

Chapter 3312

At the very center of the bed, an iron box about two meters long and fifty centimeters wide appeared.

Seeing that George Han was dumbfounded, Ning Ruyu also looked sideways, and was obviously stunned for a while.

What does it mean?

Why is the bed hidden very deep, but in the end it is just an iron box? !

Someone in the box?

In terms of shape, the box is indeed like a coffin, just right for a human figure.

Thinking of this, George Han suddenly looked coldly at the servant, who hurriedly shook his head and stepped back.

“Speak.” George Han shouted coldly.

The servant shook his head desperately, and then seemed to remember something, and opened his mouth at George Han.

“It turned out to be a mute.” Looking at the man’s mouth, the tongue was almost missing. George Han understood. He pointed to the iron cabinet next to him and motioned him to open it.

The servant still shook his head, but stood up, walked to the iron box, took out a key from his arms, found a small lock beside the iron box, and put the key in.

As the key was twisted and a crisp sound sounded, he quickly came to the head of the iron box, and with a stroke of his hand, an iron block about the size of a palm opened, revealing a concave shape about the size of a fist.

However, the inside of the iron box is not directly visible at this concave part, and its bottom is still a metal block.

The servant made some gestures. Although George Han didn’t understand what he was talking about, he generally understood that he could only open a small piece here, and then pour the medicine he brought into it.

Seeing his gestures like this, George Han can understand one thing better, that is, there must be someone in this iron box.

Thinking of this, George Han glanced at Young Master Ruyu, and Young Master Ruyu nodded and rushed over.

Smart people can understand each other’s meanings without saying much, such as Young Master Yu’s hands condensing a burst of energy, and then find the big lock on the iron box and hit it directly.

“Boom!”

This energy is really not light, even George Han couldn’t help but sigh slightly. This young master like Jade is famous, and it really does have a reason for its existence.

This energy, let alone others, must be handled with care, even if it is oneself. If Young Master Yu does this, he is obviously helping himself without reservation.

“Huh.”

But after just a moment, Young Master Ruyi suddenly recovered his energy, but he was full of breath, and cold sweat broke out between his foreheads: “There is someone in the box, but I don’t know what kind of material this iron box is made of, even if I try my best. I broke it in, but it didn’t move at all.”

George Han glanced at the iron box, and there was indeed no damage on it.

“Ah ah ah.” At this moment, the servant gestured again.

The general meaning is that this iron box is made of peculiar materials. It is almost certain that it is invulnerable to swords and guns, and it is impossible to open it without a key.

“Where’s the key?” Young Master Ruyi asked.

Dumb shook his head, and Young Master Ruyi said: “You don’t know where the key is?” “No.” George Han raised his hand slightly, a little depressed: “He means, there is no key.”

Sure enough, he nodded desperately, which made George Han and Ning Ruyi feel ashes.

“In that case, don’t we have nothing to do? Come here for nothing?” Ning Ruyi said depressedly.

After all, the material of the iron box cannot be opened, and it is directly connected to the big bed. The quality of the big bed is not light. The key is that it seems to be inlaid with the entire foundation.

This means that if you can’t open it, you can’t take it with you.

And almost when the two were in trouble, a servant in the distance made a sudden movement quietly. Although Young Master Ruyi quickly found the clue and rushed over, when he pulled the man away, he already found a red behind him. button has been pressed.

Young Master Ruyi’s eyes froze on the spot, and he slapped the servant directly with a palm. He hurriedly turned to George Han and said, “This bastard should have reported a letter. Let’s withdraw quickly, otherwise, I’m afraid it will be too late.”

withdraw?

George Han was stunned for a moment, not to mention whether it can be removed or not, the key is to remove it this time, do you still want to find the iron box in front of it in the future? If Xia Wei is detained inside, it will definitely be the last chance.

Besides, George Han didn’t think they had a chance to escape.

“Maybe it’s not completely helpless, can you do me a favor?” George Han suddenly looked at Young Master Ruyi.

“What are you busy with?”

