

Chapter 3450

I saw George Han standing on the top of the mountain, rising slightly, facing the pool, inhaling, condensing.

And then...

“**, you fucking come out for me. What kind of hero is a good soul who shrinks?”

A roar, angered, and the sound moved thousands of miles, until the entire water pool was echoing his echo. “Soul, soul ...

George Han’s expression was slightly cold, and he looked around the pool, still silent and motionless.

This is George Han’s last chance. Before drawing out the twin monsters in the water pool, he must complete these ten “minions” in advance.

Otherwise, George Han felt that he could not bear it.

“Damn, can’t you come out?” George Han glanced at Evil Taotie gloomily, feeling very aggrieved.

The gluttonous glutton of evil let out a low groan, and didn’t know what it meant, but its single eye was looking at the pool below

George Han looked at him with a look of depression, what does it mean?

Suddenly, George Han seemed to think of something.

“You mean, let’s go into the water to make a mess? Pull up something bigger?”

Evil Taotie nodded.

George Han was stunned. It really meant that, but if you think about it carefully, it was indeed a way. In ancient times, Nezha made trouble in the East China Sea. Now I have George Han taking a big bath, which can be regarded as a tribute.

Thinking of this, George Han didn’t talk nonsense. With a sudden movement in his hand, the eight golden bodies were about to come out, and then they flew directly to the surface of the water with a sudden sound.

Seven golden bodies entered the water, and one main body hovered in the sky. As the main body moved, the seven golden bodies, like stone statues with motors, began to stir in the water.

At the same time, George Han’s hands were not idle, and when he gathered a few energies aimed at the surface of the water, it exploded indiscriminately.

For a time, the water was surging under the water surface, and the layers of explosions above the water surface. George Han’s actions like this, if you say he is fried fish, no one will doubt it.

“Roar!”

There was a deep and huge roar, I don't know if it was because I was unwilling to be lonely, or was really attracted by the “wonderful” surface of the water. The gluttonous gluttonous body also moved, and the next second, a fierce man plunged directly into the water.

“Wow!” The
waves splashed!

Water is the source of life, so when people are in no danger in it, it seems that they can quickly find a little happiness.

Just like George Han and the gluttonous gluttons of evil, it was originally “fried fish” to make noise, but it was fried and fried, “fish” did not come out, but one person and one beast started to play.

You have a wave on this side, there is a whirlpool on the other side, when you pounce on this side, there is an explosion on the other side, and you have a lot of fun playing for a while. Like a turbulent sea, wave after wave.

However, when the two were enjoying themselves, the two did not pay attention at all. On the surface of the water where the waves were connected, a water circle was spinning strangely.

The hydrosphere spreads rapidly from about the size of a fist in a two-way flow, and then becomes larger and larger as it spreads, straightening into a giant hydrosphere with a radius of more than ten meters wide.

However, its texture is very light, and it is not obvious in the super wave set off by George Han and Evil Taotie.

Whoa!!!

Whoa!

When the loud noise began to completely cover up the bombing of George Han, the man and the beast suddenly stopped and looked around. I don't know when, the huge water circle has grown to a diameter of nearly 100 meters, almost occupying the

In the big land, the two-way rotation of the water flow also drives the water in the entire pool to form two cross-flows.

At this time, if someone looked at the surface of the pool from above, they would definitely find that the pool was centered on a huge water circle, and two streams of flowing water turned, literally turning the moon pool into a gossip.

George Han and the pangolin were dumbfounded, froze at each other for a while, their eyes staring at the huge water circle at this time.

“Pfft!”

As the water between the two poles turned faster and faster, the flow of the water circle was also moving rapidly. After a loud noise, a huge vortex began to appear, and the vortex went all the way down to the entire underwater surface.

The naked eye can almost see the sand and gravel on the ground without any water at this time, and then, the vortex is still piercing all the way, penetrating the ground.

And a thing slowly rose from the center of the vortex

Chapter 3451

“Fuck, I thought who was playing with mandarin ducks on this, but I didn’t expect it, but it’s a fucking stinky Man, a stinky beast.”

As the thing rose from the vortex, a low scolding sounded at the same time.

The water surface around the vortex surged, and a sand and stone thing slowly and completely stretched out from the ground.

He looks like a dummy piled up with dirt and sand, with a fish mouth, eyes like two pearls, eyebrows like shrimp, and a huge red crab on top of his head, holding a handful of The silvery steel fork, seeing George Han, flashed extreme disdain in his eyes.

George Han gave a bitter smile, don’t say it, the scolding is a bit accurate.

“Damn, it’s actually a living person?” He suddenly frowned and asked: “It’s interesting, what about the four tree people?”

“Didn’t you say there are ten? Why are you the only one?” George Han also asked. .

“Fuck, Lao Tzu is asking you. Answer Lao Tzu first.” The man ignored them and complained.

George Han shook his head: “Although you spoke first, I had this question when I saw your first reaction. You answer me first, and I will answer you later.”

“Damn, how dare you talk to me? Bargain!” As soon as the voice fell, he swung his hand, and an invisible force immediately slammed the water between the two into two huge waves, which suddenly hit George Han.

The height of the huge wave is more than tens of meters, and its momentum is so fierce that you can feel it just by looking at it.

George Han was not afraid at all. When he lifted it in his hand, a burst of energy instantly knocked the surging waves back into the water , and everything was calm again.

Seeing that George Han had blocked his attack so easily, the man couldn’t help but chuckled: “I still forgot, you came from the four brothers of Shuren, if you don’t have the skills , how is that possible?”

“My name is Liang Han, and I am different from them. Even if I look like this, I will still remember my name firmly.”

“I have seen your tomb.” George Han road.

“Really?”

The second tomb I saw at the beginning was the cemetery called Liang Han. Naturally, George Han was also deeply impressed by this matter.

“It’s just a piece of bone after death, what’s the point of being desolate or not? As for not being lonely , you’re right.” After the words were finished, the vortex appeared on the water surface in the distance. George Han glanced back. nine.

During the frantic rotation, the nine figures slowly rose from the nine vortexes.

Each of these nine has its own shape and meaning, some like a giant sea turtle, some like a giant electric eel, and some like a handful of seaweed.

In short, like the previous four, almost none of them have human bodies, or should be said to be half human beings and half of various creatures in this jungle pool.

Although they look extremely terrifying on the outside, if they learn about their lives, in fact, from a certain point of view, wouldn’t they be pathetic?

Seeing nine people appearing at the same time, George Han was also mixed.

Fortunately, fortunately, these ten are finally looking forward to the stars and the moon, and their worst worries have completely dissipated, but no matter what, these ten are obviously not so easy to deal with.

“Let’s meet our new friends. After all, I don’t know how many years I have been in this kind of bird place, and this is the first time I saw a living person appear.” Liang said coldly.

The nine people looked at George Han with different expressions, some sneered, some looked down, and some were disdainful.

George Han nodded: “The tree people are all right, but before leaving, let me get you something.”

“Something?” Liang Han frowned slightly.

And George Han here, also moved his hand at this time, and slowly raised the wooden sign...
