

Chapter 3438

Almost as soon as the voice fell, the four guys suddenly exclaimed in unison.

If they had passed the trial before, they had been stunned and their hearts exploded, then when they heard this, their hearts exploded for at least hundreds of reincarnations.

Is Bahuang Tianshu his little brother?

If this is not a joke, it can simply collapse the four people present.

That guy is the world itself, the ruler of this world, and here he is the absolute king and none of them.

No one can challenge his authority, and no one can threaten his status.

Countless true gods from all over the world died in his hands in the end, and even now even their souls are imprisoned in this deep jungle, there is no need to say how strong he is.

But it is such a big guy, but at this moment, he is called his own little brother by a human race boy, which can't help but shock people!

But at the same time, it is also ridiculous.

"Third, is your worm poisonous? Did this guy start having hallucinations after being poisoned?" After the water man was surprised, he reflected and couldn't help asking Xiang insect man.

The insect man over there was also confused when he heard the words, looking at the water man, the water man smiled helplessly: "I was attacked by water, and there was no fire, so naturally it wouldn't burn his brain." The insect man turned his head and looked at George Han, Anti-Buddha is questioning George Han, since insects are not poisonous and water has no fire, how on earth is your brain broken.

The tree man, who had been blocking the insect people before, had no plans to stop the insect people and the water people at this time. He looked at George Han with a sneer, although he did not open his mouth, but the kind of Contempt is the most full.

Yes, even the tree people can understand at this time that George Han is just bragging.

Moreover, it seems that the bragging is crazy, so that any bragging is basically blurted out, without considering the fairness and possibility of the words.

Does he regard the Book of Eight Desolations as his little brother?

Isn't this the same as they, the true gods of the Bafang world, let the Bafang world be their little brother?

No matter how strong a person is, he is still just a small creature living on it. Even if he is capable, it is absolutely impossible to take the world as his own.

It is so contrary to normal ethics, obviously as long as you are not a fool, it is absolutely impossible to take this kind of words seriously.

George Han smiled slightly, puzzled: "Why do you think I'm bragging?"

"Aren't you bragging?"

Shuiren asked .

George Han nodded, but quickly shook his head: "I really don't know what's so good about this thing."

For him, the Book of Eight Desolations does have a place where he is extremely perverted, but you have to say that he is strong To invincible, George Han doesn't think so.

After all, George Han had defeated him, and he knew the fate of this guy.

That's the difference between the loser and the winner, and it's the difference between seeing something.

The applause sounded, and the insect man clapped with flying insects. He looked at George Han coldly and laughed: "Hehe, beautiful, beautiful!"

"Now? When did you start getting this kind of rubbish running around with cowhide and so much nonsense?"

"It's ridiculous, and it's ridiculous when it's absurd." The other three people looked at each other and laughed. .

The water man smiled and said softly: "Forget it, don't talk nonsense with a cowhide king here, and if I go on, he can say that the whole world is his subject, which is really more than the old third. The buzzing bugs on your body will be annoying." The bug man nodded: "Second brother is right, didn't he say that guy is his little brother, that's fine, clean up this guy, then that Isn't this guy the younger brother among our younger brothers? Hahaha!"

"Hahahaha!" When everyone heard the words, they immediately burst into laughter.

George Han shook his head helplessly, glanced at the four people who were laughing, and smiled bitterly: "Alright, I don't bother to care about you, the bottom group!"

Hearing this, the four of them were furious and looked at each other. , attacked George Han directly...

Chapter 3439

"I want you to die!"

"Let you see, what is the bottom!"

"You are not only irritating but annoying, You speak with a strong smell of feces, I will kill you, and then wipe your ass with your body."

“Roar!”

As the four of them roared and cursed, boulders, water snakes, flying insects and flying branches all over the sky attacked the sky. .

“The gluttonous glutton of evil, you guard the boulder, and leave the rest to me.” George Han snorted lowly, and at the same time, the power of chaos in his hand opened directly.

“Roar!”

The gluttonous glutton of evil ordered a roar, like a man trapped in the formation, heading straight for the stone man and the giant stone formation.

“Om!”

With a loud noise, George Han suddenly appeared as eight golden bodies, and the sky fire and the moon wheel directly condensed in the sword. With a slap in George Han’s hand, the jade sword flew, driving the incarnation electricity. The dragon’s sky fire moon wheel suddenly attacked the attack of flying insects.

What

passed by was a piece of coke, and what was swept by the electric dragon was also a piece of ashes. With the crazy sprint of the jade sword, it was like a broken bamboo for a while, and it was quite brave.

“Axe formation!”

Eight golden bodies attacked the branches, and at the same time, ten thousand bronze giant axes fell from the sky.

Although the bronze axe was already flawed, after all, the thin dead camel was bigger than a horse. As the ten thousand giant axes fell, countless strong branches were also broken like dead wood.

“Is that all you can do? True God?”

Very contemptuous!

The four of them were slumped. At this time, everyone’s minds flickered, and the tree man was the core. At this time, they naturally stood up first.

“Presumptuous.” The

angry voice fell, and the branches that were interrupted in the air were reconnected. At the same time, the ground above the ground was also bursting, and countless huge and unusually strong tree tendons drilled directly from the ground and quickly burst out. Jumped out and attacked George Han again.

George Han held a giant axe in his hand and faced the resurgent attack of the tree man. At this time, it was too late to set up the axe array. He directly lifted the Pangu axe in his hand. Facing the comprehensive siege from the bottom to the top like a spider web, George Han was completely surrounded. Without any panic, it just cut all the way.

Even if the body of the tree is hard enough, the branches are thick enough, especially the tendons that are drilled from the ground are like iron cables. It is reasonable to say that with such a high density, it is naturally difficult for conventional weapons to break through.

It's like the rope is easy to be cut by a knife, but the net made by the rope is not easy.

But the truth is such a truth, and sometimes it doesn't work in certain places.

For example, in front of absolute strength! !

In the face of such a powerful weapon as the Pangu Axe, no matter how hard you are, it still has no effect.

With one axe, everything is opened!

"What!" I thought I would attack with confidence, but instead of achieving any of the expected results at this time, it was directly torn apart as soon as the momentum started, which not only shocked the other three present, but also made the initiator's tree man immediately stunned.

George Han sneered: "That's it, are you so surprised? This is just the beginning." As soon as the voice fell, when the tree trunk broke and the tendons exploded, George Han's Taiyan mind opened. , Taixu God made a move, and the Seventy-two Road Divine Sword directly replaced the sword with an axe, and the big tree that was aimed at the core of the tree man suddenly attacked.

The movement technique is mysterious, the sword technique is fierce, and the axe that replaces the sword has already made the tree man taste its power. At this time, the tree man did not dare to be careless, and frantically reassembled the broken trunks.

George Han passed all the way, and the broken tree trunks re-condensed all the way, and quickly gathered in the direction of George Han's pursuit. It was bound to stop George Han and attack George Han at the same time.

With the impact of George Han, the eight golden bodies also disappeared at a certain point and merged into one body.

The water man, who lacked resistance, finally lost his resistance at this time, and was completely released for a while.

Looking at George Han's impact, the water man clenched his teeth at this time: "You are really hateful, since you dare to ignore me, well, I will make you pay the price in blood." The words fell, this guy changed his body, suddenly Presenting an extremely weird and weird posture, he suddenly attacked George Han's back...
