

Chapter 3352– 3353 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 3352

The old man Chu of the Chu family also entered the forbidden area a few years ago and never came out.

This place has always been forbidden to enter.

Only the past Patriarch of the Chu family can enter when the deadline is approaching.

It can be said that this area is the sacred place of the Chu family.

Now, at the juncture of life and death, these Chu family members can't take care of that much anymore, and they hid in one after another.

Even Chu Shen, who was beaten to death by Mark, was carried in by the Chu family.

Mark walked slowly until he came to the forbidden ground.

A huge stone gate lay across here.

It is engraved with a few large characters in vermilion: "The ancestral land is located, and mortals are not allowed to enter!"

Mark suddenly smiled when he saw it.

"The land of the ancestors, in the hot summer, in the Fenghai."

"Is it here?"

With a sneer, Mark kicked the stone gate in front of him without saying a word.

The rocks exploded and the dust was flying.

After the Shimen was shattered, the Chu family hiding in it appeared in front of Mark without any barriers.

"My nephew, I am your cousin."

"From your dad's face, you can't kill me either..."

.....

"Yes, grandson, I belong to your grandfather's generation."

"Your father, he has to call my uncle too."

"How can you kill your elders?"

....

At the juncture of life and death, these Chu family members began to discuss seniority with Mark and talk about their deaths.

Some people even regret and blame themselves.

“Hey...”

“We are also to blame for what happened back then.”

“Old man, he insists on going his own way and wants to drive you and your mother out of the family.”

“We have tried to persuade each other.”

“But the old man doesn’t buy in oil and salt, so he doesn’t listen at all.”

“If time can go back, we would be admonishment to death at the beginning, and we have to leave you and your mother behind.”

“Mark, we know that you have suffered a lot over the years. It is our Chu family who is sorry for you.”

“But, we are all blood relatives, breaking the bones and connecting the tendons.”

“Are you really willing to kill your blood relatives?”

These people in front of Markxiao treated Markxiao with affection, moved with reason, and persuaded each other bitterly.

Some people burst into tears and blamed themselves and annoyed.

If Mark heard these apologies many years ago, he would have been deeply moved.

But now, Mark has no feelings.

The ups and downs of these years, the desperate situation of life and death, have long polished the heart of this young man as hard as iron.

How can these people be moved by a few words?

On the contrary, when Mark heard this, he only thought it was ridiculous.

“uncle?”

“grandfather?”?

“But I clearly remember that those of you who claimed to be my uncle’s elders humiliated me and my mother in every possible way.”

“Seriously, I should thank you now.”

“Thank you people for the suffering that brought me!”

“If you weren’t able to tolerate me back then, there would be no Brian Chutoday!”

“As for the apology, there is no need to say it.”

“I will take your heads and return to the hot summer.”

“Then tell my mother that the son got back what the Chu family owed us back then.”

Marksen smiled, Binghan’s words were full of killing intent.

At this time, Mark slowly lifted off.

Gushing energy, in front of him, gathered into a huge palm covering the sky.

Behind is the vast world, underfoot, are the Chu family for a century, and the Chu family in fear and begging for mercy.

Mark remembered that at the last moment in the Chu family, the Chu family used a giant palm to smash their mother and son down Chumen Mountain.

“The cause of the past, the fruit of today.”

“Return the palm of the year to you!”

This was Mark’s last voice, and it was the last voice the Chu family heard before they died.

Then, the giant palm covering the sky where Mark’s endless divine power gathered, slammed down towards the Chu Family Forbidden Land below.

Boom~

Chapter 3353

“Do not!”

“Don’t...”

“I don’t want to die!”

“I don’t have a son yet?”

Seeing the sky-covering palm prints that fell from the sky, the Chu family was panicked and desperate in the forbidden ground.

Elder Truman at the rear was equally anxious, and stopped one after another.

But what’s the use?

Let them cry, let them howl, Mark won't have any fluctuations.

All the results are due to past causes.

What kind of pain the Chu family has brought to their mother and son for so many years.

Have they ever felt guilty? Ever felt guilty? Has there ever been more than half of pity?

At this time, they were begging for death, and Mark would naturally not be moved by it.

“The Chu Family's legend ends here.”

Mark's eyes were indifferent, and he looked ruthlessly at the Chu family who was covered by the giant palm below. He looked indifferent, just looking at a dead corpse.

However, just when everyone thought that the Chu family was inevitable this time.

In the depths of the forbidden area, a majestic breath suddenly appeared.

That feeling is like a dragon opening his eyes and a tiger returning to the mountain.

Immediately afterwards, everyone only felt that a force like the sea of abyss swept out from the depths of the Tianhe River.

Afterwards, between the lightning, stone and fire, a mountain of fist prints gathered and formed in the void, and then they smashed into Mark's palm prints.

Boom~

Just a momentary collision, the loud noise brought by the sky swept everything.

Immediately afterwards, a figure fell directly from the air, and then fell to the ground, stepping back several steps on the ground.

Every step back leaves a tragic footprint on the ground.

It wasn't until he finally hit a boulder that he completely relieved his strength.

“This...this is Chu Tianfan?”

“Brian Chu was repelled?”

“My God, that hot summer boy was actually repulsed by someone frontally?”

Seeing the scene in front of everyone, they all trembled and their pupils shrank and burst.

They never imagined that Mark, who had previously slaughtered the Quartet, was suddenly repelled.

“Who would it be?”

“Could it be that the ancestors of the Chu family appeared?”

Everyone is crazy, and everyone is looking forward with excitement.

There was shock and doubt in my heart.

People like Juggernaut and others only felt that this Chu family was simply powerful and terrifying.

Hidden Dragon and Crouching Tiger!

First, the Yunyangxian array, and then the two elders Xuanming, the black and white double evil spirits.

Any one of these hole cards is taken out, it is a powerful force that can suppress a country!

Everyone thought that after Mark tried his best to break through the protective clan formation with the power of the Dragon God, and defeated the two elders Xuan Ming with Yun Dao Tian Jue, this Chu family was the thing under Mark's feet.

But now it seems that they are still naive.

Still underestimate this Chu family.

Up to now, the Chu family has yet to show their cards.

When the Juggernaut and others trembled and wondered, the Chu family actually looked equally bewildered.

Because they don't know who made the punch mark just now.

Just when everyone was full of suspicion, a burly figure appeared quietly in the depths of the forbidden ground and between the stone forests.

This person is dressed in a gray robe and gray hair, but he is very strong and strong.

This person wears ordinary clothes, looks ordinary, and even has a sparse and ordinary temperament.

Looking from a distance, it is no different from ordinary people.

If this old man appeared in the bazaar, it would be that kind of obscure role, and no one would pay attention to him at all.

But now, even if an ordinary person appears in the depths of the gate of Chu, it is estimated that no one will underestimate him.

"This...this is?"

Seeing the old man in front of him, the world was almost silent.

Everyone held their breath and stared at the old man.

At this moment, there is only one thought left in everyone's mind.

who is he?

Why is it here?

Is it a man or a ghost?

Or is it the return of the ancestors of the Chu family?

Not only outsiders have such doubts, even the Chu family members are staring at this person in a daze.
