

Chapter 3324

Fuzhong is already bright, so that the second half of the night is almost like daylight at this time.

A large number of elite guards poured in from all sides and surrounded the entire backyard. Above the perimeter, there were layers of heavy soldiers and various ambushes waiting. At this time, let alone a person, even a fly would definitely fly. stay home.

At the door of the west wing, it was surrounded by a group of elites at this time.

If someone looked down in the air at this time, they would definitely find that the city lord's mansion was filled with various types of armour, and the crowd would feel numb just by looking at it.

"Everyone has heard clearly, if someone comes out of the house instead of someone from my city lord's mansion, kill me!"

A middle-aged man came slowly at this time and shouted sharply.

"Yes." Thousands of soldiers in the entire backyard responded in unison, with extraordinary might.

"It's weird, the four masters have been in for more than half an hour, why haven't they come out yet?" Beside the middle-aged man, a seductive woman walked out slowly, and said quite curiously.

This girl was born beautiful, but at the same time she was beautiful with a hint of evil. Obviously, she was not to be messed with. Some electric eyes similar to smoky makeup were more captivating at all times.

The leading middle-aged man shook his head: "But I don't know."

"Is there something wrong?" The woman said softly.

"The four super masters, do you think they are the four tofu? Any one of these four is a great general who can stand alone, not to mention that these four are still gathered here today? Even the magic saint level. In the face of the four of them, the dead will never get any advantage." The middle-aged man vetoed.

The seductive woman did not speak, after all, what the middle-aged man said was indeed the truth.

"It is estimated that four people are playing in it. After all, it is a master, and the heights are extremely cold. I am afraid that the only fun left is to kill others. I think they should be playing." The middle-aged man thought for a while and added.

The seductive woman gave a bitter smile, and said a little depressingly: "If that's the case, why would City Lord Zhu let us gang up in the middle of the night?" The middle-aged man was also helpless: "He has always acted so cautiously.

“This is a waste of human resources.” The seductive woman was very boring and very boring: “A large group of people are waiting here, and those who know also know that we are standing by here, and those who don’t know think that they have encountered some trouble and an enemy. “

I don’t know what’s hidden in this broken backyard, but there are so many people, inside and out.” The middle-aged man was also quite puzzled, but the so-called food for the king, loyalty to the king, since City Lord Zhu has Asked, of course, they can only act according to the order.

“There are footsteps.” Suddenly, the middle-aged man heard bursts of sounds coming from the west wing, which made them bored finally let out a sigh of relief at this time, and finally his mother’s death was over.

Immediately afterwards, the middle-aged man and the seductive woman looked at each other and pulled their collars slightly to make themselves dignified. After all, they were all four great masters, so they naturally couldn’t lose face.

door was opened, and when a group of people greeted each other with smiles, suddenly the smiles completely solidified.

Because obviously, it was impossible for the four masters to come out of the room, but Zhu San, Ruyi, who was in a coma, and George Han, who was carrying Xia Wei.

The people on both sides stared at each other, obviously not expecting the appearance of the other side.

It was George Han, who was probably the only person in the audience who was very indifferent, with his brain and his spirit.

How could it not know that there are heavy troops guarding it outside?

To say that the only thing that surprised him a little was that the heavy army outside was so huge.

After the middle-aged man was stunned, he reacted and shouted, and immediately opened his posture.

“All alert!”

Whoa!

A group of elites immediately took on attacking and defensive stances, and immediately surrounded them at an extremely fast speed.

It is absolutely not an exaggeration to describe it with a word that is waterlogged.

“Brother Han, it seems we are in a bit of a hard time tonight. Otherwise, Zhu San and I will escort you away with all our strength. As for us, City Lord Zhu doesn’t dare to do anything to us.” Young Master Ruyi knew that he was not an opponent, so he simply thought Let George Han leave first.

George Han waved his hand and looked at the middle-aged man and seductive woman in front of him. Suddenly, a strange smile appeared on his face, which was not easy to detect. Then, he made a stunned behavior..

