

Super Rich Dad Chapter 349-350

Chapter 349 - I'm talking to you

Although Jiang Hao believed that in the end, Su Junting would not be with such a person, no matter what, he was now Su Junting's boyfriend after all.

As a friend, he had the responsibility to remove this danger for Su Junting.

Jiang Hao thought about it, patted Su Zhenye's shoulder and said with a smile, 'Doctor Su, don't worry about this Zhang Xiangyu matter, I'll investigate it, I'll go check on Junting first.'

Having said that, Jiang Hao walked towards the room Su Junting was paying attention to.

'Jiang Hao, where are you going?'

Jiang Hao passed by Xue Yuning, who hurriedly got up and called out to Jiang Hao.

Xue Yuning had of course seen everything that had just happened, in regards to what was going on between Jiang Hao and Su Junting. Although she was not clear about it, from what had just happened alone, Xue Yuning also seemed to have seen some clues.

Although Xue Yuning believed that Jiang Hao only loved herself, but another woman slapping her boyfriend for the sake of her own boyfriend right in front of her eyes, such things would make anyone uncomfortable when they looked at it.

But Jiang Hao didn't seem to be aware of this matter, he just smiled faintly at Xue Yu Ning and said, 'I'm going to check on Jun Ting, you guys sit down for a while, I'll be right back.'

'But I,' Xue Yu Ning wanted to say something but stopped, watching Jiang Hao walk towards the room where Su Junting was, his face obviously looking a bit ugly.

'When he reached the door, Jiang Hao knocked carefully a few times, and Su Junting's tired voice came out from inside, 'Who is it?'

'It's me Junting, I have something to tell you, can I come in?' Jiang Hao said softly.

Su Junting at the door hesitated for a while, Jiang Hao was a bit anxious about waiting, so he hurriedly added, 'Don't worry, I won't disturb you, I'm just a bit curious about some things and want to ask you.'

This time, just as Jiang Hao's words fell, the door was pushed open from the inside, Su Junting had already changed her clothes and put on a white lab coat with a haggard look on her face.

'What's wrong?' Su Junting asked.

Jiang Hao smiled faintly, 'Can I come in and talk?'

Su Junting hesitated slightly as she looked outwards, her gaze falling on Xue Yu Ning who was always staring at the movements over here, seemingly hesitating a little, but finally flashing her body away, 'Come in.'

As soon as Jiang Hao entered, he sat down and his face took on a slightly more serious expression as he opened his mouth and asked, 'Junting, who is that man anyway? Do you know him?'

Su Junting frowned, seemingly a little unhappy to hear this question, 'Why are you asking about him? Is there something wrong with you?'

Jiang Hao shook his head, 'Just simple curiosity, you'

Jiang Hao hesitated before continuing to ask, 'When did you have a boyfriend?'

Su Junting obviously became even more upset when she heard this topic and said with a gloomy face, 'I don't want to hear this question and I don't want to answer it, if you're alright, please go!'

Having said that, Su Junting turned around and was about to open the door.

Jiang Hao sighed and hurriedly called out to her, 'Hey okay, okay, I won't ask this anymore, I actually just heard your father say that that person was from unknown origins and was a bit worried about you, so I wanted to come over and ask you if you knew where he came from!'

Jiang Hao stood up and said in a serious tone, 'Jun Ting, we are best friends no matter what, I won't stand by and watch you in danger, if that man is really of unknown origin, then I think you will be in danger. But if there is something wrong with him, I hope you can leave him quickly, otherwise this will only pit you against yourself!'

Hearing Jiang Hao's words, Su Junting suddenly had a warm feeling in her heart.

In the end, he still cared about himself!

Perhaps in Su Junting's heart, she was already content to know that Jiang Hao cared for her from the bottom of his heart.

But even if she knew that, she still wanted to keep this concern in her heart, and even deep inside Su Junting's heart, there was still a feeling that was a hundred times stronger than Jiang Hao's, but she just didn't want to express it.

Ever since Su Junting found out about Jiang Hao's identity, and since Su Junting found out that her father wanted to flatter Jiang Hao, Su Junting seemed to develop, and the world she existed in seemed to have changed.

A poor loser friend had suddenly become a rich second generation, her own modest and low-key father had started to pursue fame and fortune, everything had changed, everything had gone in a direction she did not like.

Su Junting hated all this, so much so that she felt that it all stemmed from Jiang Hao's identity, how much better would it be if he was still the same as he used to be?

She didn't mind giving more to Jiang Hao, but what she feared most was that she would never be able to give to him again.

Jiang Hao had become a towering figure, so how could he possibly need her contribution.

She felt that she was estranged from Jiang Hao, and it seemed impossible to ever get closer.

Instead of that, it would be better for her to put some wisdom into it and leave him of her own accord.

It was because of this, as if she wanted to escape the world around her that had changed so drastically, that Su Junting agreed to Zhang Xiangyu's pursuit

Su Junting withdrew her thoughts, sighed and said lightly, 'Thank you, there is no need to bother, you have just heard it, we are actually over.'

It was over, for Su Junting, it was really a kind of relief.

Only when Jiang Hao heard this, he laughed disdainfully, 'It's over? Junting, can you please stop being so naive? I believe you know that man better than I do. Do you think he will be willing to give up? The end is just you deceiving yourself.'

Jiang Hao put away all his expressions, looked at Su Junting seriously and said, 'Junting, I hope you can tell me what that man really does, how you actually met him, and how much you still know about him. I'm going to investigate him for you. I'm doing this for your own good and out of concern for a friend. That's all, I hope you won't give me the chills, okay?'

