

Chapter 3632

All kinds of gas filled George Han's side, and the anti-Buddha made this place look like an extremely distorted and illusory world.

George Han tried to take a step forward, but found that he was actually stepping in the air, with light patterns rippling around his feet.

"It seems unremarkable, but in fact, there are murderous intentions everywhere. This gossip array is really not simple." George Han said with a wry smile.

At first glance, George Han already felt the extreme abnormality here, and the various crises hidden under the abnormality.

This is already so terrifying. If you simply want to break through the formation, it will be even more difficult to ascend to an immortal. Even a single word of tiger's mouth can't describe the risks involved.

"It's interesting." George Han smiled bitterly.

Fortunately, I have learned a lot of gossip from Qinglong, and now I have the two ceremonies taught by Shengyuan. Although caution and caution are inevitable, it is completely impossible to talk about worrying.

Thinking of this, the power of yin and yang on George Han's body dissipated directly from the inside, and walked quickly towards the dry position.

George Han walked more or less dashing and confidently.

This is the confidence that he has stock, wisdom, and finally condensed.

But on the contrary, the wooden house and bamboo house at this time are surrounded by heavy siege, and with the passage of time, the Mysterious Man Alliance is on the verge of collapse.

The death-defying stormtroopers headed by Mo Beitian were almost dead and wounded, leaving only the blood-covered Dao Twelve and Mo Yang with three or five scattered soldiers standing reluctantly.

On the opposite side of them, they were still surrounded by a large area of Wuyang.

The situation of the three young masters such as Yu is not very good. Master Lu has almost collapsed to the ground and has no fighting power. Although Zhu San swept away one piece, but because of its size and the target, he was stabbed out of his body. How many holes.

Young Master Yu's white clothes were already red, and blood dripped on the ground from the corners of his clothes.

Although his eyes were bloodthirsty and he was not angry, the right hand hidden behind him was already shaking slightly due to the lack of strength.

After a long time of consumption, and the number of enemies is too large, even if you have eaten several family-herited elixir in the middle, you can't stand such a consumption.

The situation on Ningyue and Qingji's side was not good at this time. Even if they made a vow not to give in an inch, they couldn't hold back the ferocity of the other party's firepower.

Now that the defense line is being eaten step by step, they can only be forced to retreat step by step.

Right now, half of the troops behind them have been forced into the wooden house, and once they all retreat, they will face the state of being caught by Weng Zhong.

The results at that time will inevitably be devastating.

But these things, they can only watch without the slightest ability to change.

Because at this time, many disciples of the Mysterious Man Alliance had been killed or injured in battle, and the losses were extremely heavy.

On the bamboo house side, although Amelia Su and Ziqing joined forces to kill the Quartet, they were obviously caught in a long tug of war amid the entanglement of many masters.

Although these masters have different hearts and are very afraid of death, after all, all of them are old fried dough sticks, experienced in hundreds of battles, and they are almost completely crushed compared to "" like Ziqing.

Although Amelia Su's combat experience is not comparable to them, but she is better because she is smart and can also gain the upper hand.

It's a pity that Qin Shuang, who is on her back, has become the biggest burden that drags her down at this moment.

So in this case, although the two women can kill the Quartet with the incredible exercises in their hands, it is still difficult to highlight the shameless delay encirclement formed by many masters.

Most of them used their experience to dodge and did not have any huge conflict with the two women, but if the two women wanted to break through to support the wooden house, they would join forces to attack.

After such a few rounds, the two women not only failed to break through, but also consumed a lot of physical strength and spiritual energy.

"Sister Amelia Su, what should we do now? If this continues, not only will we not have the ability to break through the encirclement, but we will be trapped for a long time, and will eventually be exhausted and die." Ziqing said worriedly.

Amelia Su raised her eyes and looked at the surrounding. She had already seen what Ziqing said, but the current situation is surrounded by points, what can she do?

