

Chapter 3362

unless someone can help themselves defense.

Or start a charge instead of yourself.

This is the only way to break this deadlock.

But the question is, who will replace him?

George Han's excitement fell into a trough again in an instant.

Even if you are as strong as yourself, you can't move an inch in this pillar of black wind, so what else can you do to help yourself?

There seems to be no.

But just when George Han fell into despair, this guy suddenly laughed.

"Damn, after raising pigs for so many days, at the most critical moment, I forgot about pigs."

Evil gluttonous!

As an ancient vicious beast, George Han doesn't know how much he is capable of now, but one thing is certain is that since this guy has such a great background, his own strength must exceed ordinary people.

If you use him to replace yourself as a tough hand, that is the best choice.

Thinking of this, George Han stopped talking nonsense and moved his hand slightly.

Immediately afterwards, consciousness moved in his mind.

"Roar!"

At the same time, the seemingly calm outside suddenly roared wildly, and then a behemoth in the temple rushed out.

Before everyone could react, the behemoth had already soared into the sky and flew directly to the black wind column in mid-air.

"Damn, what is that?"

"It seems to be some kind of beast, grass, isn't this speed too fast?"

"Fuck, what monstrous bastard, scares Lao Tzu.

"The guy who rushed out was not at all prepared.

That's right, since before these people came, the gluttons of evil have been biting wildly with the collapsed stone pillars, researching whether they can be put in their mouths.

Since then

, it has been quietly tossing there, not to mention that this group of people didn't pay attention, even George Han almost forgot about it.

"Haha, I guess it's George Han's god pet. It's funny, the master is stupid, even the god pet that his mother received is just as stupid. It's clear that the master is dying there, this guy I'm still rushing to send it in."

"As the saying goes, if you are foolish, you will be fooled, and if you are stupid, you will be foolish. The owner is still a fool, how can a god pet be better??"

After a group of people were slightly shocked, they all laughed lightly.

Zhu Yanshuo was also deeply amused, but basically everyone else was able to ridicule him.

Qing Ji stared blankly at the sky, with mixed feelings in her heart. She didn't know if this was a good thing or a bad thing. George Han was in deep danger, and it was a good thing for someone to help.

But the ridicule of those people is not unreasonable. Knowing that it is a dead end, why should they sacrifice their lives in vain?

The only thing that can make her stick to it is that it is a gluttony of evil.

"Roar!"

In front of the Pillar of Black Wind, there was another beast roar that shook the world.

Ye Shijun's eyes shrank sharply: "Is there another one to die?"

After the words fell, the glutton of evil over there also roared, and without even thinking about it, he got into the black wind.

Ye Shijun smiled coldly: "Well, let's give you master and servant a hearty iron pot to simmer."

Suddenly, the black wind was reinfused into life, and the wind became stronger again, together with the entire black wind. The column also started to grow quite a bit.

Within the black wind, George Han had just stabilized and then faced a sudden increase in the black wind. George Han did not dare to take a breath, so he hurriedly pulled up his energy and resisted.

"Damn it, I really don't take a breath." With a low scolding, George Han re-energized his energy again and defended his defense.

He glanced at the black wind in front of him, and his eyes were deep: "I hope that so many things in these three days have not been eaten in vain, the gluttonous gluttony, you motherfucker must withstand it."

This is George Han The only life-saving straw is also the key factor in whether George Han can fight back.

It's just that even George Han has no bottom. Does the glutton of evil have the ability to break in directly by itself.

Wait, wait deeply.

Live like a year.

I don't know how long it took, almost when George Han was about to despair, suddenly, within sight, a dark shadow slowly appeared..

Chapter 3363

Evil gluttony!

It is the glutton of evil!

Even if the strong black wind blocked his line of sight, and even if George Han could only see clearly that it was an extremely vague black shadow, George Han knew very well that the shadow was not someone else, but a glutton of evil.

No one would break into such a place at such a time, and perhaps it could be said that no one could enter here under such circumstances.

It can only be it.

George Han smiled, and his desperate eyes suddenly glowed with endless joy.

It's getting closer, it's getting closer, it's getting closer.

Then, in the black wind, the huge figure gradually revealed its body.

Although he already knew that it was a gluttonous glutton, when George Han could really see its true colors, he couldn't help but be overjoyed.

"Niubi, as expected of an ancient beast, you can actually ."

George Han couldn't help but praise, and at the same time expanded his energy cover, directly wrapping the gluttony in it.

At this time, Evil Taotie's body was already covered with scars, and even if he was as strong as him, under this extremely strong black wind, it was already a little difficult to hold on.

Thinking about it, even George Han himself was unable to move an inch inside, and it was already very remarkable that it could rush in.

However, the power of the black wind is extremely powerful, and the wind behavior is also very strange. It is easy to get in, but difficult to get out.

Going in with the current, going out is like sailing against the current.

Judging from the scars on Evil Taotie's body at present, even if it is stronger than it, it is as difficult as going out to the sky.

This is the hope that the glutton of evil brings in, but also the despair it brings.

Unless he can absorb the power of chaos in his stomach again, then George Han is somewhat confident that he can try again by himself.

But obviously this idea is unrealistic.

When I met it in Sleepy Dragon Mountain, I didn't know how long it had been raised to have such a large size, and it took three days to feed it, which was obviously delusional.

It looks like this, it's almost as good as it can be used by oneself, where is the excess to let oneself suck? !

"How about you and I work together?" George Han looked at the gluttonous eater of evil.

He walks forward behind his back, while he protects them with energy, so working together, there may be a chance of survival.

But Evil Taotie shook his head, and murmured some strange voices in his mouth, which George Han couldn't understand at all.

However, looking at some of its expressions, George Han roughly understood what it meant.

"Are you trying to tell me that this method won't work?" George Han said softly with a frown.

Evil Taotie nodded heavily.

George Han did not speak, and was silent for a while.

In fact, he is also considering the possibility of this method. It does have a synergistic effect, and it is worth trying, but George Han has no idea how high the success rate is.

Secondly, its consequences are also very serious. Once one person and one beast cannot support it, the outcome will be exactly the same as when George Han was alone, or even more tragic.

Because at that time, one person and one beast will be trapped in this place, and there is no hope other than waiting to die.

But if not, what is the best way to do it now? !

George Han was very confused.

However, at this moment, the gluttonous eater of evil was still moving, as if it wanted to tell George Han something.

But the action was too long and complicated. George Han just watched it for a long time, but he didn't understand what this guy was trying to express.

Grandma's, it's also depressing to say, Evil Taotie is a big beast, but his mother can't speak, and I don't know if he hasn't grown up to the time to speak.

If that's the case, then it's a little terrifying. After all, he was so huge in the beginning, and he hasn't reached the realm of speaking, so what kind of existence will it be when it really grows to a complete body?

However, George Han didn't have the time to think about those things, and the more important thing was in front of him.

"Roar!"

It seemed impatient that George Han couldn't understand what it meant. After a roar, it suddenly made a move that made George Han stunned on the spot...
