

Chapter 351

The night is deep, and Cheng Mohan hasn't rested yet.

He leaned lazily in front of the window and looked at the night of Jiangbin city with deep eyes. His thoughts fell into deep memories.

This is not the first time he has come to Jiangbin. The agreement between the Jin family and the Cheng family is invalid for him, because strictly speaking, he can't really be regarded as a member of the Cheng family. He is just a puppet controlled by the grandmother who regards power more important than anything.

Many generations of the Cheng family are single handed, so he was determined to be the successor of the Cheng family as soon as he was born. Since his childhood, he has been placed with high hopes, and he also strives to become a qualified family owner.

But Grandma changed the course of his life.

When my grandfather was still alive, my grandmother never showed any attachment to power. In my childhood, my grandmother was always a kind, gentle and independent old man.

But after her grandfather died, grandma suddenly became a stranger he didn't know. She first took control of the Cheng family by thunder, and then put her father and two aunts under house arrest. At the same time, she began to win people's hearts. It took only a few months to take over the huge property of the Cheng family.

No one knows how cruel and bloody the means grandma used at that time, but he didn't want to believe that all these things were true. He kept telling himself that these things were fabricated by others in order to hurt grandma's reputation.

It was not until his two aunts could not bear the persecution of his grandmother and fled from the Cheng family that his grandmother killed the guard of her aunt in front of him after she was furious. At this time, he realized that his grandmother's kindness was pretended, and the purpose was to cover up her attachment to power and peeping.

Grandma's attitude towards him also became cold, then cold, and finally cold. He knew that the reason why grandma treated him like this was because he was the successor of the next generation of family owners, and naturally became a thorn in grandma's eye.

Finally, after several years of forbearance, he could not bear all kinds of criticisms from his grandmother. One day, he ran away from the Cheng family and Jiangdong. Finally, after several twists and turns, he left alone and went to Jiangbin.

At that time, he was penniless and had not eaten for several days. He was on the verge of dying. Finally, he came to an old building and fainted.

When he woke up again, he found himself lying on a gentle bed, and the man who saved him was sitting beside him with a bowl of steaming fried rice in his hand.

He was so hungry that he didn't think about anything else. He just wolfed down the bowl of life-saving rice. When he wanted to thank her, he found that the person who saved her was his own aunt!

And my aunt already has a daughter, that is, the lovely little girl named Zhao Tongxin.

I learned from my aunt that after she fled from the Cheng family, she was exiled to Jiangbin. She married a teacher and lived in anonymity. Although the conditions were not very good, he could see from her smile that she was very happy at that time.

But later the aunt said that the man and other women were missing. Now when she took her daughter to depend on each other, he hated the man who abandoned his aunt so much that he also had a deep hatred for Zhao Tongxin.

Because Zhao Tongxin is the child of the man who abandoned his aunt, he has a very bad impression of Zhao Tongxin.

His aunt saw his mood and told him frankly that his aunt had gone to the hospital for examination. The diagnosis was that her aunt was infertile, so Zhao Tongxin was adopted.

He was shocked when he heard the news. His aunt didn't have any health problems when she was at the Cheng family. Smart, he had many bad associations and asked her again and again before she told her the truth. It was grandma who had given her a very chronic poison in food and water from a very early age. It would not be fatal, but it would gradually destroy her fertility and seriously affect her. If you are in good health, your life will be seriously reduced.

The purpose of grandma's doing this is not to let the two aunts have children, because their offspring will divide up the power belonging to her.

At this point, his heart completely cold, grandmother in his heart the last trace of good image is also collapse.

But he didn't understand why grandma did it. He asked his aunt, but her eyes showed an indescribable expression. Then her aunt told him that he was still young, so she didn't care about adults' affairs. When he grew up, she would know. No matter how he asked, she chose to keep silent.

Gradually, he also lost something about it. The time he stayed in Jiangbin was the happiest time of his life, and Zhao Tongxin, who he didn't like very much, gradually entered his ignorant heart.

He likes to take Zhao Tongxin's little hand and walk slowly in the street every day. He likes to watch Zhao Tongxin blink his big eyes and call him brother Xiaomo. He prefers to protect Zhao Tongxin's little body behind him, which belongs to the man's sense of responsibility.

Until one day, Zhao Si, the housekeeper of the Cheng family, suddenly came to the house. Although he didn't find his aunt's whereabouts, he said that he had been ordered by the old lady to take him back.

He knew that he could not escape Zhao Si's clutches, and that the dog who was loyal to his grandmother would carry out her orders completely. So he agreed to Zhao Si, and then found a chance to meet his aunt for the last time. His aunt told him that his other aunt was also in Jiangbin, but he married a gambler and had a bad life. Moreover, the gambler's uncle mortgaged a necklace they brought from the Cheng family at a very low price.

His aunt told him that when he grew up, he must get the necklace. The necklace is the password to open a treasure. Once he got the treasure, he could get rid of grandma's control. Moreover, she said that he should choose forbearance anyway until he grew up to deal with grandma.

Finally, his aunt asked him to take good care of Zhao Tongxin if one day she was gone.

He agreed and left Jiangbin City, which left him the happiest memory, with the feeling of not giving up his aunt and being ignorant of Zhao Tongxin.

He went back to Cheng's home in Jiangdong with Zhao Si. He remembered his aunt's advice to him and acted as a man with patience. After ten years, he finally grew up.

One day, grandma suddenly told him that because his father didn't listen to her, he was executed. Now he is the owner of the Cheng family.

Hearing this news, he didn't have any joy. Apart from the pain of losing his father, he only had hatred for his grandmother and infinite sorrow. But he still chose to accept this fact. Unexpectedly, his grandmother even designed him with very despicable means to make him have a relationship with his mother and sisters!

Later, he learned that it was his grandmother's intention. Everyone knew that Cheng Mohan killed his own father for the sake of being the head of the family, and had an affair with his mother and sisters. In this way, his reputation was very poor. If one day he didn't obey his grandmother's orders, she could kill him without hindrance. A reason to clean up the door was enough.

In name, he is the head of the Cheng family. In fact, his status in the Cheng family is very limited. No matter what he does, he has to obey his grandmother's orders. Once he is a little dissatisfied, Zhao Si will come out with a warning.

This visit to Jiangbin is also an order of grandma. She wants him to help Huo Tingchen and save Huo Tingchen from Jin Zhengting at all costs. Then he wants to help Huo Tingchen to make a comeback and join hands with Jin family.

He doesn't understand why grandma cares so much about Huo Tingchen. Huo Tingchen is just a puppet supported by the Cheng family in Jiangbin city in order to deal with the Jin family. Normally, grandma doesn't care about such people.

This aroused his suspicion, so he sent someone to check, and finally got a clue. Although there was only a little, it was absolutely amazing. Before she married into the Cheng family, grandma seemed to be surnamed Huo.

Cheng Mohan is a very smart person. Through his grandmother's behavior and attitude towards Huo Tingchen, he seems to know what grandma thinks.

She wants the Cheng family to become the Huo family, and Huo Tingchen should be a very close younger generation. Maybe grandma's ultimate goal is to let Huo Tingchen replace herself.

Cheng Mohan doesn't care whether his inference is correct or not. After a lot of weighing, he decides to kill Huo Tingchen anyway. But he is afraid of grandma's strong pressure, so he temporarily decides to promise to cooperate with Huo Tingchen, and let later get rid of Huo Tingchen by Jin Zhengting's hand. Even if grandma gets angry, the main anger will be directed at Jin's family. He has the most It's just being scolded by grandma.

But the plan can't catch up with the change. Just when he wants to implement the plan, Zhao Tongxin appears. The moment he sees her, his feelings for many years break out in an instant.

When he saw Zhao Tongxin and Jin Zhengting, his heart was twisted together. The Cheng family's insidious gene attack made him deliberately leave a flaw and let go of Huo Tingchen, who was going to get rid of. Because Huo Tingchen was alive, it would threaten Jin Zhengting. He didn't want to let go of any chance to attack Jin Zhengting. He knew that Zhao Tongxin had only Jin Zheng in his heart From the moment of the court, he regarded Jin Zhengting as an immortal enemy.

In order to achieve the goal by all means, this is Grandma's influence over the years.

But when he thought that Huo Tingchen would not only threaten Jin Zhengting, but also do great harm to Zhao Tongxin, he regretted his dispassionate decision.

There are not many people who came to Jiangbin this time. Apart from leaving a limited number of 30 bodyguards, the rest of his men are all sent out by him to hunt down Huo Tingchen. No matter what kind of person he is, his feelings for Zhao Tongxin are sincere.

"I hope my reaction is fast enough to catch up with Huo Tingchen and not let him escape."

Cheng Mo Han looks at the dim riverside city and mumbles to himself.

"Mr. Cheng, please rest assured that I didn't escape. On the contrary, I have come to the door on my own initiative."

A voice from the door, he suddenly surprised, looking back, you can see Huo Tingchen's hands, a gentleman's smile at him, his side of the Dragon nine, is stretching out a bright red tongue, licking the blood on the blade.

Chapter 352

Hilton Hotel parking lot, truck container.

The awkward atmosphere finally eased a little. Rong Lei was really a strong man. It took him more than an hour to get back to normal.

Xu Yanke's breathing returned to normal, but her face was very hot. Her eyes were wide open. If she didn't see Rong Lei's face, she would have to stare him to death with one look.

Rong Lei coughs awkwardly. He tries to break the dead silence, because it makes him feel more embarrassed.

"Miss Yan Ke."

He asked tentatively, but Xu Yanke said, "go away!"

Rong Lei shook his head helplessly and said, "Miss Yan Ke, the car seems to have stopped. Should we try to escape?"

"If I were you, I wouldn't think about how to escape, because it might be better to die in Huo Tingchen's hands. If you let me out, I promise you that you will not live like death!"

Xu Yanke said angrily, in fact, she also knows that Rong Lei didn't mean it, but her world outlook is a little abnormal because of her years of experience as a killer. The person who has violated her, even if she is unconscious, will make that person pay a heavy price.

"Miss Yan Ke, don't be angry. Even if I die, I will help you escape safely." Rong Lei light said, his tone is very sincere, because he said is the truth.

This is not only because he is a boss, but also because there are some unspeakable factors.

Xu Yanke's heart moved slightly, as if no one had ever considered for herself first, but she still didn't intend to forgive Rong Lei. She said angrily: "who wants you to help, you worry, save yourself, take care of yourself first!"

Yan Ke finished and blushed again. Her words, together with the current state of the two people, seem to have some ambiguity.

Sure enough, Rong Lei misunderstood her meaning and moved his lower body backward with great difficulty. Such a move made the rope binding him tighter. It was deeply strangled into his muscles and made people's teeth ache.

"Well, I don't mean that. I just want you to find a way to escape. I have my own way."

Xu Yanke blushed and thought that Rong Lei couldn't see it anyway, so she continued to say in a cold tone, but she felt a little better about Rong Lei. People who still think about others at this time should not be bad people.

"Miss Yan Ke, you are the boss's sister, so even if I fight this life, you won't be hurt."

