

Chapter 3354

Zhu Yanshuo's side, killing hearts get up early, and there is no mercy between shots, and they come directly with huge energy.

"Let's play on the side."

But almost at the moment when he took off, a black shadow suddenly appeared in front of him, and almost before he could react, a big hand directly faced his palm. .

Then, with a low voice, Zhu Yanshuo suddenly felt that his incomparably powerful energy had suddenly vanished, and at the same time, a huge energy was rushing towards his whole body madly along his palm.

"Pfft!"

Zhu Yanshuo spewed out a mouthful of blood, and the whole person instantly retreated several meters away, and his load-bearing feet sank directly into the soil several centimeters deep.

"What a powerful force!"

Although he already knew that George Han was difficult to deal with

, Zhu Yanshuo knew that it was so difficult to deal with when they fought each other. Almost just the skill between raising his hands fully explained the relationship between the two of them. A huge difference.

Clutching his heart-piercing hand, Zhu Yanshuo's infinite anger could only die at this moment, looking at George Han viciously, there was no other way.

"Ten thousand of you are not enough for me to play, so call your master, oh no, maybe it's a dog's leg, it's optional." After the words were finished, George Han set his eyes on Ye Shijun.

Fang Cai's words were obviously referring to him.

"You..." Zhu Yanshuo was in a hurry.

However, at this moment, a big hand stood in front of Zhu Yanshuo and smiled softly: "I'm rather interested in playing with him." After he finished speaking, he stood up slightly and gently rolled up his cuffs.

Futian smiled coldly: "Shijun, why worry, with your current level of cultivation, how can a cat and a dog be qualified to fight with you?"

After finishing his words, he glanced at the four masters behind Zhu Yanshuo: "Everything, also It depends on whether he is worthy or not, if he can't even beat the four great masters, can he George Han be qualified?"

Then, Futian gently attached to Ye Shijun's ear and said, "I know you really want to teach George Han a lesson. Qian, but when you boil a frog in warm water, the most important thing is patience."

“Let this wave of people consume him first, and then you can take action when it’s almost time. Since we have such a good opportunity now, we must seize it thoroughly. Let him George Han never be born.”

After hearing Futian’s words, Ye Shijun didn’t say anything, but he didn’t refuse, it was obvious that the old fox’s words had moved Ye Shijun.

In addition to being flattering, Futian was able to continue to . Naturally, some of this old man’s thoughts won Ye Shijun’s approval.

George Han smiled lightly: “If you want to play a war of attrition, you can play a war of attrition, and find such a high-sounding excuse, Futian, you really can’t change it.

”, George Han will accompany him to the end.” As the words fell, the sky fire and the moon wheel came out, circling slightly around George Han.

Although the person did not move, the momentum reached the maximum at this time.

The four masters looked at each other, and each couldn’t help but swallow their saliva. Naturally, they had experienced George Han’s ability, and now fighting again is equivalent to sending them to death.

But now that people have something to say, Zhu Yanshuo is also here.

After thinking about it, the four of them unified their thoughts. After nodding to each other, they attacked George Han directly.

Anyway, it is difficult to ride a tiger, so it is better for the four to join forces to fight, maybe, to regain some momentum.

“Black wind!”

“Demon claws!” “The devil is in the world!”

“Iron-blooded big feet.”

Dare not to be the slightest careless, dare not to be slighted, let alone underestimate the enemy, the four masters are almost as soon as they come up. Directly resort to their strongest ultimate move.

Suddenly, the surrounding situation changed, and the surging energy was looming in the air. George Han, who was at the center of the attack, even felt that his body was constantly being pushed back by the air waves.

“Boom!!!” The

clouds moved in the sky, and thunder flashed wildly!

The four masters also suddenly became one, getting closer and closer to George Han.

And here, George Han suddenly moved slightly...

Chapter 3355

incarnations of eight bodies, even if they do not hide, the giant axe protrudes between the backhands, the sky fire moon wheel wraps the axe body, and the eight bodies swing the axe, Slash with an axe!

Boom!!!

The four energies suddenly confronted the axe in the hands of Shanghan George Han, and the two suddenly fell into a stalemate.

But the four masters almost collectively showed embarrassment at this time, forcibly gritted their teeth and reluctantly attacked. On the other hand, George Han has a calm face, and the eight golden bodies are even more powerful.

“Pangu Axe!”

Ye Shijun gritted his teeth coldly, and he could recognize the giant axe in George Han’s hand at a glance.

Even, in Ye Shijun’s heart, he thought that the Pangu Axe should have belonged to his Ye family. It was George Han, a young man, who took it from his father, and even killed his father.

Therefore, he was only full of anger.

“What, Pangu Axe?!”

Zhu Yanshuo’s group was completely different. When they heard the name of the King of All Weapons, all that was left was shock and fear.

That is the strongest weapon in the world, not even one of them.

According to legend, whoever can get it can dominate the top existence in the Bafang world.

Who would not be afraid of its axe?

Zhu Yanshuo is like this here, and the four masters who mustered the courage over there are completely MMPs.

No wonder when he fought against George Han before, his axe could cut off the nails of the old phoenix immortal.

Back then, the group of people was still full of doubts and puzzled. But now, they totally fucked it up.

For such a fetish, let alone some nails in Fengji Laoxian District, even if Fengji Laoxian was sent directly to him, ten of him would not be enough to say hello.

This is so fucking perverted.

But it is precisely because they too perverted that the four masters will feel their own hair in their hearts.

After all, what can they use to compete with such a king of ten thousand tools?

Isn’t this a joke?

Thinking of this, the courage that I just mustered up will be completely gone.

At this time, George Han didn't have the slightest sense of fatigue on his face, only endless relaxation.

Raise the axe, chop down!

boom! ! !

The eight axes moved in unison, and the seemingly incomparably powerful four energies were immediately pressed to the ground.

Immediately after, with a bang, the four energies shook the house with their residual heat, and after the dust curled up, they announced their disappearance.

And almost at the same time, the four masters were also cut off because of their strength, and the power of backlash directly shocked the four of them back a few steps. The Black Mountain Demon Girl at the center was even worse, not only retreating more, but even if the people behind them rushed Supported, but the huge backlash still made her vomit blood.

Each of the four masters looked shocked, looking at George Han in the field in disbelief.

They only fought once three days ago. It stands to reason that the four of them should have a good understanding of George Han's ability, but after fighting again this round, the four of them directly fell into hesitation.

It's been three days, but George Han's strength has suddenly increased several times.

To say that even if the four of them played one by one in turn, even if each of them might not have beaten Han 3,000, it was absolutely impossible for him to open the gap by him in an instant.

But today, I don't know if I and others are too old to lift a knife. The four of them worked together and had no two hearts, and they were beaten directly by the person who met each other. This gap is almost if you think about it with your butt, you can know that it is completely different.

They really wanted to calm down, and then the four of them sat together and had a good discussion about what kind of ghosts they encountered.

Are you a human?

"Wheel battle? Consume me?" George Han smiled and said, "Bah!"

One word, one action, is enough to arouse anyone's anger, but at this moment, the four masters, including the soldiers behind them, not only did not get angry, Instead, he almost automatically took a step back in an unusually tacit understanding.

Yes, being crushed like this and being despised by others is naturally normal.

Futian's complexion also turned extremely ugly. He had planned a good plan, but was instantly slapped in the face, how could he not be ashamed?

However, at this moment, a figure stood up slowly, with an evil smile on his face, looking at George Han lightly: "I'll play with you."

Exactly, Ye Shijun!
