

Chapter 3620

Immediately after, when bursts of explosions sounded, the screams of killing also resounded in the world.

“Come on!”

Amelia Su suddenly went out to find the enemy, although he couldn't stop the fact that they were surrounded.

But it has not completely formed the encirclement of the other party, which is at least a great fortune in misfortune.

When a group of people in the wooden house heard the shouting, they rushed out one by one in a hurry. After seeing that the enemy was already densely surrounding them, they could only fight reluctantly in a hurry.

That's why Amelia Su found out in advance, otherwise, once the enemy directly surrounded the house, the loss of the Mysterious Man Alliance would also become extremely terrifying.

The other party only needs to guard the doors and windows and other exits, and they can completely catch the turtle. The difficulty for them to breakthrough at that time will also increase exponentially.

But even if the situation is not so severe, it is really difficult for a group of people to face the heavy siege of the opponent and the number of enemy troops is so large.

After just a few rounds, a group of people retreated again and again.

Although in the Mysterious Man Alliance, even the most inferior soldiers can already block several people after training with the super time bonus of the Book of Eight Desolations.

But...still with little success.

“Fuck, where did such a large group of people appear?” Fuli slashed over several elite soldiers with one sword and said angrily.

Dazzlingly, the surrounding area is surrounded by a large swath of enemy troops, and it is already despairing just to make people look at it.

The two fists were no match for the four hands. The disciples of the Mysterious Man Alliance tried their best to resist, but they were still unable to withstand the flood-like attack of the enemy.

“Where is the disciple of Baguio Palace?”

Ningyue also looked back, and the whole person shouted anxiously.

Yes.” A group of female disciples from Baguio Palace said in unison.

“We will cover you, and we must fight a bloody path. Remember, no matter what the cost, we must go to save the wife of the alliance master.

Go, Knife Twelve, bring some brothers to rush with me.”

“Don’t worry.” Knife Twelve dragged his long knife, his eyes were bloodshot, and his killing intent was surging.

“Count me as a brother from Mo Beitian and Tianmo Palace.” Mo Beitian also said angrily.

Ningyue frowned slightly and was about to be dissatisfied, but Qingji had already said: “This matter does not distinguish between men and women, and the matter is urgent. We are quite familiar with the other party, so let the people from the Tianmo Palace go, and it is better to deal with it.

” Yue thought for a while, then glanced at Mo Yang: “Okay, Mo Yang, I’ll leave this to you.”

Mo Yang nodded sharply, drew his sword, and roared angrily, “Come on with me.”

Immediately

, The whole person accelerated and rushed directly to the dark crowd of enemy troops.

Mo Beitian led the disciples of the Tianmo Palace to follow.

“It’s so lively, Master Lu, should we join in the fun? Zhu San, how are you preparing?”

Master Lu and Zhu San smiled at each other, and Zhu San even patted his chest and assured: “Young master, don’t worry, there is an old man. The pig is here, I will call these thieves, there will be no return.”

Ruyu Young Master smiled lightly, nodded, folded the jade fan in his hand, and flew directly over.

Seeing that they had set off, Ningyue was not idle on this side, and she drew her long sword: “Everyone obeys the order, mainly Baguio Palace and Hundred Demon Palace, gather on the left and right, attack the enemy’s left and right wings, and the two sides are horns of each other. Let’s pull each other and break through the siege for me.”

“Yes!”

As soon as the voice fell, the disciples of the Mysterious Man Alliance lined up one after another. Following Ningyue

’s loud shout, they rushed over . to the enemy.

“Stand up, stand up, stand up for me. Anyone who wants to break through the siege and break out is empty talk. I tell you, even a fly will never be released to me. Those who violate the order will be dealt with by military law.”

“Yes!” On

the side of the army who should have fallen into the city, the morale of the generals in front of them was also roaring, and a thick wall was formed, which was bound to block the opponent's attack.

"Hmph, a gang of rabble trying to break through the siege. I'm afraid these idiots don't know the concept of 50,000 people, right? Even if they stand there in a circle and let them kill enough, they will be exhausted. Exhausted." Seeing that the situation was stable, Futian couldn't help laughing coldly.