Jiang Hao's words seemed to have instantly woken Su Junting up.

After thinking about it, she seemed to realise that she was indeed too naive ah.

She did know Zhang Xiangyu better than Jiang Hao, he was definitely not the kind of person who would give up so easily, he had already pestered himself for so long, how could he let go so easily?

Besides, Jiang Hao was right when he said that he didn't know Zhang Xiangyu very well, so instead of being on tenterhooks like this, she should let Jiang Hao investigate his identity, so that she could feel a bit more at ease.

Su Junting sighed and nodded, 'Alright, I'll talk to you.'

Chapter 350: Investigate

'Actually, I'm not very clear about his origins, not long ago, we met once at a party, and then he started to pursue me'

Su Junting told Jiang Hao everything she knew about Zhang Xiangyu, one by one.

But there was not much of value in it, and it seemed that Su Junting knew very little about this Zhang Xiangyu as well.

Apart from knowing that his family wasn't local, that he was rich and seemed to have a wide range of contacts, she didn't know much.

'Is that all?' Jiang Hao frowned and looked at Su Junting, a little surprised, 'You you don't even know him, and you chose to be with him? And you didn't ask him?'

Hearing Jiang Hao's question, Su Junting blushed slightly, shook her head, and the whole person fell silent.

Suddenly though, Su Junting seemed to think of something and jerked up, looking at Jiang Hao and said, 'Oh I thought of something else that was suspicious about him, and that was that when we were together, he always liked to look at his phone, and on several occasions, it was after he came with a text message that he left in a hurry.'

Su Junting thought back for a moment, followed by, 'And once again, he seemed to have slipped up once, saying something about there actually being some bigger person behind him or something like that, but I didn't take it seriously at the time, I I wasn't really interested in him, so I didn't even bother to ask about a lot of things'

Jiang Hao let out a cry, he walked around the room twice, then asked Su Junting to send himself a photo of that Zhang Xiangyu, and got up to leave.

Before Jiang Hao went out, he looked at Su Junting and said softly, 'You take care of yourself.'

After saying that, Jiang Hao turned around and left.

Su Junting looked at Jiang Hao's back and felt a little reluctant to leave, hurriedly closing the door and leaning against it with a lot of thoughts in her mind.

At this time, Jiang Hao didn't put much thought into that Zhang Xiangyu, he just wanted to find out the identity of this person.

What Jiang Hao didn't know was that this Zhang Xiangyu, surprisingly, would be entangled with himself for so long.

Jiang Hao walked over to Xue Yuning and Xu Qingqing, saw Xu Qingqing who had already been given medicine, and said softly, 'Let's go.'

Xue Yuning's face didn't look too good, and she only nodded slightly before getting up and helping Xu Qingqing out of the clinic.

Jiang Hao frowned, he could also see that it seemed that seeing himself and Su Junting perhaps getting close, Xue Yuning was a little jealous.

But Jiang Hao but didn't feel anything, he took out his mobile phone and called Ye Yunjie on the phone.

'Sister Ye, help me look up someone!' When the call was answered, Jiang Hao said, 'I'll send you his photo later, his name is Zhang Xiangyu, I want to know his origin, identity, and background!'

The person on the other end of the phone, Ye Yunjie, answered and hung up, then Jiang Hao passed on the photo that Su Junting had passed on to him to Ye Yunjie.

Just then, Su Zhenye also rushed over.

Jiang Hao smiled faintly at him, 'Doctor Su, please don't worry, I've already asked someone to investigate that Zhang Xiangyu, there will be news soon.'

Su Zhenye nodded, 'Yes, yes, I'm counting on you, Jiang Hao... Hey, Juntong, she's not easy to deal with, so I'll need your help in the future.'

Jiang Hao casually coped with the situation, turned his head to look at the room where Su Juntong was, and hurriedly followed him out.

At that moment, Xue Yuning and Xu Qingqing had already got into a taxi on the roadside, Jiang Hao hurriedly followed them and said to the driver, 'Go to Chujiang University.'

As the driver drove, Jiang Hao looked back at Xue Yuning, knowing that she was a little upset, so he asked, 'Yuning, tomorrow I am going to see the progress of the house renovation, are you going?'

Xue Yuning lifted her head and looked at Jiang Hao, looking listless.

'Forget it, I won't go.' Xue Yuning looked at Xu Qingqing and said comfortingly, 'Xiaoqing is injured, I want to stay with her in the dormitory.'

Hearing Xue Yuning say this, Jiang Hao couldn't help but shake his head as well and said, 'Alright then'

Soon, several people returned to the school.

Xue Yuning and Xu Qingqing went back to their dormitories, while Jiang Hao took a walk alone by the stadium. He seemed to be trying to think of something, but his mind was muddled and he couldn't think of anything.

Suddenly, Jiang Hao's mobile phone rang, and it was Ye Yunjie calling.

Jiang Hao hurriedly picked it up, 'Hello, Sister Ye.'

Ye Yunjie gave a hint and then said, 'Young Jiang, I've already used many connections to find out about the person you asked me to investigate!'

Jiang Hao smiled at his words, he was well aware of Ye Yunjie's working ability and believed that as long as Ye Yunjie took the initiative, he would definitely be able to find out information about that person.

However, Ye Yunjie's next words caused Jiang Hao's entire body to be startled.

'But Jiang Shao, I didn't find out any information about that person's identity!' Ye Yunjie said in a deep voice.

'Didn't find out?' Jiang Hao smiled with astonishment, 'How is that possible? Sister Ye, it's not a very easy thing for you to find out about a person, how come you haven't found out in the end?'

Jiang Hao couldn't believe Ye Yunjie's words.
