

Chapter 3642

Is this the power of the special envoy of Shenlong?

Is this the strength of the special envoy of Shenlong?

It seems that she only needs to move a little, and she can burst into endless power, and she can destroy the whole world with one hand.

Horror, unusually terrifying, tyrannical to the point of almost suffocating.

“Be careful.”

Shi Yu rushed to the front, and after all, she was one of Ningyue’s favorite apprentices, and her cultivation was obviously higher than that of other apprentices. She responded quickly and her energy was even greater. In addition, with the help of Amelia Su, she hurriedly supported her. After putting up an energy shield, he barely escaped this nightmarish move.

But even so, when she looked back at the person who was charging behind her, it completely vanished, and she couldn’t help being stunned and full of shock and sadness.

Because, obviously, it was her impulsive impulse that led to the disappearance of her junior sisters and some brothers of the Mysterious Man Alliance from this world.

She was indignant and sad, and her entire back molars clucked.

“What are you still doing, let’s go!” The pangolin shouted urgently. When Shi Yu launched the attack, he was actually ready to run away.

At this time, he was really able to make a big move, and everything was ready. As soon as he grabbed Amelia Su in his hand, he quickly swept away the poems, and went straight to the ground.

His speed was extremely fast, and with his preparations, he entered the ground almost in the blink of an eye and completely disappeared in front of everyone.

Zhu Yanshuo was immediately anxious, but he had no choice but to be anxious when he entered the soil.

It was a stunning beauty, who did not panic at all. She moved her hands, and then her body flew up like a fairy. After that, several water circles in her hands surrounded her around her body.

The water circle formed a weird track in front of her and moved. The next second, with her light tap, the water circle spread out from all directions and quickly slapped towards the ground.

Whoa whoa whoa!

The surrounding ground, water circles entered one after another.

Under the ground, the group of four finally couldn’t help but let out a sigh of relief. Entering the ground meant that they were basically safe, and their mentality finally loosened a lot from the tight string.

Although the poetry was a bit reckless, it bought the pangolin a lot of time after all, and successfully attracted the attention of the stunning beauty.

Otherwise, if she wants to escape directly under her nose, the pangolin believes that it is unlikely that she can do it by herself.

Thinking of this, looking at Shi Yu who was depressed and deeply regretful, the pangolin said comfortably, "Don't be too sad, they didn't sacrifice in vain, at least they brought us safety."

Shi Yu

was still sad, after all, she never thought about it. You will cause so many people to be wiped out in an instant.

However, the pangolin's words gave her great comfort, at least it wouldn't make her feel too guilty.

Amelia Su also patted her shoulder gently and nodded at her.

Poetry has completely stabilized the mood.

"Everyone is ready, I'm going to speed up." The pangolin shouted urgently, and the next second, his body suddenly burst out, and the speed of the three people was also skyrocketing.

The ground is its territory, and in this environment, it is like a duck to water!

With the acceleration of pangolins, Amelia Su and Shiyu also instantly realized what speed and passion are.

This situation lasted for about less than three seconds, and suddenly, the eyes suddenly became bright, and the people who were almost stabbed in this dark space could not open their eyes. There seems to be something big in front of you lying on the road. At this time, they wanted to brake, but it was too late. "Hold on to me." The pangolin shouted in a hurry. The only thing he could do now was to aim the hedgehog at the obstacle and try his best to protect everyone's safety. "Wow!" Along with pangolins and others, they collided with it! A loud bang followed. However, there was no rumbling as expected. On the contrary, it was... a strange, huge sound of water! The four Anti-Buddha people fell from a height of 100 meters, or fell into a pool at a speed of 100 meters, or rushed into a pool, setting off countless waves and a huge sound of water... That bright white thing is also rippling. After a slight ripple, the light suddenly disappeared and disappeared into the ground several meters deep. "Wow!" There was another sound of water, and a group of four suddenly rushed out...

Chapter 3643

"Bang!"

As the four rushed out, and then showed a parabolic fall, this time, the imaginary bang was the only sound come behind.

Three of the four adults suddenly fell in pain, but Han Nian, who was hugged tightly, only felt dizzy.

However, the three adults didn't have time to take care of the pain on their bodies, and opened their eyes to look around in a hurry, but the surrounding environment made them far more frightened and shocked than the pain.

Blue sky, green grass, white clouds!

As well as countless types of debris, corpses, and even blood that formed countless small streams.

They...

went back to where they left off!

Not far from them, there was a water circle volleying into the sky.

What they can confirm is that just now, after they hit the extremely bright thing, they rushed out of again, and then hit the ground heavily.

Almost exactly the same as the original.

These water circle anti-Buddhas can change the terrain and space at will, and once you enter, you will be completely controlled by it!

However, what made Amelia Su feel the most terrifying was not this, but...

deja vu.

Thinking of this, she suddenly looked at the stunning beauty wearing a veil.

Although the veil blocked most of her face, she could only see her beautiful eyes, but with these eyes alone, Amelia Su seemed to feel more and more that she felt right.

"Hahaha, run, run, keep running."

Seeing Amelia Su and his party of four leaving and returning, Zhu Yanshuo, who was still extremely worried, was not only relieved at this time, but also made fun of him meaning.

He was completely convinced by Elder Shenlong's ability, even if these guys got into the ground and ran so far, they could actually take them back directly.

This kind of skill is simply incredible.

These four guys looked like ants in her hands, but they were just playing around and manipulating them at will!

"Do you want me to help you beg our special envoy of Shenlong to give you one more chance and let you escape again?" Zhu Yanshuo sneered.

As soon as the voice fell, the people around him couldn't help laughing.

"I'm afraid that after running a few more times, some chickens will drown alive."

"Haha, even if you don't drown, I'm afraid they will die because of the aggravation of typhoid."

A group of men also burst into laughter. Especially looking at the four people going back and forth in the water twice, almost like a slumped chicken, it is even more self-consciously funny.

“Shenlong Special Envoy?” Amelia Su sneered slightly, but her eyes were fixed on the stunning beauty.

It seems that Amelia Su has already discovered something.

The stunning beauty also felt Amelia Su’s gaze, she also stared at Amelia Su lightly, and neither of them seemed willing to lose to the other when their eyes met.

But after this kind of staring lasted for about five or six seconds, there was an instant dodging and retreating in the eyes of the stunning beauty. Although it was not easy to detect, Amelia Su saw it in his eyes and had a clear answer in his heart. .

Thinking of this, Amelia Su smiled bitterly: “From the beginning to the present, I have never doubted you, and even I once felt guilty that it was me who dragged you down.”

“But thank you for giving me a real answer. At least my guilt has vanished at this moment.”

“I’m afraid Amelia Su has really caught the cold and is confused? Can someone tell me what she’s talking about? What?” Zhu Yanshuo said coldly.

Amelia Su didn’t respond, just looked at the stunning beauty lightly: “You know what I said, don’t you?”
The

stunning beauty conceded, she withdrew her eyes, she should have fought back with anger, but she knew , In front of a smart woman like Amelia Su, these conceited actions will only make her more sure of her thoughts.

She simply smiled: “Amelia Su, you talk too much.” In the next second, she slowly raised her hand again, black energy gathered in her hand again, and her eyes were filled with cold and calm killing intent...