Rong Lei grits his teeth in pain, but he still pretends to be indifferent. He knows that although he doesn't mean to offend Xu Yanke, this posture is not very good after all, so he tries his best to separate Xu Yanke, but only a little bit, and their bodies are still touching each other.

"Ha ha, Jin Zhengting's sister? He doesn't think so. "

After listening to Rong Lei's words, Xu Yanke is in a low mood. Indeed, after knowing her life experience, Jin Zhengting shows her indifference and makes her feel that she is an indispensable role in the Jin family.

"In fact, the boss is just not good at expression. If the boss doesn't care about Miss Yan Ke at all, he won't use Miss Tong Xin to replace you. Don't forget, Miss Tong Xin is pregnant. If it wasn't for the crisis, I don't think the boss would take risks with Miss Tong Xin."

Rong Lei hears Xu Yanke's low voice and tries to comfort her. In fact, he misunderstands Jin Zhengting's idea. In fact, Jin Zhengting didn't intend to replace Xu Yanke with Zhao Tongxin last time, but Zhao Tongxin insists on it all the time. In addition, Jin Zhengting knows that Huo Tingchen doesn't dare to be unkind to her, and they have mastered the route of their escape. Even if they escape, Jin Zhengting also has some problems Catch up, that's why I agreed to come down.

Maybe Xu Yanke had her place in Jin Zhengting's heart, but now Jin Zhengting's heart has become smaller and can only accommodate the next person, that person is Zhao Tongxin.

But Rong Lei's taken for granted comfort also played a role. Xu Yanke's mood was better. She asked Rong Lei, "what you said is true?"

"I have worked with boss for many years. I can say that I am one of the few people who know boss better. He is not very good at expressing his feelings. He always hides his feelings in his heart. That's why outsiders seem to think he is very ruthless. In fact, boss is a person who attaches great importance to feelings."

Rong Lei goes on to say that Jin Zhengting in his impression is just like this, and he does treat them like this.

"Then why is he so indifferent to me, and so indifferent?"

Xu Yanke continues to ask. She thinks Rong Lei really knows Jin Zhengting and wants him to help him analyze the reasons. Maybe she just wants Rong Lei to give her some comfort and a little confidence.

The moment she learned her life experience, she knew that her relationship with Jin Zhengting was completely over. After this period of thinking, she chose to give up the so-called relationship. She always thought that the reason why she fell in love with Jin Zhengting might be because of her blood relationship, and she was born with a feeling of closeness. It's undeniable that any girl will like Jin Zhengting, but she feels that her love for Jin Zhengting seems to be lacking something necessary. When she sees him with Zhao Tongxin, she abandons her jealousy and observes carefully, only then can she find that she is lacking the feeling of love.

After learning that Jin Zhengting was her own brother, she was confused for a while, and she no longer had the feeling between men and women for him. Although she was not very pure because of her growing environment, she could not fall in love with her own brother to that extent. In terms of personal emotion, Xu Yanke could not accept it.

Now she just wants to know why Jin Zhengting is still cold to himself when he knows that she is his sister.

Rong Lei thought about it and said, "Miss Yan Ke, with all due respect, the boss may have something to do with your face."

"What happened to my face?"

Xu Yan doesn't know. So she is very confident about her appearance. She can frighten Jin Zhengting from recognizing his sister. What kind of face is that?

"You mean I'm ugly?" she said

No matter what kind of woman, the most concerned about is always her own appearance, which is also the scale of every woman. If a man says to her face that a woman's appearance is very bad, then the man may not see the sun tomorrow.

Rong Lei heard that she misunderstood her meaning and quickly denied: "Miss Yan Ke, don't misunderstand me. I don't mean that. I mean your face now. Boss will feel uncomfortable."

Xu Yanke's eyebrows stand up. He determines his position by Rong Lei's voice. No matter where Rong Lei is, he pours directly on him. Now his hands and legs are tied, and his teeth become the only weapon.

It's also one of women's conventional weapons. It's very powerful.

Sure enough, as strong as Rong Lei, he couldn't bear Xu Yanke's attack. He gasped in pain and quickly explained, "Miss Yanke, you misunderstood me. I don't mean you're not good-looking, it's because your face is so similar to miss Tongxin!"

Listen to him say so, Xu Yan Ke just loosen a mouth, spit a mouthful casually, say: "you early say, harm of I have no meaning of bite you this dirty man!"

"You don't give me a chance to explain, do you?"

Rong Lei curls his lips and explains to Xu Yanke: "Miss Yanke, the boss married Miss Zhao Tongxin just to replace you. Now the boss and miss Tong Xin have a very deep relationship. They regard each other as the only one."

"Hey, can you stop talking nonsense and just say the point?"

Xu Yanke impatiently said that although she gave up her feelings for Jin Zhengting, others always mentioned Zhao Tongxin and Jin Zhengting, but her heart was still a little uncomfortable. Originally Zhao Tongxin was her stand in, but now the stand in has become a regular, normal women's hearts will not be too good, women's natural enemies will always be women.

"First of all, Miss Yanke has done a lot of things that make the boss unhappy. If the boss always sees Miss Yanke's face, he will always think of the bad things that Miss Yanke did in the past."

Rong Lei analyzes and says that Xu Yanke feels reasonable, so he nods and agrees: "well, you go on."

"Secondly, now the boss loves Miss Tong Xin very much. Although Miss Tong Xin used to be your substitute, now miss Tong Xin's position in the boss's heart is not comparable to anyone's, so miss Yan Ke always appears with this face, which naturally makes the boss feel bad."

"Why?" Xu Yan didn't understand and asked.

"Because the boss subconsciously wants to forget that Miss Tong Xin used to be a stand in. He wants to love miss Tong Xin wholeheartedly, so he doesn't want to add a stain to their love, so he naturally doesn't want to see Miss Yan Ke."

Xu Yanke nodded thoughtfully and said, "well, what you said is very reasonable. Do you mean that if I take off this mask and restore my true colors, the court won't reject me very much?"

"Not necessarily, Miss Yan Ke. It takes time for people to get along with each other. It takes a long time to cultivate feelings."

"But I spent a long time with Zhengting."

Xu Yanke blurts out subconsciously, but soon closes her mouth. She knows that Rong Lei's way of getting along is not in the way of lovers, but in the way of brothers and sisters.

"Miss Yan Ke, try to get along with the boss in the way of relatives. Maybe the boss will accept you soon."

"Well, I'll try."

Xu Yanke is determined to let Jin Zhengting accept herself. After many years of wandering, she yearns for a home and many relatives. Now, she doesn't want to miss this opportunity.

"Er, Miss Yanke, it's not good for us to discuss these at such a critical moment. We'd better try to escape first."

Rong Lei to her analysis, finally think of their situation, so to Xu Yanke said.

Xu Yanke shook his head and sighed: "it's useless. I know very well the way of organization. If they control it, it's impossible to escape, unless there is a miracle."

Chapter 353

"Didn't you expect that I would come all of a sudden, Mr. Cheng?"

Huo Tingchen with a smile on his face, looked at Cheng Mohan mockingly, with an expression that everything is under control.

His sudden appearance made Cheng Mohan's face change, and he soon regained his calm. He said faintly, "Mr. Huo, you are so brave. How dare you come back?"

"Please give me a reason why I dare not come back."

Huo Tingchen has a stronger smile in his eyes. He stares at Cheng Mohan, just like a beast stares at his prey.

What he envies most about Jin Zhengting all the time is that Jin Zhengting always seems to have very good luck. Every time he is almost sure to win, it is because of his good luck that he makes a successful comeback.

But this time his luck is on his side. Even if his opponent is not Jin Zhengting, it is undoubtedly a very beneficial expansion for him to swallow up Cheng Mohan's Tianhong Group. As long as he has enough capital, it will be easy to deal with Jin Zhengting.

"Mr. Huo's calculation is really good. While I've sent all my men out to chase you, there's a comeback all of a sudden."

Cheng Mohan said approvingly, but with a mocking expression in his eyes. Although he has just arrived in Jiangbin City, he hasn't had time to develop his strength, but it doesn't mean that his private land is where others can come if they want to.

Huo Tingchen didn't care at all, and Long Jiu said: "boss, I advise you not to place your hope on the bodyguards hidden in the corridor room, because they are all ill and there is no time to save you.

Cheng Mohan's pupil suddenly shrinks, and his heart suddenly tightens, because he secretly recruited the 30 bodyguards, and no one knows their whereabouts. He arranged the bodyguards in a hidden place to deal with the unexpected needs. Long Jiu said their positions when he opened his mouth, which shows that he already knows the defense situation here.

"Long Jiu, how do you know they are ill?"

It seems that those bodyguards can't be counted on any more. Cheng Mohan has to delay for a while now. Maybe the people sent out will come back if they don't find Huo Tingchen. He wants to gamble on his own luck, just like Huo Tingchen is gambling on his own destiny.

"Because I've just seen 30 people, none of them is not sick."

Long Jiu's eyes are inexplicably excited. Cheng Mohan can't be more familiar with her excitement, because every time she kills someone, it's like this.

"What's wrong with them?"

Cheng Mohan moves backward without any trace and continues to talk nonsense with her.

Long Jiu didn't seem to see that he was procrastinating. He gave a smile, and then said, "they all feel that their heads are dizzy and heavy. One by one, they don't even have the strength to stand up. Fortunately, they met me, and I have cured them all."

"How do you treat them? I'm also very interested to know. In the future, when you encounter this situation, you can also be a doctor."

Cheng Mohan said, while observing them, he found that Huo Tingchen and Long Jiu were not in a hurry, which is not in line with common sense. Normally speaking, they are escaping the pursuit, they must act quickly, and then leave here quickly. Cheng Mohan felt that things were wrong from their reaction, and it seemed that they were becoming more and more unfavorable to him. His brain was turning rapidly, thinking countermeasures.

Long Jiu blinked his eyes and said in an excited voice, "I cut their throats with a dagger. I don't think they will get sick again."

"Well, this method is very good. No matter who has his throat cut, I'm afraid he won't get sick in the future. Long Jiu, you are the best man I've trained."

Cheng Mohan said, his hand slowly moved to his suit pocket, his action is very hidden, but just a little move, listen to Huo Tingchen ha ha a smile.

"Mr. Cheng, you have a gun in your pocket. There are twelve bullets in the gun, but you don't really want to take out the gun. You just want to attract our attention. Your real weapon is the pocket gun in the pocket of the other hand. Now you have the trigger, right?"

With this remark, Cheng Mohan's face has really changed. This is his secret. No one knows that there is a pocket gun hidden in his pocket all the year round. His action just now is really confusing them. When they focus on their hand stretching into their pocket, he is ready to quickly pull out the pocket gun, but what he didn't expect is that Huo Tingchen will tell them.

"Unfortunately, there is only one bullet in Mr. Cheng's pocket gun. I'm very curious. Do you want to kill me or long Jiu?"

Huo Tingchen always keeps a gentleman's smile on his face. He doesn't know when he has a gun in his hand. The muzzle of the gun is precisely facing Cheng Mohan's eyebrows.

"You shouldn't have known my secret."

Cheng Mohan is unwilling to say that the cold sweat has flowed down along his forehead. Although he is only a puppet of the Cheng family, he has been able to get along well in recent years with his own ability.

