

Chapter 3596

“Here, besides you, there is no one else.”

“Or, in addition to the sixteen Luna and Suntan Five, is there anyone else?” George Han asked.

Hearing this question, he was stunned, but smiled: “I knew you would ask me this question.”

“Oh?” George Han smiled.

He smiled and looked at George Han without speaking.

George Han nodded: “Just now when I was talking about this experience, I could clearly feel your surprise. It seems that the cave should not exist. As for the exercises on the cave, obviously, it is also It shouldn't appear, right?”

Hearing George Han's words, he laughed: “I know you are smart, and some things cannot escape your intuition. Yes, your question is very good, and I am not afraid of being honest. Let me tell you.”

“There are only those ghosts you know about in Sun Moon Lake, and there no others.”

“As for the caves, there are still a few here in Sun Lake, but I can tell you exactly in Moon Lake, Almost none.”

George Han smiled and said, “If that's the case, then this is a bit strange. Since there is no one, how did this cave come from, and how did the exercises in this cave come from.”

He smiled. Laugh: “Maybe God sees you as pitiful, secretly helped you, made a cave, and gave you some exercises by the way.”

George Han nodded and looked up at the top of his head. Although the top of his head was pitch black, he seemed to be able to see through it. Straight to the sky: “Maybe you're right, maybe it's just that God pity me and help me secretly.”

“After all, he seems to have predicted that you and I would go to this step in the end, and he also predicted that the ending would be like this, so he prepared me in advance the key things for me to turn defeat into victory in the end.”

Tell me, if it wasn't for God, who could So accurate?”

George Han looked at him with a smile.

He laughed and didn't speak, but George Han had already read the answer he wanted from his demeanor.

After the two finished laughing, he looked at George Han: “Okay, young man, you know everything you need to know, now you can kill me.”

“As long as you kill me, the yin and yang in this jungle will be in chaos. The jungle will also cease to exist, and all the undead will rest in peace.”

“There is no other way?” George Han looked at him.

He didn’t want to kill him, even though he had nearly killed himself, it was always just a matter of position, there was no hatred between them.

Secondly, George Han also believed that this was not his original intention. If he was trapped here all the year round, his hostility might not necessarily be lighter than theirs.

In a way

, they are also poor people.

Tortured in life, and bound after death...

“To be kind to your enemy is to be cruel to yourself.” He looked at George Han and smiled softly.

“Yes, but you may not be my enemy. Maybe, a friend? Isn’t it good to say that you are strangers in a foreign land. Maybe you and I are from the eight directions, so feel more cordial.” Han Three thousand smiled.

This is the best excuse he can find, and he also believes that only by saying this will Shengyuan accept it better.

Just pity him?

Judging from his status and qualifications, it would be more acceptable to kill him directly.

“Being a stranger in a foreign land?” He didn’t seem to expect that George Han would say this. After repeating the sentence, he tasted it for a long time and said, “This is the most beautiful thing I have heard.”

“If you hadn’t reminded me, After staying in this ghost place for so long, I almost forgot that I used to be from the Bafang world, and only regarded myself as an evil ghost.”

“Okay, well said, good mother**** sentence is also a stranger in a foreign land. Just based on this sentence, young man, I can recognize you as a friend.”

Seeing him like this, George Han was also very relieved, and being able to give him consolation at the last moment was the best he could do. matter.

“Since they are friends, there is another way when there is no way.” He smiled and looked at George Han.

George Han was stunned, what kind of logic is this? It’s obvious that he took advantage of him if he didn’t kill him, but why did it come out of his mouth and feel like he took advantage of him?

However, George Han still suppressed these emotions and asked with a smile, “What is the method?”

“The way you want to make a fortune.” He looked at George Han mysteriously...

Chapter 3597

do I want to make a fortune?

George Han couldn't say that he was at a loss, but he could only say that a head full of question marks could smash people to death.

He's not the underworld, so what does it have to do with saving some unjust souls?

What's more, if he didn't die, wouldn't he also be the one who got cheap?

If you have to kill him so that he will never be born, does this make him suffer? It can only be him who suffers.

“The whole jungle is actually a meeting point of yin and yang. Let me tell you so, if we compare this world to a gossip, then the part of the jungle we are in at this time is the yin point of the whole yang side.

” All around are supplemented by yang, but here is the only place where yin exists.”

“This is why we are trapped here and cannot get out. We are all yin, and once we leave here, we will be blocked by yang.” “

I understand.” George Han nodded : “Then what?”

“I am the eye of this place. If you want this place to disappear, of course the best way is to kill me. If it is destroyed, the yin qi will be vented wildly, and eventually it will be vanished by heaven and earth, and this place will no longer exist.”

“But I am obviously not interested in this method.” George Han said.

“There is also a way to break the formation's eyes directly, pay attention to the difference, one is destruction, the other is broken, there is a difference between the two.”

George Han nodded: “Destruction is a compulsory means, and breaking Breaking is a way to go with the flow, right?”

“Yes.”

“How to break.”

“Tai Chi gives birth to two ceremonies, two yi gives birth to four images, and four signs give birth to gossip. Tai chi is one, which is the root of all things. You can change yin and yang and manipulate gossip.

Naturally , array eyes are like a piece of cake in your eyes.”

“I understand the general principle of what you said.” George Han smiled bitterly embarrassedly: “But the problem is... gossip. I only know a little about the technique, it's not a big problem to break some other formations, but this...”

The amount of work is too large.

This is a whole large jungle, and it is still a jungle full of yin.

Isn't this typical of fighting tanks with a broken rifle?

When the time comes, George Han doesn't know if the tank will explode. He only knows that the broken rifle in his hand will definitely explode directly.

"So, I said that you have made a lot of money." He smiled, and then said sternly: "I will!"

"I can become the absolute overlord here, not only because of my high cultivation, after all, there is no shortage of people in the world. Even if they were not as good as me at the time, they might not be able to absorb the yin here."

George Han nodded, and there are indeed many people who come to the top in this world.

"The most important thing is, the peculiar technique I practiced, the two celestial arts!"

"The two celestial arts?"

"That's right." He nodded, and seemed to be quite proud of his words. Can't help but hold your head high.

"That's the heaven-defying technique that Lao Tzu is most proud of."

"I have only cultivated for 30% of my life, but I can dominate the world and go against the sky. If this is the eighteenth floor, hum, dare to ask. In a word, who in this world is still Lao Tzu's rival?"

"It's a pity, I got stuck when I was 30%. In order to find a way to solve it, I came to this damn place. I didn't realize that this shitty place became my grave."

"Forget it, don't mention it. Anyway, back to the right track, these two rituals can be used to attack or defend

, pay attention to the harmony of yin and yang, and everything can be set within it."

George Han frowned slightly and said, "What do you mean, You can break this place with the technique of the two instruments."

"I am a ghost, and there are many restrictions when using this method without a physical body, but you are different." He said this and smiled: "With your power, plus The technique of the two ceremonies will definitely break through here."

"Originally, I once made a poisonous oath for such a powerful method, even if I died, I would take it into the coffin, because it caused me to die here and pass it on to anyone, I can't take this breath."

"Even just now, I was ready to die, and I won't succumb to certain arrangements, because why is this?"

"However, you said that the same as in a foreign land is different. The guest talk entered my heart, I changed my mind, and I decided to teach it to you."

Hearing this, George Han's eyes widened: "Huh?"
