

Chapter 3532

The dried-up bottom of the lake also began to have water flowing continuously. When the bottom of the lake was quickly filled, strange noises sounded in the jungle behind him.

When I looked back, I saw that above the jungle, bursts of black smoke spread from the jungle into the air, and then dispersed with the wind.

George Han knew that it was the souls of the fourteen true gods here, as well as Zhang Guoshi, Du Shuiyue, and their resentments were finally released.

As long as this sun lake is broken again, it will completely dissipate here, and all the undead will rest in peace.

Of course, he can also know something he urgently needs to know from Tian Zhiqiongqi, so as to complete a holistic connection with all the clues and speculations.

At that time, the fog will be completely cleared away.

Thinking of this, George Han walked to the barrier that disappeared in front of him with a resolute .

“Hoo!”

City Lord Hall.

In the hall, Zhu Yanshuo sat upright on it, although his body was abnormally straight, but in fact the whole person's heart was abnormally uneasy.

After a while, footsteps rang out in front of the main hall.

He immediately stood up and looked impatiently at the twenty or so people who entered the hall.

“How? Is there any news?” Zhu Yanshuo said anxiously.

The twenty or so people glanced at Zhu Yanshuo, then looked at each other, and finally shook their heads with extreme difficulty.

“This should be in such a big place. Almost everyone in the city has been dispatched, but there will be no news at all?” Zhu Yanshuo was annoyed, helpless, and even more puzzled.

“Rice buckets, rice buckets, they're all *ing rice buckets, I don't believe it anymore, that George Han brought a large group of people, can he disappear with such a big goal?”

“Look, keep looking for me, don't blame me for not having it I warn you, if you can't find him, you guys' heads are going to be *ing ready to move, leave them all to me.” After the words were finished, the twenty or so people looked at each other, their faces were more distressed than the other, but also He could only nod his head blankly, and when he was about to leave, there were footsteps and a sneer in the hall.

“Is it useful for you to get mad at them? Even if you really cut off their heads, will the Han 3,011 gang show up?”

More than 20 people, including Zhu Yanshuo, couldn't help but look around.

Above the inner door of the hall, Ye Shijun was sturdy and wrapped in white cloth. At this time, he was being pushed out by a maid in a wheelchair, and behind him was a group of cronies such as Futian.

“But... but that Han's 3,000 goals are very big, and we have already blocked the city, he can't just disappear for no reason, right? As I said, it must be that these guys didn't do their best, which led to the George Han's gang still has no sound training.” Zhu Yanshuo said coldly.

On the surface, it was natural to arrest George Han for Ye Shijun's sake, but in fact he knew in his heart that he was more for his sister.

“The truth is, he just disappeared.” Ye Shijun said coldly.

Zhu Yanshuo frowned, and said puzzledly: “What's the explanation of Special Envoy Ye's words?”

It's impossible for a good person to disappear suddenly, not to mention that George Han was still with a large group of people when he escaped. These people How to disappear?

This is absolutely impossible, this is utter nonsense.

If it were someone else, Zhu Yanshuo would have a big mouth on the spot and let you

*ing talk nonsense .

But if it was Ye Shijun, the words were outrageous, but he didn't dare to mess around.

“Hmph, Yegou couldn't find it, so what if it disappeared?” Futian snorted coldly and said disdainfully.

As soon as he heard the night dog, Zhu Yanshuo was silent for a while.

At the beginning, he also searched for George Han to no avail. After Ye Shijun dispatched Yegou, there was news soon. Zhu Yanshuo naturally did not dare to doubt Yegou's ability.

“So now, what's the point of spending time and effort looking for someone?” Futian asked.

Zhu Yanshuo nodded, this is true, but the question is: “Then what should I do?”

Futian didn't answer, just smiled lightly, and looked out of the hall with confidence.

Following his gaze, almost at the same time, the guards outside the hall were running towards the hall quickly. It seemed that something urgent happened...

Chapter 3533

“Report!”

The guard shouted loudly when he just stepped up the stairs.

