

Chapter 3506

mercury man pondered a little, then nodded heavily: "Exactly."

"The Seventh Spirit Monkey is an aura. Therefore, it is extremely special and precious. If it cannot be recognized, the Seventh Spirit Monkey will be a void existence with color and body but no substance to anyone, and anyone can see it but cannot touch it."

George Han nodded, which is easy to understand, all things have their own basic instincts, and these can ensure their basic survival.

The Seventh Spirit Monkey, a rare and rare thing in the world, naturally has the ability to be different from ordinary people, so as to avoid the attacks of people with ulterior motives.

"Although Zhang Guoshi takes martial arts as his honor, he is considered a true martial arts idiot, but his family background is prominent and he is the only seedling, so the resources in his family are basically all inclined to him

. A group of think tanks."

"You Qi also had a magic battalion among his subordinates, which almost recruited a large number of elites in his world at that time to search for all the magic weapons in the Bafang world for him."

"It is also a coincidence, he. When he was born, he was a few generations later than me. They didn't have many disputes at that time, so they could let him recover and become a new god under the accumulation of the family. But the corresponding period of peace is naturally a relative lack of materials. "

In their time, there were very few miracles of all kinds, and it was rare to hear about any treasures appearing. Just his magic camp, counting from the day it was established, there have been more than sixty. In the past few years, the number of people in the department has reached tens of thousands, and the eyeliners are even more numerous, but they have not even found a decent thing."

Speaking of this, he smiled bitterly.

This

Even George Han can feel the ups and downs, even if the family business is big. There are tens of thousands of people, not to mention people. Even if it is a pig, it will be a huge expense if it has been raised for several decades and just can't eat it.

Seeing George Han's empathy, he smiled wryly and shook his head: "That's why I said that when he was born right, he was born to the right family, but if he lived in an era when there was a little war, or was born in a family with a few more children, just his expenses, even if he is not kicked out of the house, he is at least a proper prodigal."

George Han also smiled bitterly and did not speak.

But he completely understood what he said.

If it weren't for these, he wouldn't have been abandoned by the family, and if it wasn't for the fact that he was the only one left in the end, he wouldn't have been suddenly sent by his mother to a housekeeper to take him back.

Indeed, it is time and nature.

"In Zhang Guoshi's words, he almost forgot the existence of his magic camp, and he is not short of the two money."

"But maybe it is this kind of good attitude, God rewarded him, or , that gang of Shenji Battalion has been unlucky for a lifetime since its establishment, and finally managed to keep the cloud open, and it has turned around, and it has completely turned over." I found a piece of news, a piece of news about the Seventh Spirit Monkey.

In fact, the people in the Shenji Camp didn't take it seriously at the beginning. This is really because this legend is too small, and many people have never heard of it at all.

But in the end, Shenjiying decided to take action, but the reason for their action was too funny, just because they had been eating and taking Zhang Guoshi for too many years, and they were too embarrassed to be idle every day, so they unanimously discussed it and felt that it was true or false. , at least get busy and make up for the debt in your heart.

"As a result, it was because of these unintentional actions that they actually found the treasure, right?" George Han asked with a smile.

Hearing the words, the man smiled and nodded: "Yes, that's right, it's just like the saying that the flowers will not bloom if they are deliberately planted, and the willows and willows will not bloom if they are inadvertently, it is such a group of dangling team, it is such a group of unambitious guys, dealing with business affairs. With their indifference, the Seventh Spirit Monkey was really found by them."

George Han frowned, "However, you also said that without the approval of the Seventh Spirit Monkey, the Seventh Spirit Monkey is nothing. I can't touch it at all, how did they catch it?"

Chapter 3507

"Guess what?"

George Han pondered for a moment, then quickly set his eyes on the wooden box containing the corpse of the spirit monkey, and then replied, "Is it because of the wooden box?" The mercury man smiled and nodded heavily: "No Wrong."

Although Shenjiying discovered the Seventh Spirit Monkey by accident, just like the particularity of the Seventh Spirit Monkey, they quickly realized that the problem was wrong.

However, just when they were confused and helpless, the huge think tank behind Zhang Guoshi provided crucial help.

They are convinced that all things are born with each other and restrain each other. Just like a place where poisonous snakes are haunted, there must be something to detoxify within a few meters. Since these seven-generation monkeys can see and touch, there must be something to make manifest.

“If the expectations are correct, according to this theory, the material used for this wooden box should be the tree where the monkeys live?” George Han asked tentatively.

The quicksilver man laughed: “A smart person is really a smart person, and you can see through it.”

“Yes, through the guidance of the think tank, the Shenjiren soon discovered that the seventh-generation monkeys often like to inhabit a century-old tree. After that, according to the instructions of the think tank, the God Machine Group downed the old tree, made wooden boxes, ropes and other objects from the tree body, then painted the color with leaves, soaked it in the sap for a few days, and finally used it to capture the gods. Monkey.”

Facts have proved that think tanks are indeed not raised in vain, and the truth that heaven and earth are mutually reinforcing is also an inevitable existence.

Under the various “weapons” based on the old tree, the Seventh Spirit Monkey was quickly captured by the people of the Shenji Camp and returned to Zhang Guoshi.

To get this rare treasure, let alone Zhang Guoshi, even the entire Zhang family is rejoicing in the world.

The Zhang family was overjoyed, believing that this thing was a blessing from the heavenly officials, and it was given to their Zhang family so that their Zhang family would become a dragon and become a phoenix and rule the world.

Although the Zhang family kept this treasure quite secret, but Zhang Guoshi was a martial arts idiot. He was obsessed with cultivation and was complacent about his upcoming peak. In addition, there was no wall in the world that could not penetrate the wind. The Zhang family got the seventh News of the monkeys spread like wildfire.

Like him, the originally peaceful world was completely blown up by this news.

“Peace is only because people’s greed has been satisfied, or in other words, people’s greed has not been provoked.”

Han

George Han nodded heavily, deeply agreeing with this view: “But Zhang Guoshi’s seventh-generation As soon as the monkey came out, it prevented the Buddha from throwing a big stone on the calm water.”

“Yes, this stone has stirred up a thousand waves, so that his peaceful years will end, and the outside seems to be calm and peaceful. , in fact, it is an undercurrent.”

George Han smiled, a big tree will attract the wind.

“The outside is fierce, but there is also a problem inside the Zhang family. The Seventh Spirit Monkey was indeed brought back, but they are just like you just now, they can’t be seen or touched. In a sense, the Seventh Spirit Monkey But it's just a different place to live." "This made the Zhang family dumbfounded, which made Zhang Guoshi very anxious, but some urgent matters are useless." With the arrival of the master

, the days of the Zhang family have come to an end."

George Han asked softly, "So, just like you, he came here to get the mystery of the monkey, right?"

"The man nodded heavily: "Yes, it's a pity he didn't get it. Even if the Seventh Spirit Monkey died, he didn't wait for the day to answer."

"It's ironic."

"However, in order to be unwilling in his heart, Zhang Guoshi used the method taught him by the think tank before leaving home, using the sap of the old tree as the material, kept the body in a box, and then built this Moon Palace with me. "

As soon as I put it in the Pillar of the Moon, I don't know how many years there are. Now, I believe that it has also found a person who recognizes it." After the words were finished, he looked at George Han lightly, his face With a faint smile...
