

Chapter 3448

the bug and the water nodded, and the stone man who was finally forced to stop work slowly rushed over.

The tree man smiled lightly and shook his head: "Actually, I don't know why, it's just an inner feeling."

"Feeling?" Shuiren asked in a condensed voice.

The bug man said, "Brother, what do you mean..."

"Do you believe what he said?" the tree man asked.

Shuiren thought for a while, and said thoughtfully: "Big brother, does he mean that he has completely passed all the trials? To be honest, I even wanted to laugh when he said it before, because it was obviously bragging."

"However, in After playing against this guy, I really believe it a little bit."

"Anyone who passes the Five Elements Trial will actually get the Five Elements Divine Stone to go to the Linglong Pagoda." The tree man affirmed.

Shuiren said in a hurry: "That guy is holding the Five Elements Divine Stone. Could it be...

that he really passed the Five Elements Trial, including the Linglong Pagoda behind?

"One, now, since that guy is in his hand, naturally, he is the only one who really came out.

"That's right." The tree man nodded: "Actually, I was very suspicious of the third brother's statement before, whether he was just a puppet. But judging from the way he broke the enemy with the four of us, I believe he can pass. There must be his reason." The worm nodded and said with great certainty: "With one against four, or with two against four, this guy can instantly understand the situation of the battle, and quickly give a solution to it, indeed Smart."

The bug man couldn't help but say: "That kid is really hateful to lie to me, but the second brother is also right, that kid is really observant and can make decisions according to the time

"This is called rational use of one's own advantages. To break the opponent's disadvantage, so that I can even defeat the enemy without fighting, this son's IQ really makes me believe more and more in his words, even including his last sentence." The tree man nodded.

The bug man frowned: "The last sentence? What does the eldest brother mean, do you believe that even the Book of the Eight Desolations is his younger brother?" The tree man smiled and did not speak, but his eyes were full of faint trust.

"If the Eight Desolation Books are his younger brother, he can let the Eight Desolations Book of Heaven wipe out the jungle directly, so why do he need to come here himself?" The worm asked puzzled.

"Erase?" The tree man smiled disdainfully: "If it wants to be erased, why wait to bring it now."

“Then I don’t understand, then it’s a jungle, but it let its big brother come to explore, He clearly knew that the grievances of the grievances here were very heavy, so he pushed his elder brother in, isn’t this courting death?” The worm asked inexplicably.

“I don’t quite understand this.” The tree man shook his head and said, “But there is one thing worth examining.” The bug and the water man suddenly looked at the tree man, and even the stone man looked at him curiously, waiting for him the next sentence.

The tree man smiled: “This place exists in the Book of Eight Desolations. It can also be said that this place was created by the Book of Eight Desolations, so what was the purpose of it here?”

“Resent souls like us are actually For so many years, it has been overwhelming. For a general like the Book of Eight Desolations, wouldn’t it be better to kill us completely to get more energy to consolidate ourselves? Why spend some resources to make us complain?

” When they came out, the three brothers also fell into contemplation, including the stone man. Anyway, no matter whether they understood it or not, everyone did it, it would be better to draw a gourd in the same way.

After a while, Shuiren was the first to reflect: “Then it seems that I understand why the eldest brother gave him the letter of clarity.”

“If it is based on this consideration, there are only two situations. One is that the Book of Eight Desolations is not willing. Give in, so put this person here and want to use a knife to kill, we will give him the letter of clarity, which is equivalent to not being as good as the Eight Desolate Book of Heaven.”

“Second, if the Eight Desolation Book of Heaven had intentionally built such a place long ago. If you give it to him, that’s not bad, we at least borrowed something to give the boss a second flower.” After the words fell, the water man looked at the tree man, and the tree man also showed a meaningful smile at this time, obviously , he guessed right.

Looking at George Han’s distant back, the water man and the tree man smiled at each other and couldn’t help shaking their heads: “No matter one or two circumstances, this shows that the kid is not simple. Who is he?”

Chapter 3449

But these words, George Han obviously can’t hear, with the gluttonous gluttony, interspersed with the jungle, all the way west.

In the sky at this time, looking at the top of the jungle, the white air below them has dissipated, and the two voices laughed out loud at almost the same time.

“That’s why I like this kid, he’s smart enough.” The Eight Wilderness Heavenly Book smiled softly.

The old man sweeping the floor nodded: “Having absolute ability, but not using force to oppress people, this is a rare quality, and at the same time, it is also a way of walking wider and wider.”

“Sometimes high pressure is a good thing, but long-term high pressure is a bad thing. There will inevitably be an outbreak. This is the way of being a king, and it is also the way of walking. George Han knows this way well, which saves him a lot of trouble.

” If you start killing people, it will actually make this group of resentful spirits madly counterattack, putting benevolence and righteousness first, not only can influence others, but also let others’ hostility fade away, not only does not embarrass him, but also intentionally help him.”

The Eight Wilderness Books smiled: “Yes, but not all of them will be influenced. These four people are only on the edge, and their anger is not the deepest. If they go deep into it, the power of those grievances will become stronger and stronger. Naturally, the anger is getting heavier and heavier, and then there is no way this guy is using any tricks.” The old man sweeping the floor smiled: “This is not a bad thing, after all, we still have to achieve the purpose of this trip.”

“Yes, let’s take a look. Well, anyway, he has already exceeded his expectations, and at present, he is still satisfied.” After the words were finished, the two figures disappeared in the air again.

Although there was no danger or surprise in the previous battle, the good thing was that it not only did not consume too much energy of George Han, but also gave George Han a lot of experience in the jungle.

The current George Han passed by all the way, all intentionally observing the surroundings, and the situation of being followed for a long time like before is definitely impossible to happen again.

Moreover, with this clear letter, to be honest, it gave George Han a lot of confidence and relaxation.

This westward journey took another few hours. One person and one beast passed through the forest and across the river. When he was free, George Han would grab some jungle creatures to eat for the evil gluttons. After eating, he would continue on his way.

As there were more and more rivers around, and as the river became wider and wider, George Han knew that it should be getting closer and closer to the so-called Moon Lake.

After all, the so-called big pool must have multiple rivers converging to form a pool with sufficient water sources.

The closer he got, the more George Han could feel an extremely oppressive force and aura coming from the west, and George Han felt a little flustered.

Not only because of the strong aura, but more importantly, the four Shuren brothers once said that there are still ten ghosts in the west.

But it's a pity that this journey has been so smooth, if it weren't for the difficult journey, George Han would even think that he was on vacation with the gluttony of evil.

But it was too calm to come all the way here, and it seemed that George Han began to feel strange and stressed.

There were originally two gods in Moon Lake, but those ten gadgets never appeared, so the motherfucker is also in the lake, right? If that's the case, that group would add up to twelve.

Although they are all wronged souls, they are not real gods, but after all, a thin dead camel is bigger than a horse, and Han 3000 is a single-handed

However, all came, and there was no reason to go back. He patted the gluttonous glutton of evil lightly, indicating that this guy should be careful, George Han still turned over the last mountain in front of him and came to the very edge of Moon Lake. .

When he looked down, there was a bright light in front of him.

A huge moon-shaped pool is just ahead, and dozens of rivers run into it from all around.

The water surface is very wide, almost endless, surrounded by jungles surrounded by low mountains, which together create this quiet and wide moon lake.

"It's fucking here."

George Han was a little desperate. He had already arrived at his destination, but the ten goods did not appear. It seemed that the worst thing was already on the table.

Looking at the calm but deep water, George Han suddenly stood up and did something crazy...