He has never felt like this. His ideas are completely seen through by his opponents and his actions are completely controlled by them. "They didn't know, but after I told them, they knew."

Zhao Si suddenly appeared at the door, is still a very ordinary face, face without any expression.

"You betrayed me!"

Cheng Mo saw what Zhao Si was, and everything was clear. The old lady was at the side of his eye. He had nothing to hide him from.

"It's not that I betrayed you, but that you didn't obey the old lady's orders. I just cleaned the door for her."

Zhao Si said without feeling, then turned to Huo Tingchen and said, "Cheng Mohan's Kung Fu is pretty good. I don't know if Mr. Huo can handle him."

Huo Tingchen looked at Zhao Si in surprise and said, "who told Mr. Zhao that I would fight with him? No matter how good his kung fu is, can he be faster than a bullet? "

Cheng Mo Han sneered: "Huo Tingchen, I always thought you were a character. I didn't expect that you didn't even have the courage to fight with me. I was wrong about you."

Huo Tingchen laughs: "Cheng Mohan, you don't need to use provocation in front of me. It's useless to me. I never want to waste my energy on meaningless things. Moreover, I'm a gentleman who has received higher education. It's not elegant to compete with you, so you'd better surrender obediently."

"Why does Mr. Huo want me to surrender? I may not lose. The winner is not sure."

Cheng Mo coldly said, have to say, things to this point, he can still maintain such a calm state, it can be seen that his psychological quality is very good.

"Don't delay. Your men have been sent back to Jiangdong by me. They only follow the orders of the old lady, so you'd better accept the family law of Cheng family."

Zhao Si, who has nothing to do with himself, suddenly opens his mouth on one side. Although there is only one sentence, it has destroyed all the hopes of Cheng Mohan.

Cheng Mohan bites his teeth. He can't wait to die like this. Even if there is only a glimmer of hope, he will spare no effort to fight for it. His character is like this. Otherwise, he won't tell Zhao Tongxin that he is married in public.

Cheng Mohan thinks of this, and his body suddenly moves. His goal is a tall desk. This desk is made of the top mahogany, which has a certain bulletproof effect. As long as he can use this table as a shelter, he will have a chance to rush out, because he still has 13 bullets, which is enough to deal with the three people in the room.

Huo Tingchen didn't shoot, but quickly leaned against the door to form a natural shelter. Then he aimed at Cheng Mohan, who was moving at high speed, and pulled the trigger.

Huo Tingchen's action shows his strong self-protection ability. No matter when the situation is dominant, he will not put himself in a dangerous situation, which is why Jin Zhengting can not completely destroy him several times.

His shooting method is very good. Although Cheng Mohan hid in time, he still felt a deep pain in his right shoulder. The bullet penetrated from his front and deeply embedded into his shoulder blade.

Cheng Mohan, struggling with pain, crouches under his desk and takes out his gun from his pocket. But now he can't use his right hand at all. He can only use his left hand. Compared with his right hand, the shooting technique of his left hand is greatly reduced.

"Mr. Cheng, you'd better surrender. I don't want to waste my strength."

Huo Tingchen says to Cheng Mohan, who is hiding behind his desk. At the same time, he gives Long Jiu a look. Long Jiu pulls out a dagger and enters the room quietly.

Long Jiu is a cat-like woman, including her way of walking. Stepping on the carpet, she doesn't make a sound, just like a cat catching prey.

In order to prevent the reflection of the blade from exposing her position, she held the handle firmly in her palm and could launch a fatal attack at any time.

Step by step, she approaches Cheng Mohan's position. Cheng Mohan doesn't seem to notice Long Jiu's action. He hides behind his desk and doesn't speak or fight back.

As Long Jiu slowly approaches, the smell of blood in the air becomes more and more intense, which proves that Cheng Mohan's position is close at hand. She holds her breath, speeds up her steps abruptly, jumps lightly, stabs out the dagger suddenly, and goes straight to Cheng Mohan with a series of actions.

Cheng Mohan's sixth sense tells him that danger is approaching him, so he heightens his vigilance. Suddenly he sees a flash of cold light in front of him. He reacts quickly, and his body retreats to avoid the fatal attack. His reaction is also very fast. Raising his hand is a shot.

Dragon Nine One hit not in, immediately retreat, at the same time in the hand of the dagger to Cheng Mohan throw in the past.

The bullet hit the dagger and sparked everywhere. The dagger of Long Jiu was changed by the impact of the bullet and flew out of the window.

In the parking lot, Xu Yanke and Rong Lei, who are bound in the container, are thinking hard about how to escape. Suddenly, a sound of metal cutting comes from the top of the container. Then they see a light coming in. A dagger goes through the top of the container. Under the action of strong free fall and gravitational acceleration, it is deeply embedded in the bottom of the container.

Rong Lei, who is used to the big scene, can't help sweating, because this dagger falling from the sky is straight between his legs, only 0.01 cm away from his important part, and I don't know if those two fragile things have been scratched by the strong wind. Xu Yanke said, "this is the retribution for offending me."

She looked at the dagger, her eyes lit up, and a miracle came down from the sky.

Chapter 354

Bang bang, after three shots in a row, Huo Tingchen's face showed a cold smile. He walked out slowly, and a pair of Phoenix eyes were full of the winner's expression.

"Mr. Cheng, you've finished all your thirteen bullets. Do you want to resist? If I were you, I would come out from behind the table and honestly give up the struggle, because it is futile. "

Cheng Mohan is biting his teeth. The wound on his shoulder is very deep. The bullet is deeply embedded in the bone, so that his whole arm can't use any strength. The blood flows from the wound. Because of too much blood loss, his consciousness gradually begins to blur.

This is a dangerous signal. Huo Tingchen has a gun in his hand, and there are plenty of bullets. Long Jiu pulls out a dagger and looks at him.

Zhao stood there expressionless on all sides. The bullets flying around the room didn't make his eyes blink. It can be seen that he not only has a good determination, but also doesn't care about life and death. A person who is not afraid of death is the most terrible.

"Huo Tingchen, I haven't given up two words in my dictionary. I'm here. If you have the ability, come and catch me."

Cheng Mohan comes out from behind his desk with a determined expression in his eyes. He has a sharp dagger in his hand, and he has to fight for the last time. Maybe now it has nothing to do with his character of not giving up, it's just an instinctive reaction to survive.

He knew that once he fell into the hands of Huo Tingchen, the chance of survival was absolutely less than zero.

Huo Tingchen put the gun away, facing Cheng Mohan, a gentleman's smile, said: "Mr. Cheng, I'm a man who obeys the rules, so I won't use this gun to deal with you, just let it go."

Cheng Mohan's heart moved. If Huo Tingchen didn't use a gun, he might have a chance to escape. He nodded and said, "Mr. Huo is really strict with rules. Be careful."

He knew that Huo Tingchen didn't really follow the rules. When a cat catches a mouse, it won't swallow it in one gulp. Instead, it wants to play with it. In Huo Tingchen's eyes, it is the mouse he catches.

Cheng Mohan thinks that this is an opportunity. When a person is most proud, he is most likely to make mistakes.

Thinking of this, Cheng Mohan's hand clenched the dagger and rushed to Huo Tingchen. Cheng Mohan knew that he was seriously injured. With his current strength, he could only last for a short period of time, so he used all his strength for the first time.

Huo Tingchen does not dodge, standing in place quietly watching Cheng Mohan a little bit close, and even can see the cold light of the dagger tip flashing from Chu.

"Bang!" The sound of a gun.

Cheng Mohan's body is like being hit by an invisible giant hammer. He flies backward in the opposite direction and falls heavily on the ground.

With anger and reluctance in his eyes, he struggled on the ground, but he didn't have the strength to stand up anyway. At last, he exhausted the last bit of strength in his body and lay still on the ground. A pool of bright red under his body soon spread.

"Mr. Cheng, don't blame me. I promised you not to use a gun, but I didn't promise you that she didn't use a gun either."

Huo Tingchen sees Cheng Mohan's anger and explains with a smile. Behind Cheng Mohan is long Jiu's charming smile. The gun in her hand is still smoking white.

"Mr. Huo, Cheng Mohan has solved the problem, and my first task has been completed. If you need any help, please come to me at any time, and I will live next door to this room."

Zhao Si is still expressionless, he lightly said a turn to leave.

"Brother, what should we do next?"

When Zhao Si left the room, long jiushou asked Huo Tingchen about the gun. With Zhao Si present, she had to keep the necessary guard with a gun.

After a look at Cheng Mohan who is in a coma in a pool of blood, her shot just now deliberately aimed at the part five centimeters away from Cheng Mohan's heart, and it didn't kill him immediately. Huo Tingchen told him in advance that maybe Cheng Mohan would be useful. Huo Tingchen always calculated all the possibilities.

Huo Tingchen was just about to open his mouth when a telephone rang in his arms. He frowned slightly and took out his mobile phone. It was a completely strange number. It showed that it was a satellite card, so he couldn't find his home. He thought for a moment and pressed his finger on the connect key.

"Hello, is that Mr. Huo Tingchen?"

Is a woman's voice, Jiao Di Di's very lovely, and seems to have a very special pathetic.

"I am. Who are you?"

Huo Tingchen searched in his mind. He didn't know which woman he knew, so he asked.

"I'm Xu Zheng's cousin."

Huo Tingchen recalled that Xu Zheng had only two cousins, one was Zhao Tongxin, and the other was a woman named Xu Ting. Naturally, Zhao Tongxin could not have made the call.

"Oh, it's Miss Xu Ting."

Although Huo Tingchen doesn't know why Xu Ting suddenly called him, she faintly felt that she wanted to tell herself something very important. He also used a satellite card and was not afraid of being tracked by others, so he answered with confidence.

"I thought Mr. Huo had forgotten me. He made my family sad in vain." Xu Ting's coquettish tone makes Huo Tingchen imagine her pathetic appearance over the phone. However, Huo Tingchen naturally doesn't believe that she just talks with herself on the phone.

"Miss Xu Ting, it's late at night now. Is there anything wrong with calling me?"

"I'm just making sure to see if Mr. Huo is still alive."

This sentence sounds very harsh. Isn't it cursing Huo Tingchen, but he's not angry. He knows that Xu Ting's words must have her deep meaning.

"I'm living well now. Thank you for Miss Xu Ting's concern."

Huo Tingchen quietly answer, he is very clear, if Xu Ting has something to tell him, will not help but say first.

"It's a pity. Even if Mr. Huo lives fast now, he may become a dead man soon."

On the other end of the phone, Xu Ting said in a very sorry tone.

Huo Tingchen's pupils contracted: "can I ask why Miss Xu Ting said that?"

"Mr. Huo, don't you know that Jin Zhengting has taken people to chase you personally? If you don't run faster, you may not even have your life. I think Mr. Huo is not Jin Zhengting's opponent in Jiangbin city?"

Xu Ting still said in that coquettish tone, her voice is very pleasant, but Huo Tingchen is not in the mood to listen to her.

Huo Tingchen's original intention is to capture Zhao Tongxin as a shield. As a result, under the interference of Cheng Mohan, she has to let go first. Although there are two hostages Xu Yanke and Rong Lei in his hand, they are not enough to seriously threaten Jin Zhengting.

