for simultaneous mobile reading “Tonight?” Qing Ji heard the words and was a little nervous: “Then why don’t I go out and watch now, if there is any trouble , at least we can prepare in advance.”

“Hundred Demons Hall still has some elites, although there are not many people, but in case of any unexpected situation, they can at least resist for a while and give us enough time to escape.”

Han Sanqianpai He waved his hand: “No need.”

There was no need to hide. It was time for Luocheng to suddenly look for someone after three full days of singing and dancing. He must have already made a foolproof plan. George Han felt that it was unrealistic to avoid such a pursuit.

Moreover, with the pangolins in their hands, George Han did not intend to hide from them.

However, the blood of the phoenix’s replenishment to George Han and the suppression of the seal of the earth have become weaker and weaker as Xia Ran said. George Han does not know how long the suppression of the seal of the earth will last if it is only a blood supply.

This is a fierce battle, and it will definitely a long time. If there is any mishap in the middle, not only George Han, but also Xia Wei, Amelia Su and others will be in a state of doom.

George Han couldn’t afford to lose, and he definitely couldn’t.

Therefore, during these three days, George Han observed Xia Wei’s body as much as possible. Once her body allowed George Han, she would directly take some Xia Wei’s blood for her body to absorb.

It is no exaggeration to say that after three days of adjustment, George Han had already absorbed a lot of Xia Wei’s blood of the phoenix in his body at this time, although the effect was not as direct as Xia Ran’s direct interaction with the daughter of the phoenix. , more violently, but this is already the only and best way to think and take.

The seal of the earth was suppressed, and the power of the phoenix was also affecting the energy in George Han’s body. In Shane Feng’s words, the current George Han’s body is one plus one plus one greater than three.

He was far stronger than ever, and the power in his body made George Han feel as if they were about to rush out of the restraint of his body at any time.

Obviously, Shane Feng’s words were not deceiving George Han, but the truth.

This is also the fundamental reason why George Han can only use one or two percent of his strength to be so arrogant in his adjustment to Shang Qingji.

“No need?” Qing Ji was taken aback.

If someone finds this directly, and then surrounds the place, and then makes a move to catch the turtle, then they will inevitably fall into a desperate situation.

“The soldiers will block, the water will cover the soil, what’s the hurry?” George Han smiled, and then lay on the weeds with his hands on the pillow, a piece of hay in his mouth, and Erlang’s legs shook.

“Hey, are you really not worried at all?” Qing Ji saw a ghost.

George Han didn’t speak, and looked at the night sky outside the house with slanted eyes.

Qing Ji looked back and said speechlessly: “I really don’t know what to see. The sky doesn’t even have a single star

, do you look lonely?”

George Han smiled: “The moon is dark and the wind is high, killing night.”

Qing Ji He rolled his eyes, didn’t speak, and looked back to toss about his own business.

There was silence in the temple, and hours passed in a blink of an eye.

Qing Ji had already slept in boredom, and only George Han had been looking up at the night sky with affection on her face. Perhaps, in the night sky, he thought of Amelia Su and Han Nian again.

Suddenly, a gust of night wind came and it was slightly cold.

The blower couldn’t help but clasped his arms tightly, and the black clouds on the night sky moved slowly.

George Han pulled away from the emotions of thinking about his wife and children, and then turned his eyes back, quietly feeling the surroundings, and at the same time, his spiritual consciousness was directly scattered.

He knew that someone should be coming this way. However, to put it a bit exaggerated, George Han not only did not panic at all, but was a little excited and excited. He really wanted to know what kind of tricks Zhu Yanshuo would play after suppressing for three days. But to George Han’s disappointment, those changes only appeared a few hundred meters away from the ruined temple and then suddenly withdrew.

After that, everything went quiet again. The night seemed to pass like that. When dawn came, Qing Ji, who had fallen asleep accidentally, woke up suddenly, she sat up from the ground suddenly, glanced outside the house in a panic, and then became confused:

“How did I sleep until it was almost dawn? Yes? Now, didn’t you say there would be a flood last night? Why now...” “They’ve all been here.” George Han laughed. “Have you been here?”

Qing Ji was taken aback for a moment. If she’s been here, how could it be now... “Did you make a mistake in your judgment?”

