

Chapter 3628

“Hu!”

When George Han opened his mouth and exhaled a cloudy breath, he finally opened his mouth slowly. Open eyes.

Although his eyes were indifferent, it was obvious that there was a gleam in his eyes that could not be hidden.

Anti-Buddha’s eyes are generally created by heaven and earth, clear and translucent, and can see all things.

“Three days, three days without cultivating. This may be a sin for me, who has been cultivating for an unknown number of years. Really, from my heart, it is such a sin.” A voice came leisurely.

Sheng Yuan was lying in the corner there, like a destitute middle-aged decadent.

“However, these three days are, in a sense, the most interesting for me.”

“Because obviously, these three days have witnessed the birth of a legend and the formation of a new myth. “

George Han, in the eyes of my Shengyuan, the world is a dog, and only myself is the real and strongest ruler, so you can say that I am arrogant, or you can say that I am arrogant, but This is the person of my Shengyuan.”

“However, I have to say one thing, George Han, your kid is not like this in my eyes.”

“You are the first person that I truly admire.”

“Hehe, In just three days, the two celestial arts have been thoroughly learned by your kid. If you know it, you will naturally know that this is a heaven-defying magic. If you don’t know this, you would think that the enlightenment of which children’s hall was enlightened. The reading material.”

“You kid, okay!” Said, Sheng Yuan directly gave a thumbs up.

“Senior is wrong.” George Han smiled slightly, looked back at Sheng Yuan in the corner, and said: “These are all taught by seniors, and have nothing to do with George Han. Besides, compared with you , what am I?”

Isn’t this playing a big knife in front of Guan Gong?

“Hehe, you bastard boy, you typically turn your face up when you lift your pants and don’t recognize anyone.”

“What are you compared to me? Your uncle, you have only practiced my two celestial arts in just three days, but already It’s about to break through to the third floor, and this... do you know how long it took me?”

“Damn, you still have the face to say such a thing?”

George Han was stunned, in fact, he was really right. I don't know much about my current situation, let alone what his current level is in the two celestial arts.

For him, he just felt extremely comfortable in his body right now. Anti-Buddha swallowed a huge mint candy in one gulp, rushing all the way from the soles of his feet to the top of his head.

"I'm really as strong as you say? You're not encouraging me, are you?"

"Do I need to encourage you?" Sheng Yuan rolled his eyes silently: "Now, raise your left hand first.

"Strength, the soul of seizing the sun, Nie Ju's three meridians, together to rise."

As he said the formula, George Han slowly raised his hand, and a huge yang qi instantly angered in his left arm.

"Now, raise your right hand."

"With the power of the earth, seize the soul of yin, gather its six acupoints, and move with anger." When the words fell, George Han raised his right hand, and a cold and dark power also wrapped around him. on his right hand.

"What is this for?" George Han stared blankly at his left and right hands, wondering what Sheng Yuan wanted to do.

Sheng Yuan smiled lightly: "For your doubts, and for my words to be true, so let's play."

"Play?" George Hanyi was even more stunned.

What's so fun about this? The point is, what to play.

Sheng Yuan was not in a hurry, got up slowly, and then walked a few steps to George Han.

Looking at George Han's left hand, the yang energy on it gathered, and even brought a golden light. Obviously, this kind of strength is enough to satisfy Sheng Yuan.

Looking at George Han's right hand again, the black qi was moving, and even if it was a little far away from him, he could already feel the gloom in it.

This is also enough to prove that George Han's Yin Qi absorption has also reached the extreme.

Therefore, from this point of view, Shengyuan is also very satisfied.

"Okay, yes, I like your state very much." He smiled, looked at George Han, and said, "Just rely on me to set up the barrier, you can also think that I am deliberately releasing water when you attack, so instead of this, it is better to rely on me. You, come and test yourself." 33 Novel Network

"Test yourself?" George Han was stunned.

"It can also be called, left and right fight!"

“Yes, fight each other, with your yang, fight your yin.”

