

Chapter 3530

“Wow!” The

two golden dots suddenly changed, and they moved slightly on their positions, and two large characters were formed at the same time. .

“Man!”

George Han was startled suddenly, it happened to be the two big characters he recognized earlier!

Damn, this guy...

actually can do this!

It's really words!

“If it's right, it will automatically show the correct body, I mean...” George Han frowned.

The Mercurial Man instantly understood what George Han wanted to do, smiled on the spot, and said, “Are you trying to guess word by word?”

George Han didn't speak, but the answer was already explained in his eyes.

Since it can be like this, it is natural to use the loopholes in this rule to make blind guesses.

Although there are indeed thousands of words in the world, it is always limited , and naturally there will always be an end.

This is much easier and lighter than going out to travel south and north, spending decades and hundreds of years, and it is not so desperate.

The quicksilver man shook his head: “I admit that I don't have you, but that doesn't mean I'm just stupid. You can immediately reflect on this shameless method. Although I'll be late, I'll be there.”

George Han frowned slightly: “You mean you've tried it?”

“I've tried it several times.” The Mercury man gave a wry smile, then looked at the treasure of the moon, and said helplessly: “This thing may really be a treasure. It seems that there is divine will or self-consciousness in the dark. Knowing that you are trying words, There won't be any changes in life or death to tell you if you guessed the word correctly.”

“This...” George Han also looked at Moon Treasure.

Think about it as a top-level treasure, in case you really need a bit of divine consciousness, in fact, it is also in the past.

If you can't guess, the only way left is to spend tens or hundreds of years to get that little hope like he did in the beginning?

To tell the truth, George Han is not very interested in this kind of practice.

It's like buying a lottery ticket on Earth. It's really a good thing to have such a suspense there, but if you want to make a fortune on this, you will most likely die in your dream in the end. It can only be used as a It does not affect the unexpected joy of your current development.

"Could it be that it's really just an empty joy?" George Han frowned slightly, thinking carefully about whether there were other possibilities: "Or I should be like you and go to the so-called mountains. Turn?" The quicksilver man

shook his head and said bitterly, "I don't think you need it. I guess the legend of the half-beast is very hanging."

"What about the girl you met? Although I don't know how much it happened. It's been years, but what if there are her descendants, or her clan?"

"Didn't you say that her grandfather knows this kind of writing? If so, then this is most likely a kind of their clan. Words, if you can find someone from their family..."

Before George Han finished speaking, the Mercury man interrupted in time, and at the same time, a basin of cold water was poured on his head unceremoniously.

"I finally found this after tossing and turning. Do you think I haven't thought about what you said?" Speaking of which, the Mercurial Man looked at George Han helplessly: "You are mocking me for being stupid again."

George Han smiled bitterly.

He didn't mean it, but the Mercury Man was obviously joking.

"I talked to that girl, the life in the mountains is bad, and the heavy snow in the past few years has made the food in the mountains even more scarce, which made almost all their clansmen starve to death in the mountains, which even includes All her relatives."

"She is also one of the few people who survived by luck."

"She later helped me find other surviving clansmen. Actually, there are not many people, about ten people. , I've asked it over and over again."

Hearing this, George Han felt a chill in his heart.

"No one knows these things, right?" The quicksilver man nodded: "Yes, they don't know each other, but someone gave me a clue."

"Oh?"

Chapter 3531

"Haha." The mercury man smiled, looking at George Han's interested appearance, he really felt a little helpless: "That person He also said that the grandfather who had seen the girl used this word."

“He said that this is not actually the language of their clan, but that his grandfather learned it in a valley, but that place had already been greatly distorted by the earthquake. , now it’s a bottomless abyss.”

“I was quite surprised at the time, so I hurried to investigate, and finally...”

George Han heard that he was on the rise, and couldn’t help asking: “What happened in the end?”

“In the end it was indeed a The abyss, and then... I came here.” The mercury man didn’t want to say.

George Han was stunned for a moment, but he almost didn’t laugh out loud when he reflected it. Emotions have been fooled into this place by accident.

While it’s kind of sad in a way, it’s also kind of funny in a way.

“Smile, laugh to death, you seem to understand the treasure of the moon now. Maybe, in the future, in order to crack it, you will suffer worse than me.” The Mercury man said disdainfully.

George Han smiled: “Don’t worry, I’m not as obsessed as you are, this thing is just a matter of chance for me. So now you still have a chance to think clearly, whether or not to give this thing to me, maybe it really is I’m not sure if it will hit my hand.” The mercury man rolled his eyes: “Do I have a choice? If I had a choice, I would not give this thing to anyone, I would keep it myself, wouldn’t it be fragrant? “

Unfortunately, I have no choice. Keeping it here will only rot and stink. What’s the point? Instead, I gave it to you. Even if you really take it back as a door curtain, at least it’s worth it.” It’s an addition to your home

Bar. “

George Han nodded when he heard the words of the mercury man: “Okay, then I will be grateful. I accept it.” After the words fell, George Han moved his hand, and then the “door curtain” flew directly back into the box. As soon as the box was closed, the golden light it emitted also disappeared in an instant.

“Huh!” ” George Han took it again and again, and the jade light on his body suddenly entered his body obediently, and the stone bricks of the volleyed walls fell to the ground, and everything returned to the previous appearance.

The treasure is also given to you, whether it is me or that Zhang Guoshi, I am afraid that at least the last wish has been fulfilled. “

“George Han, you should almost leave.” “

” There are also the Four Heavenly Kings and the Sun Shengyuan on the road to Suntan, you must be careful. “

“If you break here one day, please fulfill our request.” After speaking, he whispered a word in his mouth, and then a key flew out of the dark and flew in front of George Han.

“This is the key to the box, although I didn’t expect it to open in front of you, but After all, they are a set.”

George Han smiled, grabbed the key lightly and held the key in his hand: “I wrote it down, you can rest assured that I will bring your bones back to Bafang World for re-burial.”

“All right.” The Mercury man looked at George Han with satisfaction, with a smile and kindness in his eyes: “It is said that men love women, but to tell the truth, when I see you, I like you more than women.”

It would be great if I were alive. Even if I am not qualified to have a son of your ability, it is enough to accept you as an apprentice or a brother.” I really look forward to watching

you grow. “

“Unfortunately, the destiny is not blessed, I can only see you here for the last time.” Speaking of this, the Mercury people felt sad.

George Han smiled lightly: “I will carve a stone tablet in front of your grave, Du Shuiyue’s tomb, brother George Hanliu.”

Hearing this, the Mercury Man was obviously stunned, but after a moment’s reflection, he suddenly became Hahaha laughed: “Okay, Brother Han, I’ve identified you as a brother.”

“Haha, hahahahaha!” The mercury man laughed wildly, his whole body suddenly floated into the air, and then suddenly burst.

George Han, who was suddenly stabbed by a strong light, could not open his eyes at all. When he got used to it a little and opened his eyes again, there would be no more Mercury people, let alone the original palace.

“Brother, the journey is smooth.”

A voice came from the sky, George Han raised his eyes, but saw the barrier in the distance, disappearing...