What's more, he didn't expect that Jin Zhengting himself should be the one who came out this time. It seems that he is going to kill himself this time.

Huo Tingchen now has some advantages of the situation, but he is not ready for a confrontation with Jin Zhengting. He is silent for a while, looks down at Cheng Mohan in a pool of blood, and scolds himself. If he hadn't stopped him, now he has Zhao Tongxin in his hand, he would not be so passive.

Huo Tingchen now wants to cut off Cheng Mohan's meat piece by piece, but he doesn't do it because he suddenly has a good plan in his mind.

He is also interested in why Xu Ting reminds him, because he is in urgent need of allies. As long as he can help, he will not refuse to come. From the news Xu Ting calls to tell him, he concludes that Xu Ting is expressing goodwill to him and also means cooperation.

Chapter 355

"Brother, you're not really going to let Jin Zhengting go, are you?" After Huo Tingchen put down the phone, Long Jiu couldn't help asking him.

Huo Tingchen insidious smile, said: "I have vowed to personally kill Jin Zhengting, how can because Xu Ting give up? I'm just lying to her. If I don't agree to her request, how can she work hard for us? After we bring down the Jin family, the Xu family can't escape my control. "

"It's reasonable, but now Jin Zhengting is coming. What should we do? With our present strength, it's impossible to confront him head-on."

Long Jiu accurately analyzes the situation. Jin Zhengting himself will bring all the most elite men to her side this time. She is sure that with these people now, it is no doubt a dream to deal with Jin Zhengting's huge and unimaginable power.

Huo Tingchen quietly tears off the mask, takes out another mask from his pocket, and simply smears it on his face. Long Jiu is surprised to find that Huo Tingchen suddenly becomes another Cheng Mohan.

is as like as two peas, because two people are all alike in shape, and Huo Tingchen's behavior is just like that of Cheng nine, which is familiar to dragon.

Long Jiu couldn't help but exclaim: "brother, your transfiguration technique has reached a state of perfection."

"No, it's not my improvisation. I've had this plan since Cheng Mohan found me. Since then, I've been deliberately imitating his every move every day."

Huo Tingchen light said, dragon nine more surprised, because not only the action and manner, even the voice, Huo Tingchen all imitate vividly, it shows that he is really well prepared.

Huo Tingchen squats down and smears on Cheng Mohan's face. Like magic, Cheng Mohan's face becomes Huo Tingchen.

"He is still useful to us, that is, to be my stand in and let him die in front of Jin Zhengting. There will be no more Huo Tingchen in the world. There are only Cheng Mohan, the owner of the Cheng family and the president of Tianhong Group."

Huo Tingchen's face showed a cold smile. His plan was about to succeed. The feeling of standing at the top again made him feel infatuated.

"Clever strategy, brother, what can Rong Lei and Xu Yan do? Do you still have them?"

Long Jiu thought that he had two hostages in his hand and asked Huo Tingchen.

Huo Tingchen's eyes twinkled with bloodthirsty light: "Huo Tingchen has died, what's the use of keeping hostages? Huo Tingchen will be crazy to take them with him. "

Long Jiu also feels excited. Now she wants to kill people immediately.

"Remember, all we have done today is to make Jin Zhengting believe that Huo Tingchen is dead. When he relaxes his vigilance, we will give him the most fatal blow!"

Huo Tingchen said, biting his teeth, his hatred surged into his heart again, he repressed too long.

Jin Zhengting drove himself behind his car and followed the Jin family's elite men. Most of them were soldiers under Jin's father. After retirement, they were directly chosen as bodyguards by Jin's family.

"Boss, according to the tracking of the helicopter, Huo Tingchen's whereabouts were not found in the port."

"Boss, we didn't find any trace of Huo Tingchen on Highway 1."

Through the vehicle communication equipment, his subordinates report the results of the investigation to Jin Zhengting.

Jin Zhengting frowned slightly. He gave a faint hum. After shutting down the communication equipment, he thought while driving. Huo Tingchen didn't take the road or go to the port, just like he disappeared from Jiangbin city out of thin air.

"If I were Huo Tingchen, what would I do in the face of the present situation?"

Jin Zhengting is in the process of transposition thinking. He must determine the specific position of Huo Tingchen. This time, he doesn't want to let this dangerous guy go.

At this time, the mobile phone rang, and he answered.

"Zhengting, are you ok?"

It's Zhao Tongxin's voice. There is some worry in his tone.

"It's OK. Don't you rest so late?"

Jin Zhengting put everything in his mind down for the time being, and talked with Zhao Tongxin attentively.

He likes to keep his mental focus when talking with Zhao Tongxin, because he wants to print every word she says in his mind. He knows that she doesn't have a rest because she is worried about herself, or he can't help asking in a harsh tone.

Zhao Tongxin is pregnant now. Nothing is more important than the body.

"I'm worried about you, so I can't sleep."

Zhao Tongxin was silent for a while before she said that she also heard Jin Zhengting's dissatisfaction, but she lay on the bed and couldn't sleep, because she still had a worry in her heart.

"I'll be fine. Let's have a rest early. Don't be too late."

Jin Zhengting's tone became gentler. He couldn't bear to lose his temper with Zhao Tongxin. When he was with her, his cold and proud heart would always be melted by her gentleness.

"I'd better wait for you to come back. I can't sleep alone."

Zhao Tongxin said softly, but her tone was firm. She took her mobile phone to the window, opened the curtain, and looked at the distant scenery. A person's night was very quiet, like the moonlight of water, sketching a slightly lonely figure. "I'll be late. If you like, just wait. If you're sleepy, go to bed."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that he didn't refuse her. He could feel her state of mind. She was worried about him. Although they were not together now, there was an invisible red line that tied their hearts.

"Be careful."

Zhao Tongxin didn't know how to tell him to pay attention to safety, but he couldn't say many words. He could only say three words after a while of silence. Maybe he didn't need a thousand words. Sometimes, three words are enough to express a lot of feelings.

"Well, wait for me."

Jin Zhengting only answered three words, three words to reassure her, and then hung up the phone.

No matter what he is doing, there is always someone at home quietly waiting for him to come back, no matter how concerned she is, he will not let her be frightened.

Zhao Tong Xin quietly holding delicate chin, looking up at the light moonlight, the moonlight as blue as the sea, as deep, as melancholy.

In her mind, like a movie replay, the scenes when she was with Jin Zhengting, the beautiful moon hanging in the blue sky, gradually blurred in Zhao Tongxin's bright eyes, and gradually clear was his angular face.

The two bright stars on the edge of the moon are just like his gentle eyes when he looks at her.

Zhao Tongxin's determination is more firm, no matter what happens, she will not hesitate to choose to be with him, because only he can send the tenderness of the world into her heart without reservation.

She only belongs to all his memories, are placed in the heart of the most soft position, where only he is qualified to touch.

Zhao Tong Xin is thinking that what she has done is not good enough to help him share anything. Although she knows that he doesn't want her to do this, she still can't help thinking that when she really falls in love with someone, she is really willing to pay for him.

She is also willing to give everything to Jin Zhengting without reservation, because only in this way can she really share with each other.

Zhao Tongxin's mind flashed a plan, she wants to become strong, strong enough to guard Jin Zhengting, who only belongs to her. Anyone who wants to take him from his side has to pay a price, and will not let anyone succeed!

Under the moonlight, Zhao Tongxin's eyes, flashing a firm light, she is finally going out of this step, she wants to fully integrate into his life, from now on.

Thinking of this, Zhao Tong Xin felt that her whole body was full of power. She quickly walked to the computer desk, turned on the computer and began to pay attention to the company's information.

Jin Zhengting's thinking is as fast as the speed of the car. As soon as his eyes light up, Huo Tingchen must have guessed that he will block the possible retreat, and that Cheng Mohan won't let him go. So it's not the first time that he's taken the risk to kill him.

Jin Zhengting judges that Huo Tingchen's target must not be Jin's family, because after the last sneak attack on Jin's family, the family's guard has never been more strict. Huo Tingchen will not be stupid enough to hit a hard nail at this time. The only possibility is that he has to deal with Cheng Mohan.

If Huo Tingchen had acted like this, Jin Zhengting would have been able to sit on the mountain and watch the tiger fight. After all, the three sides are hostile to each other. It's a pleasure to sit and watch the two opponents fight against each other.

But Jin Zhengting has a keen sense from Cheng Mohan's attitude that things are not as simple as they seem. There must be something he doesn't know. It's hard to say whether Cheng Mohan is an enemy or a friend. But these are not the key points. The key point is that Huo Tingchen must die!

He has touched the bottom line of Jin Zhengting more than once and twice. Jin Zhengting is not a man who kills at will, but he can't bear what he has done.

Huo Tingchen can take revenge on the Jin family, because it's a matter of course. He can also take action against the Jin family. After all, he bears the hatred of destroying the family. He can even fight against the Jin family in the shopping mall. In the shopping mall, he has no friends, only interests. If he has the chance to defeat his opponent, no one will choose to let go.

Jin Zhengting can tolerate all these things. As long as Huo Tingchen doesn't go too far, Jin Zhengting can deal with him slowly. Maybe it's also a kind of fun. Not everyone can understand the loneliness of being too high and too cold. Having an opponent will make him feel that life is not so boring.

But Jin Zhengting can't tolerate him to attack Zhao Tongxin, and Huo Tingchen didn't attack Zhao Tongxin once or twice, and even killed their children. The damage to them can never be made up for.

If anyone in the world hurts Zhao Tongxin, Jin Zhengting doesn't mind making him pay tens of millions of times. Even if his opponent is God, he doesn't hesitate to fight God!

Because in this world, no one can hurt Zhao Tong's heart in front of him.

"Boss, what are the instructions?"

Huo Tingchen's eyes with a cold expression, light said: "the target is Hilton Hotel."

Chapter 356

More than a dozen luxury cars were parked in the parking lot of Hilton Hotel. Dozens of men in black suits came down from the car. Their eyes were sharp and they searched the surrounding environment with vigilance.

After confirming the safety, someone came forward to respectfully open the door of a limited edition Maybach in the middle. Jin Zhengting walked down from the car with an indifferent expression on his face.

"Boss, I checked. Huo Tingchen's team and his men are in the small parking lot behind the hotel. I've sent someone to monitor them. They haven't moved so far. The hostage should be in a container truck. The situation is unknown."

A leader of the people in black respectfully reported to Jin Zhengting.

"Well, don't disturb them for the time being, wait for the surrounding people to complete the encirclement." Jin Zhengting first took a look at the resplendent hotel building and gave a light order.

"Yes, boss."

The leader agreed and left with several people in a hurry.

Jin Zhengting walks briskly to the hotel. Dozens of people in black protect him in the middle, and they are full of momentum.

The hotel manager has long known that president Jin is coming to the hotel, and has already lined up with all the staff outside the hotel to welcome him.

"It's said that Mr. Jin was not very happy at the dinner party today. Should he be bringing people to trouble?"

The hotel manager thought so in his heart, but soon overturned his idea. If Jin Zhengting wanted to retaliate, he didn't need to come out in person. Moreover, with Jin Zhengting's energy in Jiangbin City, it didn't take much effort to shut down a hotel.

