

Chapter 3418

George Han was suddenly shocked and turned his head subconsciously. Amelia Su opened his eyes slightly on the bed and his hands moved slightly.

George Han was overjoyed and rushed to the bed in a few steps. Looking at Amelia Su, he said excitedly, "Yingxia, are you awake?"

" , her eyebrows wrinkled slightly: "George Han, I...how can I be here?"

She tried hard to recall everything before, and suddenly remembered that when she accompanied George Han to the wooden house, she suddenly poisoned herself. Hair to faint.

Thinking of the poison he was poisoned with, Amelia Su's eyes were obviously dodging.

George Han knew that she probably didn't want to let herself know that she was poisoned. Not only was she not angry at all, but she squatted beside the bed softly and smiled slightly: "It's because you know that you are poisoned with death. That's why you have been trying to distance yourself from me, right?"

Amelia Su nodded and shook her head again, looking back at George Han nervously but seeing George Han's warm smile, she couldn't help but wonder what to do for a while. How to answer.

What she had to admit was that part of the reason why she kept pushing George Han away was because Amelia Su knew that she had been infected with such a poison, and there was no cure.

But this is just a kind of catalysis at most. She is more in Lu Ruoxin's remarks, she thinks and knows that she will only be George Han's oil bottle, and once she is gone, George Han It is the wild horse, the long-winged flying tiger, and the flying dragon.

Along the way, many facts also support this

Everything, therefore, for Amelia Su, this kind of concept is not only recognized by herself, but also deeply ingrained step by step.

"You are really stupid." George Han looked at her distressedly: "We are husband and wife, we should face any problems together, otherwise, what is a husband and wife?"

"I told you, someday The sky is falling, as long as I'm still alive, I must carry it for you." George Han said softly, then gently pulled Amelia Su's hand, placing her hand in his own and holding it: "Promise me, you won't push me away in the future, okay?"

Amelia Su had tears in her eyes. Of course she knew and understood how much George Han loved her. What woman wouldn't want to have a man who loves her so much?

However, Amelia Su also knew that it was because she loved this man she didn't want to see him in the slightest bad.

Amelia Su was worried...

“Okay, okay, can you two stop throwing dog food in front of me? I know that your husband and wife are deeply in love, and I know that you are both talented and beautiful, and you are worthy of bubbling, but can you first? Take Lao Tzu out and talk about it?”

“Damn, even if it is to cross the river and demolish the bridge, I will trouble you to demolish it, and just leave me in the air?”

At this moment, a voice came from Amelia Su’s body, and Amelia Su was suddenly surprised. Looking around, she was obviously taken aback, but when she found out that the voice came from her own mouth, the whole person looked at George Han in horror.

George Han was also obviously stunned, and then he suddenly remembered something.

By the way, with Amelia Su’s awakening, George Han’s whole mind was completely on her body, but he completely wiped out the poverty of the sky as the pioneer of poison testing.

Seeing Amelia Su’s terrified appearance, George Han, who had reflected at this time, hurriedly held her hand tighter and smiled softly: “Don’t be afraid, it’s the doctor.”

“Doctor?” Amelia Su was stunned. She didn’t open her mouth just now, but she opened her mouth subconsciously. More importantly, she made a voice that didn’t belong to her at all. If she is confused, she doesn’t even know what happened.

George Han smiled slightly, and then moved his hand, a chaotic force passed directly into Amelia Su’s body through the hands they were holding, and the white light on her body began to flourish again, and then, another shocking scene happened.

Whoa!

Chapter 3419

White light condensed, and finally condensed in front of her. Afterwards, through the pictures composed of those white air, Amelia Su could vaguely see, A monster shape outlined by white light appeared in front of the bed.

Although the monster was outlined by white light, it had a nose and eyes, so it was really cute.

“What is this? It’s quite cute.” Amelia Su looked at George Han and asked.

“It’s best not to describe it as cute, it will find it offensive.” Then, George Han slowly told her everything after Amelia Su was poisoned.

After hearing these things, Amelia Su was very surprised, pointed at the cloud of white air, and said, “You mean...it...it’s an ancient beast from the heavens?”

“Three thousand, are you right? This joke is not funny.”

Amelia Su couldn’t believe it, looking at George Han still waiting for George Han's confirmation.

"The poison in you is rootless, and the poison without solution in this land of demons, do you think it can be relieved by ordinary things?" Bai Qi said disdainfully.

Although his mouth was open in anger, as if he was talking, it was obvious that it was Amelia Su who made the sound.

"I'm just a fake. Also, is there such a fuss about using it? Your husband's evil gluttony, isn't his mother's level with me? Although I saved you, I don't need to bring it to me. High hat, I don't want to do this."

George Han heard this and smiled helplessly, but Amelia Su's eyes widened, looking at George Han, obviously asking him what kind of evil he was.

Along the way, Amelia Su has indeed never had any face-to-face encounters with the gluttonous taotie. After the taotie from the evil followed George Han, it was basically the beginning of a nightmare.

At the beginning, the Qi of Chaos was first emptied, so that most of the time he could only go into a dormant state. When he was finally released, Amelia Su was often not present, so naturally he didn't know it.

"By the way, let me introduce, that is the gluttonous eater of evil." When the words were finished, George Han led Amelia Su to look at the gluttonous eater of evil sleeping on the ground not far away.

After Amelia Su woke up, her attention was always on George Han's side, and she didn't notice the evil glutton lying in the corner.

"Three thousand, this..."

"Don't be afraid, it can be regarded as my little brother, and there is no danger."

"It, the glutton of evil, you... your little brother?" Amelia Su stared at George Han in astonishment. Time is like hell.

It's all in the name of the eight directions of the world, even if you have never seen the gluttonous gluttonous, the ancient beasts like Tianzhiqiongqi, but no one is like thunder about such a ruined existence.

At this moment, not only are all these guys who are usually disgusting in appearance in front of him, but even more outrageous and exaggerated is that one of them is actually his husband's younger brother! !

Isn't this bullshitting? Don't talk about it, no one will believe it, just put it in front of her, the person she trusts the most, she feels like someone is bragging.

Because this is simply too unreal.

Seeing Amelia Su's appearance, George Han couldn't help laughing out loud. Her dazed and startled appearance was simply too cute.

"Hey, although this is really too much and insulting to me, who is also an ancient beast, I must admit that it is a fact.

” Tian Zhiqiongqi sighed helplessly.

Hearing Tian Zhiqiongqi’s words, Amelia Su felt a little relieved at this time, but she still had a hard time understanding how George Han did it.

“Why do I feel like I’m in a dream, and it’s like... Or maybe I haven’t woken up from a coma at all?”

Amelia Su looked at George Han, and muttered a little unreal.

Just as George Han was about to speak, Tian Zhiqiong said again: “If you are so difficult to recover from this, then for the sake of your body, I have decided to shock you once.”

“From now on, not only Evil gluttonous is his younger brother, and I am the poorest, and he is officially his younger brother.” When the words fell, not only Amelia Su was stunned again, but even George Han, who was beside him, suddenly felt like a ghost.

“What?!”
