

Chapter 3388

Chase, for a while, Zhu Yanshuo's gang would have a hard time catching up.

Seeing this, George Han finally slowed down and found a relatively remote place to breathe a sigh of relief.

Glancing at Xia Wei, then at the pangolin, the old man and the others, George Han asked with concern, "Are you all right?"

Qing Ji didn't need to say more, and she didn't hurt too much from beginning to end. As for Xia Wei, After the face-changing correction, Zhu Yanshuo was worried about her sister's safety, so she didn't know what kind of magic medicine she gave. She is in a good state of mind now, and she has no trauma at all, so it's okay now.

Xiaochunhua's situation was okay, but the haggard-looking old man took the lead in shaking his head: "It's just a little bit old and useless, to be honest, there is no moonlight ghost fish. It's so fierce, I'm still holding on." The pangolin also smiled lightly at this time: "Don't worry, isn't there something you said? This person is made of iron, although my pangolin is not iron, but this armor is not enough. It's much harder than iron."

George Han smiled and nodded, and it was only fortunate that the three of them responded in time, and they were excited when they saw him, but after hearing that they were just maid bodyguards, he immediately hide your excitement on the surface.

Acting depends on the whole set. No matter how good George Han's acting skills are, it is still impossible to deceive Zhu Yanshuo's group.

"It's all my fault this time. You asked me to lead the team at George Han, but they fell into the hands of Zhu Yanshuo as a bastard after following me. I'm really unwilling, but I'm really sorry for you all." Pangolin said this, feeling a little guilty lowered his head.

"I can't blame you for this at all. If you want to blame it, you can only blame that guy's human face and animal heart, taking advantage of our danger." The old man shook his head and said.

Xiaochunhua also nodded at George Han, indicating that she also supported this statement, and her purpose was naturally to hope that George Han would not blame pangolins.

George Han smiled and said, "Why would I blame anyone? Zhu Yanshuo looked at the gentleman, but in fact he was very smart and scheming. It would be strange if he didn't follow the way of such a person.

" When George Han said this, the group of people breathed a sigh of relief.

The old man nodded: "Three thousand is what I said, that city lord is indeed the best among the beasts, even the old man I have lived in the land of demons for such a long time, I know that there are almost no good people in this place, but It's also like taking him as a good person and falling into a trap."

“However, it is precisely because of these people with high IQ that you have a chance to survive.” George Han said.

The old man nodded undeniably

. It is because people are smart that they think more. If it is a reckless man, he can directly kill and take the goods, without leaving any troubles, and the wise must be concerned, and this will trap a few people, so that if there is any emergency, the matter will not develop out of control. level.

“By the way, George Han, what should we do now?” Xiaochunhua said: “These people are so vicious, it’s impossible to give up after thinking about it, and you have humiliated them so much, they’re afraid...”

Speaking of this, Qing Ji He also nodded: “Yeah, three thousand, Zhu Yanshuo doesn’t look like an ordinary person. If he takes revenge, it must be Lei Ting Wanjun, so...”

” It’s tightly closed, and the guards are strict, if you just hide, it’s only a matter of time before you’ll be discovered.” Xiaochunhua also said.

Although Xia Wei didn’t speak, her eyes at this time already explained everything.

She has always been smart, and everyone can find problems, and she can understand all of them naturally, and the reason why she didn’t speak at this time is because she knows that hiding in this city is actually as difficult as reaching the sky.

However, she didn’t want to ask George Han any more troubles, and at the same time, she also believed that with George Han’s cleverness, he must have his idea.

George Han was silent. Although he did not know what method Ye Shijun and his gang used to find him, he was certain that Ye Shijun must have some unique secret method. Otherwise, the temple would not be destroyed so quickly. found.

Moreover, the strange smell that suddenly appeared that night also confirmed George Han’s view.

So, in fact, hiding is not very meaningful, they will be found again soon.

But for others, this is very hopeless, but for George Han...

“I have a solution.”

Chapter 3389

Xia Wei laughed when she heard George Han’s words, but it was definitely not the kind of laughter because of safety, but It’s very simple because George Han has his own way as she expected.

The other people looked at George Han curiously, especially Qing Ji. Because they didn’t have much contact with George Han, they didn’t know how terrifying George Han was in desperate times. , said suspiciously: “This is a matter of human life, and we might have to die here in a nest, don’t you make fun of it?”

George Han shook his head helplessly: "You think I don't know what it means if we fail. What? Do you think I don't know how much Ye Shijun and Zhu Yanshuo want us to fail?"

"To be honest, the search we will face next can be directly described as hell

"Or so Say, if digging three feet is usually an adjective, then now, in the days to come, this is definitely not an adjective, but an absolutely true case."

This is not any exaggeration, nor is it an exaggeration. It's not any description. If they really can't find themselves in the Luocheng, George Han believes that with Zhu Yanshuo's sickness and Ye Shijun's anger, they will really do this, turning the Luocheng upside down, inch by inch.

So, in fact, it is impossible for the fallen city to have a safe place for them.

"If you know that's the case, why didn't they let us go out and let people go when they were doing the deal?" Qing Ji asked with a frown.

This is a good question. With George Han's astuteness, would he not have thought of this ?

Don't talk about him, even a stupid bandit would know to take hostages to escape. This is a matter of basic common sense.

But there is a reason why George Han didn't do this.

He asked too much, and Zhu Yanshuo thought about it more. For a person like Zhu Yanshuo, to completely discard his usual gentle and polite veil for his sister, you can't guarantee that he will be completely desperate. He cares so much about Ye Shijun's life and death.

The rabbit is in a hurry and wants to bite, not to mention that Zhu Yanshuo is not a rabbit at all, but a vicious dog who doesn't bite anyone.

Therefore, George Han had to leave a stall for him, and George Han could not tell him this stall, because his cleverness would be mistaken for a while, but once he figured it out, he would completely get into this stall. .

Naturally

, he has his own ideas in the stall, and naturally he will not be too concerned about any requirements of George Han in the stall. Anyway, for him, he guards the bottom line.

Therefore, whether George Han directly chopped off Ye Shijun and Futian's arms, or threatened to make her sister look like Xia Wei, for Ye Shijun, it was both irritating but acceptable.

This is the benefit of stalls.

It is convenient for George Han to bring everyone back safely, and it is also convenient for George Han to even take the opportunity to complete a certain degree of small revenge.

Of course, George Han is also very clear about the risk of this stall, that is, once Zhu Yanshuo has mastered the absolute initiative, the encirclement and suppression of George Han must be crazy and extremely terrifying.

This point, George Han can say very clearly.

After Qing Ji heard this

, the whole person was not puzzled in the slightest, but even more anxious. Since this is the case, is there any use for other things?

“How can it be useless?” George Han smiled: “The more fierce they come, the happier I am, because under such circumstances, if they miss out, how much damage will it cause to their body and mind?”

Yes, if this is the case, the other party can't find anyone, and it will inevitably collapse.

But the premise is that the other party has to be unable to find it, but where else can he stay in this city.

George Han smiled slightly and looked at the pangolin.

The pangolin smiled bitterly and said, “It looks like a dead end, but unfortunately that Zhu Yanshuo doesn't know, in fact, for George Han, what is the real point.” When the words were finished, George Han smiled and said, “You should perform. now...”
