

Chapter 3500

"This is..."

Looking at this huge gate, George Han couldn't help but feel deeply shocked.

Like a moat, blocking the road.

"The Palace of the Moon, the place where the treasure of the moon exists." The Mercury man smiled softly.

"The treasure of the moon?" George Han asked in confusion.

The Mercurial Man nodded: "Want to hear a story?"

Although George Han was speechless, he looked at him eagerly, and already expressed his attitude.

In the Bafang World, there used to be an isolated island, elusive in nothingness, and every twelve Jiazi reincarnates, appearing in the ocean of the Bafang World.

At that time, the turtles in the sea will gather together and connect with each other with their shells, eventually forming a huge turtle island.

After the formation of Turtle Island, there will be an old man who doesn't know where he came from, and he doesn't know where he came from, and he suddenly appears in Turtle Island.

The faults of the turtle shell are complex, not only forming an island, but also forming a path of shell patterns. If the person on the island solves it wrongly, they will face the disintegration of the turtle shell, and people will naturally be buried in the vast sea. middle.

If the answer is correct, you can enter the island smoothly all the way to see the mysterious old man.

The old man will set up a game of life and death on the island, the left is life, the right is death, life is a ten thousand tortoise spirit formation, and death is a spirit tortoise chess game.

Although the left side is known as the game of life, the Ten Thousand Turtles Spirit Formation is full of murderous intentions, but it is actually called the place of death. Although the place of death is a chess game, the chess game is quite extensive. Just every chess piece is a ten thousand years. Old turtle, players who play chess can only play on the chess ground, and the chess ground is no different from the pattern on the outside.

The chessboard will disintegrate in an instant, and the people on the chessboard will also fall instantly.

"What if you win

?" George Han asked.

"If he wins, the old man has a hundred treasure bags in his hand, and he will randomly take out a treasure from it and give it to someone who is destined." Mercury said humanely.

When the words fell, he smiled bitterly: "However, there are hundreds of treasures in the treasure bag, but it does not mean that every one is a treasure for anyone."

“From the lowest weeds to ordinary swords , it has everything, and there are things that shouldn’t be there, so if you are unlucky, maybe the things you bet on with your life are just waste grass that you can pick up on the roadside.”

“I live in the Bafang world. At that time, I once heard that there was a senior who lost an arm and a leg, but only got a chicken feather in exchange. He lost his original position of true god.”

George Han nodded, and he was really embarrassed because of the small loss

He also printed that sentence, won the tender film of the clubhouse, and lost to work in the sea.

“However, over the years, many people are still fascinated by Linggui Island, and many wealthy families have even created the so-called Constellation Guibu for this purpose. The purpose is to calculate the time and place of the next appearance of Linggui Island. “

Back then, when I was living in the Bafang World, the scene was lively...” As soon as he mentioned this, the Mercury Man himself was also very embarrassed. Perhaps the kind of scenery back then, only he himself knew the most and was the most Impressive.

“Such a loss, but there are still countless people desperately trying to squeeze in. Thinking about it, there should be some rare treasures in that treasure bag, right?” George Han asked.

The quicksilver man nodded: “Yes, there is indeed a kind of peerless treasure hidden in the treasure bag. No one has seen this kind of treasure, but it has long been circulated in the rivers and lakes. It is a treasure.”

” It is this mysterious old man who is the best. It is also the hard work of the mysterious old man. There are rumors that if you get this treasure, you will not only be able to rule the world in all directions, but also you will be able to live for thousands of years without suffering from reincarnation.”

“Do you know what this means?”

Han Three thousand nodded, of course he knew what it meant, which meant that anyone could fly to the branch and become a phoenix, and the diaosi counterattacked to complete the reform and change of life.

For those who are already quite powerful, this thing makes them take the most crucial step in life, and even the true gods can veto the three-thirds of the world from now on.

It does not enter into the suffering of samsara, and it can make it last forever.

George Han can finally understand why the ending may be so bleak, but it still can’t stop the enthusiasm of those people.

“This thing is the treasure of the moon, isn’t it?” George Han asked suddenly.

Chapter 3501

Hearing George Han's question, the Mercury man was slightly surprised, looked back at George Han, and said with a smile: "How do you do? Do you know?"

George Han smiled bitterly: "It's not hard to guess."

"You have set up such a long list, it is impossible not to have nothing to do with the treasure of the moon." The mercury man shook his head: "I've been waiting for a long time. Here, it is hard for you to understand the trouble, and suddenly there is a living person, so what's the harm?"

George Han smiled: "Then let's assume that your reason makes sense. Then the second one you can't do. Explained."

"Is there a second one?" He looked at George Han with interest.

"Of course." George Han nodded: "In terms of age, you are a senior and I am a descendant. You can't deny this, right?"

"Exactly." He nodded.

"In that case, such a big treasure is enough to change everyone's destiny. Why did it stop in your era, or is it not passed down to our generation?" George Han smiled: "Maybe, some other legends will gradually fade away with time, or be forgotten, but things related to human greed will never be possible."

"Human greed will only be infinite, and will never be extinct. Is it?" The Mercury Man didn't speak, just looked at George Han with a smile.

"So, the only possibility is that the highest treasure of Linggui Island was taken away by people. Naturally, Linggui Island lost its attractiveness and was gradually abandoned by people, and finally dissipated in the long river of history. , this is the truth that our generation has never heard of this legend."

"Even, I can assert that the person who took this treasure of the month was you."

When the words fell,

George Han looked at the Mercury Man calmly. The Mercury Man was obviously smiling, and he paused before saying, "Why do you think I took it away?" "Because you said something to me."

"Oh?"

"When you were right, you thought it was yours, but in the end you found out that it wasn't because you were destined to get this blessing, it was just a disguised tool for spreading destiny, just like that dandelion." After George Han finished speaking, he continued to add: "If you hadn't been overjoyed before, why would you be so sad now?"

"Only those who have gained and lost will sigh from the bottom of their hearts, am I right?"

Looking at George Han's confident eyes, the Mercury Man was stunned for a moment, then laughed loudly, and at the same time a pair of water-like hands couldn't help clapping: "Okay, okay, okay, as expected of a formidable future generation, as expected, the analysis is right and reasonable. According to the data, no water is exposed."

"It is smart and careful, as expected of a person who can learn the three magic skills, which is interesting and interesting."

"Yes, I was indeed lucky enough to find the time and place of the appearance of Linggui Island back then, and successfully reconciled with it. A large group of opponents and friends arrived at Linggui Island together."

"At that time, we were very powerful, there were many people, and the world of Bafang was full of spiritual energy. Most of the people present were good players, and for this moment, everyone After preparing for a long time, all kinds of astrology and gossip that we study on weekdays can also come in handy. Only half of us enter the island."

"However, when it comes to the most critical life and death situation, most people can't escape this. Guan, I lost my life to the mouth of the tortoise, I barely passed the two original gods, but I was the most injured of the three."

"As the lottery

began, the two gods were lucky one after another, although they did not win the grand prize. , but the things they get are all high-quality, and for them, this thing is nothing but a tiger with wings."

"To be honest, I was a little desperate at that time, because the strength of the true gods was not much different from each other, but as they started with high-quality products, the future began to change."

Speaking of this, he smiled bitterly: "But who would have thought that it was me who was so desperate, but at the last moment, I won the final prize, the treasure of the moon."

"I am very happy, and I am also very excited because I know what this means. Just, I would never have imagined that it was this treasure of the moon that made me completely lose my life."

As he finished speaking, he moved his hand, and a flash of moonlight suddenly flashed through the center of the giant gate, and the gate was also slowly at this time. open...
