

Chapter 3469

Zhongquan knew that the only one who might have a chance to save the Wade family right now was Charlie.

Except for Charlie, no one else, there is no possibility of saving the day.

However, he was not sure if Charlie could carry the Cataclysmic Front or not.

Moreover, Charlie had never stated his position from the beginning to the end.

Therefore, he was curious to know what exactly his attitude was now.

At this moment, Charlie sighed softly and muttered, "How do I think it should be, huh?"

Speaking of this, he lifted his head and looked at the arrogant Harmen indifferently, and said with clenched teeth in his heart, "I think I should immediately rush up and rip this dog's head off!"

However, the dog's master had not yet come, and beating the dog at this time would only disturb the ten thousand breakers behind it.

So, Charlie said to Harmen: "Such a big thing, after all, we should be given some time to discuss and consider."

After saying that, he smiled faintly and asked, "Such a big matter, I wonder why your Supreme Commander didn't come over personally?"

"Since there is a head for the wrongdoer, he should mention this to us face to face, and if we have any ideas, we can also communicate and negotiate with him face to face, he has not shown up, this is not quite appropriate, right?"

Harmen said in a cold voice: "Let our Supreme Commander personally come and talk to you, you are not worthy of it!"

Charlie was not angry and nodded, "Since we are not worthy of the Supreme Commander personally, I wonder if we can be given a chance to come to the door and talk to the Supreme Commander face to face?"

Harmen smoked a cigar, spitting out a thick circle under his eyes, impatiently waved his hand at Charlie: "Kid, don't fcuking bull5hit me here, just a small role like you,"

"In the eyes of our Supreme Commander, not even equal to a chicken feather, you think you are also worthy to talk to our Supreme Commander face to face?"

The corners of Charlie's mouth twitched slightly, and the urge to slap Harmen to death here surged up inside him again, but once again he suppressed himself when he thought that Joseph had not yet shown up.

So, he said to Harmen, "In that case, how about giving us a night to think about it and we'll give you a reply tomorrow?"

Harmen continued to smoke his cigar, shrugged indifferently, and sneered, "It's not impossible for you guys to want to delay and make a dying struggle."

Saying that, he sneered, "Our Supreme Commander said that he would give your family at most one night to consider!"

"Tomorrow morning at eight o'clock, he will bring the coffin of his parents up to Waderest Mountain!"

"If you have the sense and are willing to accept the conditions of our Supreme Commander, dig out the ancestral graves of your Wade family tonight, leave the coffins of Changying and his wife,"

"And then all of you will wait for our Supreme Commander by 8 o'clock tomorrow morning, kneeling under Waderest Mountain in mourning!"

Here, he turned his words, his tone full of killing intent coldly said: "If tomorrow morning at eight o'clock, you do not dig out the ancestral graves of the Wade family, do not wear mourning kneeling under the Waderest Mountain waiting,"

"Then do not blame us, the Cataclysmic Front, when the time to exterminate your Wade family!"

Charlie nodded and said indifferently: "In that case, then please go back and tell your Supreme Commander, tomorrow morning at eight o'clock, see you at Waderest Mountain!"