“In this way, its forces are balanced, and at the same time , and can rely on yourself to form a strong opponent for yourself, such a test is naturally more real.”

“Now, the two forces attack each other, you can start George Han.”

He smiled lightly and looked at George Han. .

When it comes to doing this, although George Han people are confused, it is impossible to stop playing like this. Moreover

, what Sheng Yuan said is not without reason.

Thinking of this, George Han didn't talk nonsense, his hands suddenly converged, and suddenly, the power of yang and the power of yin in his left and right hands collided.

“Zi, Zi!”

Although both his left and right hands were controlled by himself, George Han naturally restrained in strength, but even so, when the two forces intersected, the friction between them increased sharply.

He could clearly feel how terrifying the mutual confrontation generated between the two at this time.

His left and right hands were almost completely bounced off by their mutual resistance.

George Han can even believe that as long as he vents the strength of both sides, this rebound can even directly turn his hands around for several thousand turns.

Seeing George Han's embarrassed appearance, Sheng Yuan laughed: “There is no doubt, if you rashly withdraw your force now, the explosive power generated by the confrontation between these two forces will not be free when you have no hands and no self-protection. Come on, you can be smashed directly into scum.”

“The Seventh Spirit Monkey can help you reforge once with its flesh, but that doesn't mean it can be reforged twice.”

“In other words, George Han, I can kill you with just one finger.”

“You bastard, come to fight me, do you think you can beat me?”

“Haha, hahaha .” Sheng Yuan laughed wildly, looking at George Han's eyes, also full of sinister at this time.

George Han was stunned for a moment.

“Hmph, do you think Bai taught you to teach you kung fu? It's just to let you end up in the bondage of the left and right. In this way, if I want to kill you, it will be easy.”

George Han was shocked.

His situation at this time is indeed a little embarrassing. If Sheng Yuan sneaks up, as he said, he really can't vacate his hands to deal with him in a short time.

And if you withdraw force rashly, the result you will face is to blow yourself up.

This old bastard!

"Okay, don't panic, don't worry, I'm just kidding you." Sheng Yuan laughed, and then he looked at George Han playfully: "I lost to you, and I have to find a way to get it back. Let's have some space, right?" This is not too much, right?"

As he finished speaking, his hand suddenly moved, and in George Han's surprised eyes, a direct burst of energy drew out the huge force in the yin-yang dispute in George Hanliang's hands, and pulled it forward.

Suddenly, the huge ball of energy gathered the friction of the power of yin and yang, and rushed forward abruptly.

"What are you doing, protect yourself." Sheng Yuan snorted lightly, and a burst of energy was directly on his body.

George Han also recovered his strength in a hurry, and reassembled his energy to form a protective shield on his body.

boom!

After the force flew straight for several thousand meters, it seemed to hit a certain boundary wall, and suddenly, a huge explosion also exploded.

The light instantly lit up the entire space, and the people of Yao couldn't open their eyes at all.

The entire underground space is also trembling frantically, and it seems to fall into a collapse at any time.

Even though George Han and Sheng Yuan had already opened the energy shield in advance, they could clearly see that the energy shield was constantly shattering in the face of the huge wind and waves of the explosion.

George Han and Sheng Yuan were also abruptly pushed back a few steps by this force, and then they barely stood firm.

"That is, in the Palace of the Sun God, if it is an ordinary underground pothole, it must collapse just now, what do you think, George Han?" Sheng Yuan laughed softly.

George Han didn't answer, his eyes stared at the direction of the explosion just now, his eyes widened in astonishment without even blinking.

Yes, George Han has to admit...

If this place is just an ordinary underground world, then this place must have disappeared completely.

He suddenly raised his hands and looked at them in disbelief.

“The power of yin and yang is just... so powerful?” He looked at Sheng Yuan.

However, at this time, Sheng Yuan shook his head and showed a strange smile: “Wrong, you are wrong.”

“Ah?”
