

Chapter 3540

“Woo...”

“Woo...” I don't know if it was the roar of the wind, or the cry of a ghost, a miserable and sharp voice, At this time, it came from all directions.

At this time, the whole world has entered the evening from the daytime instantly. It is gray and dark, and it is impossible to see anything. The biting cold is also their biggest accomplice. People are frozen to the bone.

At this time, George Han was still sitting there, his face was, as usual, the jade light entrained the colorful light around his body, he did not move, let the gust of wind roar outside him, and the black clouds weighed down.

wind grew stronger.

The trees that were blowing almost as thick as a person were crazily pressing their waists.

The clouds are lower.

In the distance, the river, and even the sky and the earth, are connected by a line.

“Wow!” The

the sky was raining heavily, and it suddenly poured down. The rain fell like peas like peas

Da da!

George Han had no rain all over his body, and when he closed his eyes, the rain fell to prevent the Buddha, as if he had forgotten about it, and they took the initiative to avoid it, only falling to the left and right beside him.

Under a few drops, a fist-sized hole was dented in the surrounding land every time it suffered.

After about tens of minutes, the heavy rain was still unabated, and the strong wind was still not weak.

Of course, in the jungle that was already calm, at this time, a silent, but the incomparably huge change had already taken place.

The river has already filled the riverbed, rising between many and Yan, it is rushing across the river bank and swallowing the jungle.

The jungle that was originally green before, now it is silver and white, and it has become a **.

“Crash, crash!”

In George Han's ear, the water was running like a beast. It was originally at least ten meters away from the river, but at this time, it was still difficult to stop the flood, carrying rolling stones and turbulent currents. Crazy to come.

Of course, the strange thing was that George Han was still sitting there, surrounded by light.

Even though the flow was rushing around him, he still seemed to be sitting on the ground.

In fact, George Han was indeed sitting on the flat ground. Although the surrounding was already surging by the torrent except where he was sitting, the place where he was sitting was still stable as if nothing had happened. .

The water is at least one meter deep, and the place where he sits is like a pillar, standing there, facing the crazy impact of the current, let alone being washed away, even a millimeter of fine sand has not moved at all, this is simply impossible. Say it's not magical.

Gradually, the rain stopped.

The dark clouds dissipated, the sun shone again, the scorching sun scorched the earth, and the temperature began to rise.

This time, another few hours passed.

It was already flooding the sky, but under the scorching sun, the water flow disappeared and the flood gradually receded, leaving only one place to be left.

Pop, pop!

The earth is drying up, not only the torrent on the surface dissipates, but even his own body is also cracking open in the drying up, revealing a deep mute.

If it was said that the land was flooded before, then at this time, there was no rain for thousands of years, and the lush plants began to wither and die. Within a radius of fifty miles centered on George Han, it has become a desert.

However, George Han was still sitting there, and there was still a piece of grass under his butt, even though because the tide had receded, the soil under him had been standing there for a long time.

But it is always the only green "interstate."

"Wow!"

Suddenly, there was a burst of light noises, and several dry types of grass were illuminated by the scorching sun overhead, and because of the extremely high temperature at this time. , it started to burn.

The fire came quickly, and in the blink of an eye, the grass was swallowed up by the fire, and a raging fire was generated.

The fire spread, and it burned from the grass to the dead trees on the side and burned the broken branches on the ground. For a time, the fire around the hole became bigger and bigger...

Just a moment later, the surrounding was already full of fire, and the earth was completely covered with fire. Devoured by fire.

George Han was still sitting there, letting the fire around him roar like a devil, swallowing people and biting their souls, he closed his eyes lightly and remained calm.

To prevent Buddha, everything around him has nothing to do with him.

It is strange to say that even if the fire completely engulfed him, he never dared to approach George Han in the slightest, so he could only roar incompetently beside him.

However, at this moment, George Han suddenly opened his eyes...

Chapter 3541

eyes, it is already a large fire, and it is impossible to see what is outside the fire.

But there was no panic in George Han's eyes, on the contrary, it was full of indifference.

