

Chapter 3430

Helena, who was in and out of a dilemma, was extremely depressed.

She has even made the worst plan, if really be withdrawn from the marriage, then she can only return to Northern Europe, and then go to beg her cousin Olivia."

"Beg her to be able to look at the sister a part, to give her and her mother a way out.

However, in a trance, an idea that seemed a bit absurd to her also sprang up in her mind.

She thought to herself, "Could that Charlie really be a medical expert? He can see my illness at a glance, maybe he also has the ability to cure my illness ....."

Thinking of this, She seemed to have caught the only straw that could save her life, and thought to herself,

"When I go to the Wade family tomorrow and meet him, I must find a way to ask him privately if he has the means to save me or not."

At this time, Charlie, still in the Gu family, and busy with Philip to push a glass of wine.

The two men drank to the point of excitement, even if the dishes on the table are all eaten, but they still do not want to get off the table, chatting while drinking, the atmosphere is very happy.

Lenan can not help, and can not let the two men sitting at the dinner table drink dry, can only hurry to arrange for someone to go to the hotel to open a table back.

Philip is in a very good mood, he drank too much, patted Charlie's shoulder, said seriously:

"Charlie, your uncle today is really happy! I'm in such a good mood, there are two reasons! Do you know what two?"

Charlie laughed, "Is my visit to the door considered one?"

Philip laughed: "That's for sure! It's my greatest pleasure that you can come!"

Saying that, he asked again, "Then the second reason, do you know?"

Charlie couldn't help but shake his head and asked him, "Uncle, you might as well say it straight."

Philip seriously said, "The second reason is that you returned to the Wade family this time to participate in the ancestral ritual! With your ability, I believe you are absolutely qualified to be the future heir of the Wade family."

"And as long as your grandfather hasn't turned into an old fool, he will definitely hand over the Wade family to you! Only you are qualified to inherit your father's legacy and carry the Wade family forward!"

Charlie was silent for a moment and spoke, "Uncle, I'm not going to lie to you, but I actually don't have any interest in inheriting the Wade family."

Philip asked with a surprised face, "Why?"

Charlie let out a bitter smile and said, "When my father took me away from Eastcliff, there were a lot of complaints against the Wade family in his heart."

"I was young at that time and didn't know much about many things, but I knew that my father was disappointed in the Wade family, so I don't have any good feelings towards the family either."

Philip sighed and said seriously, "Charlie! Your father was disappointed with the Wade family because the Wade family was not at all on the same level as him, what your father wanted to do was to revitalize the family and make the family stand on top of the world."

"But what the Wade family was worried about was your father's overly aggressive development strategy, which could cause the whole Wade family to suffer great losses if it failed."

Speaking of this, Philip, full of emotion said: "This is like a group of people planning to climb Mount Everest."

"Your father's goal was to point the sword to the top, while others, because of the fear of dying on the top, in the halfway up the climb when they want to go down."

"They not only wanted to go down, but also take away all the supplies and materials, completely cut off your father's hope to continue to reach the top, your father was naturally disappointed, resentful, and displeased."

At this time, Philip picked up the glass, gulped down the cup of strong wine, red eyes, said: "Before your father decided to leave Eastcliff, we also sat together as today, drinking wine all day, only then we were in the opposite mood, and now ....."

Philip looked at Charlie and said seriously, "Charlie, your father was full of reluctance when he left Eastcliff, and I believe he was still reluctant at the last moment of his accident, you must inherit your father's legacy, even if it's just to fight for him, you must become the head of the Wade family!"
