Chapter 339 - You were right

‘Stop right there, what are you doing!’ Liu Qiang shouted angrily at the several security guards.

The few security guards smiled and looked confused, but still obediently stopped in their tracks and looked at each other, somewhat at a loss for words.

‘Young Qiang Qiang, we are planning to clean him up? What’s wrong?’

‘That’s right, Young Master Qiang, this little bastard said that about you, of course we have to clean him up, otherwise we wouldn’t have let him go?’

Liu Qiang smiled and walked towards those security guards with a face full of anger, and casually threw two slaps at the two in front of his head, cracking his hand.

‘You guys get lost with me!’ Liu Qiang roared.

Those two security guards were beaten and froze, looking completely at a loss for words.

Even the head security guard was also confused at this moment.

He hurriedly stepped forward and said, ‘Young Master Qiang, I didn’t really mean anything else, we all meant well and wanted to help you settle this kid, he humiliated you so much, I couldn’t even hear it anymore!’

As soon as the head security guard finished speaking, he suddenly felt some chills all over his body, then he saw that Liu Qiang was actually looking at himself icily, his eyes were full of killing intent.

‘Help me? You’re still f*cking kind? I’ll f*cking smack you to death for being so kind and nice!’

After finishing his words, Liu Qiang raised his hand and punched the head of the scolding security guard again, his fists raining down, causing the head of the security guard to beg for mercy.

‘I’m sorry, I’m sorry,’ the head security guard begged, ‘I really know I’m wrong, I shouldn’t have taken credit for your work, you can handle it yourself, we promise not to interfere.’

It was obvious that up to now, this head of security had not been able to come around, he still thought that Liu Qiang had beaten himself up because he was afraid that he had stolen his credit, and thought that people just wanted to clean up Jiang Hao by themselves.

The head of the security guards still can’t come back to his senses. I don’t even know how I’ll die today, how can I steal credit? What kind of merit is that?

‘Still f*cking nonsense, believe it or not, I’ll kill you!’ Liu Qiang fiercely kicked out, directly kicking the head of the security guard far away.

This scene not only stunned everyone present, but also made everyone not dare to act rashly.

Especially Feng Pingping, at this moment, even though her brain was revving up a hundred times, she could not figure out what was going on.

Could it be that Liu Qiang had suddenly gone mad? Feng Pingping consoled herself with this in her heart.

But at that moment, she suddenly felt a figure appear in front of her, and when she looked up, she saw Liu Qiang looking at her with an angry face.

‘Brother Qiangqiang,’ Feng Pingping was so frightened by this show that she shivered and spoke incoherently, but forgot what she had said in the last episode.

‘What did you just say?’ Liu Qiang snorted coldly and questioned Feng Pingping, ‘You re-speak aside!’

‘I didn’t say anything ah?’ Feng Pingping said with a pale face, ‘I really didn’t say anything’

Feng Pingping’s mind was blank, but she deeply felt one thing, that is, she might have to plant herself here today.

Liu Qiang glanced at Jiang Hao, who had been standing by the side without saying anything, and continued to say to Feng Pingping, ‘What did you just say about him?’

Liu Qiang’s tone was cold, and Feng Pingping was overwhelmed with fear, and as soon as she heard this, she hurriedly said subconsciously, ‘Yes, I mean he just scolded you downstairs, and he also scolded your father, Mr. Liu.’

Feng Pingping swallowed and continued, ‘He cursed you and your father, just a dog of his, and said that you are not even a fart’

Before Feng Pingping could finish her sentence, she suddenly felt her hair being violently grabbed by Liu Qiang.

Liu Qiang grabbed Feng Pingping’s hair and slammed it against the wall of the corridor.

Feng Pingping felt a tingling at the back of her head, and then her whole body fell heavily against the wall.

The pain was unbearable and Feng Pingping felt as if her body had fallen apart.

This scene scared several of the security guards who were present, each of them jumping in fear, as if they would be next.

Liu Qiang spat fiercely, pointing at these people and cursing, ‘You bunch of dog-eyed things, today is just the beginning, you wait for me, see how I will fix you later!’

Liu Qiang looked over at Jiang Hao and unexpectedly squeezed out a smile, only that smile, it was a humble one, a careful and fearful smile.

But as soon as he turned his head and faced those security guards and Feng Pingping, Liu Qiang had a fierce and fierce expression again.

Pointing at those people present, Liu Qiang scolded them, and finally his eyes fell on Feng Pingping, sneered and pointed at her, 'Didn't you just say that I and my father were just dogs in front of her? Didn't you say that we weren't even a fart?'

Before Liu Qiang could finish his words, Feng Pingping's whole face was distorted in fear, as white as a sheet of paper.

