

Chapter 3398

to see the appearance of the two, the keen George Han seems to have found the clues of the two of them, and hurriedly asked: "This is What's wrong?"

Without answering George Han's question, Qing Ji directly asked Su Yan again: "Have you seen him before? You even saw him up close? But after that, it became less and less impressive. It's getting more and more blurry? Even now, every time I think about it, I feel a splitting headache?" After the question, whether it was Qing Ji who asked the question or Mo Beitian on the side, they all looked at Su Yan nervously, as if they were worried about her. The answer is unusually concerned.

Su Yan and Lu Zhu were obviously a little overwhelmed by their nervous appearance. Su Yan was even more surprised when she was overwhelmed. She couldn't help looking at Qing Ji and said, "How do you know?"

" , Qing

Ji and Mo Beitian's hearts sank almost at the same time, and their faces were extremely ugly.

The two were silent for a moment, and Mo Beitian murmured: "Shadow of the Phantom Demon."

"That's right." Qing Ji also nodded heavily.

"It shouldn't have appeared, but maybe it was because of its appearance that I began to understand why rootless poison appeared." Mo Beitian sighed helplessly.

"Although rootless poison has disappeared for many years, because of its domineering and invincible toxicity, similar poisons have been produced in many places including the Mozu and surrounding areas in a counterfeit or counterfeit way, so the public is relatively It's easier to recognize and understand."

"I believe this is the reason why this girl recognizes it as a rootless poison."

Su Yan nodded: "

Will it be as you said, Amelia Su is also fake? "

"It's hard to tell the truth from the fake, but it's for you, for me and Mo Beitian, but it's very easy to tell the difference." After the words were finished, Qing Ji lifted Amelia Su's hand lightly and shook his hand slightly under the firelight. .

People including George Han naturally couldn't notice anything strange, but Qing Ji said, "Pay attention to the light of its nails."

With this guidance, George Han took a closer look, and the nails on Amelia Su's middle finger The degree of bleakness is indeed slightly different from other nails, but this difference is so subtle, if it wasn't for Qing Ji's intentional reminder and intentional manipulation of her hand, it would be difficult for others to notice it.

"This is a manifestation of true rootless poison. You don't quite understand it. You may have seen other fake and forged rootless poisons over the years, so naturally you can rely on some fake poisons to recognize that it is rootless poison, but it is not I think it's weird. But for us, because we know it's past, we know it's true, so it's naturally different from yours."

After listening to Qingji's words, Su Yan understood, no wonder she I also knew Wurroot Poison, but after Qingji and Mo Beitian also recognized it, the reaction would be so big.

George Han's heart froze when he heard this. If it's fake, then there may be a chance, but if it's true, then Amelia Su...

Luzhu frowned: "Then this is really rootless and harmonious. What does the shadow of the phantom have anything to do with it? Why do you say that it shouldn't appear? And if it does, why can it be understood that rootless poison has appeared?"

George Han frowned, and like Su Yan, they were also right This question raises serious curiosity.

Qing Ji did not answer immediately, but instead looked at Mo Beitian, as if asking for the opinion of Demon Beitian.

Mo Beitian pondered for a moment, bowed his head and was speechless, after a long time, he sighed: "About this matter, in fact, except for some highly qualified people in the land of demons, most of them don't know, and even if we know Yes, and most of them are learned through some inheritance."

"The shadow of the phantom is also recorded in the inherited scroll, but according to the rules of the door, these things cannot be said even if they die."

Qing Ji also nodded.

Mo Beitian smiled bitterly: "But this time, I'm going to go against my ancestors."

Chapter 3399

Qing Ji also nodded: "Yes, although the ancestors appointed the ancestor's instructions, and hoped that the disciples would abide by them, but The rules themselves are established by people, and they are naturally broken by people. If the ancestors knew about today's situation, I don't think they would blame them."

With mutual support, Mo Beitian nodded, looked at George Han, and said: " Phantom Shadow is actually a very old and very mysterious skill."

"It can interfere with people's memory in a very strange way. Once you have contact with it, it seems to be able to manipulate you at will. The memory that I have been in contact with is just average."

"This is also the fundamental reason why this girl has a splitting headache when she recalls meeting that person on that day."

After some words, Su Yan was relieved.

"Is there really such a magical spell in the world? It would be so exaggerated just to meet him once?"

If you have been with him for a long time, wouldn't the whole person be controlled by him at will?" Lu Zhu wondered.

Qing Ji nodded: "If you have been together for a long time, let alone erasing someone's memory at any time, it is easy to change someone's memory at will."

Hearing these words, George Han, who was beside him, opened the door . Mouth: "So, the person who knows this spell should be a big boss of your demon clan, right?" Mo Beitian nodded heavily: "That's right."

If you want to control others, naturally What the bosses need to do, George Han also guessed from this point.

"According to the records of the book, at an unknown time, the Demon Race once produced a genius, called Xuanzu, who was able to pacify the major forces of the Demon Race by himself, and even the land of the Demon Race was against each other. He bowed his head to the court, but he did not seem to do so, or What Xu has done, this point, the book does not have any records. "Mobei Tiandao.

" I am more inclined to the latter, what should he do, but, as you said, since the so-called shadow of magic can control people's memory, I am afraid that after what he did at that time, he These memories are washed away. "George Han frowned.

He had no reason to do nothing, but asked the demons from all over the world to bow down to him, which is naturally extremely inconsistent with logic.

Mo Beitian nodded: "Yes. "

Then this goes back to the previous question, what is the connection between the two?" "Lvzhu asked strangely.

" In addition to the shadow of a magic trick, he also has another impressive thing. "Mobei Tiandao.

Before he could finish speaking, George Han had already guessed the answer: "No root poison? "

Mo Beitian nodded heavily: "Exactly. The strange poison, rootless poison

, was recorded in the tome of my Heavenly Demon Palace from him. That's why I say that it's strange that rootless poison suddenly appeared, but if it appeared at the same time with the shadow of the phantom, it seems to be easier to understand. "

"So, what kind of demon ancestor was born again?" "Su Yanliu frowned.

For this question, Mo Beitian can't answer it for the time being, but according to the theory, it seems that it should be the case, but if it is according to his personal feeling, he thinks it is unlikely

. Although there is no record of the time of this Xuanzu's appearance in the above, but judging from the time line that the rootless poison has disappeared in the Demon Race for millions of years, his appearance should be extremely long ago

. His heir or someone deliberately pretending to be? "Lu Zhu said.

Since rootless poison has been deliberately imitated and impersonated for millions of years, then the magic of the shadow of magic is very likely to suffer the same treatment.

Qing Ji shook her head: "Poison is something that can be combined with some pharmacology according to the manifestations of toxicity, so that it may indeed be possible to achieve similarity, but it is difficult to do something like magic without a corresponding method. They are similar to each other, and what's more, this kind of spell is extremely strange, and it is even more difficult to imitate."

George Han nodded, he agreed with Qing Ji, but at the same time a new question arose.

If this is the case, why is a demon pioneer millions of years ago or even older still not dead today? And it's just that he didn't die, why did he target Amelia Su?

Judging from Su Yan's description, that guy is obviously coming for Amelia Su, or...

George Han suddenly thought of something...
