

Chapter 3412

"You..." When I heard this, I saw George Han's wicked smile, and it was obvious that the whole NPC Stunned and speechless.

He obviously didn't expect that after going around for a long time, he ended up with this result.

The woman it retaliates against is actually this guy's wife! !

Isn't this something embarrassing? !

Time, in embarrassment, always passes very slowly, and it is not an exaggeration to describe it as passing days.

It was George Han who broke the silence first: "It's okay to hurt my friend, but also to take revenge on my wife, what do you think I should do?"

"You should all know that, after all, you have used things that don't belong to you. If you hurt two people in a row, then you hurt my friend and wife, and I have to be polite."

"I heard you say that you are very hung up, so that's fine, take advantage of your illness to kill you and get you this shit. The old bubble wine, maybe it's a big tonic." The words fell, the energy in George Han's hand increased slightly, and the space that surrounded Tian Qiqi was compressed again, and the strong pressure made Tian Zhiqi obviously uncomfortable.

In almost no time, the guy couldn't take it anymore, and shouted angrily at George Han on the spot: "I'm relying on your uncle, I'm fucking warning you, stop me, if you want to catch Lao Tzu making wine, you fucking Don't pee and look in the mirror to see what kind of dog you look like? Are you worthy?"

George Han ignored him at all, the more fierce this guy scolded, the more George Han pushed his strength even more.

"It hurts, it hurts me to death, stop it, you fucking stop it, I'm a poor man, if you kill me, the subordinates of my poor family will be your enemy forever, you bear it Can you afford it?"

"Also, I still have a few buddies from the ancient beasts, and none of those guys are weaker than me. Hmph, you should wait to die."

Hearing this, George Han really took some strength. , then frowned and said, "Are some of the ancient beasts your buddies?"

"Humph!" Feeling the pressure of George Han stopped, he felt a little proud of the time. He knew that these things he said obviously worked. Now, this guy is cowardly: "That's necessary, now you know you're afraid?"

"Afraid?" George Han was a little funny.

"Have you heard of Evil Taotie?!" Tian Zhiqiong said proudly.

George Han nodded: "This is a bit familiar."

“Hehe, people who eat people don’t spit out bones. They are extremely big and can swallow the world. That’s a powerful thing!”

“Really?”

“That must be . . . ignorant little waste, ants like you, how can you know how powerful an ancient thing like us is? You go and find out, it’s not Laozi bragging, just shouting the name of the evil gluttonous gluttonous, how many people will be scared My legs tremble.” The more Tian Zhiqiong said, the more excited and proud he became.

George Han nodded, but he did not deny it: “It sounds like it does have some weight, but to tell you the truth, many people are really scared to death when they hear the name Evil Taotie, this is what I have seen with my own eyes. Yes, and those people are all super experts.”

Regarding this, the four experts plus Ye Shijun and Zhu Yanshuo have given enough explanations and reflections, George Han is naturally very clear.

“Hmph, a master? A master is a fart in front of it? As long as it is willing, even a group of so-called masters in your mouth are just garbage.” Tian Zhiqiongqi sneered.

“So powerful.” George Han was slightly surprised.

“Nonsense. Son of a bitch, now that you already know how powerful he is, why are you still stunned? Why don’t you hurry up and get out of the way for Lao Tzu?”

“Otherwise, don’t you know what kind of consequences you will face?”

“What kind of consequences?” George Han smiled lightly: “I was eaten directly? Or was it torn to pieces? Your brother Although it sounds scary, if you want to say this, I can actually say that the gluttonous eater is my little brother.”

“Hahahaha, fuck it, idiot, you really pissed me off, if I’m just bragging, then you fucking call it bragging, and it’s your little brother, are you trying to laugh at me?” Tian Zhiqiong scolded angrily. By the way, mockery.

“Don’t you say it’s your brother too?” George Han smiled indifferently: “I can’t say it’s my younger brother?” After the words were finished, George Han moved his hand and said, “Is it your brother? Don’t say it, but it’s my little brother and I’m not bragging like you.”

