

Chapter 36: Shen Fanxing Would Always Be The Losing Party

The manager from the HR Department was a middle-aged man called Liu Qi, his face full of annoyance when he looked at Shen Fanxing. That was when he paused and tried to push her out.

“My dear, what are you doing here? There is an internal conference and it’s about to start. Hurry to the conference room!”

“Manager Liu, I have something to tell you...”

“Nothing is more important than the conference. Go to the conference first. We can talk later.”

Shen Fanxing frowned but she did not reject.

Before she submitted her resignation letter, she would still be under the management of the company. Her attendance at the conference was therefore compulsory.

When she went in and saw Shen Qianrou, coldness found its way onto her face.

When was Shen Qianrou part of the management in the Su Company?

When Shen Qianrou saw her, her eyes reflected a challenge that only the two of them understood.

Shen Fanxing pursed her lips and gave a cold stare before she walked towards her seat.

Because of her frequent attendance for past conferences, she had always sat on the same seat near the window, which was near Su Heng’s seat.

When she first found the seat, it was pure randomness. Yet, as time passed and no matter how others’ seats changed, Shen Fanxing’s seat never did.

Shen Fanxing walked emotionlessly to her seat. As she passed by the other senior management officials, she received their respectful greetings, some of which official, others casual.

When Shen Fanxing just entered the Su Company, everyone was indifferent and they suspected her abilities.

They had always thought that Shen Fanxing’s entry into the company was to make a Hail Mary effort in time of crisis.

What they did not expect was to see the company getting back on track.

They remembered clearly that when Shen Fanxing entered the company, she immediately convinced Mr Su to hold a press conference to apologise to the public and promised not to make similar mistakes.

The Su Company nearly closed down.

Yet, Shen Fanxing insisted on her own views.

There were lots of compensations and apologies, and she went with Mr Su to convince the investors to support the company.

These affairs were too risky and hard. Nobody would want to realise them, let alone think of them.

But Shen Fanxing did it.

Thereafter, the perfume the company produced went on the market and it was popular in the fashion industry.

Till today, the brand of perfume was still the most sought-after brand in the market.

After that, the subsequent events all proved Shen Fanxing's abilities in public relations and as a perfumer.

The indifference and contempt dissolved to form sincere respect.

Shen Qianrou stood beside Su Heng, her eyes full of contempt and unwillingness.

Her teeth were nearly shattered from her infuriated grinding.

However, besides jealousy and unwillingness, there was some sense of smugness.

No matter how Shen Fanxing was like, she, Shen Qianrou would always be the one standing, and smiling.

This held true regardless of time.
