

Chapter 3484

Along with the strangely higher and higher height, suddenly, the two jumping fires on the chair in front of them suddenly extinguished, and the two shadows were also hidden in the darkness.

The strong stench became even more pungent, and the piercing yin qi suddenly rushed from all sides.

“Be careful.”

George Han shouted angrily, pushing Evil Taotie away with a palm, and at the same time his body suddenly tilted.

“Swipe!”

Almost as soon as the person and the beast stepped aside, several black shadows passed by in an instant, and the gluttonous glutton was completely dodged by George Han’s forceful push. Kai, but George Han at this time was suffering. Even though he felt a piercing pain, he lowered his eyes and saw that all the clothes on his waist were torn to shreds.

If not for the protection of the Indestructible Profound Armor and the Frost Jade Armor, George Han believed that this alone would be enough to completely lose his combat effectiveness.

“What a powerful shadow.” George Han frowned and couldn’t help but whisper.

Looking down at the front again, the shadows that jumped by were already in the flickering lights.

“Be careful, and hide behind me when necessary.” Said the gluttonous glutton of evil, George Han’s eyes tightened, and he looked around more vigilantly.

Evil Taotie roared in a low voice, without refuting George Han, he slightly let his body follow behind George Han, and glanced around vigilantly with one big eye.

“Wow!”

Another gust of gloomy wind came, and several black shadows came again amid the flickering lights.

Although they had sufficient preparations, what was wrong was that these guys appeared in a very strange direction, and their speed was extremely fast. Not to mention attacking them, even simple defense seemed extremely difficult.

With a brush, a deep bloodstain was immediately left on George Han’s face, and the blood quickly dyed half of his face red along the bloodstain.

“Hehehe, how’s it going, stinky boy, do you feel completely different from the trash outside?”

“However, don’t be surprised, don’t be afraid, this is just the beginning.”

Seeing that George Han was injured one after another, the two voices sounded again, and the tone was full of deep irony.

George Han ignored them, let alone the injuries on his body. He just stared at the surroundings, as if thinking about something.

Seeing that George Han did not answer, the two of them were also quite bored. The surrounding lights jumped more fiercely, and between the gloomy winds, they could even hear the howls of ghosts and wolves.

George Han is very clear about these ghosts and wolves, but it's just that the two guys taunted themselves in a different way. The more He just took a small breath, adjusted his breathing, and then stopped moving, ready to defend at any time. "Huh!" The cloudy wind rises again! "Do you still want to come?!" "Tianhuo!" With a roar of anger, Tianhuo suddenly appeared in George Han's hands. Following George Han's punch, Tianhuo also shot straight up. However, after rushing along with the sky fire and exploding at the top of the hall more than ten meters above the head, it passed all the way, and neither hit anything nor hit anything, but just lit up with the explosion.

"Damn, I thought I was guessing something by your kid, but in the end, your motherfucker is also blind." The hanged ghost's voice sounded at the moment when George Hantian's fire was empty, and his sneer sounded at the right time. and mockery.

It's just that George Han didn't pay any attention to his plan at this time. He quickly held the jade sword in his hand again, and he slashed directly with a sword when he turned over.

"Roar!"

A miserable cry suddenly sounded, and under the sword, a shadow of black energy had already been cut in half.

"What!"

"What?!"

The two laughing voices exclaimed in surprise at almost the same time.

George Han smiled coldly, brought the gluttonous gluttony with him, and with a quick step under his feet, he appeared in another position in the next second, and the jade sword in his hand swiped again.

Then, the gluttonous glutton that followed, also suddenly aimed at a certain angle and stepped on it with one claw.

Two miserable screams sounded again, and under one person and one beast, one sword and one claw, clouds of black smoke also dispersed...

At this time, George Han suddenly raised his head and looked towards a certain direction, with a faint smile...

bang!

In the hall, it was also suddenly bright at this time...

Chapter 3485

the sky fire formed an explosion, it quickly re-condensed, and then instantly turned into a , directly from the surrounding walls. swept across the flames.

After that, these lights tended to be stable in an instant, and the brightness of the entire hall also remained completely stable.

“The speed of the shadows is really fast, but how fast can they be without these lights as cover?” George Han said coldly.

“You...”

Obviously, George Han’s words hit the other side’s heart. The two’s voices no longer had the slightest arrogance they had before, and each of them was speechless on the spot.

He’s right, Sombra is fast enough, but if you need more speed, you need hidden help between the lights.

If the lights are bright, these shadows will also lose their protection and concealment, and the threat is indeed greatly reduced.

At least, this is true for the guy in front of him who can get here.

George Han finally saw the guy in front of him completely at this very moment.

Although he has a human form, his entire body is completely like a water-like substance made of mercury. He has no facial features, but he can speak with a mouth and eyes, which is extremely strange.

And almost at the moment of his appearance, in front of the original chair, the same figure appeared. Like the mercury man, his entire body was completely made of soft water, but his whole body was inclined to be transparent. You could even see through his body, seeing what’s behind him.

Like the Mercury Man, he also automatically outlines his facial features when he speaks, but when he doesn’t move, he looks like a human-shaped water droplet.

The two looked at, and then, Shuizhuren looked at George Han coldly, and said with a smile, “Do you think that you think you’re amazing just because of what you just said?”

“But it’s just with you. Just kidding.”

“The real cruelty is just the beginning.”

George Han also smiled: “This is the same for you, when you were young, it was just a show for you.”

“Arrogant!”

" Falling, the two watermen suddenly shot directly at George Han.

Its speed is as fast as a flood!

"Wow!"

In the blink of an eye, two figures had already appeared in front of George Han. The two of them clenched their fists and punched George Han's door with all their might.

George Han was also not polite at all, holding the jade sword in his hand, the whole person also rushed forward.

The gluttonous glutton of evil also roared loudly, and after that, he was about to fight side by side with George Han! His body was "Seventy-two Road Divine Sword!" As soon as the words fell, George Han shouted loudly by dodging, holding the jade sword, and directly attacked the Shuizhuren who was completely approached by him. In this way, it will have no defense at all. For George Han's 72-way Divine Sword, it is naturally like meat on a chopping block, but it is just a matter of discretion. However, George Han did not dare to have the slightest joy. He believed that the strength of the Moon Gods was definitely not that strong, and could be completely overtaken by him in such a short round.

Over there, the gluttonous glutton of evil also roared and rushed directly to the Mercury Man on the other side.

"Wow!"

"Bang!"

Two crisp voices sounded at the same time.

"What!"

But just when one person and one beast were all smashing opponents and each penetrated their bodies, causing their bodies to explode into a group of water droplets, George Han suddenly shouted in shock.

As soon as the words fell, those water droplets suddenly re-gathered in an instant, and re-condensed and formed almost right next to George Han.

"Oops."

George Han suddenly realized that something was wrong, but it was obvious that it was already too late.

The distance between the two is too close, and it is too late for George Han to break free. With the huge fist condensed by the Shuizhu people, George Han understands that he can no longer hide.

boom!

boom!

Two incomparably muffled sounds sounded, and George Han and the gluttonous glutton of Evil also flew out from each other suddenly, smashing on the brick surface, causing all the surrounding bricks to crack.

George Han endured the severe pain, forcibly turned over and looked up, the whole person was suddenly dumbfounded...
