

Chapter 3534

As the city gate opened, outside the city gate, at this time, four boys stood together against a lotus platform on their shoulders.

The lotus platform is about two meters long and has nine layers in total.

The table top is made of jade, surrounded by a curtain, and in the curtain, a person is sitting indifferently at this time.

He was sitting in meditation on his knees, his hands clasped together, and a round bamboo hat on his head, looking gloomy and eerie.

The faces of the four boys were as pale as if they had been wiped with wax, their cheeks were smeared with a disgusting red color, and a red dot was dotted on the center of their foreheads.

“The special envoy of Shenlong is here, why don’t you kneel quickly?”

As soon as the door was opened, the four boys roared coldly.

Zhu Yanshuo

did carelessly, he jumped off his horse in a hurry, and respectfully knelt down towards the lotus platform. All of the entourage also knelt down and shouted in unison Wanfu, the special envoy of Shenlong.

In the crowd, only Ye Shijun in the second row was still lying leisurely on the sedan chair, and only Futian and other cronies next to him were kneeling on the ground like the others.

“Young Master Ye!”

Zhu Yanshuo was so eye-catching. Naturally, the people on the lotus platform also saw him, and there was an elegant voice in the lotus, like the sound of nature, but it turned out to be a female voice.

As soon as she finished speaking, the feet of the four boys also loosened slightly. Although the amplitude was extremely small, it at least caused the lotus platform on their shoulders to drop slightly.

Soon, the four boys got up again, and like this, the lotus platform looked like a human head nodded slightly, which was regarded as the special envoy of Shenlong who greeted Ye Shijun.

In terms of position, Ye Shijun naturally needs to kneel and respect him, but no one knows Ye Shijun’s actual status.

“Elder Shenlong.” Ye Shijun also smiled slightly, and bowed his hands slightly towards the lotus pedestal.

“Zhu didn’t know that the Shenlong special was too far away to welcome him, and he also asked the special envoy of Shenlong to convict him.” Zhu Yanshuo buried his head and said loudly.

“This seat came without notice in advance, so I can be excused. Now the situation in the city is special, the door is closed carefully, it is for the election, what’s wrong with City Lord Zhu? Everyone, get up.

Follow the voice of the special envoy of Shenlong . As soon as they landed, everyone shouted yes, and then they stood up obediently.

“Shenlongte came from afar, and please rest in the palace. When the words fell, Zhu Yan said to his subordinates and shouted loudly: “Get up from the sedan chair and play music. The sound of musical instruments, at the same time, the team automatically retreated into two rows, leaving an avenue, so that the special envoy of Shenlong and his party would go first.

Ye Shijun saw that Liantai was not moving, smiled lightly, and made a gesture of invitation. He moved his feet and carried the lotus platform towards the city lord’s mansion.

To say that these four people are really evil, although they carried the sedan chair, they only landed on their toes and their heels were hanging in the air. Their speed was extremely fast, and they had already traveled to a distance of nearly tens of meters in one jump.

However, for these, everyone was not surprised.

Zhu Yanshuo saw that the special envoy of Shenlong had already gone first, he waved his hand, and ordered the troops to follow Afterwards, among the gongs and drums, there was a lively

Go to the mansion.

At this time, although the city lord’s mansion was not fully decorated, rows of guards and servants were already lined up in front of the door.

When they came to the main hall of the city master, the servants in the hall quickly brewed the tea and put them on the fruit plate, and then they hurriedly retired.

And almost at the same time as they retreated, the ninth-floor lotus platform slowly descended in front of the temple gate.

The petals of the lotus fluttered in the sky again, and then, the curtain on the lotus platform slowly opened, and the four boys knelt down slightly: “Welcome to the special envoy of Shenlong.” As the words fell, the person sitting on the lotus platform slowly walked down.

Although she was barefoot, her feet were as white as lotus root jade, very tender and smooth. The most important thing was that she was dressed in blue, like a fairy. Although the low hat on her head covered her face, if George Han was present at this time, Must be shocked.