George Han smiled softly: “Listen!” Qing Ji suddenly closed her voice. At that time, the sound of footsteps was already coming from all sides, and she couldn’t help but look shocked.

Chapter 3349

year round, the sensitivity and experience are naturally far beyond ordinary people, although these footsteps are relatively light, but love Ji It is clear that the number of the other party is at least a thousand or more.

Qing Ji got up suddenly, directly lifted the unconscious Xia Wei, and said to George Han: "Then... why don't we leave quickly?"

"Leave? Where are you going?" George Han smiled and said: " This city is someone's territory, and wherever you go, you will be found sooner or later."

"After raising pigs for three days, it's time to move around, or I'll become a pig myself."

George Han stood up after he finished speaking . , patted the weeds on his clothes, then took a few steps and walked to the door.

And almost at the same time, those footsteps got closer and closer, and with the complete arrival, I heard someone shouting: "Surround this place immediately." After that, another burst of noisy footsteps sounded.

George Han glanced at Qing Ji who was supporting Xia Wei. Although she didn't speak, her calm smile was comforting Qing Ji and she didn't have to be so nervous.

Qing Ji nodded and supported Xia Wei to the side of the temple.

"Bang!"

With a loud bang from the gate outside the temple courtyard, it finally couldn't bear the gravity after countless wasted years, and it turned into a few pieces of broken wood and fell to the ground.

Immediately afterwards, a large group of people rushed in quickly, armed with weapons and armor, and immediately filled the entire small courtyard in front of the temple, almost encircling George Han and the others.

"Clap clap!"

Almost at the same time, bursts of applause broke out, and the soldier's center automatically gave way, and a young man walked in slowly with eight masters.

"I didn't even think about it, that Young Master Han would actually find a place like this. It's really wonderful." The voice sounded, and the leader was Zhu Yanshuo, and in addition to the four masters, there were four people behind George Han. Qian did not know. Seeing George Han, Zhu Yanshuo smiled lightly: "Brother Han, we met again."

George Han responded with a smile: "As the city owner who should be in the city, isn't it easy to find Han?"

Zhu Yanshuo smiled bitterly: " Brother Han has raised his eyebrows. Brother Han, as a man from heaven, with extraordinary strength, is really someone Zhu someone admires."

“Zhu Xian thought that you and I should be friends, not the current situation. Water and fire are incompatible, but why...”

Speaking of which, Zhu Yanshuo shook his head with a pity.

George Han also smiled and replied indifferently: “It is indeed an honor for Han to be promoted by City Lord Zhu, and Han can indeed feel City Lord Zhu’s friendship for Han, and he can feel City Lord Zhu more deeply. Enthusiastic move. After all, City Lord Zhu has already done that first, your sister is my sister, and your friend is my friend.”

Zhu Yanshuo was stunned for a moment, obviously, he understood that George Han was referring to himself The sister and his friend Xia Wei exchanged faces.

This is also the root cause of Zhu Yanshuo’s complete murderous intention.

With a cold smile, Zhu Yanshuo said, “Sometimes, being too smart is not necessarily a good thing, pretending to be stupid and having to live by it will allow you to enjoy all the glory and wealth.”

Obviously, for Zhu Yanshuo, if George Han would not go at all Doing these things, honestly marrying his sister, and being his sister-in-law, he George Han will not be like this, and even enjoy the glory and wealth.

But unfortunately, this guy has no way to hell but insists on breaking in.

“On that day, I was able to hold you very high. Today

, I can also make you fall from above. Your height is just a ladder for us to climb up.”

“I know George Han, you are very unconvinced now. After all, in your understanding, since you can sway my four great masters, and you can come and go from my city master’s mansion at will, naturally, you will not be at all. We took it seriously, right?”

Seeing that Zhu Yanshuo’s words became more and more gloomy, George Han just kept his smile.

George Han never ignored the person who fell into the city, otherwise, he would definitely not have prepared like this in the past three days.

“Hehe, don’t worry, I’ve been waiting for three days, isn’t it all to give you a big gift today?” He clapped his hands lightly when he finished.

For a while, there was a movement in the back of the crowd, and Ye Shijun, surrounded by Fuye’s two executives, slowly walked over from the back...