Smiling, George Han closed his eyes again.

And almost as soon as George Han closed his eyes, the fierce flames stopped, as if suddenly there was no burning material.

In the end, the blaze that had grown violently in an instant vanished into nothing in an instant.

The whole land is completely like a burning field, desolate and desolate, with only ashes.

call!

The wind is here again.

The scorched earth was finally a little cooler, and clouds were blown to block the crazy hot sun, and the relative temperature of the whole land was much lower.

In only a few dozen minutes, George Han felt extremely cool, and the wind was very comfortable.

But this kind of comfort did not delay for too long, and George Han felt a little cold.

Then, the coolness got bigger and bigger, and even the temperature began to enter the freezing point.

The ground was dried, and the ashes from the ground were blown away.

The wind was stronger, like a knife.

On the ground, the wind has already cut one opening after another.

The opening seemed to have been slashed by a knife, and the crack was sharp and neat, with a depth of several ten centimeters all the way.

And there are so many openings on the ground at this time!

Where is the wind blowing, it is obviously a blowing air knife?

George Han was still sitting there, with his eyes closed and his body surrounded by divine light. Even though the wind was like a knife outside, George Han still remained unmoved inside.

“Huh!” The

wind got stronger!

It blew on the divine light, and it also blew on the earth. The divine light did not move, but the ground had already been blown over, and the mountains and soil had collapsed, moving with the wind.

In an instant, the sky and the earth changed color, the dust was rolling in the gray, and occasionally the hills hit the ground.

The sand is like a bullet, and the huge mountain and boulder are like cannonballs. It hits the sky like this, falls to the ground, and smashes deep and fire pits. The rocks on the ground are also crushed and slag.

It is hard to imagine that under such a fierce situation, if someone stood in the wind, the force might be like ten thousand guns bombarding, ten thousand guns madly bombing, and there will be no eggs under the attack?

but!

George Han was still sitting there.

Don't move!

Don't stop!

call!

The wind stopped.

The flying sand and rocks on the ground also stopped.

It's just that the hills in the surrounding area have shifted and changed their shape, and they are two completely different worlds from before.

But in any case, everything is peaceful for the time being.

George Han also opened his eyes slowly at this time.

He smiled slightly at the corner of his mouth, and then, as soon as Yuguang was taken away, George Han's body returned to normal, the corner of his mouth twitched slightly, and he slowly stood up.

“Kun, Kan,

Li, Xun, the wind blows up the soil of the earth, and when a false prince is used, it turns into a hill, which is gen, the wind pokes and the fire rises, and the wind and fire produce its sound, like the sound of thunder, it is a shock. When the earth and water pass, and time passes, gold and pearls will be seen, and they will be self-contained.”

“Afterwards, water and fire were compatible, and qi could be generated. Naturally, qi accompanies water to form the sky and become dry. Since then, there is no difference between all things, but only whether they are detailed or not. Take this as an example, the wind blows the surface of the water and forms Waves that are naturally dangerous. In this way, the four signs can produce all things.”

“Am I right? The Four Heavenly Kings!

However, following his gaze, there was nothing but dead silence all around. Except for the breath of death left by the fire and wind, where else could there be something nearby?

But George Han’s eyes were unusually confident as if there was something in front of his eyes

“Four signs are called four kings, which is interesting.” George Han smiled, then he smiled slightly, shook his head, lowered his head, and looked at the ground.

In the next second, he suddenly lifted his hand, and a blazing fire flew out of his hand in an instant, attacking straight away like a dagger.

“Bang!” The

fire flew into the air, but it suddenly collided with something invisible in the air. Between the explosion of the fire, it seemed that it hit some barrier and burst open.

The fire was extinguished, and although the barrier did not appear, the place where it hit before left a trace of cracks.

“Haha, interesting, interesting.”

Immediately afterward, a grim smile came from the air, and in the next second, a fiery red figure slowly emerged from the transparency of the whole in mid-air.

“Hahahahaha!”

Almost at the same time, George Han’s left, right, and rear three sides also revealed three figures in laughter at the same time...