Looking back at the dead Mysterious Man Alliance disciples, the corpses piled up like mountains and blood flowed into rivers. Amelia Su gritted her teeth and stopped suddenly. Then, she flew into the air alone...

She suddenly shouted angrily, her body suddenly diffused, and literally blasted all the people around her.

The entire surrounding ground was trembling, and only half of the bamboo house in the distance was completely collapsed in the shaking, setting off a burst of dust.

The huge shaking and Amelia Su’s thunderous drink made the battlefield on the other side of the wooden house suddenly stagnant for a moment, and they all looked back here.

Amelia Su stared straight at the stunning beauty who was sitting in the reserve army formation.

She knew that she was the supreme commander of the other party.

Sure enough, feeling Amelia Su’s eyes, the stunning beauty raised her hand slightly, and all the enemy troops stopped their hands in an instant.

She looked at Amelia Su lightly, as if waiting for Amelia Su to speak.

“If we continue to fight, we may be wiped out.

However, don’t think about being good alone, you have to leave a layer of skin if you don’t die. Do you agree with this statement?” Amelia Su said.

The stunning beauty smiled lightly and did not speak, but her blinking speed was also significantly slower.

This is enough to show that she somewhat agrees with Amelia Su’s words.

“In that case, I propose a truce.” Amelia Su said, looking unprepared.

“Joke, beautiful lady, you are afraid that your brain will be kicked by a donkey? Right now, we are going to join forces, but you are already defeated. What qualifications do you have to make peace with us?”

“Yes, there is only one outcome for you. Either surrender obediently, or be besieged and die by us, there is no other choice.”

“His grandma’s, it’s really funny. The loser and the Ying family have to negotiate the terms and conditions. This is probably the funniest joke I’ve ever heard in my life.”

Before the stunning beauty could speak, the masters were already one by one. The scrambled cynicism.

The stunning beauty looked at Amelia Su and smiled helplessly: “Miss Su, you have seen it too. Even if I want to, they may not want to.”

“George Han is not here.” Amelia Su said: “In other words, if you kill us, George Han may not be able to catch it. On the contrary, if he sees that we are all dead, he will definitely retaliate against you with death. This point, as his enemies, you should also be very aware of his personality. .” The stunning beauty nodded, she did not deny it.

“I’ll go with you, let go of the other people here, George Han will still come to save me, but he has obvious weaknesses in your hands, and the offensive will naturally weaken.”

“A George Han who is full of revenge and kills red eyes Qian and George Han, who you have a handle on, choose one of the two, I believe this is an extremely simple choice, right?” Amelia Su laughed softly.

“No, Sister Amelia Su, no, even if Ziqing dies in battle, you will never fall into the hands of others.” Ziqing shook her head resolutely after hearing this.

Instead of living under pain and guilt, it is better to fight to the death. At least when they meet in the underworld in the future, she can pat her chest and tell anyone, including George Han, that her purple love has never failed anyone.

“Hmph, special envoy of Shenlong, what about her. We can kill them, and then catch Amelia Su. At the same time, we can also hold George Han’s handle at the same time, wouldn’t it be better?”

“Say That’s right, special envoy of Shenlong, we don’t need to talk nonsense with them, they are just a battle of trapped beasts, and they won’t last long.”

Several

experts immediately dismissed Amelia Su’s remarks.

Amelia Su did not panic at all, looked at the stunning beauty indifferently, and smiled slightly: “Are you sure you can capture me alive before I commit suicide?”

As soon as these words came out, the stunning beauty who had been staring at Amelia Su suddenly smiled: “Good, good, good, such a good Amelia Su, it really is a real dragon and a phoenix, George Han is brave, and her wife is also smart.”

“In such a difficult situation, you can also turn me into an army, which is interesting.” He smiled slightly, then, in the face of a situation where many experts wanted to speak out, he raised his hand slightly to signal them to shut up, looked at Amelia Su, said indifferently, “Okay, Amelia Su, I can do your request. Promise, but it will be halved.”

“Half?” Amelia Su frowned slightly, not knowing why.
