

Chapter 3554

so-called Sun God, in fact, is more of a kind of magic.

A supreme demon that unites heaven and earth, yin and yang.

All the ghosts in the jungle are his food, the energy he absorbs, and the more pure ingredients of his demonic energy.

It's like this guy is completely the foundation of this jungle, through everything in the jungle, using everything in the jungle for his own use.

"Sheng Yuan itself is also the strongest among our group of true gods."

"No one knows which era of true god he is, but almost all the people who can be called here have found that he has long since entered. Exist."

"I heard some rumors that he was the first true god to come here. The era of his existence was basically at least the era when the three true gods just opened up, and the old one can't be any longer.

" Nodding: " When the age of true gods first opened, the spiritual energy was far more abundant than the age we were in, and the natural strength and cultivation of the ancestors at that time were far more powerful than us."

"In addition, he died here after his death . The jungle is the first person to be the dealer, and his strength... can't be said to be higher than ours..."

"But it can only be said that it is far beyond us." The water monster nodded: "Actually, you are too . I know that people here often fall into the world, and after they die, they turn into ghosts, and they will come here to report."

"This place exists in the form of elimination system, that is, any ghost is eligible to challenge the current existence of Sun Moon Lake. A certain person." The earth monster answered and smiled bitterly: "However, if you say that, it is actually more of an endless loop."

The water monster nodded: "That's right, because most of the people who come here are divided into first-come-last-arrival, and the new true gods after us will naturally die here and transform into souls. Therefore, regardless of the cultivation base, It's still to the extent that the jungle assimilates yin after this. Compared with the previous ones, it is very different."

"Unless someone has outstanding talent, however, if the body is dead, talent will exist again. Is it?"

Hearing these words, George Han nodded, it seemed that there were rules, but in fact there was a huge endless loop here forever.

As soon as you enter it, you are completely trapped by the cycle, and those rules are more like some kind of drawn pie.

George Han can understand this kind of thing very well. After all, people on earth may have the most say in painting a pie.

“Of course, in such a long time, for various reasons, there are still people who want to challenge the rules and rise to their positions.”

“We have all been challenged before.”

George Han smiled bitterly: “But the sun god No one dares to challenge the position, right?” The two monsters nodded affirmatively at the same time: “The Sun God once said that he can even accept everyone attacking him at the same time, and even if we fail, he will not blame it. The earth monster smiled bitterly and said, “To be honest, this is very tempting, and since everyone is a true god, such words are too provocative and disdainful.”

“So, you teamed up and fought against him .” ?” George Han asked.

In this place where yin qi gathers, everyone is full of resentment, and it is like dynamite. It is also bound to be so provocative, and there is no need to bear any consequences, and it will be a pair with him.

Both nodded.

There is no need to ask the result, because it is obvious that if they win, the situation at this time has already changed, so their result can only be one.

However, George Han is also very clear that no matter what he wants to hear or what they say, it is definitely not as simple as a result.

What they need is that process.

George Han looked at the two monsters eagerly, and the two monsters also looked different at this time, seeming to be thoughtful.

“If it wasn’t for a bet between us, even if you killed me, I really don’t want to mention it.”

“However, since we have an appointment, then I’ll have something to say.”

After the words fell, the water monster looked slightly at the top of his head and murmured...

Chapter 3555

“It was a humiliating, unilateral killing.”

“Perhaps, for us, it was almost all our lives to charge into the battle, but for him, it was just like playing with a small toy while the tiger was taking a nap.”

“Back then, The Four Heavenly Kings of the Sun God and the gang of heroes from Yuetan have formed a copper wall and iron formation. We all believe that we can be invincible. Even if we lose, we will definitely not lose much.”

“But how do we know that, A humiliating defeat awaits us.”

“We were completely defeated without handing over a few rounds. In front of him, we were like... a group of children, tossed and manipulated at will by him. The earth

monster also took over the words depressedly: “Yes, the power of the sun god is too terrifying, and it is not in the same order as us.”

“He can control the yin and yang at will, and he can also change the world at will, he... He is simply invincible.” The water monster also echoed: “He can even control the time here and everything here. In his words, he is the absolute master of the jungle and the only overlord of the jungle.”

“Here, yes “His territory.”

“After that, we’ll be at ease, and we’ll follow the Sun God’s words.” The earth monster looked at George Han and said, “Although you are very powerful, you can penetrate the Moon Lake, and you can even directly Defeat our four brothers, but let me tell the truth, the gap between you and the sun god...” When the words fell, his

The figure gestured to the sky with his hands.

The meaning is very obvious.

One is the sky and the other is the earth.

“We can still fight with you, but we have almost no power to fight back in front of Sun Shengyuan, so this is not our exaggeration, we are just telling the truth.” The water monster also echoed.

George Han didn’t speak, the whole person fell into contemplation.

The Four Heavenly Kings have fought against themselves and the Sun God, and they are indeed the most qualified to comment.

Moreover, that guy can influence Tian Zhiqiong’s speech thousands of miles away, how powerful actually George Han has some ideas in his heart.

But George Han was definitely not frightened: “He is so powerful that he can almost kill me instantly, so obviously, your bet will become meaningless.”

“But since you guys It should be clear to me that I have a chance to win, right?”

“If Shengyuan has a real divine body, no matter how powerful you are, we will not spend a little bit of energy on you, because at that time Shengyuan was definitely A supreme being beyond the true God.”

“Without a divine body, no matter how powerful it is, it will always be a resentful soul. Maybe against people like us, he is almost invincible, but in the face of you who have a divine body, we don’t know what it will be. What kind of result, this is also the fundamental reason why we are willing to bet you.”

“For many years, you are the first person to walk in here and not a ghost, so this is very interesting.”

George Han smiled and said honestly. , Listening to what they said, even George Han himself felt quite interesting now, and even wished he could go to the meeting with Shengyuan that day.

“Early morning and dusk are the times when the yin and yang of the jungle are exchanged, and it is also the weakest time, which means that you have about four hours a day to fight against him.”

“If it exceeds this time, you can either run away quickly, or save your energy and dig a hole so that you can bury yourself.” The earth monster’s hand moved, and the soil at the entrance of the cave disappeared in a blink of an eye, waiting for George Han When he turned back, the water monsters and earth monsters in the cave had long since disappeared.

Walking out of the cave, George Han looked up at the sun in the sky through the gap between the leaves.

Immediately afterwards, George Han smiled slightly: “Sun Shengyuan, I’m here.”

After that, George Han headed towards Suntan, which was not far away, and set off...