Chapter 3313

George Han took a few steps to the iron box and glanced at the recess on the bed, then, looked at Ruyu, who came over. He said softly, "Can you find your energy?"

Young Master Ruyu nodded and said disappointedly: "Of course there is no problem, you want me to use energy to help the person in the box?"

"But that's meaningless. , even if the person inside can use force, it will definitely have the same effect."

"I don't want you to help me use energy to help the person in the box, but... I need you to help me cut a hole in the person inside." George Han Qianzheng said.

Hearing this, Young Master Ruyu was stunned on the spot, what is this operation?

It's fine if you don't save people, how can you still hurt people? "Are you sure?"

"I'm very sure."

"It's about whether we can kill them or not. I hope you believe me."

Young Master Ruyu hesitated a little, seeing George Han's serious and serious expression, and finally nodded: " Alright, I'll help you."

As soon as he finished speaking, a beam of energy in Young Master Yu's hand was again sent up and shot directly along the tube in the recess. After that, George Han motioned for him to move the tube to the wound.

Next, in Young Master Ruyu's eyes, George Han's behavior was a little weird. He saw that George Han directly picked up the thin tube and took a deep breath.

Blood flowed out of the tube instantly, and George Han took out the few remaining materials without hesitation, wrapped it, and quickly stuffed it into his mouth.

At the same time, as soon as the jade sword came out of his hand, he cut his arm and let the blood drip onto the edge of the iron box.

If it hadn't been a long time since he had been in contact with George Han, Young Master Ruyu would definitely think that George Han was afraid of being a monster. It was both blood-sucking and bloodletting.

But only George Han knew exactly what he was doing at this time.

His own poisonous blood had corroded the Heavenly Prison, so today this iron box can naturally be tried as well.

As for blood-sucking, if it were Xia Wei, her blood would allow him to press down the seal of the earth. Even if there were chasing troops, George Han would be able to break out of the siege.

Strange is strange, but the method is the only thing worth fighting for.

Moreover, this has another advantage, that is, even if the iron box cannot be opened at this time, this method can still be used to identify whether it is Xia Wei or not.

As the blood entered his throat, George Han was suddenly overjoyed.

He could clearly feel the warm currents slowly flowing through his body.

It's Xia Wei!

Han 3000's eyes suddenly swept a trace of surprise, and then he squeezed the wound directly with his hands, allowing more blood to drip onto the iron box.

"I may have to sleep for a while. You can take care of the box for me. If there is someone outside, let him help him." After George Han finished speaking, he walked directly to the wall to lie down.

Every time after absorbing Xia Wei's blood, George Han would fall into a brief coma, which he had become accustomed to.

But for Young Master Ruyu, this motherf*** is a bit outrageous.

What about the enemy now, isn't this a game? !

Fortunately, Ning Ruyu was calm enough. Although she was quite puzzled, she shouted at Zhu San to block it, while she quietly observed the iron box.

What surprised Ning Ruyu quickly happened.

At the places where the blood and the iron box came into contact, bursts of black smoke suddenly began to appear, and the iron sheets began to melt and bubble, and gradually began to step on.

"This..." Young Master Ruyu's eyes widened.

Are gods so goddamn so outrageous?

This motherf*** is so stupid, you can make this box? If this is a bone leak, then the motherf*** can't fly? !

He was stupid, and the servants around him were also completely stupid at this time.

After all, they all know the firmness of the box, that is, they are speechless, otherwise it is estimated that there will be a lot of lament in the room.

However, the speed of blood melting was limited, and at this time, there were bursts of footsteps in the aisle outside the small door, and Zhu San also picked up the guy at this time, obviously fighting with the opponent.

Although relying on the terrain, Zhu San can be a single husband, but obviously, the guards in the city lord's mansion are by no means vegetarian. It was only a moment, and with the pig's head screaming, he was beaten directly from the small door. came in.

A large number of guards rushed in through the small door, and at this moment Young Master Ruyu looked at George Han in the corner, but he closed his eyes and fell asleep.

And at this moment, a bigger crisis followed...
