

Chapter 3424

“Ah what? Do you not know your own body? Do you not know your own husband’s body?”

heard The two were puzzled one after another, and Tian Zhiqiang was both angry and funny.

Although Amelia Su knew the particularity of George Han’s body, he was naturally not clear enough about how special George Han was. Amelia Su couldn’t be blamed for this. After all, even George Han himself had only the same perception of his own body.

He knows that it is indeed strong, but to what extent it must be strong, he has no concept, nor does he know the standard.

“You mean, because George Han’s body is better than Ziqing’s, so you decided to change your family?” Amelia Su asked.

Tian Zhiqiongqi obviously has no hesitation about this question: “Let’s make a place, it’s good that someone built a golden house for you, after all, you have the best room in the world, and you really do n’t have to choose. “

But when you were living in the golden house, you suddenly discovered that there was a more luxurious palace outside. Not only was the palace several times bigger than the original one, it even had his floor. The bricks are all made of the gold used by the previous palace to build the city walls, so what would you choose?” “I believe that as long as people with normal brains know absolutely, what should I do with this multiple-choice question?”

At the odd words, Amelia Su frowned and asked, “Am I right? You mean that Ziqing’s body is strong enough to be described as a golden house, but George Han’s body is not only stronger than Ziqing’s body. Some of the above, or even a lot?”

“If I have to describe it with one order of magnitude, then the gap between the two of them can be described in two levels, one is the limit of the earth, and the other is the limit of the sky

“Obviously, George Han is the real limit of the sky.”

After hearing these words, Amelia Su was stunned and looked at George Han in disbelief, with both excited and unbelievable eyes.

The limit of the sky is one level higher than that of a very special body like Ziqing, so George Han means...

George Han is also stupid. There is a joke that is good, if you didn’t say it, I don’t even know that I am so good, but it is such a joke, but it seems extremely real here at this moment.

“Of course, I’m just an adjective, and there may be some inaccuracies in the process.” Tian Zhiqi said strangely.

This sentence is finally like a basin of cold water. I dare not say that it has extinguished their enthusiasm, but at least it can calm the couple a little bit. After all, it is indeed a bit unacceptable to be directly higher than one grade. "What's the matter? What's the matter with your sudden appearance?" Tian Zhiqiang looked at the two people who tended to be calm. The couple was stunned for a moment, wondering what Tian Zhiqiongqi meant? "Hehe, I'm afraid that the two of you have misunderstood? Or, I made a mistake in my expression. Let me say it again. What I call inaccurate is not the upper limit of the gap between you, but the lower limit. That is to say, you only There will be a bigger gap, not as simple as I said." "What?!" Hearing this, the couple stared wide-eyed, apparently unable to reflect it for a while. . Originally, the huge gap had already shocked the two of them. Now, the words of Heaven's Qiqi have completely dumbfounded the two of them. What he said was only the lower limit. ?

"Isn't this a bit too exaggerated? Although I know that you really want to worship George Han as your eldest brother, but you don't need to do that? Although I don't understand it very well, I have also heard that Ziqing is holy. Immortal body, in other words, her upper limit can reach the mass level of a loose immortal body, is this right?" Amelia Su said.

Tian Zhiqiongqi does not deny it: "The nature that can be called an immortal body is theoretically the same as what you said."

"If this is the case, since Ziqing is an immortal body, what else can be used to subjugate it. Dimensional attack? Above the loose immortal is the true god, which is already the supreme existence, but the body of the true god and the scattered immortal are only one-step difference, how can the dimensionality be attacked?"

"Hahahahaha!" Tianzhi Qiong Qi burst into laughter, as if anti-Buddha heard some big joke...

Chapter 3425

"Yes, I must admit that I really want to be his little brother, but I must also explain that I am no matter what It is also a dignified ancient beast. Although it is very shameful to recognize a big brother, I am not a shameless scumbag. I will never flatter you in order to make you agree to accept me as a younger brother."

"I hate flattery the most in my life . people."

"I'm only telling the truth, the facts are what they are."

"What does it mean that you are still young, or if you live a few hundred more years? Perhaps in your race, You are already well-informed old people by then, but that is you."

"Compared to the growth rings of the entire Bafang world, you are just dust smaller than I am now. For this world How much do you know about the many, many things that have happened?"

"Ants, how do you know the life of a giant elephant?" Amelia Su and George Han were speechless, both of them could learn from the sky and wonder. He felt its slightly angry attitude in his words, especially because George Han had dealt with it for a short time, and he knew that he had the arrogance of being a beast.

It's really unlikely that it will shamelessly flatter someone for something.

But the question also arises, if it is not flattering, then what is the meaning of its words?

It seems that what it is saying is that the true god is not the highest realm, but there is a stronger existence! But since the Bafang World, almost all parts of the world have recognized the supremacy of the true gods. The fact is that until now, the three true gods still control most of the world.

Maybe the former George Han would immediately deny these words, because the facts are in sight forward. But until George Han came into contact with more and more bizarre things along the way, after he suspected that the world had broken generations, he did not reject this statement, and even to some extent, George Han became more determined. of this perception.

Just as it says, the Bafang world has been born for an unknown number of years, and the annual rings of fate have long been drawn into a long time line, and the appearance of anyone is only this one in his life. Lines exist like bacteria, and perhaps half of the rope is eternal for many people.

But for this world, half is only half.

Just like on Earth, although scientists from all walks of life use all kinds of evidence to try their best to restore the ancient times, who can know that the so-called end they are exploring is actually just a new beginning of an era?

Before that new beginning, is there another reincarnation? !

“I believe in you.” George Han said decisively, and then he looked at Amelia Su who was beside him.

Although this statement is very absurd and bizarre, but Amelia Su is different from other women, even different from others. She is very smart, and she also believes in George Han.

Since George Han believed it, she was willing to understand some of the inner meanings of these words.

“Can you tell me something you know? For example, just use my body as an asset and talk about something stronger than a true god.” George Han asked softly.

Seeing George Han asking such a question, Tian Zhiqi suddenly became vain. As an ancient thing of its level, it finally found its place at this time.

“That’s easy. You want to know

, you can, just treat it as a greeting for Lao Tzu to meet my eldest brother.”

“Then my eldest brother, it is better to be respectful than to obey.” George Han was also very excited.

He wanted to know what happened before the fault, and he believed that once he figured out these things, he could even know some of the strange phenomena he was currently facing.

“Okay, then listen carefully, I’ll only say it once.” As the words fell, the white shadow of Tian Zhiqiongqi immediately closed his body, as if his big brother wanted to tell a story.

At this time, Amelia Su and George Han were also like elementary school students who were humbly taught, sitting obediently by the side, waiting for Tian Zhiqiangqi to continue.

“I’m about to start.”

Both of them nodded their heads very seriously. Tian Zhiqiongqi also coughed slightly at this time, and opened his mouth to speak. However, at this time, an unbelievable strange thing happened...
