

Chapter 3494

also stopped shaking his head suddenly, looking at George Han, waiting for his answer.

George Han smiled lightly, and after dragging for a while, he suddenly cracked a smile: "That's right."

Hearing George Han's words, Mercury Man couldn't help but stagger on the spot like a deflated balloon. "Ah" sounded.

After that, he completely fell into hesitation and fear.

"No, no, no, those are all unique secrets, not to mention that he can penetrate in such a short period of time, even a super genius is absolutely impossible."

"Also, there are still three!"

"You You can be considered an old guy who has lived for an unknown number of years, could it be that he can still be deceived by a few words?"

Shuizhuren roared at the Mercury Man angrily, and under his roar, the Mercury Man was able to Wei Wei stabilizes her mind and looks at Han George Han .

That's right, there is no doubt what he said at this point, even a top-level genius would never be able to penetrate and master such a complex and profound secret technique so quickly in such a short period of time.

You must know that no matter it is Liang Han or who it is, they used to be people of true gods, and who can reach this position, who does not have a proud talent?

But even their talented group of people can't understand it for a lifetime. How can he understand it in a few hours or a few days.

It's not that they look down on anyone, it's that no one should take them for a fool.

George Han smiled. He didn't know what to say. What they said was well-founded. In fact, he agreed with them.

But... the fact is that George Han learned it inexplicably ... The Mercury man frowned, looked at George Han suspiciously, and said softly, "What do you mean, this kid doesn't use it at all?"

It's some other method similar to other methods, just climbing up the pole here, and playing tricks with us here?" The Shuizhuren snorted coldly: "Is there any other possibility?" Nodding, it seems that this is the only possibility.

"Good boy, I don't study well, but I do learn something to fool people. I really almost let you fool me." After the words were finished, the Mercury Man gave George Han a cold look. George Han shook his head helplessly:

“Believe it or not.” As the words fell, his hands suddenly became red again, ready to fight at any time. Mercury and Shuizhu looked at each other, nodded to each other, and attacked George Han again .

Although it was two fast shadows, George Han at this time was just staring at Shuizhuren’s route indifferently. In the face of the two men’s attack, George Han knew very well that most people’s subconscious reaction should be to guard against the Mercury Man. After all, the Shuizhu Man was seriously injured, and the threat was naturally not as good as the prosperous Mercury Man.

But for George Han, this kind of play is meaningless. Once the Mercury Man can hold himself back, then the Shuizhu Man who is half injured will also become a huge drag.

In the case of complete equality, multiple ordinary people can deal a fatal blow, not to mention the thin and dead camel of Shuizhuren? Persimmons should be picked softly. This is an eternal truth and an eternal truth.

Quickly hit the water drop people, directly destroying their weakest link, and at the same time breaking their Formation, show your own momentum, kill two birds with one stone, then George Han’s threat will only be one-on-one with the Mercury people.

However, in order to succeed, George Han knew that this matter had to be a bit more slanted.

Thinking of this, George Han opened his mouth with a meaningful smile.

He turned around slightly and faced the attack of the Quicksilver Man directly, but he was not slow at all, and directly in his hand was a shot from the Emperor, sealing the attacking route of the Quicksilver Man.

Seeing that he was blocked, the silver man did not panic, and smiled leisurely: “Hmph, do you think I don’t know what you want to do? But unfortunately, I would like to see how many hands you have.”

Then, not only did he not change shape To dodge, instead, he directly pressed the square seal of George Han with force. Obviously, as George Han expected, he wanted to hold him back.

George Han didn’t panic either, but smiled thieflly: “Guess what?”

Chapter 3495

Mercury people also laughed, laughing crazy, laughing is also extremely hideous.

“Haha, hahaha!”

He was extremely mad and presumptuous.

he guessed? Guess what!

He only knew that if George Han fought with him as he wished, it would be difficult for him to free up his hands to deal with Shuijin people. Naturally, he was in front of Shuijin people like a lamb to be slaughtered.

What does he have to guess?

Guess how George Han died?

Seeing his arrogant smile, George Han was also smiling.

“Burning silence!”

With a roar of anger, George Han’s entire right arm turned red again, and red light all over his body appeared.

“Boy, I have to admit that your move is indeed a bit threatening, but so what?” The Mercury Man was unmoved.

He smiled softly: “Can you use it to hurt someone?”

“Can you open your hand? If you dare to remove your talisman, my water sword can pierce your chest directly.”

George Han shook his head helplessly: “So, you are planning to consume me like this, and then make me unable to take care of both ends, right?”

“Young people have to pay for their inexperience, right?” smile.

“Paying for this kind of thing is not aimed at young people, but everyone.” When the words were finished, George Han smiled and drank softly: “Heavenly Fire!”

Wow!

The fire of the sky burst out in an instant, accompanying Han about 3,000.

“You want to use it to help you?” Seeing Tianhuo appearing, the Mercurial Man smiled: “Then, let me pay the bill?”

George Han nodded: “Exactly.”

“Joke, I already said it, you Fire does have some power, but your control over it is still far from that level. He is a tiger, but unfortunately it is only a young tiger.”

“Since it is only a young tiger, what kind of threat does it have? What?” When the words fell, the Mercury Man looked at George Hangeng with a gloomy smile.

Seeing his arrogant appearance, George Han was unmoved at all. After a while, the corners of his mouth twitched: “You are right, but you also have to understand one thing.”

“What?” The Mercury man frowned slightly. .

George Han smiled and said, “A tiger is always a tiger. Don’t think it’s not a tiger just because it urinates. From birth, it has been full of bloodthirsty for the enemy just like his parents.”

George Han finished with a grim smile . , whispered softly, looked at Tianhuo: “Come on!”

“Wow!”

Tianhuo suddenly moved, jumped over George Han's right hand, and slowly searched.

The next second, the sky fire suddenly flew, and directly got into George Han's fiery red arm.

The Mercury man was stunned for a moment, obviously confused by this operation for a while, what does this mean?

I released it, and then... I put my own spells into my body again. What are you doing? Self-harm?

"Are you sick?" The Mercury man couldn't help but drank softly.

"Yes, I'm sick." George Han smiled, without any ridicule at all. The so-called dangerous move of soldiers, George Hanxing was the move at the moment.

"What do you mean?" The mercury man was taken aback.

He really wanted to scold George Han, but the problem was that from George Han's eyes and his very straightforward admission, the Mercury people were a little confused.

He seems to have sworn an oath, he has a plan in mind, and obviously has a very deep plan.

But what kind of plan can he have in his own way? !

"Looking at your appearance, you can't take it out, can you?" George Han asked with a soft smile.

The Mercurial Man was stunned for a moment, not knowing what he meant, but he was right. Right now, he couldn't stop. All his strength was used on the crazy attack.

George Han laughed: "Isn't that right?" As soon as the voice fell, George Han suddenly moved his hand, and his right hand was ignited to the extreme:

"Tianhuo, what are you waiting for?!"

" , In George Han's right hand, the flame instantly reached its extreme, and a terrifying thing seemed to come out...