"Where does Cheng Mohan live?" Jin Zhengting asked faintly. He couldn't hear any emotion from his voice, but he had an indescribable pressure.

The hotel manager is also a person who has seen countless world, but now he is almost speechless because of Jin Zhengting's momentum. He swallowed a mouthful of saliva, pointed to his head and stammered: "Jin, president Jin, President Cheng are on the top floor."

Jin Zhengting frowned slightly, which made the hotel manager shiver and almost sit on the ground. He didn't know where Jin was dissatisfied.

Jin Zhengting didn't take a look at the hotel manager. He took people into the elevator room of the hotel and went straight to the top floor, leaving several energetic men in black at the door.

The leader once called the manager and said, "don't stammer when talking to boss next time. Boss doesn't like men like women. You can get off work now. We will take over everything here."

Jin Zhengting took people to the top floor. As soon as he walked out of the elevator, his eyes changed. He smelled a faint smell in the air. Although it should have been treated, there was still a trace of residue in the air.

It was bloody. He knew that Huo Tingchen had been here, and he might still be on the top floor now.

Jin Zhengting didn't have any expression on his face. With a wave of his hand, the men in black behind him unfolded in a tacit battle formation. Several tall men stood in front of Jin Zhengting and took out their guns for guard. These men are the meat shields trained by Jin family. If they encounter a crisis, they will not hesitate to block bullets for Jin Zhengting.

Other men in black took out their weapons one after another. Their steps were very light, and they relied on each other to search slowly.

"Mr. Jin, it's so late at night. Did you bring someone to break into my office to avenge my offense to you tonight?"

The door of a room suddenly opened. People in black pointed their weapons at the door one after another. The bodyguard in front of Jin Zhengting was also close to him with a serious look.

"Cheng Mohan" walked out of the room, facing the muzzle of the gun pointing at him, without any fear on his face. His eyes crossed the people in black and went straight to Jin Zhengting. He said faintly.

Of course, Huo Tingchen changed Cheng Mohan's face. It's just that he was too clever in changing Cheng Mohan's face, and everyone was not very familiar with him. Although Jin Zhengting had dealt with Cheng Mohan at the dinner party, he was not particularly impressed, and he didn't hear anything unusual from his voice.

Jin Zhengting waved his men to put away their weapons, went to Huo Tingchen and said faintly, "I doubt Huo Tingchen will come to you for trouble, so I'll bring someone to have a look."

Huo Tingchen smiles: "Mr. Jin, your news is really good. What happened after leaving the dinner party is known so soon?"

"As long as I want to know things in Jiangbin City, nothing can be hidden from me."

Jin Zhengting said calmly that he didn't mean to show off at all, because he just stated a fact.

Huo Tingchen's eyes changed for a moment. He has a good grasp of Cheng Mohan's role. If Cheng Mohan hears Jin Zhengting's words, he will show a cautious look, so he can also show such a look. He knows that in front of Jin Zhengting, a neglect of details can make him show his feet. When the plan goes on, he doesn't want to lose any credit A fall.

Jin Zhengting is also paying attention to the change of Huo Tingchen's expression. It's not that he suspects that Cheng Mohan is fake, but that as an opponent, he needs to master any details.

Sure enough, he saw Cheng Mohan's eyes changed, which was obviously a cautious expression. It can be seen that he was really thinking about how to deal with the Jin family, otherwise he would not show such an expression just because of his strength. But Jin Zhengting always felt that something was wrong, but he couldn't remember what was wrong.

"I heard about Mr. Jin's strength when I was still in Jiangdong. I still want to thank Mr. Jin for bringing people to protect me at night, but you're a little late. I've cleaned up Huo Tingchen."

Huo Tingchen's face shows a provocative look. According to Cheng Mohan's script, he should have such an expression. Huo Tingchen is absolutely an expert in understanding people's psychology.

Jin Zhengting nodded to himself. He guessed that he was right. Huo Tingchen chose to take a free hand in the desperate situation of being blocked. He also guessed that with Cheng Mohan's strength, Huo Tingchen might not be so easy to take advantage of.

But he asked cautiously: "where is Huo Tingchen?"

Before meeting Huo Tingchen, Jin Zhengting will not relax his vigilance, because Huo Tingchen is very cunning and has escaped from him several times.

"It won't bother Mr. Jin. I'll hand him over to Tong Xin."

Huo Tingchen said faintly that according to Cheng Mohan's character, he will certainly do the same, because he is only interested in Zhao Tongxin. Other people, including Jin Zhengting, will not give him any face.

Huo Tingchen doubts whether it's because he runs a nominal entertainment company and has more contact with actors, or he is born with acting talent and plays Cheng Mohan's image to the level of falsehood and falsehood. It's really too professional!

There was a trace of coldness in Jin Zhengting's eyes: "my patience is limited."

"Mr. Jin, don't get angry. I admit that I admire Tong Xin very much, but I also know that she loves Mr. Jin very much. For her happiness, I won't get involved in your feelings. I just want to do something for her as a friend. You can understand that I am repaying her kindness."

Huo Tingchen emotionally said that he has now completely regarded himself as Cheng Mohan, which is more than acting.

Jin Zhengting listened to what he said, his expression softened, and said, "in this case, give Huo Tingchen to me."

"It's natural. Please tell Tong Xin that she and I can be friends even though we are predestined friends."

Huo Tingchen said to the room a wave, Zhao four with two men, the unconscious Cheng Mohan dragged out, of course, in the eyes of others, he is like Huo Tingchen.

"When I came back here tonight, I thought that he might be bad for Tong Xin, so I sent almost all my hands to hunt him down. Unexpectedly, he took the risk to attack me. Fortunately, I left 30 bodyguards in the hotel to subdue him, and the woman with him ran away."

Huo Tingchen's words sound flawless. He is not afraid that Cheng Mohan may suddenly wake up, because long Jiu has cut his vocal cords with her best technique. Even if he wakes up, he can't speak, and there is no scar on his appearance.

He did a good job in every detail. He believed that his perfect performance would deceive Jin Zhengting.

Jin Zhengting thought about it carefully. He didn't find any loopholes in his words. He looked at Cheng Mohan and saw that he had been shot twice, one of which was shot from the heart. Looking at Cheng Mohan's very weak vital signs, it should be more or less dangerous.

"Give him to me. I need him to get the hostages back."

Jin Zhengting said faintly, but the tone can't be questioned by anyone. He is the only one who has such domineering power in the whole Jiangbin city.

"Well, since Mr. Jin spoke, I'll give him to you."

Huo Tingchen gives Zhao Si a wink. Zhao Si knowingly drags Cheng Mohan to Jin Zhengting and takes a look at Jin Zhengting intentionally or unintentionally.

Two people's eyes look at each other. Jin Zhengting's pupils contract for a while. His intuition tells him that Cheng Mohan's ordinary looking man can't be underestimated.

"No matter what you come to Jiangbin for, as long as you come, you should abide by the rules here."

Jin Zhengting asks his men to escort Cheng Mohan to leave. He coldly tells Huo Tingchen that he doesn't care why the Cheng family came to Jiangbin, but he won't tolerate any small moves he wants to do in his sphere of influence.

Huo Tingchen smiles: "Mr. Jin, I'm a businessman. I go where I can earn money. I'm a person who abides by the rules. I just don't know what the rules are in Jiangbin city. Please give me some advice."

Jin Zhengting turned his head and left him with a great back and a strong words: "in Jiangbin, what I say is the rules."

"Jin's grandson is very arrogant."

When Jin Zhengting left with his men, Zhao Si spoke slowly.

Huo Tingchen clenched his teeth and hit the wall with a fist. He said bitterly, "I'd like to see how long he can be arrogant?"

"Mr. Huo, the old lady told me that you can take care of the whole Tianhong Group, and the Cheng family will not interfere in your affairs." Zhao simian said without expression.

Huo Tingchen's eyes flashed light: "don't worry, Tianhong Group will grow up in my hands. It's too big for anyone to imagine!"

"The old lady also asked me to ask you how you plan to deal with the Jin family." "As long as the Jin family invests in the industry, I will also invest. I will uproot the Jin family fundamentally!"

Chapter 357

In the truck container.

Xu Yanke cut the rope, holding the life-saving dagger in her hand, twisted her body a few times, and some numb joints were effectively relieved. Her eyes were as bright as stars through the broken light on the top of the container.

"Miss Yanke, can you untie me?"

Next to Rong Lei is also tied into the shape of rice dumplings, he saw Xu Yan can not seem to loosen his appearance, whispered a reminder.

Xu Yanke gave him a big white eye, turned his lips and said, "no way."

Her answer let Rong Lei a face muddle force, can't help but ask: "why?"

"Punishment." Xu Yanke said lightly.

Rong Lei a little anxious said: "Miss Yan Ke, the current situation is not the time to joke."

He was really in a bit of a hurry. Although the dagger was extremely sharp and didn't make a particularly loud sound when it penetrated the top of the container, he knew that Huo Tingchen's men were all elite. Any sound might disturb them. Once they found it, it would be very difficult for them to escape again.

"Who's joking with you? Based on your performance just now, it's more reassuring to tie you up. This kind of punishment is still too light for you. If it's not because you're the most effective member of the court, I should turn you into a eunuch."

When Xu Yanke thought of the beautiful scene just now, he blushed and became angry. He lost his temper uncontrollably.

Rong Lei just wants to speak, his face suddenly vigilant, he uses the weak light to make a wink to Xu Yanke, Xu Yanke also heard bursts of rapid footsteps, the dagger in her hand gently stroke, sharp will be bound in Rong Lei body rope cut.

The two of them are now enclosed in this container, with very limited space to dodge and only a dagger in hand. Huo Tingchen's men are fully armed, and their chances of escape are basically zero.

Rong Lei quickly gets up, pulls Xu Yanke behind him, quietly goes to the door of the container, and listens to the outside.

This action is totally subconscious. Xu Yan is Jin Zhengting's sister, the object Rong Lei needs to protect with his life. He doesn't know his behavior, which makes Xu Yanke's cold heart tremble unpreparedly.

"Boss, Huo Tingchen's men seem to have withdrawn."

A voice rang out and Rong Lei's eyes lit up. He could hear that it was the voice of Jin Zhengting's bodyguard. His face was surprised. He knocked on the iron door and cried: "boss, we are here."

Jin Zhengting is frowning and thinking about the sudden disappearance of Huo Tingchen's men, which is very unreasonable. With Huo Tingchen's character, even if he needs to deal with Cheng Mohan, he will leave the necessary guards, because he knows the value of the two hostages.

However, in this small parking lot, all the vehicles are there, but there is no one.

When Jin Zhengting is thinking about this, he suddenly hears Rong Lei's cry, and his frown stretches. His feelings for Xu Yanke are a little complicated, and more of them are the kind of indifferent family, but it doesn't mean that he doesn't care about her safety at all.

And Rong Lei is OK, let him rest assured completely, over the years, Rong Lei with his side, for him to do a lot of things, and the relationship between the two people is not a simple superior subordinate relationship, perhaps, it can be said that it has been a friendship.

When he heard Rong Lei's voice, his heart was finally put down. Without him speaking, two men in black had stepped forward and opened the door of the container.