The corner of Ye Shijun's mouth twitched, and when he was about to say something proudly, suddenly, several huge explosions in a row caused his whole smile to freeze on his face...

Chapter 3621

Between several consecutive explosions, the thick human wall that was originally surrounded by 50,000 people in several circles just exploded directly with it. There are several huge vacancies.

The terrifying power of its magic power is astounding!

"Han... George Han is here." Ye Shijun was full of anger when he didn't see George Han, but when he saw it, he was more afraid, and he shouted in a panic.

However, almost at the same time as he had just shouted, a white figure flew out between several chain explosions.

"It doesn't seem to be George Han." Zhu Yanshuo said.

The distance is too far, and the smoke is billowing in front of him at this time, and he can't see the other party's appearance at all. It is only from the figure that the person who seems to fly out is not George Han.

"But who can it be if it's not George Han? I've never heard of any super expert in George Han's formation."

"If it's Han

George Han, you'll know after a try." Pointing directly to the bamboo house beside him: "If that person is George Han, his family members in the house will definitely be unguarded. This is an even better opportunity for us."

"Hmph, if he is George Han, this move What's more obvious is the obvious encirclement and reinforcement, then let's attack the east and west, and taking his family is the best choice."

"Listen to my order, the elite troops on the right line, immediately take down the bamboo house for me."

Woo!!!

The horn sounded, and the elite troops approaching the bamboo house heard the sound at this time, and accelerated their speed to touch the bamboo house.

But just as he was about to enter the door, a huge strange force suddenly burst out of the room.

Several people at the door were immediately shot several meters away, fell to the ground and vomited a few mouthfuls of blood before they could no longer struggle. In the shock just now, their pulses had already been cut off.

Immediately afterwards, a figure in white rushed out of the bamboo house.

Behind her, there was another unconscious figure on her back.

When turning his hands, he was not polite at all, and the surrounding area exploded. The elite soldiers who surrounded the bamboo house were directly bombed before they even reflected on their skills.

Even those masters were quite embarrassed at this time. Those who were farther away hurriedly fled from the explosion, and those who were closer were a little unlucky. They were either wounded or disgraced as if the anti-Buddha had just emerged from the mud pit. .

As usual, this group of masters would have been swarmed by this insult, but at this moment they were looking at each other in dismay as if they were all waiting for who would take the lead.

Everyone is not a fool. The richer people are, the more they care about their own lives. Of course, those with higher cultivation will not be exempt from this custom.

They

have skills, and naturally, there are many ways to live a good life. Only those who are at the bottom, who have no choice, will rush endlessly.

Just seeing the huge pit with a diameter of several meters was directly blown out on the ground, they already knew that the other party was definitely not small, and rushing up to it was no different from being cannon fodder.

Naturally, they all looked at others, hoping that others would come first.

However, just as they were dazed at each other, the white figure had already broken through the first line of defense with the person on his back, and headed towards the center of the encirclement.

Seeing such a situation, Ye Shijun, who was watching the battle not far away, stomped his feet in anger.

“Rice bucket, rice bucket, all fucking rice bucket, give it to me, give it all to me, fuck it, or I will kill you now.”

With his angry roar, the masters stiffened in a trance. Scalp rushed up.

Faced with the encirclement and suppression of the masters behind him, the man in white was obviously not afraid.

It's a big shot!

The masters hurriedly withdrew, and for a while, Fa Neng passed through them, and he didn't know which hapless one failed to dodge, and was directly hit by the real ball and smashed to the ground.

With a loud explosion, even if the bamboo house was at least a few meters away, half of it was blown away by the blast, not to mention the unfortunate bastard in the center. Nothing left.

“Huh!”

When the masters saw this situation, they sighed in their hearts that it was fortunate that his mother flashed fast.

On Ye Shijun’s side, just when he was about to get angry, Futian grabbed him slightly, looked at the man in the sky, and couldn’t help muttering: “That...that’s not...Su...Amelia Su
