately defrauded this kid. Now the city owner has the answer in his heart, someone is here.”

” Yes.” “

Take this spy down and take him to prison for interrogation.”

“Yes.” Several soldiers promised on the spot, walked a few steps to George Han’s side, and directly detained him.

George Han didn’t resist, just glanced at the city lord with disappointment, thinking that he had met some expert, but in fact it was nothing more than that.

With a light smile, looking back at the crowd of onlookers cheering behind him, he suddenly understood the truth of everything.

“What the fuck are you doing, don’t hurry down.” Captain Tu shouted, but his eyes were filled with coldness, and then he bowed to the city lord: “The subordinates go to the prison to interrogate him personally.” The city lord Wei Wei Nodding, Captain Tu’s smile became darker...

Chapter 3253

As George Han was taken away, the group of people who had complained about the city lord suddenly smiled.

“Let me just say, the city lord who should have fallen into the city has always been wise and martial, but how can he say such nonsense? It turns out that his old man made it deliberately, and the purpose is to defraud the kid.”

“This is a very good plan. , To retreat for progress, the one you use is called a wonderful.”

One mouth, one tongue, can produce swords but also flowers, those with swords are invisible to murder, and those with flowers are colorless and bright.

At least, that’s right now.

Seeing the return of public opinion, Lord Chen finally took a sigh of relief and glanced at the city lord. Both smiled at each other.

Wanting to be clean is far from being as easy as imagined, so no wonder the world often says that it is easy to be bad, but difficult to be good.

However, when Wanbin arrived, the city lord and the principal had to raise their spirits, laugh at everyone, or even drink with everyone.

It can only be regarded as a wrongdoer again.

At this time, the unjustly killed ghost George Han had been taken away from the so-called ancestral hall area by the crowd, passing by, people like George Han who were escorted by soldiers naturally attracted a lot of attention.

But it is a pity that even so, George Han did not see the pangolin and others.

Are they not in the city?

But to be honest, George Han always felt that they were in this city, especially after arriving at the ancestral hall, this feeling became even stronger.

If it is not said that this feeling is just a feeling and lack of evidence, then the best evidence may be George Han’s induction of the Bahuang Tianshu.

He really felt that they were all in this big city.

It’s just that George Han didn’t quite understand why he didn’t show up yet.

In theory, they should be the same as themselves, looking for themselves all over the city at this time. After all, the destruction of the Devil Cloud Ghost City is well known throughout the city, and if they know the news, they will inevitably look for themselves everywhere.

But...

why is it so?

Thinking of these periods, George Han had already been escorted by a group of soldiers to a remote prison in the city. As the door opened slightly, George Han was taken in, almost dark inside.

However, this group of soldiers just threw him into one of the cells at random, and then left suddenly, not as George Han had imagined, that he would be tortured.

At this time, outside the gate of the jail.

Several soldiers escorted George Han back. When they saw Captain Tu, they stood outside the gate of the sky prison. They all bowed their hands in salute: "Captain, I've been imprisoned."

Captain Tu nodded in satisfaction, with a smile on his face.

"Captain, isn't it supposed to be... tortured?" The soldier looked at him puzzledly.

After all, he was just so anxious, so now he should be eager to do it, why not only is he not anxious, but waiting outside the jail? !

"Severe torture?" He smiled and didn't panic. Instead, he touched his hand and took out two ingots of gold, and smiled: "What's the hurry? Go and find those old men in the tavern today."

"If you have money, don't make money, Are you idiots?" As soon as these words came out, a few soldiers patted their heads and finally understood what Captain Tu wanted to do.

It was just a few words that were wronged by the kid, and the old men left such a large amount of money. If this is to set up other eyes, it is not holding a money tree.

"High, high, high, the captain is still clever."

"Subordinates wait for this to do it." When the words fell, a few soldiers went to Old Ju and waited for a group of old men.

Captain Tu smiled with satisfaction, looked at the remaining brothers around him, and said proudly: "People often say that heroes emerge in troubled times, and if you want to prosper in times of peace and prosperity, you must learn how to make money."

"Let's go, follow. Our gold master is so fun, otherwise, the cash cow will be silent for a while." When the words fell, Captain Tu threw two gold bullions above his head, and the two gold bullions fell into his happily. In the bag, and others also walked towards the prison.

In less than a moment, after the sound and fire sounded in the jail that day, George Han was also taken out of the cell by the soldiers, and outside the gate of the jail, five old men including Lao Ju were also under the guidance of several soldiers. Down, head towards the prison.

In front of the interrogation platform of the prison, the flames are already soaring to the sky at this time, waiting...