Although it was night, the lights around the hotel were bright. The two people who had been in the dark for a long time couldn't adapt to the dazzling light. They covered their eyes with their hands and left the container that had trapped them for a long time under the reception of the man in black.

"Boss, why did you come in person? In case Huo Tingchen jumps over the wall in a hurry, it will be dangerous."

Just out of danger, Rong Lei has begun to worry about the safety of Jin Zhengting, which shows his loyalty to Jin Zhengting.

Jin Zhengting didn't have any extra expression on his face. He just patted Rong Lei on the shoulder and said faintly, "it's OK. Huo Tingchen hasn't been able to hurt me."

He took another look at Xu Yanke, who had just adapted to the light. There was a complex look in his eyes. Xu Yanke also deliberately avoided his eyes. The two people's eyes only touched once, and there was no intersection.

"Boss, you killed Huo Tingchen?" Rong Lei see two people's embarrassment, timely change the topic.

"I didn't make it. It's Cheng Mohan."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that several men in black dragged Cheng Mohan, who changed into Huo Tingchen.

He glanced at Cheng Mohan, who still didn't recover his consciousness, and suddenly said to Xu Yanke, "if you want to get revenge, do it."

Xu Yan can Leng for a while, she didn't expect that this thing would turn to her, subconsciously asked: "shouldn't we leave him to Zhao Tongxin?"

"Tong Xin won't kill people. Besides, you don't hate him less than Tong Xin at all. You can do it with her." Jin Zhengting gave a light explanation, but this sentence made Xu Yanke very excited, because Jin Zhengting said this, it means that he accepted her.

"Good."

Xu Yan can Leng Leng for a long time, clenching his lips, and then a little timid point a head.

"Well."

Jin Zhengting's answer is still the same. His family relationship with Xu Yanke is relatively weak, but after all, he is his own sister, so he decided to accept her.

Xu Yanke's eyes twinkle with tears. Her eyes fall on Cheng Mohan's body, and the warmth of her eyes instantly becomes ice.

It was this man who made her almost do unforgivable things and made her live in endless darkness in the best time of her life.

Xu Yanke's hand clenches the dagger. She must kill him herself, but she doesn't know that the man in front of her is just wearing Huo Tingchen's coat. The real Huo Tingchen has changed into Cheng Mohan, President of Tianhong Group.

Just as she raised the dagger, there was a flash of light in front of her eyes. It was hard to notice the flash of light, but Xu Yanke had been in the dark for a long time, and now she was very sensitive to a little light.

She almost subconsciously judged that it was the reflection of the sniper's sight, which meant that there was a sniper hiding somewhere, and that she had been targeted for hunting.

The reflex nerve honed in the killer organization all the year round is reflected. She shouts to be careful, and at the same time she falls to one side. At this time, there is a clear gunshot, a bullet cuts through the air, and quickly hits Xu Yanke's original position. If she doesn't react quickly, she will be killed.

Lei also reacted almost at the same time. He rushed to Jin Zhengting and protected him with his own body. The bodyguards in black showed good quality. They were suddenly attacked without any panic and took out weapons one after another.

There was no panic on Jin Zhengting's face. He looked along the trajectory of the bullet. It was a small garden not far from the hotel. There was no street lamp nearby. It was in a dark area. The bullet was shot from the bushes there.

With a wave of his hand, Rong Lei left several bodyguards to protect Jin Zhengting, while the others cautiously searched the dark area.

"Boss, are they Huo Tingchen's missing men?" Rong Lei makes an instant inference.

Jin Zhengting thought for a moment and said, "long Jiu is missing, and Huo Tingchen's men are missing. They may want to ambush us, but the main purpose is not to kill me, but to save Huo Tingchen."

"They think too simply. I believe in the quality of these bodyguards. Although Huo Tingchen's men have good quality, they are not their rivals."

Rong Lei is very confident in these bodyguards, because everyone is selected and trained by him.

"Well, long Jiu is also a dangerous person. Don't be careless."

Jin Zhengting first affirmed the strength of his subordinates, but also reminded Rong Lei not to underestimate the enemy, no matter what the situation, he can keep calm.

"Yes, boss."

Rong Lei accepted it with an open mind. In his mind, boss is the God that can't be touched by ordinary people. Every word he said is absolutely correct.

As the words fell, there were bursts of intense gunfire from the park. The two sides had begun to fight each other. There were constant screams, which seemed to be quite fierce.

After about ten minutes, the gunfire gradually subsided, meaning that everything was over.

But Jin Zhengting's eyes flashed a trace of cold. Long Jiu didn't know when he appeared not far away from him and stared at him with a pair of charming eyes.

Rong Lei and Xu Yanke are close to Jin Zhengting's position. If long Jiuyi doesn't touch Jin Zhengting, they will tear him to pieces.

"Mr. Jin, we meet again."

Long Jiu's body is mottled with blood, and his face is also tired. It seems that he has just experienced a fierce fight, and now his physical strength has not recovered.

Huo Tingchen arranged her appearance. He must convince Jin Zhengting that Cheng Mohan, who has been changed, is himself. Therefore, long Jiu must come out to rescue Huo Tingchen, so Jin Zhengting will not doubt it.

Huo Tingchen's plan is very thorough. Every detail has been carefully deliberated. Even Jin Zhengting, who is extremely intelligent, does not see obvious flaws even though he does not know a lot of inside information. He just has a keen sixth sense, which makes him feel that something is wrong.

"Well, maybe it's the last time we meet."

Jin Zhengting decided to end the game. He wanted to wipe all the power of Huo Tingchen from Jiangbin City, so there was no need for long Jiu to exist.

Jin Zhengting only knows how to pity Zhao Tong. In his eyes, other women are only strangers and enemies.

"Does Mr. Jin want to kill me? But I want to warn you, it's better not to have this idea, and let all your people stay still. All the cars are loaded with strong explosives by me. If Mr. Jin wants to do something to me, I don't mind you all burying for me!" Long Jiu says, raised the remote control in the hand.

Chapter 358

"If I want to, I guarantee you don't even have a chance to press the trigger button." Jin Zhengting's tone is confident, because what he said is true.

"Don't think you can sneak on me. This remote control is pressure type. As soon as I release my hand, the bomb will explode, and you will have to go to the yellow spring with me, so I want Mr. Jin to keep your men away, but I have to hurt Mr. Jin."

"Don't leave the explosion area for the time being until we leave safely. And Mr. Rong Lei, don't come close to me any more. If you scare me, my hand won't shake well."

Long Jiu's Yu Guang glances at Rong Lei, who is quietly approaching her. She says faintly that she must play the play well and show her determination to save Huo Tingchen.

Rong Lei, who is ready to move, stops and looks back at Jin Zhengting. He doesn't care about his life or death, but is worried about Jin Zhengting's safety.

Jin Zhengting gave him a wink, and then said to long Jiu coldly, "no one can threaten me, and you are no exception."

Long Jiu shook his hand with the remote control: "Oh? Does Jin always want to die with me? "

"If I'm the only one here, I'll try my best to deal with you. Even if the chance of success is very small, I'll give it a try, because I hate the feeling of being threatened most in my life. However, I'm not the only one here, but also my relatives and subordinates. I have to consider their lives."

Long Jiu's charming smile: "can I think that president Jin has already agreed to my request?"

"Well, you can take Huo Tingchen."

Jin Zhengting said faintly that he gave his men another look, suggesting that they left the dangerous area.

"Boss, she won't keep her word." Rong Lei cried anxiously.

"It's all right. Get out of the way."

Jin Zhengting said in an unquestionable tone. At this time, every word he said was an order.

Rong Lei and Xu Yanke look at each other. They know Jin Zhengting's decision can't be changed, so they take people away.

Long Jiu's mind flashed. She wanted to detonate the bomb immediately after she left here, so that she didn't have to deal with the Jin family. However, when she saw Jin Zhengting's deep eyes, she gave up the best chance to kill Jin Zhengting, because she had no reason to feel that she would not succeed, because the indifferent man in front of her, it's really unfathomable.

But she couldn't help trying. After all, it was a good opportunity.

She clenched her teeth, picked up Cheng Mohan who had fallen to the ground, found a car under Jin Zhengting, threw him in the co pilot's position, got into the car and left. At the moment when she got out of the explosion area, her face showed a cruel smile and pressed the finger of the remote control lightly.

In the opposite direction of the car's galloping, a sky shattering explosion sounded. With the intense fire light and shock wave, the colors were as gorgeous as fireworks. At the same time, a mushroom like black cloud rose into the sky.

"BOSS ! "

"Brother!"

Rong Lei and Xu Yanke, who are far away from the explosion area, can feel the heat in the air caused by the explosion. They don't care about it. Jin Zhengting is still in the central area of the explosion!

Regardless of the flames and flying debris, they rushed to the explosion area. After only a few steps, they saw the back of Jin Zhengting's Wei'an under the burning flames.

Jin Zhengting took out a cigarette and lit it on a tree which was burning because of the explosion. After taking a deep breath, he patted the dust on his sleeve casually. His face was still cold and plain.

"Boss, are you ok?"

Rong Lei quickly steps forward and asks, if something happens to Jin Zhengting, he really doesn't know how to explain it.

Jin Zhengting light said: "I'm ok, now you have to consider things, is how to trace to the Dragon nine."

Rong Lei nodded his head and said, "I understand, boss

" Then he took a few people with him and turned away.

"How did you manage to survive in the center of the explosion?" Xu Yanke finds that Jin Zhengting is really intact and can't help asking.

"Because no one really knows my strength." Jin Zhengting's expression is still calm, but with all the confidence a man can have.

Maybe this kind of man is the most attractive for women.

They stood in silence for a while. A helicopter landed nearby with a roar. Jin Zhengting threw his cigarette into the fire, turned to the helicopter and said, "I don't trust Tong Xin. Go home with her first and tell her not to worry. I'm fine."

Xu Yanke agreed and quietly looked at the background when he stepped into the helicopter. She couldn't help sighing. It was really a creation. When she really found the charm of the man, his heart was completely on others. But soon she would smile. It seemed good to have such a strong brother.

"Zhao Tong Xin, your luck is better than me, but I won't be compared with you. One day I will be happier than you!" Xu Yanke, with a small mouth, showed a little woman's look for the first time in his life.

In the helicopter.

"Boss, long Jiu's car is heading for the wharf. Our people have stopped it. I believe we will stop her soon."

Rong Lei and his men through the phone, said to Jin Zhengting who closed his eyes.

Jin Zhengting didn't open his eyes. He just nodded his head to show that he already knew it. He showed a dignified momentum.

After the elimination of Huo Tingchen, Jiangbin city no longer had the courage to fight against him. Jin Zhengting is not happy now.

The end of the game, his heart has a touch of loneliness, a cold standing at the top.

Because of his fight with Huo Tingchen, Zhao Tongxin has suffered a lot. Now he just wants to finish this matter quickly, return to her and give her all the consideration and warmth.

"Boss, long Jiu's car is controlled by us at the edge of the cliff on the Binhai Highway. Brothers ask for the next action."

Rong Lei learns about the situation through headphones and immediately reports it to Jin Zhengting.

