

Chapter 3434 - 3435 of A Dish Best Served Cold Novel

Chapter 3434

“Once I reach a consensus among the three families of Trumen.”

“At that time, my Trumen will gather all the strengths, tens of thousands of iron hoofs will be swept away, and we will move westward!”

“It is because of the protection of the moon god, our Trumen can still kill the summer. The head is on the children’s item!”

Mike Jones said in a deep voice in the room. Between the words, there was already high morale and fighting spirit.

“Yeah.”

“That’s right.”

“Mike, you go to the Chu family with me and discuss the matter with the Chu family.”

“This time, I will let the hot summer child pay the debt!”

Bill Jones squeezed. He tightened his palms, his eyes were as red as blood.

After the decision, Bill Jones and his son didn’t hesitate, and immediately drove to Chumen Mountain and boarded the Chu family, ready to discuss the matter with Chu Zhengliang.

In any case, they must do everything possible to win the support of Trumen and besieged Mark.

“He killed my daughter, this time, I, the Jones family, will never die with him!” The wind was freezing, and the wheels galloped.

Bill Jones, sitting in the back seat, clenched his palms, snarled and roared.

In this way, the two of them, father and son, soon reached the foot of Chumen Mountain.

No traffic is allowed within Trumen.

Therefore, after the two reached the bottom of the mountain, they prepared to park their car in the parking lot below the mountain.

However, as soon as the two opened the door of the car, they suddenly felt that the temperature of the surrounding sky suddenly dropped.

“Huh?”

“Father, don’t you think that the temperature in Chumen Mountain is a bit cold?”

Mike Jones frowned, looked around suspiciously, and whispered.

After his son’s reminder, Bill suddenly felt this way.

Not only the temperature, but even the breathing feels very depressed.

That kind of feeling, it was like a ten thousand high mountain lying in front of me.

Just when the father and son were full of doubts, a figure slowly emerged not far away.

At first, the figure was just a black spot in the long sky.

But soon, as the distance got closer, the black spots got bigger and bigger, until a thin figure appeared in the sight of Mike Jones and his son.

What kind of figure is that, Sen Leng’s majesty looks like a demon god is alive.

The power of terror is like a rushing river and sea, sweeping over it.

The surging murderous intent has caused the temperature of the Quartet to drop sharply.

The grass and trees condensed into ice in the land where you passed, and the air was cold and hard as frost.

“This.... This is...”

Bill Jones and his son were stunned when they saw the figure that looked like a murderous god.

Until, that delicate face, in their eyes again, slowly focused.

At the moment when they saw the incoming person clearly, Bill and his son were directly stupid.

“Chu...Chu...Chu...Tianfan?”

“Why... why is he?”

“He... why did he come?”

“Difficult...could it be that he...he wants it again? ...To Chumen Mountain?”

Both Bill Jones and his son were dumbfounded, their eyes widened, and their hearts were full of tremors and shock.

Both Bill Jones and his son were killed. They hadn't gone to find Mark. Instead, Mark had killed Chumen Mountain by himself.

“You...what are you doing?”

As Mark got closer, even though the two of Bill Jones and his son were panicked, they still asked sternly.

However, Mark turned a deaf ear to these two people as if he hadn't seen them.

The steps forward did not stop for half a minute because of the two of them.

In this way, in the horrified gaze of Bill Jones and his son, the young man in front of him, carrying a long sword, stepped on the ground.

The setting sun is like blood, and the cold leaves are like knives.

Toward the gate of the mountain, Zhen Zhen went alone.

There is an endless chill on his body.

Majestic murderous intent, sweeping the Quartet!

“Mike, what on earth did Brian Chu come to do?”

“Is it because I was scared, so I came to plead for the crime?” After

Mark passed by, Bill Jones still had lingering fears.

He asked his son suspiciously.

Chapter 3435

Mike Jones shook his head: “I...I don't know, maybe, really...really here to plead.”

Although the father and son said this in their mouths, they knew in their hearts that this leaf was in front of them. Where is Fan's appearance, there is no meaning to compromise and apologize.

It's like killing someone!

Just as the father and son were surprised and suspicious, Mark at this time had already reached the foot of Chumen Mountain.

In front of the mountain gate, several Chumen sects were stationed.

Before January, the mountain gate that was damaged by Mark was renovated at this time.

Before Mark arrived, the two door guards of Trumen were still chatting.

What they were talking about was exactly what the Chu family went to apologize to Mark in the hot summer.

However, their conversation did not last long before they saw Mark, who appeared again under the Chumen Mountain.

"Huh?"

"It's you again!" Seeing Mark again, the guardian of the mountain gate, there was no doubt that he trembled suddenly.

"Junior, why are you here again?"

"The Chu family has already gone to apologize to you, are you still unsatisfied?"

"What are you doing here?" The gatekeeper shouted angrily.

Under the mountain gate, the young man slowly raised his head.

He is expressionless, his brows are like ice!

Senran words, like thunder, quietly exploded under Chumen Mountain in an instant.

"Blood debt, blood pay!"

Stabbed ~ The

sharp blade was out of its sheath, and the long sword flashed.

Vertically and horizontally, the sword light swayed the Quartet.

Then, not far away, Bill Jones and his son saw that the mountain gate was guarded with heads down!

Yin Hong blood, dyed the mountains of Chumen.

The mountain gate that had just been repaired was also under Mark's sword, and it shattered in an instant.

Especially the four words that Mark just said, are even more frosty.

Frightened Bill Jones, shaking all over.

At this moment, the father and son looked pale and looked at each other.

In my heart, there is a kind of unparalleled panic, sweeping out.

It was only at this moment that they were sure that Mark, who returned to Mount Chumen, had come to kill again!

"What...what do we do, father?"

"I... shall we still go to the Chu family?"

Looking at the mountain gate that was obviously dyed red, and the young man who climbed the Chumen Mountain like a murderer, he was shocked. Bill Jones has panicked.

"What else are you looking for?"

"Quickly, contact the family!"

"Assemble all the powerful members of the family and arrive at Chumen Mountain."

"Ready to fight at any time!"

"The war has already begun!"

Bill Jones has seen the world after all. people.

Soon, he realized the seriousness of the matter.

This Mark, without saying a word, directly killed the Chumen guardian with a single sword.

What does this mean?

This is undoubtedly a naked declaration of war!

Next, they only need to wait for Tang Yun, the master of Chumen, to gather the order to start the war!

When the father and son of the Jones family urgently called the strong family member, Mark had already boarded Mount Truman.

The bluestone is rugged and the mountain road is winding.

Behind is a broken stone gate.

Under the feet, there is hot blood.

In his hand is the ancient Yunyang sword that has been sleeping for a thousand years.

Mark just dragged him like that.

The sharp blade slowly slashed across the ground, making a harsh buzzing sound.

The bursting sparks are just like fireworks.

There was a sword mark several inches deep in every place Mark passed.

“Stop!”

“Who?”

“The mountain gate is heavy, how dare you trespass?”

Hearing the movement under the mountain, soon some of the experts from the Chu Sect gathered together again.

After seeing the incoming people, these Chu Sect masters all trembled.

“Ah?”

“Where Chutian, is you!”

“Forever is not it?”

“Do not give us stand still!”

“We already ordered the main door, gate trespass person, shall be no survivors!”

“Advise you to stop doing so immediately , Quickly retreat.”

“Otherwise, I will never forgive you from the Tru Sect !” Goodbye to Mark, the Chu Sect expert did not directly take action, but issued a solemn warning.

After all, in the scene a month ago, these people are still vivid in purpose.

Mark’s fierceness and strength left a deep impression on everyone!