According to the rules of the mansion, this kind of thing generally represents an emergency. This is the rule made by Zhu Yanshuo himself. Therefore, he knows it better than anyone else.

He glanced at Ye Shijun in confusion, only to see that he, like Futian and the others, only had a faint smile on his face.

In the blink of an eye, he could only quickly look back to the guard who had rushed to the gate of the temple, and look for the answer from him.

“Report to the city lord, report...” The guards were obviously exhausted as they ran all the way, and they were out of breath for a while, so they couldn’t speak clearly.

Zhu Yanshuo was also in a hurry, but he also knew that it was not easy for his subordinates, so he could only whisper in a low voice: “What happened?”

“Outside the city... there is a mission attacked from outside the city, say... say, say that the special envoy of Shenlong is here.”

” God...

the ‘s eyes widened, his body trembled, and he took a few steps back.

If Ye Shijun’s status is high enough, then this special envoy of Shenlong is much higher than Ye Shijun’s status in some respects.

No one dared to provoke Ye Shijun, more because of his status as a son. Although the position of special envoy was still high, it was nothing compared to the special envoy of Shenlong.

Because the special envoy of Shenlong is the only true god-like position, he is the direct ruler of all special envoys.

He is responsible for only one person.

In other words, he is under one person and over ten thousand people.

But in general, it is impossible for such a top-level big man to come here, not to mention the special envoy of Shenlong who is in charge of every day.

He is even busier than anyone else, because he controls all the special envoys, and naturally he is also responsible for all the internal affairs.

In theory

, he shouldn’t even leave the base camp, so how could he come all the way to him?

However, despite being very suspicious, Ye Shijun didn’t dare to care about the special envoy of Shenlong at all, and quickly asked the guard: “Where is the special envoy?” No one is allowed in or out, so...” The guard did not continue.

“I’ll go.” Zhu Yanshuo secretly said aloud, and waved his hand at the same time, asking the guards to rush to open the door first, after that, he looked back at the servants standing around the hall, and couldn’t help but hurriedly said: “All of them are standing here, one by one. What are you doing?”

“Hurry up and prepare the sedan chair, raise the salute, and greet the special envoy with me.”

After hearing the words, the servants nodded, and hurriedly saluted and retired.

Zhu Yanshuo didn't dare to stay too long, and went back to the house to change clothes in a hurry.

In less than a moment, the inner servants had prepared eight great prides and a long welcome team in front of the main hall. During the period, there were as many as 100 people in the band, sprinklers, and banner supporters, and the scale was huge.

Futian smiled lightly and looked at Ye Shijun who was beside him. He didn't speak for a while, but his eyes had already explained a lot of problems.

Ye Shijun smiled lightly and nodded slightly: “Let's go, let's join in the fun.”

Futian nodded, waved his hand cheerfully, and followed Ye Shijun down from the front of the palace to the welcoming team.

He gave Futian a look, and Futian was also very interested in serving him. Instead of getting on the first vacant sedan chair, he sat on the second one.

Zhu Yanshuo has already ridden a white horse here, dressed in silk clothes, full of style.

With a big wave of his hand, when the sacrificial utensils rang together, the entire team also ran in the direction of the city gate.

Ye Shijun

didn't seem to have the pain of breaking his arm, nor the pain of being beaten. He lay on the big sedan chair and swayed as the sedan chair swayed, his face was full of pride.

He glanced at him and saw that Futian was also looking at him with a wicked smile, Ye Shijun smiled: “Why are you so happy?”

“I'm naturally happy when you're happy.” Futian licked extremely docilely.

Ye Shijun didn't speak, he looked back, looked at the sky in front of him, his smile gradually changed to a bit sinister: “This thing that was taken is about to be doubled back, how can I be unhappy?”

“George Han, I'll play with you to the end, don't say your kid disappears, even if your kid turns into thin air, I will definitely spurn you.” As the words fell, Ye Shijun exerted a force in his hand, and his five fingers instantly made a clucking sound.

Soon, the east gate had arrived, and with Zhu Yanshuo shouting, the entire city gate slowly opened...