Jin Zhengting opened his eyes, and his dark eyes flashed a trace of brilliance. He said to Rong Lei, "Huo Tingchen's business is because of me, so I want to finish it myself."

Long Jiu deliberately drives the car to the edge of the cliff. She has made sufficient preparations to escape. Now all Huo Tingchen's plans have reached the most critical and final step, that is, to let Cheng Mohan, who has changed his appearance, die in front of Jin Zhengting.

She knew that if Jin Zhengting had not been injured by the explosion, she would have appeared in person, so she showed a relaxed smile in the face of the besieged and intercepted pursuers.

Jin Zhengting's men didn't do it immediately, proving that Jin Zhengting is OK now, which also makes long Jiu have a deeper understanding of him. This man's strength is really unfathomable. If he was an ordinary man, he would have died long ago in such an explosion, which also makes her understand why Huo Tingchen would rather make small moves behind his back than send people directly Jin Zhengting was assassinated.

After a sound of propeller, Jin Zhengting's helicopter landed nearby.

Long Jiu feels that the time is ripe. She opens the door to let people see clearly the situation in the car. She wants everyone to see that Huo Tingchen is in the car.

Jin Zhengting takes Rong Lei to this side. He waves his hand, and his men immediately put down their weapons.

"Mr. Jin, you know how to be compassionate."

Long Jiu is still that kind of charming voice to the extreme, but she tries her best to show despair in her eyes.

"You don't have a threat now, so you don't need to be treated like this. It's a waste." Jin Zhengting is as cold as ever.

Long Jiu pretended to be nostalgic and took a look at the scenery in the distance. He said, "Mr. Jin, I know you must kill Tingchen and me today, and I'm very tired. I don't want to struggle any more. But can you give me some time to say goodbye to the world?"

Jin Zhengting thought a little, nodded and said, "well, yes."

Finish saying, he turns around and no longer looks to this side, but Rong Lei and his men are full of vigilant stare at them, for fear that they have any small action again.

Long Jiu looks at Cheng Mohan affectionately, hugs him in his arms, kisses him on the forehead, and says: "Tingchen, no one can separate us anymore."

In fact, this action is just a cover up. When she hugs Cheng Mohan, she hides an inflatable life jacket in her clothes with the help of his body.

Finally, she holds Cheng Mohan well, starts the car with a desperate determination in her eyes, suddenly hits the direction, and at the same time steps on the accelerator.

The car swerved, dashed down the cliff, splashed a huge column of water on the rough sea, and then there was a violent explosion. It took a long time for the sea to calm down and float a piece of car debris.

From this height into the cliff, there is no chance of survival, let alone a violent explosion.

"Boss, I think they are dead."

Rong Lei looks at the sea under the cliff. He predicts that the two people in the car have broken into pieces.

Jin Zhengting turned around and said faintly, "send someone to salvage them immediately. We must find their bodies."

"Boss, the ocean is turbulent here. It's very difficult to find them. Moreover, according to common sense, they have almost no chance to live." Rong Lei expressed his own ideas.

"In a word, before finding them, everything is uncertain, Huo Tingchen is not so easy to die of the role."

"Yes, boss."

In addition to giving some reasonable opinions, Rong Lei will firmly carry out any order of Jin Zhengting.

"Go back to Jin's villa."

Jin Zhengting went to the helicopter. The moon was very bright tonight. He missed her a little.

The top floor of the Hilton Hotel.

Long Jiu wiped his wet hair with a bath towel and said to Huo Tingchen delicately, "brother, this plan is really perfect. Now Jin Zhengting must think you are dead. I'm afraid he's having a good dream now, isn't he?" Huo Tingchen lit a cigarette with a mocking expression in his eyes: "no matter how smart Jin Zhengting is, he will not think of my plan to change the world. Now is the time for us to make a new plan and uproot Jin Zhengting from the root!"

"Brother, the more I get in touch with Jin Zhengting, the more I feel that he is not an easy person to deal with. I think we still need some necessary help."

"Now we really don't have anyone to help us except Xu Ting. Do you have the right person?"

"Yes, I think of someone, but you need to make a little sacrifice." Long Jiu's eyes twinkled, with a kind of unkind smile.

"Oh?"

Huo Tingchen waited for her to go on, so long Jiu continued: "it's Cheng Mo Bing, the second miss of the Cheng family who has an affair with Cheng Mo Han."

Chapter 359

Jiangdong City, the parking lot behind the coast hotel.

"It's going to be a perfect plan, and I'm sure it will succeed. Not only can you be your wife, but it won't arouse anyone's suspicion."

Cheng mobing glanced at Guo Pu with the remaining light from the corner of his eye: "your date place tonight is that deserted beach, right?"

"Yes, we decided last night that today is the 30th anniversary of our marriage, and we will spend a night of memories on the beach where we just met."

Guo punian is nearly 60 years old, but his face is not too many traces left by the years. He is still a strong, elegant and successful person.

He is indeed a very successful person. He started from scratch. In a short period of ten years, he has leapt from a small company with only two people to a large consortium as famous as Jiangdong Tianhong Group.

What he felt most about his success was not his current social status and wealth, but his success in coaxing Miss Cheng Jiaer, who is known as the first beauty in Jiangdong, into bed.

He is infatuated with Cheng mobing. He is willing to be with this woman all his life, but his wife is a terrible obstacle.

His fortune has a lot to do with his wife's background. If he does it openly, he will be punished cruelly by his wife's family. The strong official background behind his wife is what he fears most.

But he knows that Cheng mobing must have a perfect plan, because this woman will always spare no effort to get what she wants.

So he takes advantage of his wife's chance to go shopping alone and comes to Cheng mobing to discuss countermeasures. He must kill his wife tonight and marry Cheng mobing, which means that at least one third of the Cheng family's property will be incorporated into his own name. At the same time, he can always possess the woman that he is haunted by.

Even though it is said that Cheng mobing has an indistinct relationship with her brother, he doesn't care. Some women, as long as they have enough, who cares about her past?

Cheng Mo Bing frowned: "you are living in the coastal hotel now. There must be a lot of people in the square at night."

"Yes, but where there are too many people, can you kill her?"

Guo Pu didn't understand her meaning. A smart woman like Cheng mobing would not make such a simple plan.

"You can't do it in a place with a lot of people, but there will always be benefits in a place with a lot of people." Cheng mobing said, looking at Guo Pu with smiling eyes.

"What do you mean, Mo Bing?"

"My plan is that you must go for a walk in the square tonight. You should chat with her. You can talk about anything, but you should remember that you must talk about a very different topic with her at the end of the day."

"It's not hard to make this kind of topic, and then what?" Kuo Pu asked.

"Then all you have to do is fight with your wife."

"What? You want me to fight with her in a crowded place and let everyone pay attention to me? "

"If she died tonight, not everyone would know that I did it. I had a motive to kill her, and everyone would doubt me! You know, if I can do this, I don't need a plan at all. I just need to find a killer. But don't forget my wife's background. When things come to light, our life will not be easy! "

"No, listen to me first." Cheng mobing calmed Guo Pu: "my goal is to make everyone pay attention to you and let everyone know that you have experienced a quarrel, but this is not my ultimate goal."

"Oh?" GOP knew she had something else to say, but he just stared at her and waited for her to continue.

"You must quarrel fiercely. As a woman, she will feel aggrieved. Today is your wedding anniversary. I think she will leave in anger and go to the beach she misses very much."

"And then?"

"Then you also pretend to leave, but you must avoid other people's attention and follow her quietly. When she arrives at the beach, you should try your best to coax her and lead her to the reef area of the beach."

"What do you mean?"

Cheng mobing's beautiful face was covered with a layer of Frost: "when you go there, you stop and start to coax her. At this time, I will come out quietly from behind the reef and kill her with one shot!"

Cheng Mo Bing said, from the exquisite LV bag, took out a small gun.

GOP nodded slightly, then frowned and asked, "I don't understand a bit."

"Don't ask. Do you want to ask me why I arranged for you to quarrel with them?"

"Yes, we can walk there, and no one will notice us. Why quarrel?" GOP didn't quite understand her purpose.

"The purpose is to let you clear the suspicion. After I killed her, you should go back to the hotel as soon as possible, and you should let everyone see that you are out of your mind, let everyone know that you quarrel with your wife. You go to look for your wife, but you can't find it for a long time. So you go back to the hotel to see if your wife comes back first." Guo Pu's eyes lit up, he has roughly understood Cheng mobing's plan.

"However, your wife was not found in the hotel, so you were very alarmed, so you called the police. I think the police will soon find your wife's body on the beach. She was shot, her wallet was taken away, and her jewelry was looted. It is obvious that when she ran to the beach alone last night to get sulky, she was targeted by a gangster, so the gangster shot and killed her. She died and took all the property. "

Cheng mobing finished lightly, and Guo Pu continued: "I'm very sad to see my wife's body, because my quarrel with her unintentionally killed my wife, so I'm very sorry. I hold her body and wail, and everyone will feel sad for me"

"no one will doubt me, because everyone can testify for me, and they all see our quarrel scene, because we are going to play in the sea, so I only wear a pair of tight swimming trunks, not to mention guns, even a fruit knife

"And then we can be together in the right place."

Cheng mobing's eyes are shining. There is no denying that her plan is perfect.

In the evening.

A lot of people gathered in the square of the coast hotel. They were chatting in groups with the sea breeze and occasionally drank a glass of red wine. It was very pleasant.

Wearing a swimsuit, Guo Pu is holding his wife's hand for a leisurely stroll. Tonight is their wedding anniversary, so they both seem to be in a good mood. They decide to go swimming on the beach they met. They have a lot of topics and chat about something. Finally, Guo Pu sees that the time is ripe and talks about that topic.

"I want to put all your shares in the company out and run the company independently," he said

"What?" Guo's wife's eyes changed: "Guo Pu, your wings are hard now. When you started your business, if it wasn't for my help, would you have today?"

Guo's wife's mood quickly deteriorated, her voice slightly improved, and some people around her began to look at them.

Guo Pu observed for a while and raised his voice and said, "I've thought about it. Now the scale of the company is getting bigger and bigger, and your family's dividends are getting more and more. However, I don't care about the money. The main reason is that your family often interferes with my decisions. I'm a successful man. I don't need others to tell me how to do business!"

"Guo Pu! You ungrateful little man

As Cheng mobing expected, Guo's wife was really angry. She asked aloud, "if you were going to do business in those years, if my family hadn't said hello to the bank, could you get such a large sum of money? Now that you are developed, do you not recognize people? "

People's eyes are instantly attracted by Guo's wife's drinking. Guo Pu uses the corner of his eyes to see Cheng mobing's figure glide quickly not far away. Everything goes well. ?

"how can I tell you? Have you thought about how I feel? My company comes from my hard work, not from my soft food! " GOP's voice is also very loud. He wants to attract more people's attention.

Guo's wife glared at Guo Pu, then bit her lip and left without looking back.

It's almost time. People in the square are very interested in the quarrel between the couple. Some of them are talking in a low voice, and some of them are looking this way.