She raised her hand slightly and gently took off her bamboo hat...

Chapter 3535

facial features are three-dimensional and perfect, with a unique exotic beauty, although there is a thin veil on the face, but it can’t resist her pair of sky blue With her charming eyes like gems, with her blue clothes and white skin, mysterious figure and slender white legs, all the men present, including the old men who are already a little old, have the urge to fight at this time.

The two young people, Ye Shijun and Zhu Yanshuo, frowned even more, their mouths slightly opened, and their eyes stayed abruptly on her body without moving at all.

Beauty, true beauty.

Even if her cotton gauze blocks her face, people can't see her face clearly.

But when you catch a glimpse of the tip of the iceberg, you can also know the beauty of the iceberg.

Just her figure, her clothes, and her skin beauty give people a very smart, special and simple feeling. It is difficult for you to describe it in detail, but it can be like a hot summer but a cold wind. of comfort.

Even though the two were well-informed and smelled countless fragrances, they were still deeply shocked and attracted by her beauty.

Ye Shijun couldn't help swallowing his saliva. Although he was on the same boat and had a lot of correspondence with the special envoy of Shenlong, most of the time it was just a routine. He had never seen the appearance of the special envoy of Shenlong. pass.

He always thought that the other party must be a gentleman, the kind of old guy whose eyes were full of insidiousness, but he didn't expect that when he met in the tower, he smelled a woman.

It's just a woman. After all, the most poisonous woman's heart is actually understandable.

Therefore, in Ye Shijun's imagination, this kind of woman should be the type .

How could he have imagined that, in fact, this woman is not only not ugly, but can be described as a fairy.

After Xia Wei ran away, this beautiful blue-clothed beauty came, and God still treats him well, Ye Shijun.

Zhu Yanshuo's eyes were also burning at this time, and his mouth was even more dry. Although the woman was beautiful and cool, his body was like a ignited volcano.

Obviously, this girl can inspire wildness in any man, even with her face covered.

Glancing at everyone, the blue-clothed beauty walked slowly towards the hall with her slender legs.

Futian bumped into Ye Shijun lightly, which made Ye Shijun, who was immersed in beauty and unable to extricate himself, wake up. Seeing that she had entered the hall, he quickly followed.

Zhu Yanshuo, leading a group of cronies, did not dare to neglect at all, and hurriedly followed into the hall.

In the hall

, the blue-clothed beauty did not sit at the very center, but hesitated for a moment in front of the seat, as if waiting for something.

But before she could speak, Ye Shijun had already sat down next to him, obviously giving up the main seat to the blue-clothed beauty.

Although the special envoy of Shenlong is of a high status, it is not comparable to his status as a son. But she didn't expect Ye Shijun to act faster, and he had already shown his intentions with his actions.

The blue-clothed beauty withdrew her gaze, and with the support of the four boys, she sat in the center.

"City Lord Zhu, I heard that you are in trouble." The blue-clothed beauty gently opened her red lips, but Ye Shijun couldn't wait to see through the veil, hoping to get a glimpse of its true face.

It was Zhu Yanshuo, who could only kneel down at this moment, and said in a bitter voice: "

It's the incompetence of the subordinates, this time...not only did the siege fail this time, but the group of bastards escaped after being wounded, and the subordinates have already added We sent people to hunt down the whole city, but..."

Before the words were finished, the blue-clothed beauty suddenly spoke softly, interrupting Zhu Yanshuo's words: "What's the use of sending more people to someone who can't even find a dog at night?"

Zhu Yanshuo was sweating profusely, and the whole person was panicked Uneasy, for fear of being punished, he also knew that Ye Shijun had just said this, and saying it again would not change his fate, but what else could he do at this time? !

"City Lord Zhu, you'd better shut up." At this moment, Ye Shijun suddenly smiled: "Isn't this the special envoy of Shenlong coming? Disappear? I see how they disappear.

" On the body of the blue-clothed beauty...
