

Chapter 3394

The rise of George Han is eating, and he did not pay any attention to Amelia Su's actions, until she suddenly stood up, George Han only looked He stared blankly at her.

But seeing the coldness on Amelia Su's face, George Han suddenly felt a little cold, and asked tentatively, "What's wrong?"

Amelia Su didn't answer, looked into George Han's eyes, and said coldly, "Youming City is very difficult. Are you entangled?"

George Han smiled and said, "It's not that difficult, I've already arrived at the city recently. It's just that there was an accident on the way."

Hearing George Han's words, Amelia Su looked at his smile and smiled. Tears flowed down suddenly, he pointed at George Han's right waist, and accused extremely aggrieved: "A little accident? You've been injured like this, and it's called a little accident ?

Is it really an accident?"

George Han followed her gaze, only to realize that his right abdomen to the back had been dyed red with blood. Never had a chance to think about it.

After that, due to the situation of running away, he couldn't care less.

After arriving here, George Han saw Amelia Su and Han Nian, and his whole mind was on them, so naturally he couldn't care less.

George Han shook his head and stood up gently. While trying to wipe Amelia Su's tears, he explained, "This is really just a small injury, but I have left Ye Shijun and Futian alone."

"Ye Shijun and Futian ." ?" Hearing George Han's words, as expected by George Han, Amelia Su's attention was sucked again: "Are they in the land of demons?"

George Han nodded: "Yes, I don't know why they came here, and they seem to have something to do with the people in the land of the demons. I don't know what they want to do behind the scenes."

Amelia Su frowned. She was speechless for a while, and she also agreed with George Han's words, but she didn't know what the Fuye family was going to do in the land of the demons.

"Did he hurt you?" Amelia Su asked.

George Han nodded: "That guy is not what he used to be, he seems to have fallen into a demon, and his cultivation is like riding a rocket. Now it's not a big disadvantage to fight with me."

"George Han, will they For you?" Amelia Su worried: "The rapid growth of the cultivation base is either due to his own talent, or it is due to the growth of the god-level boss

, and you said that they have a lot to do with the people in the land of the demons. , I think, will Ye Shijun find any support in the land of demons?”

“Your purpose this time is also the core of going to the land of demons, and they suddenly entered at this time, don’t you think it’s strange?”

George Han’s brows were furrowed. Originally, he did not link these two things together, but now Amelia Su’s words really reminded George Han.

Yes, it seems like a coincidence, but when a few coincidences come together, it is no longer as simple as a coincidence.

All kinds of things or people are locking and pushing George Han to the core of the Demon Land. Even now, it seems that there is another force going to that place. , Everything

, more and more, George Han believes that once he reaches the City of Burning Bone, there is a great possibility that something earth-shattering will happen there.

“You have to be careful.” Amelia Su urged.

George Han nodded and touched Han Nian’s head.

“Otherwise, why don’t you go to the City of Burning Bones?” Amelia Su hesitated for a long time before opening her mouth. She felt inexplicably worried, worried that George Han would almost die instead of living this time.

George Han smiled bitterly. He didn’t want to go, but some things were beyond his control.

George Han believed that if he really didn’t go there, he would be in even more trouble.

Thinking of this, George Han suddenly remembered something, raised his eyes slightly, and looked into the sky.

At this time, in the sky...

Chapter 3395

Seeing George Han’s gaze, the two phantoms in the clouds smiled slightly, still the same tea and chess.

“It seems that this guy has gradually started to understand something.” The sweeping old man smiled softly.

The Eight Desolate Book of Heaven also smiled slightly: “It’s getting closer and closer to the City of Burning Bone, and naturally he knows more and more things, which is not unusual.” The old sweeper nodded and shook his head helplessly: “It’s a pity, This kid is a little more stubborn, otherwise, why is this kid so stubborn now, I am afraid that he has already swept away Xiao Xiao, why should he come here?”

“It’s a pity that Liu Shui is intentional, but Luo Hua is ruthless, this boy, infatuated. Plant one.” The Eight Desolate Heaven Book also smiled bitterly: "This point is also to say that people have worked so hard to make such a whole play for him, and even show their baby over and over again, it's a pity Some people are just boring gourds. However, as you said, everything in this world has a cause and effect."

"If he hadn't been dedicated to his feelings, that guy wouldn't have chosen him." The old floor sweeper nodded his head: "You said It's also true that everything in the world has a destiny, and you can't do anything unless you are strong."

"By the way, that seal on his body? It's getting closer and closer, let alone this kid didn't touch it The good thing is that even in his heyday, he is very likely to die, not to mention that this guy is affected by this now, I'm afraid... it will be bad at that time." Bahuang Tianshu said: "Would you like to help him?"

The old sweeper waved his hand: "He chose the path himself. Although that person laid out some paths for him in advance, it was only a general direction. The specific way to go depends on him, and we should not interfere more."

"Besides, I

As I said before, sometimes difficulties are not difficulties, but let him learn how to deal with bigger difficulties. "

Although the seal does restrict him, causing him to struggle many times at present, once he overcomes these struggles, it is growth for him. The Eight Desolate Book of Heaven nodded solemnly: "That's true, he is the one chosen by heaven. In their words, he must work his muscles and bones first, starve his body and skin, and deplete his body. When the words were over, the two looked at each other and smiled, picked up their tea, and started their chess game again. After dinner, George Han wanted to help Amelia Su clean up, but Amelia Su asked George Han to accompany Han Nian, and he alone People pack up.

The parent-child time is happy, and the happy time is also very short. When the father and daughter are chasing after me on the grass and playing profusely, Amelia Su also packs up the kitchen and walks slowly. She came out.

Seeing the two father and daughter playing happily, she couldn't help smiling while standing by.

After a while, she opened her mouth: "I didn't want to disturb your father and daughter, but I'm afraid I won't shout again. Your words, I am afraid they have almost eaten. "

As their leader, everyone has been waiting for you for a long time, should you go toast?" "

George Han smiled and walked to Amelia Su's side with Han Nian in his arms: "It's just right, I'll show you some new friends. When the words were finished, George Han held Han Nian with one hand and raised one hand in the air, obviously waiting for Amelia Su to bring his hand over.

Amelia Su hesitated, but after a while, he handed over his hand to George Han, Ren Ren. He took him all the way to the wooden house.

On the way, Amelia Su told George Han about their life in the book of heaven for so long, planting at sunrise and resting at sunset. Of course, this kind of rest is not simply sleeping. Instead, they cultivated under the leadership of Ningyue and others.

“Many of them have improved their cultivation a lot now.” Amelia Su smiled.

George Han nodded, which was what he expected. After all, the spiritual energy of the Heavenly Book World was very abundant.

During the conversation, the family of three had already arrived at the door of the big wooden house. Inside, they were laughing and chatting together. When Qing Ji and Mo Beitian and the gang first entered the wooden house, they were very worried when they heard them speak loudly, for fear that the loud noise would cause the enemy outside. Note that after Ningyue explained the world here to them, they were stunned for a moment, and then laughed and laughed at their frog at the bottom of the well.

Seeing George Han come in, everyone stopped and looked at George Han and the three people at the door collectively.

However, just when George Han was about to say hello to everyone, Amelia Su suddenly had an accident...