Chapter 3325

“I know that you have some relationship with City Lord Zhu, but Brother Ning, the place where the four masters were sent to guard it is now more Do you think the importance of this place can be overcome by your relationship?”

“Since Han brought you here, naturally all the consequences will be borne by Han.” , George Han gently put down Xia Wei on his back and handed it over to Young Master Ruyu.

Young Master Ruyu was stunned for a moment, but subconsciously he still gently supported Xia Wei who was in the black bag.

Immediately afterwards, Han Sanqianyi withdrew the giant axe in his hand, and the long sword flew back into his sleeve, and even the black and gold aura on his body was suddenly withdrawn. He seemed to give up all resistance and walked in front of the middle-aged man and the seductive woman.

He raised his hands slightly, as if to tell the other party that he didn't have any bad intentions.

The middle-aged man and the seductive woman obviously didn't expect George Han's behavior.

After subconsciously taking a few steps back, seeing that he really didn't have any malicious intent, they couldn't help looking at George Han after looking at each other.

I don't know what his intentions are!

“You two, if you want to kill you, you have to kill Xi Ting Zun,” George Han said with a light smile.

Hearing this, Young Master Ruyu and Zhu San suddenly became anxious. Even if there are many guards outside, it is indeed impossible to escape tonight, but this is not necessary.

This thin dead camel is also bigger than a horse. George Han is a god who directly defeated the four masters. Faced with such a heavy army, even if it is difficult to break through, it can definitely turn the world upside down.

Why...why do you suddenly have to admit defeat without even fighting?

“What do you mean?” Young Master Ruyu shouted at George Han in confusion, “If you choose to die in order to keep us from leaving, then

As if I met you in vain tonight. “

That's right, since we came together, we'll either die together happily, or we'll go with the motherfucker. It's boring that you don't fight them in order to let us go. It's the old pig. The rough guy can't see it at all. Although Zhu San has a bad temper, he is notorious for his loyalty to his son and the people he knows.

Otherwise, at today's martial arts competition, without the order of his son, how could he run away on his own? Looking for trouble with George Han. The middle-aged man and the seductive woman looked at each other again. In fact, they did not dare to relax their vigilance.

Because George Han was someone who came out of the secret room, it meant that they had everything now. What they are unwilling to believe and admit is that the four masters may have shriveled in front of this person.

Since even they can succumb, how can they suddenly be captured?

Therefore, not only did they not breathe a sigh of relief, but instead The pressure suddenly became even greater.

“What tricks are you trying to play? The middle-aged man asked in a cold voice.

The seductive woman also said, “If you want to delay time on purpose to wait for your rescue, then I advise you to stop having this dream.” “

“Now the whole city has entered a state of alert, any trouble will be detected immediately. “

As for the city lord’s mansion, it is even more surrounded. Without the city lord’s instructions, no one should want to go out, let alone come in.” Hearing this, George Han just smiled indifferently: “

As you said, any means are useless here, so if I don’t obediently take it down, do I still want to ask for trouble?” “

Sometimes things are so weird. It is reasonable to say that the next sentence of middle-aged men and seductive women should be obediently captured, but when George Han really did this, it made them very hesitant.

Then, George Han raised his hand higher, with a gesture of complete surrender, looked back at Young Master Ruyu and Zhu San, and smiled lightly: “I understand the good intentions of the two of you, but the current matter is indeed I’m alone, please give me some time for the two brothers.”

After speaking, George Han turned around again, looked at the middle-aged man and the seductive woman, and smiled: “Go ahead, I swear, stand here and let the two of you stand here. If you kill him, you will never fight back, and you can naturally do what you say.”

“George Han, I owe you both a life.” When the words were finished, George Han closed his eyes.

Hearing this, the middle-aged man and the seductive woman suddenly widened their eyes and shouted in unison, “Are you George Han?”
