

Chapter 3498

Hearing this, George Han couldn't help but stunned for a moment. This sentence will suddenly come.

After thinking for a while, George Han was a little puzzled: "What do you mean? Do you want to make a deal with me?"

"Deal?" It means, I want to exchange something for my life?"

"If you think so, then you can do it." When the words fell, the Mercury Man closed his eyes as soon as the water sword was in his hand.

Neither resist nor resist.

George Han understood somewhat that he might be wrong, and said softly, "You and I were still immortal before, so it's normal for me to think more?"

He nodded: "Yes, you say Yes, it's really good.

After he finished speaking, he raised his head slightly, looked at George Han, and said, "But I want to give you something stronger, but it's not because we are hostile to each other."

"It's just that we are about to die. , I have some regrets and don't want to bring it into the coffin."

"This point, I am the same as the fourteen people outside. The fourteen of them should not be dead, right?"

George Han thought about his question. , did not speak.

He was afraid that if something happened, this guy would take revenge on the fourteen seniors. This was not what George Han thought.

Seeing that George Han didn't answer, the Mercury Man smiled softly and shook his head: "Actually, if you don't tell me, I can guess the answer when I'm sure you have learned the three magic skills."

"In this place , we have been trapped together for thousands of years. Although I and their group are not together, our thoughts should be surprisingly consistent."

How many days and months, how many tortures, everyone's anger is extremely heavy, and if they don't go by the way, they will be slaughtered

. Everything has a double-edged sword, which is a manifestation of our inner despair, but the more despair we are, the more we hope to see a glimmer of light in the future."

"Obviously, you are the glimmer of light."

George Han looked at him, his tone was very gentle and full of sighs, George Han knew very well that he did not lie to himself.

“It’s too exalting to call me your dawn, and I’m just doing my best.” The Mercury man shook his head: “When you float in the sea for a long, long time, you are exhausted. At the end, you saw a wooden board floating over, may I ask, do you care whether the board is big or small?”

George Han shook his head, let alone a wooden board, even if it was a grass, George Han believed him It will also be held tightly in the hand.

“Besides, as I said just now, you have all learned the three complex divine skills in a short period of time, which in itself is a kind of fate.”

“Since this is the case, what can I say? It’s just to comply with the destiny. That’s all .”

George Han nodded: “I’m sorry, it was George Han who misunderstood the meaning of senior.”

“Each one has a destiny, just sighing and sighing, it is nothing more than a little irony. When I got it, I thought it was true. I have everything I have, so I devote myself to learning, but I really don’t understand his words.”

“Later, I heard that there may be a solution in the scriptures, but I never wanted to fall into it, and I fell into a state of death and soul.”

“At that time, I thought I was too hasty or something else.”

“But now that I contact you, I suddenly feel relieved.”

“Everything is destined. Like Liang Han and others, I can get Those magical skills are not because of our destiny, but only in disguise as their means of dissemination, just like the dandelion, thinking that the wind is blowing to make us look good in the air Then...”

He shook his head helplessly: “Actually, it’s just that the wind will blow us away and create a new life for the next land.” After a moment of silence, he looked up at George Han: “ Forget it, let’s not talk about that, let’s talk about what I’m going to teach you.”

“However, you may need to be mentally prepared.”

Chapter 3499

“Psychological preparation?”

George Han was stunned, somewhat unclear.

Although some magical secret methods are indeed very magical, they are not psychologically prepared, right? !

The Mercury Man smiled bitterly: “Are you ready?”

George Han was very confused, shook his head, and finally nodded again. For a time, he was completely confused about the situation.

“You come with me.” The Mercury Man finished his words, turned slightly, and walked towards the end of the east direction of the hall.

“Roar!” On

the ground, the badly injured gluttonous glutton groaned slightly at George Han, obviously reminding George Han not to follow, in case the other party was playing in.

This place is indeed someone else’s territory, and if you follow him rashly, it is indeed quite possible that something will happen.

If there is any mechanism, then

George Han’s advantage will be completely gone, and it is even very likely that he will be killed.

Moreover, Mercury and Shuizhuren are in the same group. Losing a companion will indeed greatly reduce his strength and make his fighting spirit subside, but in the same way, no one can protect him. This guy is just low-profile and relaxes his vigilance. After the heart, play a yin with yourself?

In addition to his inexplicable mental preparation, it seems to be explained all the time, this possibility seems to be really big.

However, George Han always felt that the exclamation of the Mercurial Man in front of him was not like acting. Sometimes, a person’s true thoughts can be completely felt from his body movements and tone of voice.

George Han believes that at this point, the Mercury people are really lamenting the helplessness of their life

Moreover, since he trusted himself to give his most precious things to himself, it would seem rather rude if he still looked distrustful. When I thought of this, George Han made up his mind, just as he was about to take a step, the Mercurial Man over there had already stopped, looked back at George Han, saw that he did not lift his foot to follow, and asked, “What’s wrong? I’m afraid. I’m jealous of you?”

George Han shook his head with a smile: “No, explain a few words to it.” When the words were finished, George Han walked to the side of the evil glutton, patted its head, and gently comforted him. : “Don’t worry, it’s alright, I’ll be back soon, you can rest for a while.”

Then, George Han turned a few steps and walked behind the Mercury Man, smiling slightly: “I also ask the senior to lead the way.” The Mercury Man glanced at him. George Han looked at the Taotie smiled helplessly, how could he know what the roar of the Taotie of Evil meant, but since George Han was willing to believe in himself, he was naturally speechless, nodded, and greeted him. Go to the east end.

This Moon Palace is very large. Even though George Han had used Skyfire to stabilize the lights in the center before, it was only a drop in the bucket for the entire Moon Palace.

The deeper you go, the dimmer the lights around you, until it is pitch black in the end.

The quicksilver man walked all the way, and when he lifted his finger, the surrounding lights could barely be together. Although the candlelight jumped, at least the dark place could be seen a little more clearly.

“Do you know why this place is called the Moon Palace?” The Mercury Man walked ahead and suddenly opened his mouth.

“It’s because the Moon Lake is shaped like a moon. Naturally, the Moon Palace is in it , and that’s why it got its name.” George Han said according to his own understanding.

The further east you go, the damper the ground becomes, and even George Han’s feet on the floor tiles can feel the water stains.

“No.” The mercury man shook his head.

George Han frowned: “Then George Han really doesn’t understand, and I hope you can enlighten me.” The mercury man smiled: “Actually, what I just said was a bit abrupt, and your answer is not entirely wrong, you should say, yes That ‘s right.”

“That’s right?”

“The Moon Palace and Moon Lake are indeed named because they are shaped like the moon, but their shapes are due to the same thing.”

“That is, What I want to give you, we are here.”

After saying that, George Han raised his eyes and saw a huge stone gate in front of them