After attracting the eyes of many people, Guo Pu pretended to leave and entered the hotel. However, he slipped out of the back door when people were unprepared. He didn't worry about being monitored. Because he was worried about his wife and couldn't save face, he quietly left to look for his wife. He was only wearing a pair of swimming trunks and couldn't carry any lethal weapon.

Sure enough, on the beach where he met, Guo's wife was sitting there alone, weeping in a low voice. He walked over, gently stroked her back, and then silently sat beside her with her.

Yes, a smart man should try not to speak at this time and wait for his wife to vent his emotions.

Soon, Guo's wife stopped crying. She turned her head and looked at Guo PU. In her eyes, besides anger, she was more reluctant to give up.

Guo Pu still didn't speak. She took her hand and walked slowly along the beach. Guo's wife didn't resist his action. She obediently followed him. It seemed that the unhappiness just disappeared.

The reef area is right in front of him, and Guo Pu's mood starts to get excited. He knows that Cheng mobing must be hiding behind a reef, ready to kill his wife.

As soon as they got here, they heard a slight gunshot, and then Guo Pu fell into a pool of blood!

Cheng mobing takes the gun with muffler and looks at Guo's wife with a smile.

"Thank you, Miss Cheng er." Guo's wife said with a smile: "he must have met a bad man when looking for him, so he was killed here. When I went back alone, everyone saw him enter the hotel and didn't come to me, so I didn't have any suspicion."

Cheng Mo nodded: "yes, it has nothing to do with the president's wife."

"Throw the gun into the sea, and it will be a secret forever. His property is mine, too. I promise you that I won't lose a cent." Guo's wife said with ease. "Good." Cheng mobing agreed, went to Guo's wife, suddenly put a gun against her temple and pulled the trigger.

"Ah

Guo's wife snorted and fell down.

Cheng mobing put on his gloves, took out a paper towel, wiped the fingerprints on the gun, and said coldly, "the shares you gave me are too small, what I want is all!"

Chapter 360

When Cheng mobing returned to the hotel, she was in a very happy mood. The perfect plan she had planned successfully.

When someone finds the bodies of Guo Pu and his wife tomorrow, she will think that because of their quarrel, Guo's wife is discontented, so she puts a gun in her bag, kills Guo Pu when she is in a state of emotional collapse, and then shoots herself. She has nothing to do with the matter. When the news of Guo Pu's death comes out, she can kill Guo Pu at a very low price She is the only real winner in the end.

She likes to achieve her goal in this way and get a pleasure from it.

When the phone rings, she presses the connect button. It's Cheng Mohan's voice. Of course, it's Huo Tingchen's imitation.

"What's the matter?"

Cheng mobing's pupils contracted. She hated her brother very much, so her tone was very cold.

"I'm by the river."

"I know."

"I've met an opponent, Jin Zhengting, who needs your help."

Cheng Mo Bing's eyes lit up: "the owner of Jin's family in Jiangbin?"

"Yes."

"I want half of his property. I can help you deal with him."

"Yes."

"Tomorrow, I'll go to Jiangbin, that's all."

Cheng mobing hung up the phone, with an excited smile on her face, and said to herself, "I'm going to get rich again!"

Jinjia villa, Jiangbin city.

It was late at night when Jin Zhengting came back. He changed his slippers, washed quietly, and crept into the bedroom. His movements were very light. He tried not to make any noise because he was afraid of waking Zhao Tong.

There is only a desk lamp on in the bedroom. The light is warm, giving people a very comfortable feeling. Zhao Tongxin is sitting in front of the computer with her delicate chin in her hand. From her even breathing, he can hear that Zhao Tongxin has fallen asleep.

He quietly came over and glanced at the computer screen that was still on. The screen showed dense text. It was Zhao Tongxin's company plan. He looked at it casually. In his eyes, these enterprise plans were still very immature, but he could also see that Zhao Tongxin, who had no experience in enterprise management planning, was really very attentive.

Jin Zhengting knew that she did it for her own sake. Although she didn't need to be so tired, she decided to accept her affection for him.

He quietly pushed Zhao Tongxin into his arms. Zhao Tongxin was tired and didn't wake up. Maybe she felt the warmth in Jin Zhengting's arms. She showed a comfortable smile on her face and unconsciously drilled her head into her arms.

Jin Zhengting just hugged her and looked at Zhao Tongxin with affectionate eyes. Under the soft light, her delicate face was so soft and beautiful that she couldn't help it. His lips were gently printed on her forehead.

Zhao Tongxin felt the heat of his lips and slightly opened his sleepy eyes. The first thing that came into his eyes was Jin Zhengting's angular face with a cold and proud expression.

"You're back?"

Zhao Tongxin's voice is still languid when he does not wake up, but it is more moving.

"Well."

Jin Zhengting gave a light answer. In Zhao Tongxin's voice, he picked her up and walked towards the bed. Zhao Tongxin's face was slightly red, but he didn't struggle. He just put his head into his arms, and a faint happiness welled up in his heart. She liked how he felt about her.

Gently put her on the soft bed, Jin Zhengting's hand gently stroked her long hair, eyes infinite tenderness.

Zhao Tong Xin's eyes opened slightly, appreciating the warmth from his palm, and he could not help holding his hand.

"Listen to Xu Yanke, the situation tonight is very dangerous?"

Jin Zhengting could feel that her hand was still shaking. Although he came back safe and sound, she still had no reason to be afraid.

"Not bad." Jin Zhengting said lightly that he didn't want her to worry about him any more.

"Don't put yourself in danger in the future, OK? Zhengting, promise me" Zhao Tong Xin looked at him with firm and gentle eyes.

"I promise you." Jin Zhengting nodded solemnly, which was his promise to her.

"Is it over?"

Zhao Tong Xin is looking forward to asking. Because of Huo Tingchen's existence in recent years, she feels that she has always been watched by others. When she is with Jin Zhengting, she will feel very safe. She has never worried about her own safety, but she cares too much about Jin Zhengting.

She has absolute confidence in him, no one in the world can threaten him, but she can't help worrying about him, probably because she cares too much about him.

So she's very concerned about the progress of this.

"Well, Huo Tingchen and long Jiu are dead. No one is threatening you any more." Jin Zhengting said faintly that he always felt that things didn't end so easily in his heart, but seeing her expectant eyes, he didn't express his doubts.

Even if Huo Tingchen is still alive, he is confident that he can protect her, because no one loves her more than him. For her, he is willing to give everything for her. In the face of such determination, all plots are weak. "Well, Zhengting, thank you for your revenge."

Zhao Tongxin's hand is slightly forced to show that her heart is not calm. Huo Tingchen killed her adoptive mother and child, which left an indelible shadow in her heart. The name of the shadow is hatred.

When a person carries a deep hatred, even if he has the whole world, he will not really feel happy. Before tonight, Zhao Tongxin always has hatred lingering in his heart. Today, he finally put it down.

"Tong Xin, don't say thank you to me." Jin Zhengting corrects and says that he is not her other person and does not need her to say thank you to him.

Tears welled up in Zhao Tongxin's eyes. The meaning of revenge was too important for her, just like a huge stone in her heart, which made her almost breathless, and she always thought of it inadvertently. The face of the adoptive mother and the child kept coming to her mind, and then her heart would surge with unbearable hatred.

Today, Jin Zhengting finally avenged for her, but she didn't have the pleasure of revenge. On the contrary, she felt a deep sadness.

Jin Zhengting took her into his arms, patted her back gently and comforted her gently: "Tong Xin, it's all over. Don't think about the past. No one will hurt you in the future."

He knows the trauma of losing his adoptive mother and child to Zhao Tongxin, so he wants to comfort her injured heart with all his warmth.

It is the best consolation for her to kiss away her tears in silence and hold her in broad arms, because he knows that no one in the world can give her the same warmth as himself.

Zhao Tong Xin can fully feel his heart, in his warm arms, those bad memories gradually blurred.

"Tong Xin, I don't want you to be tired." After her mood calmed down, Jin Zhengting said faintly.

Zhao Tongxin nestled in his arms and said gently: "Zhengting, I know you are good to me, but I've thought about it. I don't want to have no ability to protect you at all, so please let me do something I like, OK? I promise it won't be very hard, OK? "

"Well, I'll do whatever you like." Jin Zhengting didn't refuse her this time, because he saw her determination from her firm eyes. Everything she did was for him, so he had no reason to refuse.

"Zhengting, hold me tight. I want to sleep for a while."

In his arms, always feel comfortable, a sleepy hit, she slowly closed her eyes, face revealed for a long time no see quiet.

"Go to sleep."

Jin Zhengting gently stroked her hair, focused on coaxing her into her dream, the bedroom is filled with a touch of warmth.

The most luxurious bar in Jiangbin.

Yang ziye hugged the two beauties and said to Lu zhanyan, "it's over. Huo Tingchen and long Jiu have fallen off the cliff. It's estimated that there will be more or less misfortune. Even if they are still alive, they will not pose any threat to the court."

Lu zhanyan breathed out a breath: "it's finally over. We can finally breathe a sigh of relief. Now Cheng Mohan is the only opponent left in the court. However, with Cheng Mohan's character, he is not as unscrupulous as Huo Tingchen. Relatively speaking, he is a little better."

"That's not necessarily true. I got the latest news. Just two hours ago, Cheng Mohan made a plan to open a luxury casino in Jiangbin, and has already started to put it into action. How about going to that casino with me?"

Lu zhanyan tasted a mouthful of red wine and said faintly: "he is so eager to open a gambling house. Things will not be so simple. I always feel that all his actions are aimed at Zhengting, but we don't know what his purpose is to open a gambling house first."

"That's why I invited you to come with me and see what plot was behind his action."

Yang ziye motioned the two beauties to leave, closed the door of the box, and said to Lu zhanyan in a low voice: "not only open the casino, but also I heard that he wants to invest in all the businesses involved in Zhengting. From his series of actions, he wants to compete with Zhengting. As the best friend of Zhengting, we have to help him, right?"

"I know that Tianhong Group can really compete with Zhengting in strength, but we should not worry too much, because this is Jiangbin, and his Cheng family can not reach here."

Yang ziye shook his head: "but intuition tells me that Zhengting may suffer losses. We don't know Cheng Mohan, so I want you to know him with me."

Lu zhanyan thought for a moment and said, "we don't have to come forward for such a thing. Zhengting knows how to do it."

"Zhengting and Tong Xin have experienced so much. Now the dust is finally settled. Let them live a quiet life. Let's do these things for them. If there is nothing particularly important, we'd better not disturb them."

Lu zhanyan looked at Yang ziye with a straight face for a long time, and then said seriously, "are you still thinking about Zhao Tongxin? I warn you, she is a woman in Zhengting, so it's better to die. I don't want to destroy our friendship because of a woman." "Where do you want to go? It's undeniable that I did like Tong Xin, but since she fell in love with Zhengting, I've lost my heart."

Lu zhanyan asked suspiciously, "really?"

"Really like a person, do not have to have her, as long as you see her happy, the mood will be satisfied, you will not understand this feeling." Yang ziye drank up a glass of wine and said deeply.

"Are you satisfied a little more times?" Lu zhanyan looked at him with disdainful eyes and said faintly.

Yang ziye coughed awkwardly: "Hey, I'm not a playful person. I just admire a lot of women."