It seems that it’s time for it to appear!

Chapter 3413

“What the fuck are you doing?”

Feeling what George Han seemed to be doing, it couldn’t help asking angrily.

“Hit you in the face.” George Han was neat and tidy. The next second, the power of chaos in his hands was reinjected. Through Ziqing’s body and meridians, he wanted to merge with George Han’s body power, which was blocking the heavens, and then , This power of chaos seeps through the power of the body and slowly enters the innermost layer, contacting the holy power where the Qiongqi of the sky is located.

“What do you mean?” Tian Zhiqiongqi didn’t understand, it didn’t know what the damned George Han wanted to do. The power of the Qihan 3000 body has already blocked it here, and it seems pointless to use other powers to come in. This is almost the same as taking off your pants and farting.

Also, what does this have to do with face slaps?

After confirming contact with Tian Zhiqiongqi, George Han smiled: “You and I are now connected in strength. Now you try to be one with me, and I will show you something.” After the words were finished, George Han moved his hand, and the evil Zhitaotie was immediately re-summoned by it. And as soon as the gluttony of evil came out, George Han continued to say: “Since you keep saying that it is your brother, then you should know it?”

After Taotie was summoned, Tian Zhiqiongqi, who was still quite disdainful and angry, was suddenly stunned.

“Evil... Evil gluttonous?” Tian Zhiqiongqi was extremely surprised: “It’s really you?”

George Han smiled slightly, but did not speak.

Suddenly, the poverty of the sky reflected it, and said to George Han in disbelief: “This...it, you...”

“Why is it here?” George Han said: “It’s very simple, didn’t I say it, it’s my little brother.” When the words were finished, he gave a slight look, and the glutton of evil immediately understood George Han. Meaning, obediently sat down on the spot.

“Have I been bragging? You should know it now, right? It’s you, you don’t know if I’m bragging.” George Han laughed.

Tian Zhiqiong was very angry when he heard this, who is it, what is its identity, can it brag?

But just when it was about to refute, he heard George Han say leisurely: “However, it doesn’t matter whether you brag or not, because even if it is really your brother, so what, it is not my little brother, if you want to follow this relationship, then you have to be my younger brother, why don’t you call your elder brother quickly?”

Killing is still a heartbreaker, Tian Zhiqiongqi is really about to be pissed to death, but even if he is angry again at this time It also has nowhere to vent, because George Han’s words are indeed quite reasonable, making it impossible to refute at all.

This strength is not as good as the human body being gambled on, and the mouth cannons have also been stunned to the point of being speechless.

“You...you...you...you...” But it can’t do anything now except for you gnashing your teeth.

“Hey, it’s a coincidence, don’t you think? The thing you used to threaten me is exactly my little brother, tsk tsk, it’s embarrassing, but it doesn’t matter, there is a saying on our earth, as long as you’re not embarrassed, then It’s me who’s embarrassed.” George Han didn’t miss any opportunity to ridicule.

Not only did there not be the slightest restraint, but the salt was even more violent.

The poor and strange lungs of the sky are about to explode with anger, so the body is like this now, otherwise it estimates that it can really be puffed up by this stinky human being in front of him to vomit a liter of blood.

It’s really embarrassing, showing off its power and showing off proudly for a long time, but it’s a fucking mess.

“Do you have any other tricks? Go ahead, otherwise I’ll have to mess with you.” George Han said.

Just when Tian Zhiqiong was annoyed, in the spirit of not making up for the death, you count me as a loser, George Han opened his mouth again: “Oh, by the way, if you want to make any threats this time, I will trouble you the most. Think about it clearly, I’m afraid that when you finally think something awesome, it turns out to be my little brother or my little brother.”

“Right? Little brother?”

“Aaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaaa!” Qiongqi was completely mad: “You little bug, you are really annoying, I... I fought with you!”