She broke into tears and shook her head repeatedly, 'No I didn't it was all his own words, it wasn't my words Brother Qiang, I really didn't say that'

Feng Pingping fought to explain the matter clearly, but only saw Liu Qiang give a contemptuous smile and spoke, 'Not bad, you didn't say anything wrong!'

Chapter 340 - Affection

Liu Qiang sneered and continued, 'You're damn right, not only me, but also my father, in front of him, Jiang Shao, would have been nothing more than a dog!'

As soon as Liu Qiang said this, the air in the whole corridor seemed to freeze, and the security guards looked at Liu Qiang with a strange gaze, as if they had heard wrongly, and could not believe for a million times that those words just came out of Liu Qiang's mouth.

It was hard to believe that Liu Qiang was really crazy? Otherwise, with his character, how could he have said such words.

In normal days, Liu Qiang was so competitive that he would sometimes fight with other young men for the sake of a little vanity.

But what was wrong with him today? He had said such things to an ordinary poor loser, could it be that he was possessed?

The people in the audience were guessing wildly in their minds, but they never had an answer, and even became more and more confused.

Soon, however, these people would find out that what Liu Qiang had just said was nothing at all, because her next move simply made everyone's jaws drop in shock.

Liu Qiang turned his head and cursed those people, 'You dogs, do you even know what you have done? And what did you say? How dare you talk to Mr Jiang like that? I think you guys have purely had enough of living!'

Having said that, Liu Qiang hurriedly walked towards Jiang Hao with a complicated expression on his face.

Seeing this, Xue Yuning became a little nervous and involuntarily hid behind Jiang Hao.

What happened before was still fresh in her mind.

But what surprised Xue Yu Ning was that when he was still a metre away from Jiang Hao, Liu Qiang suddenly stopped and his subsequent action scared Xue Yu Ning.

It was because he had fallen to his knees!

Liu Qiang just knelt down to Jiang Hao in full view of everyone, displaying, what appeared to be, a completely submissive look.

Liu Qiang buried his head deeply, then knocked his head on the ground, and the whole person respectfully said to Jiang Hao, 'Young Jiang, I'm really sorry, please calm your anger!'

Liu Qiang's action and the words he said were like a thunderbolt from a clear sky, which directly exploded in the hearts of everyone present.

If these people had only been surprised by Liu Qiang's strange and unexplainable actions, they were now almost all dumbfounded.

Everyone stared dumbfounded at the scene before them, unable to believe their eyes or ears, and even Feng Pingping pinched herself hard to see if she was in a nightmare.

Her leg hurt, what she saw was real, what she heard was real, so obviously it wasn't a nightmare!

But what was happening in front of her, Feng Pingping was not willing to accept no matter what.

What the hell was going on here? How could Liu Qiang kneel down for Jiang Hao? And even kowtowed to make amends? This was too damn magical.

Who was Liu Qiang? The son of Chu Jiang's big brother Liu Guohao, he was a rampant presence in Chu Jiang.

And Jiang Hao? That is the poor and famous stinking loser of Chujiang University.

The two are a hundred thousand miles apart, simply a wind and an ox. If it were usual, someone like Jiang Hao dared to offend Liu Qiang like he did today, he would probably be fixed to death by Liu Qiang later!

But today, Liu Qiang knelt down for him, even like a wolf cub meeting a wolf king, tucking his tail to please the other party?

What the hell is going on here? Feng Pingping simply had a splitting headache when she thought about it.

The few security guards on the other side were also dumbfounded at this point, each of them poking their heads in place, watching Liu Qiang's kneeling back with their eyes wide open, the crowd was simply as if they were petrified.

What the hell is going on here?

It was hard to believe that this kid was really some kind of big shot?

This was Liu Qiang, one of the most arrogant people in Chu Jiang's second generation, and now he was kneeling in front of this man in a humble manner?

The head of the security guard was frowning at this moment, feeling deeply that today's matter seemed to be really big.

The first thing he did when he came back to his senses was to scold his two men in a low voice to let go of Xu Qingqing.

Xu Qingqing, who had suddenly been released, fell to the ground as soon as her whole body went limp.

Seeing this, Xue Yuning hurriedly rushed over and held the other party up.

Until this moment, Xu Qingqing's whole body was still mute. She took a while before she lifted her head to look around, and when she saw Xue Yuning's delicate face, she could no longer hold back and cried out with a loud 'wow'.

'Xue Yuning hugged Xu Qingqing tightly in her arms and looked at Jiang Hao. At this moment, Xue Yuning seemed to have understood that everything was under Jiang Hao's control.

She might not know exactly when, but this unbeatable Liu Qiang might have been tidied up by the two long ago.

In that case, there was no need to be afraid herself, and Xu Qingqing was also equal to being completely saved.

Xu Qingqing cried for a while before she seemed to slow down, as if there was suddenly a hint of life in her cold state.

The next thing she knew, she looked up at Jiang Hao, with an indescribable emotion in her eyes.
